Preface

AionianBible.org/Preface

The Holy Bible Aionian Edition ® is the world's first Bible un-translation! What is an un-translation? Bibles are translated into each of our languages from the original Hebrew, Aramaic, and Koine Greek. Occasionally, the best word translation cannot be found and these words are transliterated letter by letter. Four well known transliterations are Christ, baptism, angel, and apostle. The meaning is then preserved more accurately through context and a dictionary. The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven additional Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

The first three words are aiōn, aiōnios, and aīdios, typically translated as eternal and also world or eon. The Aionian Bible is named after an alternative spelling of aiōnios. Consider that researchers question if aiōn and aiōnios actually mean eternal. Translating aiōn as eternal in Matthew 28:20 makes no sense, as all agree. The Greek word for eternal is aīdios, used in Romans 1:20 about God and in Jude 6 about demon imprisonment. Yet what about aiōnios in John 3:16? Certainly we do not question whether salvation is eternal! However, aiōnios means something much more wonderful than infinite time! Ancient Greeks used aiōn to mean eon or age. They also used the adjective aiōnios to mean entirety, such as complete or even consummate, but never infinite time. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs. So aiōnios is the perfect description of God's Word which has everything we need for life and godliness! And the aiōnios life promised in John 3:16 is not simply a ticket to eternal life in the future, but the invitation through faith to the consummate life beginning now!

The next seven words are Sheol, Hadēs, Geenna, Tartaroō, Abyssos, and Limnē Pyr. These words are often translated as Hell, the place of eternal punishment. However, Hell is ill-defined when compared with the Hebrew and Greek. For example, Sheol is the abode of deceased believers and unbelievers and should never be translated as Hell. Hadēs is a temporary place of punishment, Revelation 20:13-14. Geenna is the Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's refuse dump, a temporal judgment for sin. Tartaroō is a prison for demons, mentioned once in 2 Peter 2:4. Abyssos is a temporary prison for the Beast and Satan. Translators are also inconsistent because Hell is used by the King James Version 54 times, the New International Version 14 times, and the World English Bible zero times. Finally, Limnē Pyr is the Lake of Fire, yet Matthew 25:41 explains that these fires are prepared for the Devil and his angels. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The eleventh word, eleēsē, reveals the grand conclusion of grace in Romans 11:32. Please understand these eleven words. The original translation is unaltered and a highlighted note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. To help parallel study and Strong's Concordance use, apocryphal text is removed and most variant verse numbering is mapped to the English standard. NEW TESTAMENT

The Crucifixion

*And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they have not known what they do";
and parting His garments they cast a lot.*

Luke 23:34

1 [The] scroll of the birth of Jesus Christ, Son of David, Son of Abraham. 2 Abraham begot Isaac, and Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers, 3 and Judah begot Perez and Zerah of Tamar, and Perez begot Hezron, and Hezron begot Ram, 4 and Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon, and Nahshon begot Salmon, 5 and Salmon begot Boaz of Rahab, and Boaz begot Obed of Ruth, and Obed begot Jesse, 6 and Jesse begot David the king. And David the king begot Solomon, of her [who had been] Uriah's, 7 and Solomon begot Rehoboam, and Rehoboam begot Abijah, and Abijah begot Asa, 8 and Asa begot Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat begot Joram, and Joram begot Uzziah, 9 and Uzziah begot Jotham, and Jotham begot Ahaz, and Ahaz begot Hezekiah, 10 and Hezekiah begot Manasseh, and Manasseh begot Amon, and Amon begot Josiah, 11 and Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers, at the Babylonian removal. 12 And after the Babylonian removal, Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel, 13 and Zerubbabel begot Abiud, and Abiud begot Eliakim, and Eliakim begot Azor, 14 and Azor begot Sadok, and Sadok begot Achim, and Achim begot Eliud, 15 and Eliud begot Eleazar, and Eleazar begot Matthan, and Matthan begot Jacob, 16 and Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was begotten Jesus, who is named Christ. 17 All the generations, therefore, from Abraham to David [are] fourteen generations, and from David to the Babylonian removal fourteen generations, and from the Babylonian removal to the Christ, fourteen generations. 18 And of Jesus Christ, the birth was thus: for His mother Mary having been betrothed to Joseph, before their coming together she was found to have conceived from the Holy Spirit, 19 and her husband Joseph being righteous, and not willing to make her an example, resolved to send her away privately. 20 And on his thinking of these things, behold, a messenger of the LORD appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, you may not fear to receive your wife Mary, for that which was begotten in her is of [the] Holy Spirit, 21 and she will bring forth a Son, and you will call His Name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins." 22 And all this has come to pass, that it may be fulfilled that was spoken by the LORD through the prophet, saying, 23 "Behold, the virgin will conceive, and she will bring forth a Son, and they will call His Name Emmanuel," which is, being interpreted, "God with us." 24 And Joseph, having risen from sleep, did as the messenger of the LORD directed him, and received his wife, 25 and did not know her until she brought forth her Son—the firstborn, and he called His Name Jesus.

2 And Jesus having been born in Beth-Lehem of Judea, in the days of Herod the king, behold, magi from the east came to Jerusalem, 2 saying, "Where is He who was born King of the Jews? For we saw His star in the east, and we came to worship Him." 3 And Herod the king having heard, was stirred, and all Jerusalem with him, 4 and having gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he was inquiring from them where the Christ is born. 5 And they said to him, "In Beth-Lehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: 6 And you, Beth-Lehem, the land of Judah, you are by no means the least among the leaders of Judah, for out of you will come One leading, who will feed My people Israel." 7 Then Herod, having called the magi privately, inquired exactly from them the time of the appearing star, 8 and having sent them to Beth-Lehem, he said, "Having gone— inquire exactly for the Child, and whenever you may have found, bring me back word, that I also having come may worship Him." 9 And they, having heard the king, departed, and behold, the star, that they saw in the east, went before them, until, having come, it stood over where the Child was. 10 And having seen the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy, 11 and having come into the house, they found the Child with His mother Mary, and having fallen down they worshiped Him, and having opened their treasures, they presented to Him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh, 12 and having been divinely warned in a dream not to return to Herod, through another way they withdrew to their own region. 13 And on their having withdrawn, behold, a messenger of the LORD appears in a dream to Joseph, saying, "Having risen, take the Child and His mother, and flee to Egypt, and be there until I may speak to you, for Herod is about to seek the Child to destroy Him." 14 And he, having risen, took the Child and His mother by night, and withdrew to Egypt, 15 and he was there until the death of Herod, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken by the LORD through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt I called My Son." 16 Then Herod, having seen that he was deceived by the magi, was very angry, and having sent forth, he slew all the male children in Beth-Lehem, and in all its borders, from two years and under, according to the time that he inquired exactly from the magi. 17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "A voice in Ramah was heard—weeping and much mourning—Rachel weeping [for] her children, and she said, 'I have need to be immersed by You—and would not be comforted because they are not.' 18 Jesus comes from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to appear in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 saying, 'Having risen, take the Child and His mother, and come to the land of Israel, 22 and having heard that Archelaus reigns over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and having been divinely warned in a dream, he withdrew to the parts of Galilee, 23 and coming, he dwelt in a city named Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the Prophets, that "He will be called a Nazarene."

4 Then Jesus was led up to the wilderness by the Spirit, to be tempted by the Devil, 2 and having fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He hungered. 3 And the tempting [one], having come to Him, said, "If You are the Son of God—speak that these stones may become loaves." 4 But He

3 And in those days John the Immerser comes, proclaiming in the wilderness of Judea, 2 and answering said, "Convert, for the kingdom of the heavens has come near," 3 for this is he having been spoken of by Isaiah the prophet, saying, "A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, Make His paths straight." 4 And this John had his clothing of camel's hair, and a girdle of skin around his loins, and his nourishment was locusts and honey of the field. 5 Then were going forth to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region around the Jordan, 6 and they were immersed in the Jordan by him, confessing their sins. 7 And having seen many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming about his immersion, he said to them, "Brood of vipers! Who showed you to me? 8 Bear, therefore, fruits worthy of conversion, 9 and do not think to say in "Go—Satan, for it has been written: You will worship yourselves, We have a father—Abraham, for I say to you that God is able to raise children to Abraham out of these stones, 10 and now also, the axe is laid to the root of the trees, therefore, every tree not bearing good fruit is cut down, and is cast into fire. 11 I indeed immerse you in water for conversion, but He who will gather His wheat into the storehouse, but He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire." 13 Then was spoken by John the Baptist, saying, "I have need to be immersed by You—and would not be comforted because they are not." 14 But John was forbidding Him, saying, "I have need to be immersed by You—and would not be comforted because they are not." 15 And John was forbidding Him, saying, "I have need to be immersed by You—and would not be comforted because they are not." 16 But Jesus answering said to him, "Permit [it] now, for thus it is fitting to us to appear in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 saying, 'Having risen, take the Child and His mother, and came to the land of Israel, 22 and having heard that Archelaus reigns over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and having been divinely warned in a dream, he withdrew to the parts of Galilee, 23 and coming, he dwelt in a city named Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the Prophets, that "He will be called a Nazarene."

Then the Devil leaves Him, and behold, messengers will see God. 9 Blessed the peacemakers—because came and were ministering to Him. 12 And Jesus, they will be called sons of God. 10 Blessed those having heard that John was delivered up, withdrew to persecuted for righteousness' sake—because theirs Galilee, 13 and having left Nazareth, having come, is the kingdom of the heavens. 11 Blessed are you He dwelt at Capernaum that is by the sea, in the whenever they may reproach you, and may persecute, borders of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 that it might be and may say any evil thing against you falsely for My fulfilled that was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, sake— 12 rejoice and be glad, because your reward saying, 15 “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, [is] great in the heavens, for thus they persecuted the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the prophets who were before you. 13 You are the salt of nations! 16 The people that is sitting in darkness the earth, but if the salt may lose savor, in what will it saw a great light, and to those sitting in a region and be salted? It is good for nothing from now on, except shadow of death—light arose to them.” 17 From that to be cast outside, and to be trodden down by men. 14 time Jesus began to proclaim and to say, “Convert, You are the light of the world, a city set on a mountain for the kingdom of the heavens has come near.” 18 is not able to be hid; 15 nor do they light a lamp and And Jesus, walking by the Sea of Galilee, saw two put it under the measure, but on the lampstand, and brothers, Simon named Peter and his brother Andrew, it shines to all those in the house; 16 so let your casting a drag into the sea—for they were fishers— light shine before men, that they may see your good 19 and He says to them, “Come after Me, and I will works, and may glorify your Father who [is] in the make you fishers of men,” 20 and they, immediately, heavens. 17 Do not suppose that I came to throw having left the nets, followed Him. 21 And having down the Law or the Prophets—I did not come to advanced from there, He saw two other brothers, throw down, but to fulfill; 18 for truly I say to you, until James of Zebedee, and his brother John, in the boat the heaven and the earth may pass away, one iota or with their father Zebedee, refitting their nets, and He one title may not pass away from the Law, until all called them, 22 and they, immediately, having left the may come to pass. 19 Therefore whoever may loose boat and their father, followed Him. 23 And Jesus was one of these commands—the least—and may teach going in all of Galilee teaching in their synagogues, men so, he will be called least in the kingdom of the and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and heavens, but whoever may do and may teach [them], healing every disease and every sickness among he will be called great in the kingdom of the heavens. the people, 24 and His fame went forth to all Syria, 20 For I say to you that if your righteousness may not and they brought to Him all the ill having manifold abound above that of the scribes and Pharisees, you oppressing diseases and torments—and demoniacs, may not enter into the kingdom of the heavens. 21 and lunatics, and paralytics—and He healed them. You heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not 25 And there followed Him many multitudes from Galilee, and Decapolis, and Jerusalem, and Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

5 And having seen the multitudes, He went up to the mountain, and He having sat down, His disciples came to Him, 2 and having opened His mouth, He was teaching them, saying, 3 “Blessed the poor in spirit—because theirs is the kingdom of the heavens. 4 Blessed the mourning—because they will be comforted. 5 Blessed the meek—because they will inherit the land. 6 Blessed those hungering and thirsting for righteousness—because they will be filled. 7 Blessed the kind—because they will find kindness. 8 Blessed the clean in heart—because they who is angry at his brother without cause will be in danger of the judgment, and whoever may say to his brother, Stupid, will be in danger of the Sanhedrin, and whoever may say, Moron, will be in danger of the Gehenna of fire. (Geenna g1067) 23 If, therefore, you may bring your gift to the altar, and there may remember that your brother has anything against you, 24 leave there your gift before the altar, and go—first be reconciled to your brother, and then having come, bring your gift. 25 Be agreeing with your opponent quickly, while you are in the way with him, that the opponent may not deliver you to the judge, and the judge may deliver you to the officer, and you may be cast into prison; 26 truly I say to you, you may not come forth from there until you may pay the last penny. 27 You heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not commit adultery; 28 but I say to you that everyone who is looking on a woman to desire her, already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 But if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and cast from you, for it is good to you that one of your members may perish, and not your whole body be cast into Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 30 And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off, and cast from you, for it is good to you that one of your members may perish, and not your whole body be cast into Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 31 And it was said that, Whoever may put away his wife, let him give to her a writing of divorce; 32 but I say to you that whoever may put away his wife, except for the matter of whoredom, makes her to commit adultery; and whoever may marry her who has been put away commits adultery. 33 Again, you heard that it was said to the ancients: You will not swear falsely, but you will pay to the LORD your oaths; 34 but I say to you not to swear at all; neither by Heaven, because it is the throne of God, 35 nor by the earth, because it is His footstool, nor by Jerusalem, because it is [the] city of [the] great King, 36 nor may you swear by your head, because you are not able to make one hair white or black; 37 but let your word be, Yes, Yes, No, No, and that which is more than these is of the evil [one]. 38 You heard that it was said: Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth; 39 but I say to you not to resist the evil, but whoever will slap you on your right cheek, turn to him also the other; 40 and whoever is willing to take you to law, and to take your coat—also permit to him the cloak. 41 And whoever will impress you one mile, go with him two; 42 to him who is asking of you be giving, and him who is willing to borrow from you, you may not turn away. 43 You heard that it was said: You will love your neighbor, and will hate your enemy; 44 but I say to you, love your enemies, bless those cursing you, do good to those hating you, and pray for those accusing you falsely, and persecuting you, 45 that you may be sons of your Father in the heavens, because He causes His sun to rise on evil and good, and He sends rain on righteous and unrighteous. 46

For if you may love those loving you, what reward do you have? Do the tax collectors not also do the same? 47 And if you may greet your brothers only, what do you do abundant? Do the nations not also do so? 48 You will therefore be perfect, as your Father who [is] in the heavens is perfect."

6 "Take heed not to do your kindness before men, to be seen by them, and if not—you have no reward from your Father who [is] in the heavens; 2 whenever, therefore, you may do kindness, you may not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do, in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory from men; truly I say to you, they have their reward! 3 But you, doing kindness, do not let your left hand know what your right hand does, 4 that your kindness may be in secret, and your Father who is seeing in secret will reward you Himself. 5 And when you may pray, you will not be as the hypocrites, because they cherish to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the broad places, that they may be seen of men; truly I say to you that they have their reward. 6 But you, when you may pray, go into your chamber, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who [is] in secret, and your Father who is seeing in secret will reward you. 7 And—praying—you may not use vain repetitions like the nations, for they think that in their speaking much they will be heard, 8 therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows those things that you have need of before your asking Him; 9 therefore pray thus: Our Father who [is] in the heavens, hallowed be Your Name. 10 Your kingdom come, Your will come to pass, as in Heaven also on the earth. 11 Give us today our appointed bread. 12 And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. 13 And may You not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil [one], because Yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory—for all ages. Amen. 14 For if you may forgive men their trespasses He also will forgive you—your Father who [is] in the heavens; 15 but if you may not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. 16 And when you may fast, do not be as the hypocrites, of sour countenances, for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear to men fasting; truly I say to you that they have their reward. 17 But you, fasting, anoint

your head, and wash your face, 18 that you may not your brother's eye, and do not consider the beam appear to men fasting, but to your Father who [is] that [is] in your own eye? 4 Or, how will you say to in secret, and your Father, who is seeing in secret, your brother, Permit [that] I may cast out the speck will reward you. 19 Do not treasure up to yourselves from your eye, and behold, the beam [is] in your own treasures on the earth, where moth and rust disfigure, eye? 5 Hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of your and where thieves break through and steal, 20 but own eye, and then you will see clearly to cast out treasure up to yourselves treasures in Heaven, where the speck out of your brother's eye. 6 You may not neither moth nor rust disfigure, and where thieves give that which is [holy] to the dogs, nor cast your do not break through nor steal, 21 for where your pearls before the pigs, that they may not trample treasure is, there will your heart be also. 22 The lamp them among their feet, and having turned—may tear of the body is the eye, if, therefore, your eye may be you apart. 7 Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, perfect, all your body will be enlightened, 23 but if and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you; your eye may be evil, all your body will be dark; if, 8 for everyone who is asking receives, and he who is therefore, the light that [is] in you is darkness—the seeking finds, and to him who is knocking it will be darkness, how great! 24 None is able to serve two opened. 9 Or what man is of you, of whom, if his lords, for either he will hate the one and love the other, son may ask [for] a loaf—a stone will he present to or he will hold to the one, and despise the other; you him? 10 And if he may ask [for] a fish—a serpent will are not able to serve God and wealth. 25 Because he present to him? 11 If, therefore, you being evil, of this I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, have known to give good gifts to your children, how what you may eat, and what you may drink, nor for much more will your Father who [is] in the heavens your body, what you may put on. Is not life more than give good things to those asking Him? 12 All things, nourishment, and the body than clothing? 26 Look to therefore, whatever you may will that men may be the birds of the sky, for they do not sow, nor reap, nor doing to you, so also do to them, for this is the Law gather into storehouses, and your heavenly Father and the Prophets. 13 Go in through the narrow gate, nourishes them; are you not much better than they? because wide [is] the gate and broad the way that 27 And who of you, being anxious, is able to add to is leading to the destruction, and many are those his age one cubit? 28 And why are you anxious about going in through it; 14 how narrow [is] the gate and clothing? Consider well the lilies of the field; how do compressed the way that is leading to life, and few they grow? They do not labor, nor do they spin; 29 are those finding it! 15 But take heed of the false and I say to you that not even Solomon in all his prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, and glory was clothed as one of these. 30 And if the herb inwardly are ravenous wolves. 16 From their fruits you of the field, that today is, and tomorrow is cast into will know them; do [men] gather grapes from thorns? the furnace, God so clothes—not much more you, Or figs from thistles? 17 So every good tree yields O you of little faith? 31 Therefore you may not be good fruits, but the bad tree yields evil fruits. 18 A anxious, saying, What may we eat? Or, What may we good tree is not able to yield evil fruits, nor a bad tree drink? Or, [With] what may we be clothed? 32 For the to yield good fruits. 19 Every tree not yielding good nations seek for all these, for your heavenly Father fruit is cut down and is cast into fire: 20 therefore knows that you have need of all these; 33 but seek from their fruits you will know them. 21 Not everyone first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, and who is saying to Me, Lord, Lord, will come into the all these will be added to you. 34 Therefore do not be kingdom of the heavens, but he who is doing the anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for will of My Father who is in the heavens. 22 Many its own things; sufficient for the day [is] the evil of it."

7 "Do not judge, that you may not be judged, 2 for in what judgment you judge, you will be judged, and in what measure you measure, it will be measured to you. 3 And why do you behold the speck that [is] in working lawlessness. 24 Therefore, everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, I will liken him to a wise man who built his house on the rock; 25 and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock. 26 And everyone who is hearing these words of Mine, and is not doing them, will be likened to a foolish man who built his house on the sand; 27 and the rain descended, and the streams came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it fell, and its fall was great." 28 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these words, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching, 29 for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes.

14 And Jesus having come into the house of Peter, saw his mother-in-law laid, and fevered, 15 and arose, and was ministering to them. 16 And evening having come, they brought to Him many demoniacs, spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, "He took our sicknesses Himself, and bore the diseases." 18 And Jesus having seen great multitudes around Him, commanded to depart to the other side; 19 and a certain scribe having come, said to Him, "Teacher, I will follow You wherever You may go"; 20 and Jesus says to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky places of rest, but the Son of Man has nowhere He may lay the head." 21 And another of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, permit me first to depart and to bury my father"; 22 and Jesus said to him, "Follow Me, and permit the dead to bury their own dead." 23 And when He entered into the boat His disciples followed Him, 24 and behold, a great storm arose in the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves, but He was sleeping, 25 and His disciples having come to Him, awoke Him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!" 26 And He says to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then having risen, He rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm; 27 and the men wondered, saying, "What kind—is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?" 28 And He having come to the other side, to the region of the Gergesenes, there met Him two demoniacs, coming forth out of the tombs, very fierce, so that no one was able to pass over by that way, 29 and behold, they cried out, saying, "What [regards] us and You, [[Jesus,]] Son of God? Did You come here to afflict us before the time?" 30 And there was a herd of many pigs feeding far off from them, 31 and the demons were calling on Him, saying, "If You cast us forth, permit us to go away into the herd of the pigs"; 32 and He says to them, "Go." And having come forth, they went into the herd of the pigs, and behold, the whole herd of the pigs rushed down the steep, into the sea, and died in the waters, 33 and those feeding fled, and having gone into the city, they declared all, and the matter of the demoniacs. 34 And behold, all the city came forth

8 And when He came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him, 2 and behold, a leper having come, was prostrating to Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You are able to cleanse me"; 3 and having stretched forth the hand, Jesus touched him, saying, "I will, be cleansed," and immediately his leprosy was cleansed. 4 And Jesus says to him, "See, you may tell no one, but go, show yourself to the priest, and bring the gift that Moses commanded for a testimony to them." 5 And Jesus having entered into Capernaum, there came to Him a centurion calling on Him, 6 and saying, "Lord, my young man has been laid in the house a paralytic, fearfully afflicted," 7 and Jesus says to him, "I, having come, will heal him." 8 And the centurion answering said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You may enter under my roof, but only say a word, and my servant will be healed; 9 for I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers, and I say to this one, Go, and he goes, and to another, Be coming, and he comes, and to my servant, Do this, and he does [it]." 10 And Jesus having heard, wondered, and said to those following, "Truly I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith; 11 and I say to you that many from east and west will come and recline with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of the heavens, 12 but the sons of the kingdom will be cast forth into the outer darkness—there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth." 13 And Jesus said to the centurion, "Go, and as you believed let it be to you"; and his young man was healed in that to meet Jesus, and having seen Him, they called on [Him] that He might depart from their borders.

9 And having gone into the boat, He passed over, and came to His own city, 2 and behold, they were bringing to Him a paralytic, laid on a bed, and Jesus having seen their faith, said to the paralytic, "Take courage, child, your sins have been forgiven." 3 And behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, "This One speaks evil." 4 And Jesus, having known their thoughts, said, "Why think evil in your hearts? 5 For which is easier? To say, Your sins are forgiven; or to say, Rise and walk? 6 But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on the earth to forgive sins—(then He says to the paralytic)—Having risen, take up your bed, and go to your house." 7 And he, having risen, went to his house, 8 and the multitudes having seen, wondered, and glorified God, who gave such power to men. 9 And Jesus passing on from there saw a man sitting at the tax office named Matthew, and says to him, "Follow Me," and he, having risen, followed Him. 10 And it came to pass, He reclining in the house, that behold, many tax collectors and sinners having come, were dining with Jesus and His disciples, 11 and the Pharisees having seen, said to His disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with the tax collectors and sinners?" 12 And Jesus having heard, said to them, "They who are whole have no need of a physician, but they who are ill; 13 but having gone, learn what [this] is: Kindness I will, and not sacrifice; for I did not come to call righteous men, but sinners." 14 Then the disciples of John come to Him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast much, and Your disciples do not fast?" 15 And Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bride-chamber mourn, so long as the bridegroom is with them? But days will come when the bridegroom may be taken from them, and then they will fast. 16 And no one puts a patch of undressed cloth on an old garment, for its filling up takes from the garment, and a worse split is made. 17 Nor do they put new wine into old skins, and if not—the skins burst, and the wine runs out, and the skins are destroyed, but they put new wine into new skins, and both are preserved together." 18 While He is speaking these things to them, behold, a ruler having come, was prostrating to Him, saying that "My daughter just now died, but having come, lay

Your hand on her, and she will live." 19 And Jesus having risen, followed him, also His disciples, 20 and behold, a woman having a flow of blood [for] twelve years, having come to Him behind, touched the fringe of His garments, 21 for she said within herself, "If only I may touch His garment, I will be saved." 22 And Jesus having turned, and having seen her, said, "Take courage, daughter, your faith has saved you," and the woman was saved from that hour. 23 And Jesus having come into the house of the ruler, and having seen the pipers and the multitude making tumult, 24 He says to them, "Withdraw, for the girl did not die, but sleeps," and they were deriding Him; 25 but when the multitude was put forth, having gone in, He took hold of her hand, and the girl arose, 26 and the fame of this went forth to all the land. 27 And Jesus passing on from there, two blind men followed Him, calling and saying, "Deal kindly with us, Son of David!" 28 And He having come into the house, the blind men came to Him, and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They say to Him, "Yes, Lord." 29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you," 30 and their eyes were opened, and Jesus strictly charged them, saying, "See, let no one know"; 31 but they, having gone forth, spread His fame in all that land. 32 And as they are coming forth, behold, they brought to Him a man mute, a demoniac, 33 and the demon having been cast out, the mute spoke, and the multitude wondered, saying that "It was never so seen in Israel," 34 but the Pharisees said, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out the demons." 35 And Jesus was going up and down all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. 36 And having seen the multitudes, He was moved with compassion for them, that they were faint and cast aside, as sheep not having a shepherd; 37 then He says to His disciples, "The harvest indeed [is] abundant, but the workmen few; 38 therefore implore the Lord of the harvest that He may put forth workmen to His harvest."

10 And having called His twelve disciples to Himself, He gave to them power over unclean spirits, so as to be casting them out, and to be healing every disease and every sickness. 2 And of the twelve apostles the names are these: first, Simon, the cities of Israel until the Son of Man may come. who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James 24 A disciple is not above the teacher, nor a servant of Zebedee, and his brother John; 3 Philip, and above his lord; 25 sufficient to the disciple that he Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; may be as his teacher, and the servant as his lord; if James of Alpheus, and Lebbeus who was surnamed the master of the house they called Beelzebul, how Thaddeus; 4 Simon the Zealot, and Judas Iscariot, much more those of his household? 26 You may not, who also delivered Him up. 5 These twelve Jesus therefore, fear them, for there is nothing covered that sent forth, having given command to them, saying, will not be revealed, and hid that will not be known; "Do not go away to the way of the nations, and do not 27 that which I tell you in the darkness, speak in the go into a city of the Samaritans, 6 and be going rather light, and that which you hear at the ear, proclaim on to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. 7 And going the housetops. 28 And do not be afraid of those killing on, proclaim, saying that the kingdom of the heavens the body, and are not able to kill the soul, but rather has come near; 8 be healing [those] ailing, raising the fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in dead, cleansing lepers, casting out demons—freely Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 29 Are not two sparrows sold you received, freely give. 9 Do not provide gold, nor for an assarion? And one of them will not fall on the silver, nor brass in your girdles, 10 nor leather pouch ground without your Father; 30 and of you—even the for the way, nor two coats, nor sandals, nor staff—for hairs of the head are all numbered; 31 therefore, do the workman is worthy of his nourishment. 11 And not be afraid, you are better than many sparrows. 32 into whatever city or village you may enter, inquire Everyone, therefore, who will confess in Me before who in it is worthy, and abide there, until you may go men, I also will confess in him before My Father who forth. 12 And coming into the house greet it, 13 and if is in the heavens; 33 and whoever will deny Me before indeed the house is worthy, let your peace come on men, I also will deny him before My Father who is in it; and if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. the heavens. 34 You may not suppose that I came to 14 And whoever may not receive you nor hear your put peace on the earth; I did not come to put peace, words, coming forth from that house or city, shake off but a sword; 35 for I came to set a man at variance the dust of your feet, 15 truly I say to you, it will be against his father, and a daughter against her mother, more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, 36 in the day of judgment than for that city. 16 Behold, and the enemies of a man are those of his household. I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves, 37 He who is cherishing father or mother above Me, therefore be wise as the serpents, and pure as the is not worthy of Me, and he who is cherishing son doves. 17 And take heed of men, for they will give or daughter above Me, is not worthy of Me, 38 and you up to Sanhedrins, and in their synagogues they whoever does not receive his cross and follow after will scourge you, 18 and before governors and kings Me, is not worthy of Me. 39 He who found his life will you will be brought for My sake, for a testimony to lose it, and he who lost his life for My sake will find it. them and to the nations. 19 And whenever they may 40 He who is receiving you receives Me, and he who deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you is receiving Me receives Him who sent Me; 41 he who may speak, for it will be given you in that hour what is receiving a prophet in the name of a prophet, will you will speak; 20 for you are not the speakers, but receive a prophet's reward, and he who is receiving a the Spirit of your Father that is speaking in you. 21 righteous man in the name of a righteous man, will And brother will deliver up brother to death, and father receive a righteous man's reward, 42 and whoever child, and children will rise up against parents, and may give to drink to one of these little ones a cup of will put them to death, 22 and you will be hated by all cold water only in the name of a disciple, truly I say to because of My Name, but he who has endured to the you, he may not lose his reward." end, he will be saved. 23 And whenever they may persecute you in this city, flee to the other, for truly I 11 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished directing His twelve disciples, He departed from there to teach and to preach in their cities. 2 And John having heard in the prison the works of the Christ, to Heaven, will be brought down to Hades, because if having sent two of his disciples, 3 said to Him, "Are the mighty works that were done in you had been You He who is coming, or do we look for another?" 4 done in Sodom, it had remained to this day; (Hades) And Jesus answering said to them, "Having gone, g86) 24 but I say to you, to the land of Sodom it will be declare to John the things that you hear and see, more tolerable in [the] day of judgment than to you." 5 blind receive sight, and lame walk, lepers are 25 At that time Jesus answering said, "I confess to cleansed, and deaf hear, dead are raised, and poor You, Father, Lord of the heavens and of the earth, that have good news proclaimed, 6 and blessed is he who You hid these things from wise and understanding may not be stumbled in Me." 7 And as they are going, ones, and revealed them to babies. 26 Yes, Father, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning because so it was good pleasure before You. 27 John, "What did you go out to the wilderness to view? All things were delivered to Me by My Father, and A reed shaken by the wind? 8 But what did you go none know the Son, except the Father, nor does any out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the those wearing the soft things are in the kings' houses. Son may resolve to reveal [Him]. 28 Come to Me, all 9 But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I you laboring and burdened ones, and I will give you say to you, and more than a prophet, 10 for this is rest; 29 take up My yoke on you, and learn from Me, he of whom it has been written: Behold, I send My because I am meek and humble in heart, and you will messenger before Your face, who will prepare Your find rest to your souls, 30 for My yoke [is] easy, and way before You. 11 Truly I say to you, there has not My burden is light."

risen, among those born of women, [one] greater than John the Immerser, but he who is least in the kingdom of the heavens is greater than he. 12 And from the days of John the Immerser until now, the kingdom of the heavens suffers violence, and violent men seize it by force, 13 for all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John, 14 and if you are willing to receive [it], he is Elijah who was about to come; 15 he who is having ears to hear—let him hear. 16 And to what will I liken this generation? It is like little children in marketplaces, sitting and calling to others, 17 and saying, We piped to you, and you did not dance, we lamented to you, and you did not strike the breast. 18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He has a demon; 19 the Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold, a man, a glutton, and a wine-drinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners; and wisdom was justified of her children." 20 Then He began to reproach the cities in which were done most of His mighty works, because they did not convert. 21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! Because, if in Tyre and Sidon had been done the mighty works that were done in you, long ago in sackcloth and ashes they had converted; 22 but I say to you, to Tyre and Sidon it will be more tolerable in [the] day of judgment than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum, which were exalted

12 At that time Jesus went on the Sabbaths through the grainfields, and His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck ears, and to eat, 2 and the Pharisees having seen, said to Him, "Behold, Your disciples do that which it is not lawful to do on a Sabbath." 3 And He said to them, "Did you not read what David did when he was hungry, himself and those with him— 4 how he went into the house of God, and ate the Bread of the Presentation, which it is not lawful to him to eat, nor to those with him, except to the priests alone? 5 Or did you not read in the Law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are blameless? 6 And I say to you that [One] greater than the temple is here; 7 and if you had known what [this] is: Kindness I will, and not sacrifice—you had not condemned the blameless, 8 for the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath." 9 And having departed from there, He went to their synagogue, 10 and behold, there was a man having the hand withered, and they questioned Him, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbaths?" That they might accuse Him. 11 And He said to them, "What man will be of you who will have one sheep, and if this may fall on the Sabbaths into a ditch, will not lay hold on it and raise [it]? 12 How much better, therefore, is a man than a sheep? So that it is lawful on the Sabbaths to do good." 13 Then He says to the man, "Stretch forth your hand," and he stretched [it] forth, and it was restored whole as the other. 14 And the Pharisees having gone forth, held a consultation against Him, how they might destroy Him, 15 and Jesus having known, withdrew from there, and there followed Him great multitudes, and He healed them all, 16 and charged them that they might not make Him apparent, 17 that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, 18 "Behold, My Servant, whom I chose, My Beloved, in whom My soul delighted, I will put My Spirit on Him, And He will declare judgment to the nations; 19 He will not strive nor cry, Nor will any hear His voice in the broad places; 20 A bruised reed He will not break, And smoking flax He will not quench, Until He may put forth judgment to victory, 21 And in His Name will nations hope." 22 Then was brought to Him a demoniac, blind and mute, and He healed him, so that the blind and mute both spoke and three nights. 23 And all the multitudes were amazed and said, "Is this the Son of David?" 24 But the Pharisees having heard, said, "This One does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, ruler of the demons." 25 And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom having been divided against itself is desolated, and no city or house having been divided against itself stands, 26 and if Satan casts out Satan, [is] here! 27 And if I, by Beelzebul, cast out rest and does not find; 28 But if I, by the Spirit of God, cast out the demons, then the Kingdom of God has already come to you. 29 Or how evil than itself, and having gone in they dwell there, is one able to go into the house of the strong man, and the last of that man becomes worse than the first; and to snatch his goods, if first he may not bind the strong man? And then his house he will plunder. 30 He was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, His He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me, scatters. 31 Because of this I say to you, all sin and slander will be forgiven to men, but the slander of the Spirit will not be forgiven to men. 32 And whoever may speak a word against the Son of Man it will be forgiven to him, but whoever may speak against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in that which is coming.

from the fruit is the tree known. 34 Brood of vipers! How are you able to speak good things—being evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 The good man out of the good treasure of the heart puts forth the good things, and the evil man out of the evil treasure puts forth evil things. 36 And I say to you that every idle word that men may speak, they will give for it a reckoning in [the] day of judgment; 37 for from your words you will be declared righteous, and from your words you will be declared unrighteous." 38 Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, "Teacher, we will seek a reed sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet; 40 for as Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth three days and saw. 41 Men of Nineveh will stand up in judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they converted at the proclamation of Jonah, having heard, said, "This One greater than Jonah [is] here! 42 A queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, [One] greater than Solomon said, "Is this the Son of David?" 43 And when the unclean spirit may go forth from the man, it walks through dry places seeking to where I came forth; and having come, my house from where I came forth; and having come, Because of this they will be your judges. 44 then it says, I will return to the demons, your sons—by whom do they cast out? my house from where I came forth; and having come, by the Spirit of God, cast out the demons, then the goes, and takes with itself seven other spirits more like unto itself, and dwells there, so will it also be to this evil generation." 45 And while it goes, and takes with itself seven other spirits more like unto itself, and dwells there, so will it also be to this evil generation." 46 And while it goes, and takes with itself seven other spirits more like unto itself, and dwells there, so will it also be to this evil generation." 47 And one said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and brothers had stood outside, seeking to speak to You." 48 And He answering said to him who men. 49 And having stretched forth His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Behold, My mother and My brothers!" 50 For whoever may do the will of My Father who is in the heavens, He is My brother, good, or make the tree bad, and its fruit bad, for and sister, and mother."

13 And in that day Jesus, having gone forth from the house, was sitting by the sea, 2 and receiving it, 21 and he has no root in himself, but gathered together to Him were many multitudes, so that He having gone into the boat sat down, and all the multitude on the beach stood, 3 and He spoke to them many things in allegories, saying, "Behold, the sower went forth to sow, 4 and in his sowing, some indeed fell by the way, and the birds having come, devoured them, 5 and others fell on the rocky places where they did not have much earth, and immediately they sprang forth, through having no depth of earth, 6 and the sun having risen they were scorched, and through having no root, they withered, 7 and others fell on the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them, 8 and others fell on the good ground, and were giving fruit, some indeed a hundredfold, and some sixty, and some thirty." 9 He who is having ears to hear—let him hear." 10 And the disciples having come near, said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in allegories?" 11 And He answering said to them that, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of the heavens, and to these it has not been given, 12 for whoever has, it will be given to him, and he will have overabundance, and whoever has not, even that which he has will be taken from him. 13 Because of this, in allegories I speak to them, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor understand, 14 and fulfilled on them is the prophecy of Isaiah that says, With hearing you will hear, and you will not understand, and seeing you will see, and you will not perceive, 15 for the heart of this people was made obtuse, and with the ears they barely heard, and they closed their eyes, lest they might see with the eyes, and might hear with the ears, and understand with the heart, and turn back, and I might heal them. 16 And blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear, 17 for truly I say to you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see that which you look for, and they did not see, and to hear that which you hear, and they did not hear. 18 You, therefore, hear the allegory of the sower: 19 Everyone hearing the word of the kingdom, and not understanding—the evil one comes, and snatches that which has been sown in his heart; this is that sown by the way. 20 And that sown on the rocky places, this is he who stumbled. 21 And that sown toward the thorns, this is he who is hearing the word, and the anxiety of this age, and the deceitfulness of the riches, chokes the word, and it becomes unfruitful. (αἰών γε 165) 22 And that sown on the good ground: this is he who is hearing the word, and is understanding, who indeed bears fruit, and makes, some indeed a hundredfold, and some sixty, and some thirty." 23 Another allegory He set before them, saying, "The kingdom of the heavens was likened to a man sowing good seed in his field, 24 and while men are sleeping, his enemy came and sowed darnel in the midst of the wheat, and went away, 25 and when the herb sprang up, and yielded fruit, then appeared also the darnel. 26 And the servants of the householder, having come near, said to him, Lord, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the darnel? 27 And he said to them, A man, an enemy, did this; 28 And he says to them, A man, an enemy, did this; and the servants said to him, Will you, then, [that] having gone away we may gather it up? 29 And he said, No, lest—gathering up the darnel—you root up him. 30 permit both to grow together until the harvest, and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather up first the darnel, and bind it in bundles, to burn it, and the wheat gather will hear, and you will not understand, and seeing you up into my storehouse." 31 Another allegory He set will see, and you will not perceive, 32 which less, indeed, is than all the seeds, but when it may be grown, is the greatest of the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and rest in its branches." 33 Another allegory He spoke to them: "The kingdom of the heavens is like to leaven, which a woman having taken, hid in three measures of meal, until the whole on, and they did not see, and to hear that which you was leavened." 34 All these things Jesus spoke in hear, and they did not hear. 35 that it might be the allegories to the multitudes, and without an allegory He was not speaking to them, 36 Then having let away the multitudes, Jesus came word of the prophet, saying, "I will open in allegories My mouth, I will utter things fulfills that was spoken through the prophet, saying, evil one comes, and snatches that which has been sown in his heart; this is that sown by the way. 20 having been hidden from the foundation of the world." And that sown on the rocky places, this is he who 36 Then having let away the multitudes, Jesus came into the house, and His disciples came near to Him, to this One this wisdom and the mighty works? 55 saying, "Explain to us the allegory of the darnel of the field." 37 And He answering said to them, "He who is sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, 38 and the field is the world, and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom, and the darnel are the sons of the evil one, 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the Devil, and the harvest is [the] full end of the age, and the reapers are messengers. (aiōn g165) 40 As, then, the darnel is gathered up, and is burned with fire, so will it be in the full end of this age; (aiōn g165) 41 the Son of Man will send forth His messengers, and they will gather up out of His kingdom all the stumbling-blocks, and those doing the lawlessness, 42 and will cast them into the furnace of the fire; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth. 43 Then will the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. He who is having ears to hear—let him hear. 44 Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like to treasure hid in the field, which a man having found, hid, and from his joy goes, and all, as much as he has, he sells, and buys that field. 45 Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a merchant, seeking good pearls, 46 who having found one pearl of great price, having gone away, has sold all, as much as he had, and bought it. 47 Again, the kingdom of the heavens is like to a net that was cast into the sea, and gathered together of every kind, 48 which, when it was filled, having drawn up again on the beach, and having sat down, they gathered the good into vessels, and the bad they cast out, 49 so will it be in the full end of the age, the messengers will come forth and separate the evil out of the midst of the righteous, (aiōn g165) 50 and will cast them into the furnace of the fire; there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth." 51 Jesus says to them, "Did you understand all these?" They say to Him, "Yes, Lord." 52 And He said to them, "Because of this, every scribe having been discipled in regard to the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old." 53 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these allegories, He removed from there, 54 and having come to His own country, He was teaching them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and were saying, "From where 55 Is this not the carpenter's Son? Is His mother not called Mary, and His brothers James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? 56 And His sisters—are they not all with us? From where, then, to this One all these?" 57 And they were stumbled at Him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his own country, and in his own house": 58 and He did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the fame of Jesus, 2 and said to his servants, "This is John the Immerser, he rose from the dead, and because of this the mighty energies are working in him." 3 For Herod having laid hold on John, bound him, and put him in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, 4 for John was saying to him, "It is not lawful to you to have her," 5 and willing to kill him, he feared the multitude, because as a prophet they were holding him. 6 But the birthday of Herod being kept, the daughter of Herodias danced in the midst, and pleased Herod, 7 after which with an oath he professed to give her whatever she might ask. 8 And she, having been instigated by her mother, says, "Give me here on a plate the head of John the Immerser"; 9 and the king was grieved, but because of the oaths and of those dining with him, he commanded [it] to be given; 10 and having sent, he beheaded John in the prison, 11 and his head was brought on a plate, and was given to the girl, and she brought [it] near to her mother. 12 And his disciples having come, took up the body, and buried it, and having come, they told Jesus, 13 and Jesus having heard, withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by Himself, and the multitudes having heard followed Him on land from the cities. 14 And Jesus having come forth, saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion on them, and healed their sick; 15 and evening having come, His disciples came to Him, saying, "The place is desolate, and the hour has now past, let away the multitudes that, having gone into the villages, they may buy food for themselves." 16 And Jesus said to them, "They have no need to go away—you give them to eat." 17 And they say to Him, "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fishes." 18 And He said, "Bring them to Me here." 19 And having commanded the multitudes to recline on the grass, and having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the sky, He blessed, and having broken, He gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples [gave] to the multitudes, 20 and they all ate, and were filled, profited by me— 6 and he may not honor his father and they took up what was over of the broken pieces about five thousand men, apart from women and children. 22 And immediately Jesus constrained His disciples to go into the boat, and to go before Him to the other side, until He might let away the multitudes; they worship Me, teaching commands of 23 and having let away the multitudes, He went up to the mountain by Himself to pray, and evening having come, He was there alone, 24 and the boat was now in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the man, but that which is coming forth from the wind was contrary. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went away to them, walking on the sea, 26 and the disciples having seen Him walking on the sea, were troubled, saying, "It is an apparition," stumbled?" 13 And He answering said, "Every plant and from the fear they cried out; 27 and immediately that My heavenly Father did not plant will be rooted Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage! I AM; up; 14 leave them alone, they are guides—blind of do not be afraid." 28 And Peter answering Him said, blind; and if blind may guide blind, both will fall into a "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the ditch." 15 And Peter answering said to Him, "Explain waters"; 29 and He said, "Come"; and having gone down from the boat, Peter walked on the waters to yet without understanding? 17 Do you not understand come to Jesus, 30 but seeing the vehement wind, that all that is going into the mouth passes into the he was afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!" 31 And immediately things coming forth from the mouth come forth from Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, laid hold of the heart, and these defile the man; 19 for out of the him and says to him, "Little faith! For why did you heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, waver?" 32 And they having gone into the boat, the wind stilled, 33 and those in the boat having come, these are the things defiling the man; but to eat with worshiped Him, saying, "You are truly God's Son." 34 unwashed hands does not defile the man." 21 And And having passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, 35 and having recognized Him, the men of that place sent forth to all that surrounding region, Canaanite, having come forth from those borders, and they brought to Him all who were ill, 36 and were calling on Him that they might only touch the fringe of His garment, and as many as touched were saved. And He did not answer her a word; and His disciples because of your tradition? 4 For God commanded, saying, Honor your father and mother; and, He who is speaking evil of father or mother—let him die the death; 5 but you say, Whoever may say to father or mother, An offering [is] whatever you may be profited by me— 6 and he may not honor his father and you set aside the command of twelve hand-baskets full; 21 and those eating were near to Me with their mouth, and with the lips it honors them well of you, saying, 8 This people draws children. 22 And immediately Jesus constrained His near to Me with their mouth, and with the lips it honors disciples to go into the boat, and to go before Him to the other side, until He might let away the multitudes; they worship Me, teaching teachings—commands of 23 and having let away the multitudes, He went up to the mountain by Himself to pray, and evening having said to them, "Hear and understand: 11 [it is] not that which is coming into the mouth [that] defiles in the midst of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the man, but that which is coming forth from the wind was contrary. 25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went away to them, walking on the sea, 26 and the disciples having seen Him walking on the sea, were troubled, saying, "It is an apparition," stumbled?" 13 And He answering said, "Every plant and from the fear they cried out; 27 and immediately that My heavenly Father did not plant will be rooted Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take courage! I AM; up; 14 leave them alone, they are guides—blind of do not be afraid." 28 And Peter answering Him said, blind; and if blind may guide blind, both will fall into a "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the ditch." 15 And Peter answering said to Him, "Explain waters"; 29 and He said, "Come"; and having gone down from the boat, Peter walked on the waters to yet without understanding? 17 Do you not understand come to Jesus, 30 but seeing the vehement wind, that all that is going into the mouth passes into the he was afraid, and having begun to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!" 31 And immediately things coming forth from the mouth come forth from Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, laid hold of the heart, and these defile the man; 19 for out of the him and says to him, "Little faith! For why did you heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, waver?" 32 And they having gone into the boat, the wind stilled, 33 and those in the boat having come, these are the things defiling the man; but to eat with worshiped Him, saying, "You are truly God's Son." 34 unwashed hands does not defile the man." 21 And And having passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, 35 and having recognized Him, the men of that place sent forth to all that surrounding region, Canaanite, having come forth from those borders, and they brought to Him all who were ill, 36 and were calling on Him that they might only touch the fringe of David; my daughter is miserably demonized." 23 His garment, and as many as touched were saved. And He did not answer her a word; and His disciples

15 Then they come to Jesus from Jerusalem—scribes and Pharisees—saying, 2 “Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they may eat bread.” 3 And He answering said to them, “Why also do you transgress the command of God

And He did not answer her a word; and His disciples having come to Him, were asking Him, saying, "Let her away, because she cries after us"; 24 and He answering said, "I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." 25 And having come, she was worshiping Him, saying, "Lord, help me"; 26 and He answering said, "It is not good to take the

children's bread, and to cast to the little dogs." 27 And Jesus said to them, "Beware, and take heed of And she said, "Yes, Lord, for even the little dogs eat the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees"; 7 and of the crumbs that are falling from their lords' table"; they were reasoning in themselves, saying, "Because 28 then answering, Jesus said to her, "O woman, we took no loaves." 8 And Jesus having known, said great [is] your faith, let it be to you as you will"; and to them, "Why reason you in yourselves, you of little her daughter was healed from that hour. 29 And faith, because you took no loaves? 9 Do you not having departed from there, Jesus came near to the yet understand, nor remember the five loaves of the Sea of Galilee, and having gone up to the mountain, five thousand, and how many hand-baskets you took He was sitting there, 30 and there came to Him up? 10 Nor the seven loaves of the four thousand, great multitudes, having with them lame, blind, mute, and how many baskets you took up? 11 How do maimed, and many others, and they cast them at the you not understand that I did not speak to you of feet of Jesus, and He healed them, 31 so that the bread—to take heed of the leaven of the Pharisees multitudes wondered, seeing mute ones speaking, and Sadducees?" 12 Then they understood that He maimed whole, lame walking, and blind seeing; and did not say to take heed of the leaven of the bread, they glorified the God of Israel. 32 And Jesus having but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees. called near His disciples, said, "I have compassion on 13 And Jesus, having come to the parts of Caesarea the multitude, because now three days they continue Philippi, was asking His disciples, saying, "Who do with Me, and they do not have what they may eat; men say I am—the Son of Man?" 14 And they said, and to let them away fasting I will not, lest they faint "Some, John the Immerser, and others, Elijah, and in the way." 33 And His disciples say to Him, "From others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets." 15 He says where to us in a wilderness [will we get] so many to them, "And you—who do you say I am?" 16 And loaves, as to fill so great a multitude?" 34 And Jesus Simon Peter answering said, "You are the Christ, the says to them, "How many loaves do you have?" Son of the living God." 17 And Jesus answering said And they said, "Seven, and a few little fishes." 35 to him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jona, because And He commanded the multitudes to sit down on flesh and blood did not reveal [it] to you, but My the ground, 36 and having taken the seven loaves Father who is in the heavens. 18 And I also say to and the fishes, having given thanks, He broke, and you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My gave to His disciples, and the disciples [gave] to the Assembly, and [the] gates of Hades will not prevail multitude. 37 And they all ate, and were filled, and against it; (Hades 986) 19 and I will give to you the keys they took up what was over of the broken pieces of the kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you seven baskets full, 38 and those eating were four may bind on the earth will be having been bound in thousand men, apart from women and children. 39 the heavens, and whatever you may loose on the And having let away the multitudes, He went into the earth will be having been loosed in the heavens." 20 boat, and came to the borders of Magdala.

16 And the Pharisees and Sadducees having come, tempting, questioned Him, to show to them a sign from Heaven, 2 and He answering said to them, "Evening having come, you say, Fair weather, for the sky is red, 3 and at morning, Foul weather today, for the sky is red—gloomy; hypocrites, you indeed know to discern the face of the sky, but the signs of the times you are not able! 4 An evil and adulterous generation seeks a sign, and a sign will not be given to it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet"; and having left them He went away. 5 And His disciples having come to the other side, forgot to take loaves,

Then He charged His disciples that they may say to no one that He is Jesus the Christ. 21 From that time Jesus began to show to His disciples that it is necessary for Him to go away to Jerusalem, and to suffer many things from the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and to be put to death, and the third day to rise. 22 And having taken Him aside, Peter began to rebuke Him, saying, "Be kind to Yourself, Lord; this will not be to You"; 23 and He having turned, said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to Me, for you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men." 24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wills to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me, disciples, and they were not able to heal him." 17 And 25 for whoever may will to save his life will lose it, Jesus answering said, "O generation, unsteadfast and and whoever may lose his life for My sake will find perverse, until when will I be with you? Until when it; 26 for what is a man profited if he may gain the whole world, but of his life suffer loss? Or what will a boy was healed from that hour. 19 Then the disciples man give as an exchange for his life? 27 For the Son of Man is about to come in the glory of His Father, according to his work. 28 Truly I say to you, there are certain of those standing here who will not taste of death until they may see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom."

17 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and his brother John, and brings them up to a high mountain by themselves, 2 and He was transfigured before them, and His face shone as the sun, and His garments became white as the light, 3 and behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, talking together with Him. 4 And Peter answering said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good to us to be here; if You will, we may make three shelters here: one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 5 While he is yet speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted; hear Him." 6 And the disciples having heard, fell on their face, and were exceedingly afraid, 7 and Jesus having come near, touched them, and said, "Rise, do not be afraid," 8 and having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus only. 9 And as they are coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, "Say to no one the vision, until the Son of Man may rise out of the dead." 10 And His disciples questioned Him, saying, "Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?" 11 And Jesus answering said to them, "Elijah does indeed come first, and will restore all things, 12 and I say to you, Elijah already came, and they did not know him, but did with him whatever they would, so also the Son of Man is about to suffer by them." 13 Then the disciples understood that He spoke to them concerning John the Immerser. 14 And when they came to the multitude, there came to Him a man, kneeling down to Him, 15 and saying, "Lord, deal kindly with my son, for he is [a] lunatic, and suffers miserably, for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water, 16 and I brought him near to Your

will I bear you? Bring him to Me here", 18 and Jesus rebuked him, and the demon went out of him, and the boy was healed from that hour. 19 Then the disciples having come to Jesus by Himself, said, "Why were we not able to cast him out?" 20 And Jesus said to them, "Through your want of faith; for truly I say to you, if you may have faith as a grain of mustard, you will say to this mountain, Move from here to there, and it will move, and nothing will be impossible to you, 21 [[and this kind does not go forth except in prayer and fasting.]] 22 And while they are living in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill Him, and the third day He will rise," and they were exceedingly sorry. 24 And they having come to Capernaum, those receiving the didrachmas came near to Peter and said, "Your teacher—does He not pay the didrachmas?" He says, "Yes." 25 And when he came into the house, Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? The kings of the earth—from whom do they receive custom or poll-tax? From their sons or from the strangers?" 26 Peter says to Him, "From the strangers." Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free; 27 but that we may not cause them to stumble, having gone to the sea, cast a hook, and the fish that has come up first take up, and having opened its mouth, you will find a stater, that having taken, give to them for Me and you."

18 At that hour the disciples came near to Jesus, saying, "Who, now, is greater in the kingdom of the heavens?" 2 And Jesus having called near a child, set him in the midst of them, 3 and said, "Truly I say to you, if you may not be turned and become as the children, you may not enter into the kingdom of the heavens; 4 whoever then may humble himself as this child, he is the greater in the kingdom of the heavens. 5 And he who may receive one such child in My Name, receives Me, 6 and whoever may cause to stumble one of those little ones who are believing in Me, it is better for him that a weighty millstone may be hanged on his neck, and he may be sunk in the depth of the sea. 7 Woe to the world from the stumbling-blocks! For there is necessity for the stumbling-blocks!

to come, but woe to that man through whom the stumbling-block comes! 8 And if your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut them off and cast [them] from you; it is good for you to enter into life lame or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the continuous fire. (ἀἰῶνιος g166) 9 And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and cast from you; it is good for you to enter into life one-eyed, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire. (Γεέννα g1067) 10 Beware! You may not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that their messengers in the heavens always behold the face of My Father who is in the heavens, 11 [[for the Son of Man came to save the lost.]] 12 took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that which What do you think? If a man may have one hundred sheep, and there may go astray one of them, does he not—having left the ninety-nine, having gone on the mountains—seek that which is gone astray? 13 would not, but having gone away, he cast him into prison, until he might pay that which was owing. 14 so it is not to you that he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that have not gone astray; 15 And if your brother may sin against you, go and show him his fault between you and him alone, if he may hear you, you gained your brother; 16 and if he the mouth of two witnesses or three every word may stand. 17 And if he may not hear them, say [it] to the assembly, and if also the assembly he may not hear, let him be to you as the heathen man and the tax collector. 18 Truly I say to you, whatever things you may bind on the earth will be having been bound in the heavens, and whatever things you may loose on the earth will be having been loosed in the heavens. 19 Again, I say to you that if two of you may agree on the earth concerning anything, whatever they may ask—it will be done to them from My Father who is in the heavens, 20 for where there are two or three gathered together—to My Name, there am I in the midst of them.” 21 Then Peter having come near to Him, said, “Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him—until seven times?” 22 Jesus says to him, “I do not say to you until seven times, but until seventy times seven. 23 Because of this was the kingdom of the heavens likened to a man, a king, who willed to take reckoning with his servants, 24 and he having begun to take account, there was brought near to him one debtor of a myriad of talents, 25 and he having nothing to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and the children, and all, whatever he had, and payment to be made. 26 The servant then, having fallen down, was prostrating to him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay you all; 27 and the lord of that servant having been moved with compassion released him, and the debt he forgave him. 28 And that servant having come forth, found one of his fellow-servants who was owing him one hundred denarii, and having laid hold, he took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that which you owe. 29 His fellow-servant then, having fallen down at his feet, was calling on him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all; 30 and he down at his feet, was calling on him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay you all; 31 And his fellow-servants having seen the things that were done, were grieved exceedingly, and having [the] will in [the] presence of your Father who is in the heavens that one of these little ones may perish. 32 then having called him, his lord says to him, Evil servant! All that debt I forgave you, seeing you called on me; 33 did it not seem necessary to his lord delivered him to the inquisitors, until he might pay all that was owing to him; 35 so also My heavenly Father will do to you, if you may not forgive each other your brother from your hearts their trespasses.”

19 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished these words, He removed from Galilee, and came to the borders of Judea, beyond the Jordan, 2 and great multitudes followed Him, and He healed them there. 3 And the Pharisees came near to Him, tempting Him, and saying to Him, “Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?” 4 And He answering said to them, “Did you not read that He who made [them] from the beginning, made them a male and a female, 5 and said, For this cause will a man leave father and mother, and cleave to his wife, and they will be—the two—for one flesh? 6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh; what therefore God joined together, let no man separate.” 7 They say to Him, “Why then did Moses command to give a roll of divorce, and to put her away?" 8 He says to them, "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." 27 Then Peter answering said to Him, "Behold, we left all, and followed You, what then will be so. 9 And I say to you that whoever may put away his wife, if not for whoredom, and may marry another, commits adultery; and he who married her that has been put away, commits adultery." 10 His disciples say to Him, "If the case of the man with the woman is so, it is not good to marry." 11 And He said to them, "All do not receive this word, but those to whom it has been given; 12 for there are eunuchs who from the mother's womb were so born; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who kept themselves eunuchs because of the kingdom of the heavens: he who is able to receive [it]—let him receive." 13 Then were brought near to Him children that He might put hands on them and pray, and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, "Permit the children, and do not forbid them to come to Me, for of such is the kingdom of the heavens"; 15 and having laid [His] hands on them, He departed from there. 16 And behold, one having come near, said to Him, "Good Teacher, what good thing will I do that I may have continuous life?" (aiōnios g166) 17 And He said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one [is] good except one—God; but if you will to enter into life, keep the commands." 18 He says to Him, "What kind?" And Jesus said, "You will not murder, You will not commit adultery, You will not steal, You will not bear false witness, 19 Honor your father and mother, and, You will love your neighbor as yourself." 20 The young man says to Him, "All these I kept from my youth; what yet do I lack?" 21 Jesus said to him, "If you will to be perfect, go away, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me." 22 And the young man, having heard the word, went away sorrowful, for he had many possessions; 23 and Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I say to you that hardly will a rich man enter into the kingdom of the heavens; 24 and again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God." 25 And His disciples having heard, were exceedingly amazed, saying, "Who, then, is able to be saved?" 26 And Jesus having earnestly beheld, said to them, when the Son of Man may sit on a throne of His glory, will sit—you also—on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel; 29 and everyone who left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or fields, for My Name's sake, will receive a hundredfold, and will inherit continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 30 and many first will be last, and last first."

20 "For the kingdom of the heavens is like to a man, a householder, who went forth with the morning to hire workmen for his vineyard, 2 and having agreed with the workmen for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 And having gone forth about the third hour, he saw others standing in the marketplace idle, 4 and to these he said, Go—also you—to the vineyard, and whatever may be righteous I will give you; 5 and they went away. Again, having gone forth about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did in like manner. 6 And about the eleventh hour, having gone forth, he found others standing idle and says to them, Why have you stood here idle all day? 7 They say to him, Because no one hired us; he says to them, Go—you also—to the vineyard, and whatever may be righteous you will receive. 8 And evening having come, the lord of the vineyard says to his steward, Call the workmen, and pay them the reward, having begun from the last—to the first. 9 And they of about the eleventh hour having come, each received a denarius. 10 And the first having come, supposed that they will receive more, and they received, they also, each a denarius, 11 and having received [it], they were murmuring against the householder, saying, 12 that, These, the last, worked one hour, and you made them equal to us, who were bearing the burden of the day—and the heat. 13 And he answering said to one of them, Friend, I do no unrighteousness to you; did you not agree with me for a denarius? 14 Take that which is yours, and go; and I will to give to this, the last, also as to you; 15 is it not lawful to me to do what I will in my own? Is your eye evil because I am good? 16 So the last will be

first, and the first last, for many are called, and few chosen." 17 And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples by themselves in the way and said to them, 18 "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, 19 and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him to the nations to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify, and the third day He will rise again." 20 Then came near to Him the mother of the sons of Zebedee, with her sons, prostrating and asking something from Him, 21 and He said to her, "What do you will?" She says to Him, "Say that they may sit—these two sons of mine—one on Your right hand and one on the left, in Your kingdom." 22 And Jesus answering said, "You have not known what you ask for yourselves; are you able to drink of the cup that I am about to drink? And with the immersion that I am immersed with, to be immersed?" They say to Him, "We are able." 23 And He says to them, "Of My cup indeed you will drink, and with the immersion that I am immersed with you will be immersed; but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but—to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father." 24 And the ten having heard, were much displeased with the two brothers, 25 and Jesus having called them near, said, "You have known that the rulers of the nations exercise lordship over them, and those [who are] great exercise authority over them, 26 but not so will it be among you, but whoever may will among you to become great, let him be your servant; 27 and whoever may will among you to be first, let him be your servant; 28 even as the Son of Man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life [as] a ransom for many." 29 And they going forth from Jericho, there followed Him a great multitude, 30 and behold, two blind men sitting by the way, having heard that Jesus passes by, cried, saying, "Deal kindly with us, Lord—Son of David." 31 And the multitude charged them that they might be silent, and they cried out the more, saying, "Deal kindly with us Lord—Son of David." 32 And having stood, Jesus called them and said, "What do you will [that] I may do to you?" 33 They say to Him, "Lord, that our eyes may be opened"; 34 and having been moved with compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

21 And when they came near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, 2 saying to them, "Go on into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey bound, and a colt with her—having loosed, you bring to Me; 3 and if anyone may say anything to you, you will say that the LORD has need of them, and immediately He will send them." 4 And all this came to pass, that it might be fulfilled that was spoken through the prophet, saying, 5 "Tell the daughter of Zion, Behold, your King comes to you, meek, and mounted on a donkey, and a colt, a foal of a beast of burden." 6 And the disciples having gone and having done as Jesus commanded them, 7 brought the donkey and the colt, and put on them their garments, and set [Him] on them; 8 and the very great multitude spread their own garments in the way, and others were cutting branches from the trees, and were strewing in the way, 9 and the multitudes who were going before, and who were following, were crying, saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David, blessed is He who is coming in the Name of the LORD; Hosanna in the highest!" 10 And He having entered into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, "Who is this?" 11 And the multitudes said, "This is Jesus the prophet, who [is] from Nazareth of Galilee." 12 And Jesus entered into the temple of God, and cast forth all those selling and buying in the temple, and the tables of the money-changers He overturned, and the seats of those selling the doves, 13 and He says to them, "It has been written: My house will be called a house of prayer; but you made it a den of robbers." 14 And there came to Him blind and lame men in the temple, and He healed them, 15 and the chief priests and the scribes having seen the wonderful things that He did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David," were much displeased; 16 and they said to Him, "Do You hear what these say?" And Jesus says to them, "Yes, did you never read, that Out of the mouth of babies and sucklings You prepared praise?" 17 And having left them, He went forth out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there, 18 and in the morning turning back to the city, He hungered, 19 and having seen a certain

fig tree on the way, He came to it, and found nothing in it except leaves only, and He says to it, "No more fruit may be from you—throughout the age"; and instantly the fig tree withered. (aion g165) 20 And the disciples having seen, wondered, saying, "How did the fig tree instantly wither?" 21 And Jesus answering said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you may have faith, and may not doubt, not only this of the fig tree will be lifted up and be cast into the sea, it will come to pass; 22 and all—as much as you may ask in the prayer, believing, you will receive." 23 And He having come into the temple, there came to Him when teaching the chief priests and the elders of the people, saying, "By what authority do You do these things? And who gave You this authority?" 24 And Jesus answering said to them, "I will ask you—I also—one word, which if you may tell Me, I also will tell you by what authority I do these things; 25 the immersion of John, from where From Heaven, or from men?" And they were reasoning with themselves, saying, "If we should say, From Heaven, He will say to us, Why, then, did you not believe him? 26 And if we should say, From men, we fear the multitude, for all hold John as a prophet." 27 And answering Jesus they said, "We have not known." He said to them—He also, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things. 28 And what do you think? A man had two children, and having come to the first, he said, Child, go, today be working in my vineyard. 29 And he answering said, I will not, but at last, having regretted, he went. 30 And having come to the second, he said in the same manner, and he answering said, I [go], lord, and did not go; 31 which of the two did the will of the father?" They say to Him, "The first." Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes go before you into the Kingdom of God, 32 for John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, and the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him, and you, having seen, did not regret at last—to believe him. 33 Hear another allegory: There was a certain man, a householder, who planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around it, and dug in it a winepress, and built a tower, and gave it out to farmers, and went abroad. 34 And when the season of the fruits came near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive the fruits of it, 35 and the farmers having taken his servants, one they scourged, and one they killed, and one they stoned. 36 Again he sent other servants more than the first, and they did to them in the same manner. 37 And at last he sent to them his son, saying, They will respect my son; 38 and the farmers having seen the son, said among themselves, This is the heir, come, we may kill him, and may possess his inheritance; 39 and having taken him, they cast [him] out of the vineyard, and killed him; 40 whenever therefore the lord of the vineyard may come, what will he do to these farmers?" 41 They say to Him, "Evil men—he will grievously destroy them, and will give out the vineyard to other farmers who will give back to him the fruits in their seasons." 42 Jesus says to them, "Did you never read in the Writings: A stone that the builders disallowed, it became head of a corner; from the LORD has this come to pass, and it is wonderful in our eyes? 43 Because of this I say to you that the Kingdom of God will be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth its fruit; 44 and he who is falling may fall it will crush him to pieces." 45 And the chief priests and the Pharisees having heard His allegories, knew that He speaks of them, 46 and seeking to lay hold on Him, they feared the multitudes, seeing they were holding Him as a prophet.

22 And Jesus answering, again spoke to them in allegories, saying, 2 "The kingdom of the heavens was likened to a man, a king, who made wedding feasts for his son, 3 and he sent forth his servants to call those having been called to the wedding feasts, and they were not willing to come. 4 Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Say to those who have been called: Behold, I prepared my early meal, my oxen and the fatlings have been killed, and all things [are] ready, come to the wedding feasts; 5 and they, having disregarded [it], went away, one to his own field, and the other to his merchandise; 6 and the rest, having laid hold on his servants, mistreated and slew [them]. 7 And the king having heard, was angry, and having sent forth his soldiers, he destroyed those murderers, and their city he set on fire; 8 then he says to his servants, The wedding feast indeed is ready, and those called were not worthy, 9 be going, then, on to the cross-ways, and as many as you may find, call to the wedding feasts. 10 And those servants, having gone forth to the ways, gathered all, as many as they found, both bad and good, and the wedding was filled with those reclining. 11 And the king having come in to view those reclining, saw there a man not clothed with wedding clothes, 12 and he says to him, Friend, how did you come in here, not having wedding clothes? And he was speechless. 13 Then the king said to the servants, Having bound his feet and hands, take him up and cast forth into the outer darkness, there will be the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth; 14 for many are called, and few chosen." 15 Then the Pharisees having gone, took they send to Him their disciples with the Herodians, gathered together, Jesus questioned them, saying, "Teacher, we have known that You are true, and the way of God in truth You teach, and You are having known their wickedness, said, "Why do you tempt Me, hypocrites? 19 Show Me the tribute-coin." 20 And He says to them, "Whose [is] this image and the inscription?" [on].

21 They say to Him, "Caesar's"; then He says to them, "Render therefore the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God"; 22 and having heard they wondered, and having left Him they went away. 23 In that day there came near to Him Sadducees who are saying there is not a resurrection, and they questioned Him, saying, 24 "Teacher, Moses said if anyone may die having no children, his brother will marry his wife, and will raise up seed to his brother. 25 And there were with us seven brothers, and the first having married died, and having no seed, he left his wife to his brother; 26 in like manner also the second, and the third, to the seventh, 27 and last of all the woman also died; 28 therefore in the resurrection, of which of the seven will she be wife—for all had her?" 29 And Jesus answering said to them, "You go astray, not knowing the Writings, nor the power of God; 30 for in the resurrection they do not marry, nor are they given in marriage, but are as messengers of God in Heaven. 31 And concerning the resurrection of the dead, did you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying, 32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not a God of dead men, but of living." 33 And having heard, the multitudes were astonished at His teaching; 34 and the Pharisees, having heard that He silenced the Sadducees, were gathered together to Him; 35 and one of them, a lawyer, questioned, tempting Him, and he says to him, "Teacher, which [is] the great command in the Law?" 37 And Jesus said to him, "You will love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your understanding— 38 this is the first and great command; 39 and the second [is] like to it: You will love your neighbor as yourself; 40 Prophets hang." 41 And the Pharisees having been gathered together, Jesus questioned them, 42 saying, "Teacher, we have known that You are true, "What do you think concerning the Christ? Of whom is He Son?" They say to Him, "Of David." 43 He says to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him Lord, saying, 44 The LORD said to my Lord, Sit at My right hand, Until I may make Your enemies Your footstool? 45 If then David calls Him Lord, how is He his son?" 46 And no one was able to answer Him a word, nor did any dare question Him from that day to them, [on].

23 Then Jesus spoke to the multitudes, and to His disciples, 2 saying, "On the seat of Moses sat down the scribes and the Pharisees; 3 all, then, as much as they may say to you to observe, observe and do, but according to their works do not do, for they say, and do not do; 4 for they bind together burdens [too] heavy and grievous to bear, and lay [them] on the shoulders of men, but with their finger they will not move them. 5 And all their works they do to be seen by men, and they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the fringes of their garments, 6 they also cherish the first couches at the banquets, and the first seats in the synagogues, 7 and the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called by men, Rabbi, Rabbi. 8 And you may not be called Rabbi, for one is your teacher—the Christ, and you are all brothers; 9 and you may not call [any] your father on the earth, for one is your Father, who is in the heavens, 10 nor may you be called teachers, for one is your teacher—the Christ. 11 And the greater of you will be your servant, 12 and whoever will exalt himself will be humbled, and whoever will humble himself will be exalted. 13 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the kingdom of the heavens before men, for you do not go in, nor do you permit those going in to enter. 14 [Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you eat up the houses of the widows, and for a pretense make long prayers, because of this you will receive more abundant judgment.] 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go around the sea and the dry land to make one proselyte, and whenever it may happen—you make him a son of Gehenna twofold more than yourselves. (Gehenna g1067) 16 Woe to you, blind guides, who are saying, Whoever may swear by the temple, it is nothing, but whoever may swear by the gold of the temple—is debtor! 17 Fools and blind! For which [is] greater, the gold, or the temple that is sanctifying the gold? 18 And, Whoever may swear by the altar, it is nothing, but whoever may swear by the gift that is on it—is debtor! 19 Fools and blind! For which [is] greater, the gift, or the altar that is sanctifying the gift? 20 He therefore who swore by the altar, swears by it, and by all things on it; 21 and he who swore by the temple, swears by it, and by Him who is dwelling in it; 22 and he who swore by Heaven, swears by the throne of God, and by Him who is sitting on it. 23 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you give tithe of the mint, and the dill, and the cumin, and neglected the weightier things of the Law—judgment, and kindness, and faith; these it was necessary to do, and those not to neglect. 24 Blind guides! Who are straining out the gnat, and are swallowing the camel. 25 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you make clean the outside of the cup and the plate, and within they are full of robbery and self-indulgence. 26 Blind Pharisee! First cleanse the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside of them may also become clean. 27 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you are like to whitewashed graves, which outwardly indeed appear beautiful, and within are full of bones of dead men, and of all uncleanness; 28 so also you outwardly indeed appear to men righteous, and within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. 29 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the graves of the prophets, and adorn the tombs of the righteous, 30 and say, If we had been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets. 31 So that you testify to yourselves that you are sons of them who murdered the prophets; 32 and you fill up the measure of your fathers. 33 Serpents! Brood of vipers! How may you escape from the judgment of Gehenna? (Gehenna g1067) 34 Because of this, behold, I send to you prophets, and wise men, and scribes, and of them you will kill and crucify, and of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and will pursue from city to city, 35 that on you may come all the righteous blood being poured out on the earth from the blood of Abel the righteous, to the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar: 36 truly I say to you, all these things will come on this generation. 37 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, to you, how often I willed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her own chickens under the wings, and you did not will. 38 Behold, your house is left to you desolate; 39 for I say to you, you may not see Me from now on, until you may say, Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD."

24 And having gone forth, Jesus departed from the temple, and His disciples came near to show Him the buildings of the temple, 2 and Jesus said to them, "Do you not see all these? Truly I say to you, there may not be left here a stone on a stone that will not be thrown down." 3 And when He is sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came near to Him by Himself, saying, "Tell us, when will these be? And what [is] the sign of Your coming, and of the full end of the age?" (aion g165) 4 And Jesus answering said to them, "Take heed that no one may lead you astray, 5 for many will come in My Name, saying, I am the Christ, and they will lead many astray, 6 and you will begin to hear of wars, and reports of wars; see, do not be troubled, for it is necessary for all [these] to come to pass, but the end is not yet. 7 For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in various places; 8 and all these [are the] beginning of travails; 9 then they will deliver you up to tribulation, and will kill you, and you will be

hated by all the nations because of My Name; 10 and from the four winds, from the ends of the heavens to then will many be stumbled, and they will deliver up the ends thereof. 32 And from the fig tree learn the one another, and will hate one another. 11 And many allegory: when its branch may have already become false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray; tender, and it may put forth the leaves, you know that 12 and because of the abounding of the lawlessness, summer [is] near, 33 so also you, when you may see the love of the many will become cold; 13 but he who all these, you know that it is near—at the doors. 34 endured to the end, he will be saved; 14 and this good Truly I say to you, this generation may not pass away news of the kingdom will be proclaimed in all the until all these may come to pass. 35 The heaven and world, for a testimony to all the nations, and then will the earth will pass away, but My words will not pass the end arrive. 15 Whenever, therefore, you may see away. 36 And concerning that day and the hour no the abomination of the desolation, that was spoken of one has known—not even the messengers of the through Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place heavens—except My Father only; 37 and as the days (whoever is reading let him observe) 16 then those of Noah—so will also be the coming of the Son of in Judea—let them flee to the mountains; 17 he on Man; 38 for as they were, in the days before the the housetop—do not let him come down to take up flood, eating, and drinking, marrying, and giving in anything out of his house; 18 and he in the field—do marriage, until the day Noah entered into the Ark, not let him turn back to take his garments. 19 And 39 and they did not know until the flood came and woe to those with child, and to those giving suck in took all away, so will also be the coming of the Son those days; 20 and pray that your flight may not be in of Man. 40 Then two [men] will be in the field: one winter, nor on a Sabbath; 21 for there will then be is received, and one is left; 41 two [women] will be great tribulation, such as was not from the beginning grinding in the mill: one is received, and one is left. of the world until now, no, nor may be. 22 And if those 42 Watch therefore, because you have not known in days were not shortened, no flesh would have been what hour your Lord comes; 43 and know this, that if saved; but because of the chosen will those days the master of the house had known in what watch the be shortened. 23 Then if anyone may say to you, thief comes, he had watched, and did not permit his Behold, here [is] the Christ! Or, Here! You may not house to be broken through; 44 because of this also believe; 24 for there will arise false Christs, and false you, become ready, because in what hour you do not prophets, and they will give great signs and wonders, think, the Son of Man comes. 45 Who, then, is the so as to lead astray, if possible, also the chosen. 25 servant, faithful and wise, whom his lord set over his Behold, I told you beforehand. 26 If therefore they household, to give them the nourishment in season? may say to you, Behold, He is in the wilderness, you 46 Blessed that servant, whom his lord, having come, may not go forth; Behold, in the inner chambers, you will find doing so; 47 truly I say to you that he will may not believe; 27 for as the lightning comes forth set him over all his substance. 48 And if that evil from the east, and appears to the west, so will also servant may say in his heart, My lord delays to come, be the coming of the Son of Man; 28 for wherever the 49 and may begin to beat the fellow-servants, and carcass may be, there the eagles will be gathered to eat and to drink with the drunken, 50 the lord of together. 29 And immediately after the tribulation of that servant will arrive in a day when he does not those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon expect, and in an hour of which he does not know, will not give her light, and the stars will fall from the 51 and will cut him off, and will appoint his portion sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken; 30 with the hypocrites; there will be the weeping and the and then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in the gnashing of the teeth.”
sky; and then will all the tribes of the earth strike the breast, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of Heaven, with power and much glory; 31 and He will send His messengers with a great sound of a trumpet, and they will gather together His chosen

25 “Then will the kingdom of the heavens be likened to ten virgins, who, having taken their lamps, went forth to meet the bridegroom; 2 and five of them were prudent, and five foolish; 3 they who were foolish having taken their lamps, did not take with themselves oil; 4 and the prudent took oil in having been afraid, having gone away, I hid your their vessels, with their lamps. 5 And the bridegroom talent in the earth; behold, you have your own! 26 lingering, they all nodded and were sleeping. 6 and in And his lord answering said to him, Evil servant, and the middle of the night a cry was made, Behold, the slothful, you had known that I reap where I did not bridegroom comes; go forth to meet him! 7 Then all sow, and I gather from where I did not scatter! 27 It those virgins rose, and trimmed their lamps, 8 and was necessary [for] you then to put my money to the the foolish said to the prudent, Give us of your oil, money-lenders, and having come I had received my because our lamps are going out; 9 and the prudent own with increase. 28 Take therefore from him the answered, saying, Lest there may not be sufficient for talent, and give to him having the ten talents, 29 for us and you, go rather to those selling, and buy for to everyone having will be given, and he will have yourselves. 10 And while they are going away to buy, overabundance, and from him who is not having, the bridegroom came, and those ready went in with even that which he has will be taken from him; 30 him to the wedding feasts, and the door was shut; and cast forth the unprofitable servant into the outer 11 and afterward come also the rest of the virgins, darkness; there will be the weeping and the gnashing saying, Lord, lord, open to us; 12 and he answering of the teeth. 31 And whenever the Son of Man may said, Truly I say to you, I have not known you. 13 come in His glory, and all the holy messengers with Watch therefore, for you have not known the day nor Him, then He will sit on a throne of His glory; 32 and the hour in which the Son of Man comes. 14 For—as all the nations will be gathered together before Him, a man going abroad called his own servants, and and He will separate them from one another, as the delivered to them his substance, 15 and to one he shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, 33 and gave five talents, and to another two, and to another He will set the sheep indeed on His right hand, and one, to each according to his several ability, went the goats on the left. 34 Then the King will say to abroad immediately. 16 And he who received the five those on His right hand, Come, the blessed of My talents, having gone, worked with them, and made Father, inherit the kingdom that has been prepared five other talents; 17 in like manner also he who for you from the foundation of the world; 35 for I [received] the two, he gained, also he, other two; 18 hungered, and you gave Me to eat; I thirsted, and and he who received the one, having gone away, dug you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger, and you in the earth, and hid his lord's money. 19 And after a received Me; 36 naked, and you clothed Me; I was long time comes the lord of those servants, and takes sick, and you looked after Me; I was in prison, and reckoning with them; 20 and he who received the you came to Me. 37 Then will the righteous answer five talents, having come, brought five other talents, Him, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungering, saying, Lord, you delivered five talents to me; behold, and we nourished? Or thirsting, and we gave to drink? I gained five other talents besides them. 21 And his 38 And when did we see You a stranger, and we lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful servant, received? Or naked, and we clothed? 39 And when you were faithful over a few things, I will set you did we see You ailing or in prison, and we came to over many things; enter into the joy of your lord. 22 You? 40 And the King answering, will say to them, And he also, who received the two talents, having Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did [it] to one come, said, Lord, you delivered to me two talents; of these My brothers—the least—you did [it] to Me. behold, I gained two other talents besides them. 23 41 Then will He say also to those on the left hand, His lord said to him, Well done, good and faithful Go from Me, the cursed, into the continuous fire that servant, you were faithful over a few things, I will has been prepared for the Devil and his messengers; set you over many things; enter into the joy of your (aiōnios g166) 42 for I hungered, and you gave Me lord. 24 And he also who has received the one talent, nothing to eat; I thirsted, and you gave Me nothing to having come, said, Lord, I knew you, that you are drink; 43 I was a stranger, and you did not receive a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and Me; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick and in gathering from where you did not scatter; 25 and prison, and you did not look after Me. 44 Then they will answer, they also, saying, Lord, when did we see You hungering, or thirsting, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and we did not minister to You? 45 Then will He answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, inasmuch as you did [it] not to one of these, the least, you did [it] not to Me. 46 And these will go away into continuous punishment, but the righteous into continuous life." (aiōnios g166)

as Jesus appointed them, and prepared the Passover.

20 And evening having come, He was reclining with the Twelve, 21 and while they are eating, He said, "Truly I say to you that one of you will deliver Me up." 22 And being grieved exceedingly, they began to say to Him, each of them, "Is it I, Lord?" 23 And He answering said, "He who dipped with Me the hand in the dish, he will deliver Me up; 24 the Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is delivered up! It were good for him if that man had not been born." 25 And Judas—he who delivered Him up—answering said, "Is it I, Rabbi?" He says to him, "You have said." 26 And while they were eating, Jesus having taken the bread, and having blessed, broke, and was giving [it] to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat, this is My body"; 27 and having taken the cup, and having given thanks, He gave to them, saying, "Drink of it—all; 28 for this is My blood of the New Covenant, that is being poured out for many, for forgiveness of sins; 29 and I say to you that I may not drink from now on this produce of the vine, until that day when I may drink it with you new in the kingdom of My Father." 30 And having sung a hymn, they went forth to the Mount of Olives; 31 then Jesus says to them, "All you will be stumbled at Me this night; for it has been written: I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered abroad; 32 but after My having risen, I will go before you to Galilee." 33 And Peter answering said to Him, "Even if all will be stumbled at You, I will never be stumbled." 34 Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that this night, before rooster-crowing, three times you will deny Me." 35 Peter says to Him, "Even if it may be necessary for me to die with You, I will not deny You"; in like manner also said all the disciples.

26 And it came to pass, when Jesus finished all these words, He said to His disciples, 2 "You have known that after two days the Passover comes, and the Son of Man is delivered up to be crucified." 3 Then were gathered together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, into the court of the chief priest who was called Caiaphas; 4 and they consulted together that they might take Jesus by guile, and kill [Him], 5 and they said, "Not in the celebration, that there may not be a tumult among the people." 6 And Jesus having been in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, 7 there came to Him a woman having an alabaster box of ointment, very precious, and she poured on His head as He is reclining. 8 And having seen [it], His disciples were much displeased, saying, "To what purpose [is] this waste? 9 For this ointment could have been sold for much, and given to the poor." 10 And Jesus having known, said to them, "Why do you give trouble to the woman? For a good work she worked for Me; 11 for you always have the poor with you, and you do not always have Me; 12 for she having put this ointment on My body—for My burial she did [it]. 13 Truly I say to you, wherever this good news may be proclaimed in the whole world, what this [one] did will also be spoken of—for a memorial of her." 14 Then one of the Twelve, who is called Judas Iscariot, having gone to the chief priests, said, 15 "What are you willing to give me, and I will deliver Him up to you?" And they weighed out to him thirty pieces of silver, 16 and from that time he was seeking a convenient season to deliver Him up. 17 And on the first [day] of the Unleavened [Bread] the disciples came near to Jesus, saying to Him, "Where will You [that] we may prepare for You to eat the Passover?" 18 And He said, "Go away into the city, to such a one, and say to him, The Teacher says, My time is near; near you I keep the Passover with My disciples"; 19 and the disciples did as You." 40 And He comes to the disciples, and finds them sleeping, and He says to Peter, "So! You were not able to watch with Me one hour! 41 Watch, and pray, that you may not enter into temptation: the spirit indeed is forward, but the flesh weak." 42 Again, a second time, having gone away, He prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me except I drink it, Your will be done"; 43 and having come, He finds them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And having left them, having gone away again, He prayed a third time, saying the same word; 45 then He comes to His disciples and says to them, "Sleep on from now on, and rest! Behold, the hour has come near, and the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us go; nevertheless I say to you, hereafter you will see the behold, he who is delivering Me up has come near." 47 And while He is yet speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve came, and with him a great multitude, elders of the people. 48 And he who delivered Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I will kiss, it is He, lay hold on Him"; 49 and immediately, they spit in His face and punched Him, and others having come to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi," slapped, and kissed Him; 50 and Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what are you present?" Then having come near, they laid hands on Jesus, and took hold on Him. 51 And maid, saying, "And you were with Jesus of Galilee!" behold, one of those with Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the chief priest, he took off his ear. 52 porch, another female saw him, and says to those Then Jesus says to him, "Turn back your sword to its place; for all who took the sword will perish by the sword; 53 do you think that I am not able now to call on My Father, and He will take Me? Daily I was with you sitting, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me; 54 How then may the Writings be fulfilled, that thus it must happen?" 55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Did you come forth as against a robber, with swords and sticks, to take Me? Daily I was with you sitting, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me; 56 but all this may be fulfilled"; then all the disciples, having left Him, fled. 57 And those laying hold on Jesus led [Him] away to Caiaphas the chief priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together, 58 and Peter was following Him far off, to the court of the chief priest, and having gone in within, he was sitting with the officers, to see the end. 59 And the chief priests, and the elders, and all the council, were seeking false witness against Jesus, that they might find; and many indeed were forward, but the flesh weak." 42 Again, a second time, having gone away, He prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away from Me except I drink it, Your will be done"; 43 and having come, He finds them again sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 And having left them, having gone away again, He prayed a third time, saying the same word; 45 then He comes to His disciples and says to them, "Sleep on from now on, and rest! Behold, the hour has come near, and the Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise, let us go; nevertheless I say to you, hereafter you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of Heaven." 47 Then the chief priest tore his garments, saying, "He has slandered; with swords and sticks, from the chief priests and what need have we yet of witnesses? Behold, now elders of the people. 48 And he who delivered Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomsoever I will kiss, it is He, lay hold on Him"; 49 and immediately, they spit in His face and punched Him, and others having come to Jesus, he said, "Greetings, Rabbi," slapped, and kissed Him; 50 and Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what are you present?" Then having come near, they laid hands on Jesus, and took hold on Him. 51 And maid, saying, "And you were with Jesus of Galilee!" behold, one of those with Jesus, having stretched forth the hand, drew his sword, and having struck the servant of the chief priest, he took off his ear. 52 porch, another female saw him, and says to those Then Jesus says to him, "Turn back your sword to its place; for all who took the sword will perish by the sword; 53 do you think that I am not able now to call on My Father, and He will take Me? Daily I was with you sitting, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me; 54 How then may the Writings be fulfilled, that thus it must happen?" 55 In that hour Jesus said to the multitudes, "Did you come forth as against a robber, with swords and sticks, to take Me? Daily I was with you sitting, teaching in the temple, and you did not lay hold on Me; 56 but all this may be fulfilled"; then all the disciples, having left Him, fled. 57 And those laying hold on Jesus led [Him] away to Caiaphas the chief priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together, 58 and Peter was following Him far off, to the court of the chief priest, and having gone in within, he was

27 And morning having come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus, so as to put Him to death; 2 and having bound Him, they led [Him] away, and delivered Him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. 3 Then Judas—he who delivered Him up—having seen that He was condemned, having regretted, brought back the thirty "Let [Him] be crucified!" 24 And Pilate having seen pieces of silver to the chief priests and to the elders, that it profits nothing, but rather a tumult is made, saying, 4 "I sinned, having delivered up innocent having taken water, he washed the hands before the blood"; and they said, "What [is that] to us? You will multitude, saying, "I am innocent from the blood of see!" 5 And having cast down the pieces of silver this Righteous One; you will see [to it] yourselves"; in the temple, he departed, and having gone away, 25 and all the people answering said, "His blood [is] he strangled himself. 6 And the chief priests having on us, and on our children!" 26 Then he released taken the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put Barabbas to them, and having scourged Jesus, he them into the treasury, seeing it is the price of blood"; delivered [Him] up that He may be crucified; 27 then 7 and having taken counsel, they bought the potter's the soldiers of the governor having taken Jesus to field with them, for the burial of strangers; 8 therefore the Praetorium, gathered to Him all the band; 28 that field was called, "Field of Blood," to this day. 9 and having unclothed Him, they put a crimson cloak Then was fulfilled that spoken through Jeremiah the around Him, 29 and having plaited Him a garland prophet, saying, "And I took the thirty pieces of silver, out of thorns they put [it] on His head, and [put] a the price of Him who has been priced, whom they of reed in His right hand, and having kneeled before the sons of Israel priced, 10 and gave them for the Him, they were mocking Him, saying, "Hail, the King potter's field, as the LORD appointed to me." 11 And of the Jews!" 30 And having spit on Him, they took Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor the reed, and were striking on His head; 31 and questioned Him, saying, "Are You the King of the when they had mocked Him, they took off the cloak Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "You say [it]." 12 And from Him, and put His own garments on Him, and in His being accused by the chief priests and the led Him away to crucify [Him]. 32 And coming forth, elders, He did not answer anything; 13 then Pilate they found a man, a Cyrenian, by name Simon: they says to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they impressed him that he might carry His cross; 33 and witness against You?" 14 And He did not answer him, having come to a place called Golgotha, which is not even to one word, so that the governor wondered called "Place of [the] Skull," 34 they gave Him vinegar greatly. 15 And at the celebration the governor had mixed with gall to drink, and having tasted, He would been accustomed to release one to the multitude, not drink. 35 And having crucified Him, they divided a prisoner, whom they willed, 16 and they had a His garments, casting a lot, [[that it might be fulfilled noted prisoner then, called Barabbas, 17 therefore which was spoken by the prophet: "They divided My they having been gathered together, Pilate said to garments to themselves, and they cast a lot over My them, "Whom do you will [that] I may release to you? clothing":]] 36 and sitting down, they were watching Barabbas or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he Him there, 37 and they put up over His head, His had known that they had delivered Him up because accusation written: "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF of envy. 19 And as he is sitting on the judgment seat, THE JEWS." 38 Then two robbers are crucified with his wife sent to him, saying, "Nothing—to you and Him, one on the right hand and one on the left, 39 to that Righteous One, for I suffered many things and those passing by kept slandering Him, wagging today in a dream because of Him." 20 And the chief their heads, 40 and saying, "You that are throwing priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes that down the temple, and in three days building [it], save they might ask for themselves Barabbas, and might Yourself; if You are the Son of God, come down from destroy Jesus; 21 and the governor answering said to the cross." 41 And in like manner also the chief priests them, "Which of the two will you [that] I may release mocking, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 "He to you?" And they said, "Barabbas." 22 Pilate says to saved others; He is not able to save Himself! If He them, "What then will I do with Jesus who is called is King of Israel, let Him come down now from the Christ?" They all say to him, "Let [Him] be crucified!" cross, and we will believe Him; 43 He has trusted 23 And the governor said, "Why, what evil did He on God, let Him now deliver Him if He wants Him, do?" And they were crying out the more, saying, because He said, I am [the] Son of God"; 44 with the same also the robbers, who were crucified with Him, were reproaching Him. 45 And from the sixth hour darkness came over all the land to the ninth hour, 46 you have known"; 66 and they, having gone, made and about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a great voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani?" That is, with the guard.

"My God, My God, why did You forsake Me?" 47 And certain of those standing there having heard, said, "He calls Elijah"; 48 and immediately, one of them having run, and having taken a sponge, having filled [it] with vinegar, and having put [it] on a reed, was giving Him to drink, 49 but the rest said, "Let alone, let us see if Elijah comes—about to save Him." 50 And Jesus having again cried with a great voice, yielded the spirit; 51 and behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth quaked, and the rocks were split, 52 and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones who have fallen asleep, arose, 53 and having come forth out of the tombs after His rising, they went into the holy city, and appeared to many. 54 And the centurion, and those with him watching Jesus, having seen the earthquake, and the things that were done, were exceedingly afraid, saying, "Truly this was God's Son." 55 And there were there many women beholding from afar, who followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him, 56 among whom was Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and of Joses, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. 57 And evening having come, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who also himself was discipled to Jesus, 58 he having gone near to Pilate, asked for himself the body of Jesus; then Pilate commanded the body to be given back. 59 And having taken the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen, 60 and laid it in his new tomb that he hewed in the rock, and having rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, he went away; 61 now Mary the Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave. 62 And on the next day that is after the Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, 63 saying, "Lord, we have remembered that this deceiver said while yet living, After three days I rise; 64 command, then, the grave to be made secure until the third day, lest His disciples, having come by night, may steal Him away, and may say to the people, He rose from the dead, and the last deceit will be worse than the first." 65 And Pilate said to them, the grave secure, having sealed the stone, together 28 Now after [the] Sabbaths, it being dawn, toward the first [day] of the weeks, Mary the Magdalene came, and the other Mary, to see the grave, 2 and behold, there came a great earthquake, for a messenger of the LORD, having come down out of Heaven, having come, rolled away the stone from the door, and was sitting on it, 3 and his countenance was as lightning, and his clothing white as snow, 4 and from the fear of him the keepers shook, and they became as dead men. 5 And the messenger answering said to the women, "Do not fear, for I have known that you seek Jesus who has been crucified; 6 He is not here, for He rose, as He said; come, see the place where the LORD was lying; 7 and having gone quickly, say to His disciples that He rose from the dead; and behold, He goes before you to Galilee, there you will see Him; behold, I have told you." 8 And having gone forth quickly from the tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to tell His disciples; 9 and as they were going to tell His disciples, then behold, Jesus met them, saying, "Greetings!" And having come near, they laid hold of His feet, and worshiped Him. 10 Then Jesus says to them, "Do not fear, go away, tell My brothers that they may go away to Galilee, and there they will see Me." 11 And while they are going on, behold, certain of the guard having come into the city, reported to the chief priests all the things that happened, 12 and having been gathered together with the elders, having also taken counsel, they gave much money to the soldiers, 13 saying, "Say that His disciples having come by night, stole Him—we being asleep; 14 and if this is heard by the governor, we will persuade him, and you keep free from anxiety." 15 And they, having received the money, did as they were taught, and this account was spread abroad among Jews until this day. 16 And the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus appointed them, 17 and having seen Him, they worshiped Him, but some wavered. 18 And having come near, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "All authority in Heaven and on earth was given to Me; 19

having gone, then, disciple all the nations, immersing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, 20 teaching them to observe all, whatever I commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days—until the full end of the age.”

Mark

1 A beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, Son of God. 2 As it has been written in the Prophets: "Behold, I send My messenger before Your face, Who will prepare Your way before You. 3 A voice of one calling in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, Make His paths straight." 4 John came immersing in the wilderness, and proclaiming an immersion of conversion for forgiveness of sins, 5 and there were going forth to him all the region of Judea, and they of Jerusalem, and they were all immersed by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and a girdle of skin around his loins, and eating locusts and honey of the field, 7 and he proclaimed, saying, "He comes—who is mightier than I—after me, of whom I am not worthy—having stooped down—to loose the strap of His sandals; 8 I indeed immersed you in water, but He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit." 9 And it came to pass in those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was immersed by John in the Jordan; 10 and immediately coming up from the water, He saw the heavens dividing, and the Spirit coming down on Him as a dove; 11 and a voice came out of the heavens, "You are My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted." 12 And immediately the Spirit puts Him forth into the wilderness, 13 and He was there in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan, and He was with the beasts, and the messengers were ministering to Him. 14 And after the delivering up of John, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God, 15 and saying, "The time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God has come near, convert and believe in the good news." 16 And walking by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon, and his brother Andrew, casting a drag into the sea, for they were fishers, 17 and Jesus said to them, "Come after Me, and I will make you to become fishers of men"; 18 and immediately, having left their nets, they followed Him. 19 And having gone on there a little, He saw James of Zebedee, and his brother John, and they were in the boat refitting the nets, 20 and immediately He called them, and having left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, they went away after Him. 21 And they go on to Capernaum, and immediately, on the Sabbaths, having gone into the synagogue, He was teaching, 22 and they were astonished at His teaching, for He was teaching them as having authority, and not as the scribes. 23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, 24 saying, "What [regards] us and You, Jesus the Nazarene? You came to destroy us; I have known You, who You are—the Holy One of God." 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silenced, and come forth out of him," 26 and the unclean spirit having convulsed him, and having cried with a great voice, came forth out of him, 27 and they were all amazed, so as to reason among themselves, saying, "What is this? What new teaching [is] this? That with authority He also commands the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!" 28 And the fame of Him went forth immediately to all the region of Galilee. 29 And immediately, having come forth out of the synagogue, they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John, 30 and the mother-in-law of Simon was lying fevered, and immediately they tell Him about her, 31 and having come near, He raised her up, having laid hold of her hand, and the fever left her immediately, and she was ministering to them. 32 And evening having come, when the sun set, they brought to Him all who were ill and who were demoniacs, 33 and the whole city was gathered together near the door, 34 and He healed many who were ill of manifold diseases, and He cast forth many demons, and was not permitting the demons to speak, because they knew Him. 35 And very early, it being yet night, having risen, He went forth, and went away to a desolate place, and was praying there; 36 and Simon and those with him went in quest of Him, 37 and having found Him, they say to Him, "All seek You"; 38 and He says to them, "We may go into the next towns, that there also I may preach, for—for this I came forth." 39 And He was preaching in their synagogues, in all Galilee, and is casting out the demons, 40 and there comes to Him a leper, calling on Him, and kneeling to Him, and saying to Him, "If You may will, You are able to cleanse me." 41 And Jesus having been moved with compassion, having stretched forth the hand, touched him and says to him, "I will, be cleansed"; 42 and He having spoken, immediately the leprosy went away from him, and he was cleansed. 43 And having sternly charged him, immediately He put him forth, 44 and says to him, "See [that] you may say nothing to anyone, but go away, show yourself to the priest, and bring near for your cleansing the things Moses directed, for a to proclaim much, and to spread the thing abroad, so that He was no longer able to openly enter into the city, but He was outside in desolate places, and they were coming to Him from every quarter.

2 And again He entered into Capernaum, after

[some] days, and it was heard that He is in the house, 2 and immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even at the door, and He was speaking to them the word. 3 And they come to Him, bringing a paralytic, carried by four, 4 and not being able to come near to Him because of the multitude, they uncovered the roof where He was, and having broken [it] up, they let down the pallet on which the paralytic was lying, 5 and Jesus having seen their faith, says to the paralytic, "Child, your sins have been forgiven you." 6 And there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, 7 "Why does this One thus speak evil words? Who is able to forgive sins except one—God?" 8 And immediately Jesus, having known in His spirit that they thus reason in themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts? 9 Which is easier? To say to the paralytic, Your sins are forgiven; or to say, Rise, and take up your pallet, and walk? 10 And that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—(He says to the paralytic)— 11 I say to you, rise, and take up your pallet, and go away to your house"; 12 and he rose immediately, and having taken up the pallet, he went forth before all, so that all were astonished, and glorify God, saying, "Never thus did we see." 13 And He went forth again by the sea, and all the multitude was coming to Him, and He was teaching them, 14 and passing by, He saw Levi of Alpheus sitting at the tax office, and says to him, "Follow Me," and he, having risen, followed Him. 15 And it came to pass, in His reclining in his house, that many tax collectors and sinners were dining with Jesus and His disciples, for there were many, and they followed Him. 16 And the scribes

and the Pharisees, having seen Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, said to His disciples, "Why—that with the tax collectors and sinners He eats and drinks?" 17 And Jesus, having heard, says to them, "They who are strong have no need of a testimony to them." 18 And the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees were fasting, and they come and say to Him, "Why do the disciples of John and those of the Pharisees fast, and Your disciples do not fast?" 19 And Jesus said to them, "Are the sons of the bride-chamber able, while the bridegroom is with them, to fast? As long a time [as] they have the bridegroom with them they are not able to fast; 20 but days will come when the bridegroom may be taken from them, and then they will fast—in those days. 21 And no one sews a patch of undressed cloth on an old garment, and if not—the new, filling it up, takes from the old and the split becomes worse; 22 and no one puts new wine into old skins, and if not—the new wine bursts the skins, and the wine is poured out, and the skins will be destroyed; but new wine is to be put into new skins." 23 And it came to pass—He is going along on the Sabbaths through the grainfields—and His disciples began to make a way, plucking the ears, 24 and the Pharisees said to Him, "Behold, why do they do on the Sabbaths that which is not lawful?" 25 And He said to them, "Did you never read what David did when he had need and was hungry, he and those with him? 26 How he went into the house of God, in [the days of] Abiathar the chief priest, and ate the Bread of the Presentation, which it is not lawful to eat, except to the priests, and he also gave to those who were with him?" 27 And He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath, 28 so that the Son of Man is also Lord of the Sabbath."

3 And He entered again into the synagogue, and there was there a man having the hand withered, 2 and they were watching Him, whether on the Sabbaths He will heal him, that they might accuse Him. 3 And He says to the man having the hand withered, "Rise up in the midst." 4 And He says to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do evil? To save life, or to kill?" But they were silent. 5 And having looked around on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their heart, He says to the man, "Stretch forth your hand"; and he stretched forth, and his hand was restored whole as the other; and the Pharisees having gone forth, immediately with the Herodians, were taking counsel against Him how they might destroy Him. 7 And Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea, and a great multitude from Galilee followed Him, and from Judea, 8 and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan; and they around Tyre and Sidon—a great multitude—having heard how He was doing great things, came to Him. 9 And He said to His disciples that a little boat may wait on Him, because of the multitude, that they may not press on Him, 10 for He healed many, so that they threw themselves on Him, in order to touch Him—as many as had plagues; 11 and the unclean spirits, when they were seeing Him, were falling down before Him, and were crying, saying, "You are the Son of God"; 12 and many times He was charging them that they might not make Him apparent. 13 And He goes up to the mountain, and calls near whom He willed, and they went away to Him; 14 and He appointed twelve, that they may be with Him, and that He may send them forth to preach, 15 and to have power to heal the sicknesses, and to cast out the demons. 16 And He put on Simon the name Peter; 17 and James of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and He put on them names—Boanerges, that is, "Sons of thunder"; 18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James of Alpheus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Zealot, 19 and Judas Iscariot, who also delivered Him up; and they come into a house. 20 And a multitude comes together again, so that they are not even able to eat bread; 21 and those alongside Him having heard, went forth to lay hold on Him, for they said that He was beside Himself, 22 and the scribes who [are] from Jerusalem having come down, said, "He has Beelzebul," and, "By the ruler of the demons He casts out the demons." 23 And having called them near, He said to them in allegories, "How is Satan able to cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot be made to stand; 25 and if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot be made to stand; 26 and if Satan rose against himself, and has been divided, he cannot be made to stand, but has an end. 27 No one is able into his house, if first he may not bind the strong man, that all sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and slanders with which they might have slandered, 29 but whoever may slander in regard to the Holy Spirit has no forgiveness—throughout the age, but is in danger of continuous judgment; (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 30 because they said, He has an unclean spirit." 31 Then His brothers and mother come, and standing outside, they sent to Him, calling Him, 32 and a multitude was sitting around Him, and they said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers seek You outside." 33 And He answered them, saying, "Who is My mother, or My brothers?" 34 And having looked around in a circle to those sitting around Him, He says, "Behold, My mother and My brothers! 35 For whoever may do the will of God, he is My brother, and My sister, and mother."

4 And again He began to teach by the sea, and there was gathered to Him a great multitude, so that He, having gone into the boat, sat in the sea, and all the multitude was near the sea, on the land, 2 and He taught them many things in allegories, and He said to them in His teaching: 3 "Listen, behold, the sower went forth to sow; 4 and it came to pass, in the sowing, some fell by the way, and the birds of the sky came and devoured it; 5 and other fell on the rocky ground, where it did not have much earth, and immediately it sprang forth, because of having no depth of earth, 6 and the sun having risen, it was scorched, and because of having no root it withered; 7 and other fell toward the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked it, and it gave no fruit; 8 and other fell to the good ground, and was giving fruit, coming up and increasing, and it was bearing, one thirty-fold, and one sixty, and one a hundred." 9 And He said to them, "He who is having ears to hear—let him hear." 10 And when He was alone, those around Him, with the Twelve, asked Him of the allegory, 11 and He said to them, "To you it has been given to know the secret of the Kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, in allegories are all the things done, 12 that seeing they may see and not perceive, and hearing they may hear and not understand, lest they may turn, and the sins may be forgiven them." 13 And He says to them, "Have you not known this allegory? And how will you know all the allegories? 14 He who is sowing sows the word; 15 and these are they who hear, and whenever they may hear, Satan immediately comes, and he takes away the word that has been sown in their hearts. 16 And these are they, in like manner, who are sown on the rocky ground: who, whenever they may hear the word, immediately receive it with joy, 17 and have no root in themselves, but are temporary; afterward they who are sown toward the thorns: these are they who are hearing the word, 19 and the anxieties of this age, and the deceitfulness of the riches, and the desires concerning the other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. (aiōn g165) 20 And these are they who on the good ground have been sown: who hear the word, and receive, and bear fruit, one thirty-fold, and one sixty, and one a hundred." 21 And He said to them, "Does the lamp come that it may be put under the measure, or under the bed—not that it may be put on the lampstand? 22 For there is not anything hid that may not be revealed, nor was anything kept hid but that it may come to light. 23 If any has ears to hear—let him hear." 24 And He said to them, "Take heed what you hear; in what measure you measure, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear it will be added; 25 for whoever may have, there will be given to him, and whoever has not, also that which he has will be taken from him." 26 And He said, "Thus is the Kingdom of God: as if a man may cast the seed on the earth, 27 and may sleep, and may rise night and day, and the seed springs up and grows, he has not known how; 28 for of itself the earth bears fruit, first a blade, afterward an ear, afterward full grain in the ear; 29 and whenever the fruit may yield itself, immediately he sends forth the sickle, because the harvest has come." 30 And He said, "To what may we liken the Kingdom of God, or in what allegory may we compare it? 31 As a grain of mustard, which, whenever it may be sown on the earth, is less than any of the seeds that are on the earth; 32 and whenever it may be sown, it comes up, and becomes greater than any of the herbs, and makes great branches, so that under its shade the birds of the sky are able to rest." 33 And with many such allegories He was speaking to them an allegory He was not speaking to them, and by themselves, to His disciples He was expounding all. 34 and without the way where the word is sown: and whenever they come, "We may pass over to the other side"; 36 and having let away the multitude, they take Him up as He was in the boat, and other little boats were also with Him. 37 And there comes a great storm of wind, tribulation or persecution having come because of the word, immediately they are stumbled. 18 And these are they who are sown toward the thorns: these are they who are hearing the word, 19 and the anxieties of this age, and the deceitfulness of the riches, and the desires concerning the other things, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. (aiōn g165) 38 and He Himself was on the boat, and the waves were beating on the boat, so that it is now being filled, 39 and He Himself was on the stern, sleeping on the pillow, and they wake Him up, and say to Him, "Teacher, are You not caring that we perish?" 39 And having awoken, He rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace, be stilled"; and the wind stilled, and there was a great calm; 40 and He said to them, "Why are you so fearful? How have you no faith?" 41 And they feared a great fear and said to one another, "Who, then, is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?"

come that it may be put under the measure, or under the bed—not that it may be put on the lampstand? 22 For there is not anything hid that may not be revealed, nor was anything kept hid but that it may come to light. 23 If any has ears to hear—let him hear." 24 And He said to them, "Take heed what you hear; in what measure you measure, it will be measured to you; and to you who hear it will be added; 25 for whoever may have, there will be given to him, and whoever has not, also that which he has will be taken from him." 26 And He said, "Thus is the Kingdom of God: as if a man may cast the seed on the earth, 27 and may sleep, and may rise night and day, and the seed springs up and grows, he has not known how; 28 for of itself the earth bears fruit, first a blade, afterward an ear, afterward full grain in the ear; 29 and whenever the fruit may yield itself, immediately he sends forth the sickle, because the harvest has come." 30 And He said, "To what may we liken the Kingdom of God, or in what allegory may we compare it? 31 As a grain of mustard, which, whenever it may be sown on the earth, is less than any of the seeds that are on the earth; 32 and whenever it may be sown, it comes up, and becomes greater than any of

5 And they came to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gadarenes, 2 and He having come forth out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit, 3 who had his dwelling in the tombs, and not even with chains was anyone able to bind him, 4 because that many times he had been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been pulled in pieces by him, and the shackles broken in pieces, and none was able to tame him, 5 and always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying and cutting himself with stones. 6 And having seen Jesus from afar, he ran and prostrated to Him, 7 and having called with a loud voice, he said, "What [regards] me and You, Jesus, Son of God the Most High? I adjure You by God, may You not afflict me!" 8 For He said to him, "Come forth, unclean spirit, out of the man!" 9 And He was questioning him, "What [is] your name?" And he answered, saying, "Legion [is] my name, because we are many"; 10 and he was calling on Him much, that He may not send them out of the region. 11 And there was there, near the mountains, a great herd of pigs feeding, 12 and all the demons called on Him, saying, "Send us to the pigs, that into them we may enter"; 13 and immediately Jesus gave them thronging You, and You say, Who touched Me!" 32 leave, and having come forth, the unclean spirits And He was looking around to see her who did this, entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the 33 and the woman, having been afraid, and trembling, steep place to the sea—and they were about two thousand—and they were choked in the sea. 14 And before Him, and told Him all the truth, 34 and He those feeding the pigs fled, and told in the city, and said to her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you; go in the fields, and they came forth to see what it is away in peace, and be whole from your plague." 35 that has been done; 15 and they come to Jesus, and As He is yet speaking, there come from the chief see the demoniac, sitting, and clothed, and right- of the synagogue's [house, certain], saying, "Your minded—him having had the legion—and they were daughter died, why do you still harass the Teacher?" afraid; 16 and those having seen [it], declared to them 36 And Jesus immediately, having heard the word how it had come to pass to the demoniac, and about that is spoken, says to the chief of the synagogue, the pigs; 17 and they began to call on Him to go away "Do not be afraid, only believe." 37 And He did not from their borders. 18 And He having gone into the permit anyone to follow with Him, except Peter, and boat, the demoniac was calling on Him that he may James, and John the brother of James; 38 and He be with Him, 19 and Jesus did not permit him, but comes into the house of the chief of the synagogue, says to him, "Go away to your house, to your own and sees a tumult, much weeping and wailing; 39 [friends], and tell them how the LORD did great things and having gone in He says to them, "Why do you to you, and dealt kindly with you"; 20 and he went make a tumult, and weep? The child did not die, but away, and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how sleeps"; 40 and they were laughing at Him. And He, Jesus did great things to him, and all were wondering. having put all forth, takes the father of the child, and 21 And Jesus having passed over in the boat again to the mother, and those with Him, and goes in where the other side, there was gathered a great multitude the child is lying, 41 and having taken the hand of to Him, and He was near the sea, 22 and behold, the child, He says to her, "Talitha cum"; which is, there comes one of the chiefs of the synagogue, by being interpreted, "Girl (I say to you), arise." 42 And name Jairus, and having seen Him, he falls at His immediately the girl arose, and was walking, for she feet, 23 and he was calling on Him much, saying, "My was twelve years [old]; and they were amazed with a little daughter is at the last extremity—that having great amazement, 43 and He charged them much, come, You may lay on her [Your] hands, so that that no one may know this thing, and He said that she may be saved, and she will live"; 24 and He there be given to her to eat.

went away with him. And there was following Him a great multitude, and they were thronging Him, 25 and a certain woman, being with a flow of blood [for] twelve years, 26 and having suffered many things under many physicians, and having spent all that she had, and having profited nothing, but rather having come to the worse, 27 having heard about Jesus, having come in the multitude behind, she touched His garment, 28 for she said, "If I may even touch His garments, I will be saved"; 29 and immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she knew in the body that she has been healed of the plague. 30 And immediately Jesus having known in Himself that power had gone forth out of Him, having turned in the multitude, said, "Who touched My garments?" 31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude

6 And He went forth from there, and came to His own country, and His disciples follow Him, 2 and Sabbath having come, He began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing were astonished, saying, "From where [did] this One [hear] these things? And what [is] the wisdom that was given to Him, that also such mighty works are done through His hands? 3 Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Mary, and brother of James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? And are His sisters not here with us?" And they were being stumbled at Him. 4 And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his relatives, and in his own house"; 5 and He was not able to do any mighty work there, except having put hands on a few sick, He healed [them]; 6 and He wondered because of their unbelief. And He was going around the villages, "What will I ask for myself?" And she said, "The in a circle, teaching, 7 and He calls near the Twelve, head of John the Immerser"; 25 and having come and He began to send them forth two by two, and He in immediately with haste to the king, she asked, was giving them power over the unclean spirits, 8 saying, "I will that you may immediately give me and He commanded them that they may take nothing the head of John the Immerser on a plate." 26 And for the way, except a staff only—no leather pouch, no the king, made very sorrowful because of the oaths bread, no brass in the girdle, 9 but having been shod and of those reclining with him, would not put her with sandals, and you may not put on two coats. 10 away, 27 and immediately the king having sent a And He said to them, "Whenever you may enter into a guardsman, commanded his head to be brought, 28 house, remain there until you may depart from there, and he having gone, beheaded him in the prison, 11 and as many as may not receive you nor hear you, and brought his head on a plate, and gave it to the going out from there, shake off the dust that is under girl, and the girl gave it to her mother; 29 and having your feet for a testimony to them; [[truly I say to you, it heard, his disciples came and took up his corpse, and will be more tolerable for Sodom or Gomorrah in [the] laid it in the tomb. 30 And the apostles are gathered day of judgment than for that city."]] 12 And having together to Jesus, and they told Him all, and how gone forth they were preaching that [men] might many things they did, and how many things they convert, 13 and they were casting out many demons, taught, 31 and He said to them, "Come yourselves and they were anointing many sick with oil, and they apart to a desolate place, and rest a little," for those were healing [them]. 14 And King Herod heard (for coming and those going were many, and not even His Name became public), and he said, "John the to eat had they opportunity, 32 and they went away Immerser was raised out of the dead, and because of to a desolate place, in the boat, by themselves. 33 this the mighty powers are working in him." 15 Others And the multitudes saw them going away, and many said, "It is Elijah," and others said, "It is a prophet, recognized Him, and they ran there by land from all or as one of the prophets." 16 And Herod having the cities, and went before them, and came together heard, said, "He whom I beheaded—John—is to Him, 34 and having come forth, Jesus saw a great he; he was raised out of the dead." 17 For Herod multitude, and was moved with compassion on them, himself, having sent forth, laid hold on John, and that they were as sheep not having a shepherd, and bound him in the prison, because of Herodias, the He began to teach many things. 35 And now the hour wife of his brother Philip, because he married her, being advanced, His disciples having come near to 18 for John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to Him, say, "The place is desolate, and the hour is have the wife of your brother"; 19 and Herodias was now advanced, 36 let them away, that having gone having a quarrel with him, and was willing to kill him, away into the surrounding fields and villages, they and was not able, 20 for Herod was fearing John, may buy loaves for themselves, for they do not have knowing him [to be] a righteous and holy man, and what they may eat." 37 And He answering said to was keeping watch over him, and having heard him, them, "You give them to eat," and they say to Him, was doing many things, and hearing him gladly. 21 "Having gone away, may we buy two hundred denarii And a seasonable day having come when Herod on worth of loaves, and give to them to eat?" 38 And He his birthday was making a banquet to his great men, says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and to the chiefs of thousands, and to the first men of and see"; and having known, they say, "Five, and Galilee, 22 and the daughter of that Herodias having two fishes." 39 And He commanded them to make all come in, and having danced, and having pleased recline in companies on the green grass, 40 and they Herod and those dining with him, the king said to the sat down in squares, by hundreds, and by fifties. 41 girl, "Ask of me whatever you will, and I will give to And having taken the five loaves and the two fishes, you," 23 and he swore to her, "Whatever you may ask having looked up to the sky, He blessed, and broke me, I will give to you—to the half of my kingdom." the loaves, and was giving [them] to His disciples, 24 And she, having gone forth, said to her mother, that they may set [them] before them, and the two fishes He divided to all, 42 and they all ate, and were filled, 43 and they took up of broken pieces twelve hand-baskets full, and of the fishes, 44 and those eating of the loaves were about five thousand men. 45 And immediately He constrained His disciples to go into the boat, and to go before [Him] to the other side, to Bethsaida, until He may let the multitude away, 46 and having taken leave of them, He went away to the mountain to pray. 47 And evening having come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and He alone on the land; 48 and He saw them harassed in the rowing, for the wind was against them, and about the fourth watch of the night He comes to them walking on the sea, and wished to pass by them. 49 And they having seen Him walking on the sea, thought [it] to be an apparition, and cried out, 50 for they all saw Him, and were troubled, and immediately He spoke with them, “Take courage! I AM; do not be afraid.” 51 And He went up to them into the boat, immediately having recognized Him, 52 for they did not understand concerning the loaves, “Listen to Me, you all, and understand; for their heart has been hard. 53 And having passed over, they came on the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore, 54 and they having come forth out of the boat, immediately having recognized Him, 55 they ran around through all that surrounding region, and they began to carry around on the pallets those being ill, where they were hearing that He is, 56 and wherever He was going, to villages, or cities, or fields, in the marketplaces they were laying the ailing, and were calling on Him, that they may touch if it were but the fringe of His garment, and as many as were touching Him were saved.

Your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat the bread with unwashed hands?” 6 And He answering said to them, “Well did Isaiah prophesy concerning you, hypocrites, as it has been written: This people honors Me with the lips, and their heart is far from Me; 7 and in vain they worship Me, teaching teachings, commands of men; 8 for having put away the command of God, you hold the tradition of men, immersions of pots and cups; and many other such like things you do.” 9 And He said to them, “Well land; 10 for Moses said, Honor your father and your mother; and, He who is speaking evil of father or mother—let him die the death; 11 and you say, If a man may say to father or to mother, Korban out of mine, 12 and you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or for his mother, 13 setting aside the word of God for your tradition that you delivered; and many such like things you do.” 14 And those are the things defiling the man. 16 [[If any has nothing from outside the man entering into him that is able to defile him, but the things coming out from him, into a house from the multitude, His disciples were able to defile him, but the things coming out from him, into the man is able to defile him? 19 Because it does not enter into his heart, but into the belly, and into the drain it goes out, purifying all the meats.” 20 And He said, “That which is coming out from the man, that defiles the man; 21 for from within, out of the heart of men, the evil reasonings come forth, adulteries, whoredoms, murders, 22 thefts, covetous desires, wickedness, deceit, arrogance, an evil eye, slander, pride, foolishness; 23 all these evils come forth from within, and they defile the man.” 24 And from there having risen, He went away to the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and having entered into the house, He wished none to know, and He was not able to be hid, 25 for a woman having heard about Him, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having come, fell at His feet—26 and the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician

7 And gathered together to Him are the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, having come from Jerusalem, 2 and having seen certain of His disciples with defiled hands—that is, unwashed—eating bread, they found fault; 3 for the Pharisees, and all the Jews, if they do not wash the hands to the wrist, do not eat, holding the tradition of the elders, 4 and [coming] from the marketplace, if they do not immerse themselves, they do not eat; and many other things there are that they received to hold, immersions of cups, and pots, and bronze vessels, and couches. 5 Then the Pharisees and the scribes question Him, “Why do

by nation—and was asking Him that He may cast forth the demon out of her daughter. 27 And Jesus said to her, "First permit the children to be filled, for it is not good to take the children's bread, and to cast [it] to the little dogs." 28 And she answered and says to Him, "Yes, Lord; for the little dogs under the table also eat of the children's crumbs." 29 And He said to her, "Because of this word, go; the demon has gone forth out of your daughter"; 30 and having come away to her house, she found the demon gone forth, and the daughter laid on the bed. 31 And again, having gone forth from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, He came to the Sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis, 32 and they bring to Him a deaf, stuttering man, and they call on Him that He may put the hand on him. 33 And having taken him away from the multitude by Himself, He put His fingers to his ears, and having spit, He touched his tongue, 34 and having looked to the sky, He sighed, and says to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened"; 35 and immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he was speaking plain. 36 He charged them that they may tell no one, but the more He was charging them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming [it], 37 and they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes both the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak."

8 In those days the multitude being very great, and not having what they may eat, Jesus having called near His disciples, says to them, 2 "I have compassion on the multitude, because now three days they continue with Me, and they have not what they may eat; 3 and if I will let them away fasting to their home, they will faint in the way, for certain of them are come from far." 4 And His disciples answered Him, "From where will anyone be able to feed these here in a wilderness with bread?" 5 And He was questioning them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven." 6 And He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and having taken the seven loaves, having given thanks, He broke, and was giving to His disciples that they may set before [them]; and they set before the multitude. 7 And they had a few small fishes, and having blessed, He said to set them also before [them]; 8 and they ate and were filled, and they took up that which was over of broken pieces—seven baskets; 9 and those eating with Him, seeking from Him a sign from Heaven, 10 and immediately having entered into the boat with His disciples, He came to the parts of Dalmanutha, 11 and having sighed deeply in His spirit, He says, "Why does this generation seek after a sign? Truly I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation." 12 And having left them, having entered again into the boat, He went away to the other side; 13 and they forgot to take loaves, and except one loaf they had nothing with them in the boat, 14 and they were reasoning with one another, saying, known, says to them, "Why do you reason, because you have no loaves? Do you not yet perceive, nor understand, yet have you hardened your heart? 15 They say to Him, "Twelve." 16 And Jesus having broken the five loaves to the five thousand, how many hand-baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" 17 And they said, "Seven." 18 And Jesus having broke the five loaves to the five thousand, how many hand-baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" 19 When I more He was charging them, the more abundantly they were proclaiming [it], 20 and they were being astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes both the deaf to hear, and the mute to speak."

prophets." 29 And He says to them, "And you—who do you say I am?" And Peter answering says to him, "You are the Christ." 30 And He strictly charged them that they may declare to no one the things that they may tell no one about it, 31 and began to teach them that it is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many things, and to be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and to be killed, and to rise again after three days; 32 and openly answering said to them, "Elijah indeed, having come He was speaking the word. And Peter having taken Him aside, began to rebuke Him, 33 and He, having turned, and having looked on His disciples, rebuked them, saying, "Get behind Me, Satan, because you do not mind the things of God, but the things of men." 34 And having called near the multitude, with His disciples, He said to them, "Whoever wills to come after Me—let him disown himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me; 35 for whoever may lose his life for My sake and for the good news' sake, he will save his life; and whoever may lose his life for what will it profit a man, if he may gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? 36 Or what will a man give as an exchange for his life? 37 For whoever may be ashamed of Me, and of My words, in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will 15 16 And He questioned the scribes, "What do you dispute with them?" 17 And one out of the multitude answering said, "Teacher, I brought my son to You, who has a spirit of dumbness; 18 and wherever it seizes him, it tears him, and he foams, and gnashes his teeth, and pines away; and I spoke to Your disciples that they may cast it out, and they were not able." 19 And also be ashamed of him when He may come in the glory of His Father with the holy messengers."

9 And He said to them, "Truly I say to you that there are certain of those standing here, who may not taste of death until they see the Kingdom of God having come in power." 2 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and John, and brings them up to a high mountain by themselves, alone, and He was transfigured before them, 3 and His garments became glittering, exceedingly white, as snow, so as a launderer on the earth is not able to whiten [them]. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answering says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good to us to be here; and we may make three shelters, for You one, and for Moses one, and for Elijah one": 6 for he was not knowing what he might say, for they were greatly afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved, hear Him"; 8 and suddenly, having looked around, they saw no one anymore, but Jesus only with themselves. 9 And as they are coming down from the mountain, He charged them that they may declare to no one the things that they saw, except when the Son of Man may rise out of the dead; 10 and the thing they kept to themselves, questioning together what the rising out of the dead things, and be set at nothing? 11 But I say to you that also Elijah has come, and they did to him what they willed, as it has been written of him." 14 And having come to the disciples, He saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning with them, 15 and immediately, all the multitude having seen Him, were amazed, and running near, were greeting Him. 16 And He questioned the scribes, "What do you dispute with them?" 17 And one out of the multitude answering said, "Teacher, I brought my son to You, who has a spirit of dumbness; 18 and wherever it seizes him, it tears him, and he foams, and gnashes his teeth, and pines away; and I spoke to Your disciples that they may cast it out, and they were not able." 19 And also be ashamed of him when He may come in the glory of His Father with the holy messengers."

9 And He said to them, "Truly I say to you that there are certain of those standing here, who may not taste of death until they see the Kingdom of God having come in power." 2 And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and John, and brings them up to a high mountain by themselves, alone, and He was transfigured before them, 3 and His garments became glittering, exceedingly white, as snow, so as a launderer on the earth is not able to whiten [them]. 4 And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. 5 And Peter answering says to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good to us to be here; and we may make three shelters, for You one, and for Moses one, and for Elijah one": 6 for he was not knowing what he might say, for they were greatly afraid. 7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, "This is My Son, the Beloved, hear Him"; 8 and suddenly, having looked around, they saw no one anymore, but Jesus only with themselves. 9 And as

until when will I be with you? Until when will I suffer you? Bring him to Me"; 20 and they brought him to Him, and he having seen Him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he, having fallen on the earth, was wallowing—foaming. 21 And He questioned his father, "How much time is it since this came to him?" And he said, "From childhood, 22 and many times it also cast him into fire, and into water, that it might destroy him; but if You are able to do anything, help us, having compassion on us." 23 And Jesus said to him, "If you are able to believe! All things are possible to the one that is believing"; 24 and immediately the father of the child, having cried out with tears, said, "I believe, Lord; be helping my unbelief." 25 Jesus having seen that a multitude runs together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "Spirit—mute and deaf—I charge you, come forth out of him, and you may no longer enter into him"; 26 and having cried, and convulsed him much, it came forth, and he became as dead, so that many said that he was dead, 27 but Jesus, having taken him by the hand, lifted him up, and he arose. 28 And He having come into the house, His disciples were questioning Him by Himself, "Why were we not able to cast it forth?" 29 And He said to them, "This kind is able to come forth with nothing except with prayer and fasting." 30 And having gone forth there, they were passing through Galilee, and He did not wish that any may know, 31 for He was teaching His disciples, and He said to them, "The Son of Man is being delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him, and having been killed, the third day He will rise," 32 but they were not understanding the saying, and they were afraid to question Him. 33 And He came to Capernaum, and being in the house, He was questioning them, "What were you reasoning in the way among yourselves?" 34 And they were silent, for they reasoned with one another in the way who is greater; 35 and having sat down He called the Twelve, and He says to them, "If any wills to be first, he will be last of all, and minister of all." 36 And having taken a child, He set him in the midst of them, and having taken him in His arms, said to them, 37 "Whoever may receive one of such children in My Name, receives Me, and whoever may receive Me, does not receive Me, but Him who sent Me." 38 And John answered Him, saying, "Teacher, we saw a certain one casting out demons in Your Name, who does not follow us, and we forbade him, because he does not follow us." 39 And Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in My Name, and will be readily able to speak evil of Me: 40 for he who is not against us is for us; 41 for whoever may give you to drink a cup of water in My Name, because you are Christ's, truly I say to you, he may not lose his reward; 42 and whoever may cause to stumble one of the little ones believing in Me, better is it for him if a millstone is hanged around his neck, and he has been cast into the sea. 43 And if your hand may cause you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life maimed, than having the two hands, to go away into Gehenna, into the fire—the unquenchable—(Geenna g1067) 44 [[where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched.]] 45 And if your foot may cause you to stumble, cut it off; it is better for you to enter into life lame, than having the two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire—the unquenchable—(Geenna g1067) 46 [[where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched.]] 47 And if your eye may cause you to stumble, cast it out; it is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God one-eyed, than having two eyes, to be cast into the Gehenna of fire—(Geenna g1067) 48 where their worm is not dying, and the fire is not being quenched; 49 for everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be salted with salt. 50 The salt [is] good, but if the salt may become saltless, in what will you season [it]? Have in yourselves salt, and have peace in one another."

10 And having risen from there, He comes to the coasts of Judea, through the other side of the Jordan, and again multitudes come together to Him, and as He had been accustomed, again He was teaching them. 2 And the Pharisees, having come near, questioned Him if it is lawful for a husband to put away a wife, tempting Him, 3 and He answering said to them, "What did Moses command you?" 4 And they said, "Moses permitted to write a bill of divorce, and to put away." 5 And Jesus answering said to them, "For the stiffness of your heart he wrote you this command, 6 but from the beginning of the creation God made them a male and a female; 7 on this account will a man leave his father and mother, and will cleave to his wife, 8 and they will be—the two—for one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh; 9 what God therefore joined together, do not let man separate." 10 And in the house His disciples again questioned Him of the same thing, 11 and He says to them, "Whoever may put away his wife, and may marry another, commits adultery against her; 12 and if a woman may put away her husband, and is married to another, she commits adultery." 13 And they were bringing to Him children that He might touch them, and the disciples were rebuking those bringing them, 14 and Jesus having seen, was much displeased, and He said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the Kingdom of God; 15 truly I say to you, whoever may not receive the Kingdom of God as a child—he may not enter into it"; 16 and having taken them in His arms, having put [His] hands on them, He was blessing them. 17 And as He is going forth into the way, one having run and having kneeled to Him, was questioning Him, "Good Teacher, what may I do that I may inherit continuous life?" (aiōnios scourge Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him, and g166) 18 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me the third day He will rise again." 35 And there come good? No one [is] good except one—God; 19 you near to Him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, have known the commands: You may not commit adultery, You may not murder, You may not steal, You for ourselves, You may do for us"; 36 and He said may not bear false witness, You may not defraud, to them, "What do you wish Me to do for you?" 37 Honor your father and mother." 20 And he answering And they said to Him, "Grant to us that, one on Your said to Him, "Teacher, all these I have kept from my right hand and one on Your left, we may sit in Your youth." 21 And Jesus having looked on him, loved glory"; 38 and Jesus said to them, "You have not him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: go away, known what you ask; are you able to drink of the whatever you have—sell, and give to the poor, and cup that I drink of, and with the immersion that I am you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow immersed with—to be immersed?" 39 And they said Me, having taken up the cross." 22 And he—gloomy to Him, "We are able"; and Jesus said to them, "Of at the word—went away sorrowing, for he was having the cup indeed that I drink of, you will drink, and with many possessions. 23 And Jesus having looked the immersion that I am immersed with, you will be around, says to His disciples, "How hardly will they immersed; 40 but to sit on My right and on My left who have riches enter into the Kingdom of God!" 24 is not Mine to give, but—to those for whom it has And the disciples were astonished at His words, and been prepared." 41 And the ten having heard, began Jesus again answering says to them, "Children, how to be much displeased at James and John, 42 but hard it is to those trusting on riches to enter into the Jesus having called them near, says to them, "You Kingdom of God! 25 It is easier for a camel to enter have known that they who are considered to rule the through the eye of the needle, than for a rich man to nations exercise lordship over them, and their great enter into the Kingdom of God." 26 And they were ones exercise authority on them; 43 but not so will it astonished beyond measure, saying to themselves, be among you; but whoever may will to become great "And who is able to be saved?" 27 And Jesus, having among you, he will be your minister, 44 and whoever looked on them, says, "With men it is impossible, but of you may will to become first, he will be servant of not with God; for all things are possible with God." 28 all; 45 for even the Son of Man did not come to be And Peter began to say to Him, "Behold, we left all, ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life [as] a and we followed You." 29 And Jesus answering said, ransom for many." 46 And they come to Jericho, and "Truly I say to you, there is no one who left house, as He is going forth from Jericho with His disciples or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, and a great multitude, a son of Timaeus—Bartimaeus or children, or fields, for My sake, and for the good the blind—was sitting beside the way begging, 47 and news', 30 who may not receive a hundredfold now having heard that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and to cry out, and to say, "The Son of David—Jesus! mothers, and children, and fields, with persecutions, Deal kindly with me"; 48 and many were rebuking him and in the age that is coming, continuous life; (aiōn that he might keep silent, but the more abundantly g165, aiōnios g166) 31 and many first will be last, and he cried out, "Son of David, deal kindly with me." 49 the last first." 32 And they were in the way going up to And Jesus having stood, He commanded him to be Jerusalem, and Jesus was going before them, and called, and they call the blind man, saying to him, they were amazed, and following they were afraid. "Take courage, rise, He calls you"; 50 and he, having And having again taken the Twelve, He began to tell cast away his garment, having risen, came to Jesus. them the things about to happen to Him: 33 "Behold, 51 And answering, Jesus says to him, "What do you we go up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will will I may do to you?" And the blind man said to Him, be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes, "Rabboni, that I may see again"; 52 and Jesus said to and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver him, "Go, your faith has saved you": and immediately Him to the nations, 34 and they will mock Him, and he saw again, and was following Jesus in the way.

11 And when they come near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, to the Mount of Olives, the city. 20 And in the morning, passing by, they saw He sends forth two of His disciples, 21 and says to them, “Go away into the village that is in front of Bethany, and you, and immediately, entering into it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one of men has sat, having been dried up from the roots, 22 And Jesus answering says to them, “Have faith loosed it, bring [it]: 23 for truly I say to you that whoever may Why do you do this? Say that the LORD has need to say to this mountain, Be taken up, and be cast into of it, and immediately He will send it here.” 4 And they went away, and found the colt tied at the door outside, by the two ways, and they loose it, 5 and will be to him whatever he may say. 24 Because of certain of those standing there said to them, “What this I say to you, all whatever—praying—you ask, do you—loosing the colt?” 6 And they said to them as Jesus commanded, and they permitted them. 7 whenever you may stand praying, forgive, if you have And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their anything against anyone, that your Father who is in garments on it, and He sat on it, 8 and many spread their garments in the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and were strewing in who is in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses; 26 [[and, if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]]) 27 the way. 9 And those going before and those following Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple, were crying out, saying, “Hosanna! Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Name of the LORD; 10 blessed and the scribes, and the elders, 28 and they say to is the coming kingdom, in the Name of the LORD, of Him, “By what authority do You do these things? And our father David; Hosanna in the highest!” 11 And who gave You this authority that You may do these things?” 29 And Jesus answering said to them, “I will and having looked around on all things, it being now evening, He went forth to Bethany with the Twelve. I will tell you by what authority I do these things; 30 12 And on the next day, they having come forth from Bethany, He hungered, 13 and having seen a fig tree far off having leaves, He came, if perhaps He will find anything in it, and having come to it, He found nothing except leaves, for it was not a time of figs, 14 and Jesus answering said to it, “No longer from you—throughout the age—may any eat fruit”; and His disciples were hearing. (aiōn g165) 15 And they come to Jerusalem, and Jesus having gone into the temple, began to cast forth those selling and buying in the temple, and He overthrew the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those selling the doves, 16 and He did not permit that any might carry a vessel through the temple, 17 and He was teaching, saying to them, “Has it not been written: My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations? And you made it a den of robbers!” 18 And the scribes and the chief priests heard, and they were seeking how they will destroy Him, for they were afraid of Him, because all the multitude was astonished at His teaching; 19 and when evening came, He was going forth outside and Peter having remembered says to Him, “Rabbi, behold, the fig tree that You cursed is dried up.” 20 And Jesus answering says to them, “Have faith believe that the things that he says come to pass, it will be to him whatever he may say. 21 And they said to them believe that you receive, and it will be to you. 25 And as Jesus commanded, and they permitted them. 7 whenever you may stand praying, forgive, if you have And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their anything against anyone, that your Father who is in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses; 26 [[and, if you do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in the heavens forgive your trespasses.]]) 27 the way. 9 And those going before and those following And they come again to Jerusalem, and in the temple, were crying out, saying, “Hosanna! Blessed [is] He as He is walking, there come to Him the chief priests, who is coming in the Name of the LORD; 10 blessed and the scribes, and the elders, 28 and they say to is the coming kingdom, in the Name of the LORD, of Him, “By what authority do You do these things? And our father David; Hosanna in the highest!” 11 And who gave You this authority that You may do these things?” 29 And Jesus answering said to them, “I will and having looked around on all things, it being now question you—I also—one word; and answer Me, and evening, He went forth to Bethany with the Twelve. I will tell you by what authority I do these things; 30 12 And on the next day, they having come forth from the immersion of John—was it from Heaven or from Bethany, He hungered, 13 and having seen a fig tree men? Answer Me.” 31 And they were reasoning with themselves, saying, “If we may say, From Heaven, He will say, Why then did you not believe him? 32 But if we may say, From men...” They were fearing the people, for all were holding that John was indeed a prophet; 33 and answering they say to Jesus, “We have not known”; and Jesus answering says to them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12 And He began to speak to them in allegories: “A man planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around, and dug a wine vat, and built a tower, and gave it out to farmers, and went abroad; 2 and he sent to the farmers at the due time a servant, that from the farmers he may receive from the fruit of the vineyard, 3 and they, having taken him, severely beat [him], and sent him away empty. 4 And again he sent to them another servant, and having cast stones at that one, they wounded [him] in the head, and sent [him] away—dishonored. 5 And again he sent another, and that one they killed; and many others, some beating, and some killing. 6 Having yet given in marriage, but are as messengers who them last, saying, They will respect my son; 7 and are in the heavens. 26 And concerning the dead, that those farmers said among themselves, This is the heir, come, we may kill him, and the inheritance will be ours; 8 and having taken him, they killed, and cast [him] forth outside the vineyard. 9 What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the bush), how God spoke to him, saying, I [am] the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; 27 He is not the God of dead men, but a the God of living men; you then go greatly astray." 28 And the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. 10 one of the scribes having come near, having heard And this Writing you did not read: A stone that the builders rejected, it became the head of a corner; 11 well, questioned Him, "Which is the first command this was from the LORD, and it is wonderful in our of all?" 29 And Jesus answered him, "The first of eyes." 12 And they were seeking to lay hold on Him, all the commands—Hear, O Israel: The LORD is and they feared the multitude, for they knew that He spoke the allegory against them, and having left Him, they went away; 13 and they send to Him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, that they may ensnare Him in discourse, 14 and they having come, say to Him, "Teacher, we have known that You are true, and You are not caring for anyone, for You do greater than these." 32 And the scribe said to Him, not look to the face of men, but in truth teach the "Well, Teacher, in truth You have spoken that there way of God; is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar or not? May we give, or may we not give?" 15 And He, to love Him out of all the knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you bring Me a denarius, that I may see"; the strength, and to love one's neighbor as one's self, 16 and they brought, and He says to them, "Whose is more than all the whole burnt-offerings and the [is] this image, and the inscription?" And they said sacrifices." 34 And Jesus, having seen him that he to Him, "Caesar's"; 17 and Jesus answering said to them, "Give back the things of Caesar to Caesar, not far from the Kingdom of God"; and no one dared and the things of God to God"; and they wondered at Him. 18 And the Sadducees come to Him, who say there is not a resurrection, and they questioned say that the Christ is son of David? 36 For David Him, saying, 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that himself said in the Holy Spirit, The LORD said to if anyone's brother may die, and may leave a wife, my Lord, Sit on My right hand, Until I place Your and may leave no children, that his brother may take enemies—Your footstool; 37 therefore David himself his wife, and raise up seed to his brother. 20 There calls Him Lord, and from where is He his son?" And were then seven brothers, and the first took a wife, the great multitude were hearing Him gladly, 38 and and dying, he left no seed; 21 and the second took He was saying to them in His teaching, "Beware of her, and died, not having left seed, and the third the scribes who will to walk in long robes, and love in like manner, 22 and the seven took her, and left salutations in the marketplaces, 39 and first seats in no seed, last of all the woman also died; 23 in the the synagogues, and first couches at the banquets, resurrection, then, whenever they may rise, of which 40 who are devouring the widows' houses, and for a of them will she be wife—for the seven had her as pretense are making long prayers; these will receive wife?" 24 And Jesus answering said to them, "Do more abundant judgment." 41 And Jesus having sat down opposite the treasury, was beholding how the multitude puts brass into the treasury, and many rich were putting in much, 42 and having come, a poor widow put in two mites, which are a penny. 43 And having called near His disciples, He says to them, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all those putting into the treasury; 44 for all, out of their abundance, put in, but she, out of her want, put in all that she had—all her living."

13 And as He is going forth out of the temple, one of His disciples says to Him, "Teacher, see! What stones! And what buildings!" 2 And Jesus answering said to him, "See these great buildings? There may not be left a stone on a stone that may not be thrown down." 3 And as He is sitting at the Mount of Olives, opposite the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, were questioning Him by Himself, 4 "Tell us when these things will be? And what [is] the sign when all these may be about to be fulfilled?" 5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, "Take heed lest anyone may lead you astray, 6 for many will come in My Name, saying, I am [He], and many they will lead astray; 7 and when you may hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be troubled, for these ought to be, but the end [is] not yet; 8 for nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and troubles; these [are the] beginning of travails. 9 And take heed to yourselves, for they will deliver you up to Sanhedrins, and to synagogues, you will be beaten, and before governors and kings you will be set for My sake, for a testimony to them; 10 and to all the nations it is first necessary that the good news be proclaimed. 11 And when they may lead you, delivering up, do not be anxious beforehand what you may speak, nor premeditate, but whatever may be given to you in that hour, that speak, for it is not you who are speaking, but the Holy Spirit. 12 And brother will deliver up brother to death, and father child, and children will rise up against parents, and will put them to death, 13 and you will be hated by all because of My Name, but he who has endured to the end—he will be saved. 14 And when you may see the abomination of the desolation, that was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it should not (whoever is reading let him understand), then those in Judea, let them flee to the mountains; 15 and he on the housetop, do not let him come down into the house, nor come in to the field, do not let him turn to the things behind, to take anything out of his house; 16 and he who is in the field, do not let him turn to the things behind, to take up his garment. 17 And woe to those with child, and to those giving suck, in those days; 18 and pray that your flight may not be in winter, 19 for those days will be tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created, until now, and may not be [again]; 20 and if the LORD did not shorten the days, no flesh had been saved; but because of the chosen, whom He chose to Himself, He shortened the days. 21 And then, if any may say to you, Behold, here [is] the Christ, or, Behold, there, you may not believe; 22 for there will rise false Christs and false prophets, and they will give signs and wonders, to seduce, if possible, also the chosen; 23 and you, take heed; behold, I have foretold you all things. 24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, 25 and the stars of the sky will be falling, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with much power and glory, 27 and then He will send His messengers, and gather together His chosen from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of heaven. 28 And from the fig tree learn the allegory: when the branch may already become tender, and may put forth the leaves, you know that the summer is near; 29 so you, also, when you may see these coming to pass, you know that it is near, at the doors. 30 Truly I say to you that this generation may not pass away until all these things may come to pass; 31 the heaven and the earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away. 32 And concerning that day and the hour no one has known—not even the messengers who are in Heaven, not even the Son—except the Father. 33 Take heed, watch and pray, for you have not known when the time is; 34 as a man who is gone abroad, having left his house, and given to his servants the authority, and to each one his work, also commanded the doorkeeper that he may watch; 35 watch, therefore, for you have not known when the lord of the house comes, at evening, or at midnight, or at rooster-crowing, or at the morning; 36 lest, having come suddenly, he may find you sleeping; 37 and what I say to you, I say to all, Watch!"

were after two days, and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how, by guile, having taken hold of Him, they might kill Him; 2 and they said, "Not in the celebration, lest there will be a tumult of the people." 3 And He, being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, at His reclining, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment, of spikenard, very precious, and having broken the alabaster box, poured [it] on His head; 4 and there were certain much displeased within themselves, and saying, "For what has this waste of the ointment been made? 5 For this could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor"; and they were murmuring at her. 6 And Jesus said, "Leave her alone; why are you giving her trouble? She worked a good work on Me; 7 for you always have the poor with you, and whenever you may will you are able to do them good, but you do not always have Me; 8 she did what she could, she anticipated to anoint My body for the embalming. 9 Truly I say to you, wherever this good news may be proclaimed in the whole world, what this woman did will also be spoken of—for a memorial of her." 10 And Judas the Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went away to the chief priests that he might deliver Him up to them, 11 and having heard, they were glad, and promised to give him money, and he was seeking how, conveniently, he might deliver Him up. 12 And the first day of the Unleavened [Bread], when they were killing the Passover, His disciples say to Him, "Where will You, [that] having gone, we may prepare, that You may eat the Passover?" 13 And He sends forth two of His disciples and says to them, "Go away into the city, and there a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you, follow him; 14 and wherever he may go in, say to the master of the house: The Teacher says, Where is the guest-chamber, where the Passover, with My disciples, I may eat? 15 And he will show you a large upper room, furnished, prepared—make ready for us there." 16 And His disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as He said to them, and they made ready the Passover. 17 And evening having come, He comes with the Twelve, 18 and as they are reclining, and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I say to you that one of you who is eating with Me will deliver Me up." 19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to Him one by one, "Is it I?" And another, "Is it I?" 20 And He answering said to them, "One of the Twelve who is dipping with Me in the dish; 21 the Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is delivered up; it were good to him if that man had not been born." 22 And as they are eating, Jesus having taken bread, having blessed, broke, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat; this is My body." 23 And having taken the cup, having given thanks, He gave to them, and they drank of it—all; 24 and He said to them, "This is My blood of the New Covenant, which is being poured out for many; 25 truly I say to you that I may drink no more of the produce of the vine until that day when I may drink it new in the Kingdom of God." 26 And having sung a hymn, they went forth to the Mount of Olives, 27 and Jesus says to them, "All of you will be stumbled at Me this night, because it has been written: I will strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered abroad; 28 but after My having risen I will go before you to Galilee." 29 And Peter said to Him, "And if all will be stumbled, yet not I." 30 And Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you that today, this night, before a rooster will crow twice, three times you will deny Me." 31 And he spoke the more vehemently, "If it may be necessary for me to die with You—I will in no way deny You"; and in like manner also said they all. 32 And they come to a spot, the name of which [is] Gethsemane, and He says to His disciples, "Sit here until I may pray"; 33 and He takes Peter, and James, and John with Him, and began to be amazed, and to be very heavy, 34 and He says to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful—to death; remain here, and watch." 35 And having gone forward a little, He fell on the earth, and was praying that, if it be possible, the hour may pass from Him, 36 and He said, "Abba, Father; all things are possible to You; make this cup pass from Me; but not what I will, but what You [will]." 37 And He comes, and finds them sleeping, and says to Peter, "Simon, you sleep! You were not able to watch one hour! 38 Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation; the spirit indeed is alike. 60 And the chief priest, having risen up in the forward, but the flesh weak." 39 And again having midst, questioned Jesus, saying, "You do not answer gone away, He prayed, saying the same word; 40 anything! Why do these testify against You?" 61 And and having returned, He found them sleeping again, He was keeping silent and did not answer anything. for their eyes were heavy, and they had not known Again the chief priest was questioning Him and says what they might answer Him. 41 And He comes the to Him, "Are You the Christ—the Son of the Blessed?" third time and says to them, "Sleep on from now on, 62 And Jesus said, "I AM; and you will see the Son and rest—it is over; the hour came; behold, the Son of Man sitting on the right hand of the Power and of Man is delivered up into the hands of the sinful; coming with the clouds of Heaven." 63 And the chief 42 rise, we may go, behold, he who is delivering priest, having torn his garments, says, "What need Me up has come near." 43 And immediately—while have we yet of witnesses? 64 You heard the slander, He is yet speaking—Judas comes near, one of the what appears to you?" And they all condemned Him Twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords to be worthy of death, 65 and certain began to spit on and sticks, from the chief priests, and the scribes, Him, and to cover His face, and to punch Him, and to and the elders; 44 and he who is delivering Him up say to Him, "Prophesy"; and the officers were striking had given a token to them, saying, "Whomsoever I Him with their palms. 66 And Peter being in the hall will kiss, it is He, lay hold on Him, and lead Him away beneath, there comes one of the maids of the chief safely," 45 and having come, immediately, having priest, 67 and having seen Peter warming himself, gone near Him, he says, "Rabbi, Rabbi," and kissed having looked on him, she said, "And you were with Him. 46 And they laid on Him their hands, and kept Jesus of Nazareth!" 68 And he denied, saying, "I have hold on Him; 47 and a certain one of those standing not known [Him], neither do I understand what you by, having drawn the sword, struck the servant of say"; and he went forth outside to the porch, and a the chief priest, and took off his ear. 48 And Jesus rooster crowed. 69 And the maid having seen him answering said to them, "As against a robber you again, began to say to those standing near, "This is came out, with swords and sticks, to take Me! 49 of them"; 70 and he was again denying. And after a Daily I was with you teaching in the temple, and you while again, those standing near said to Peter, "Truly did not lay hold on Me—but that the Writings may be you are of them, for you also are a Galilean, and fulfilled." 50 And having left Him they all fled; 51 and a your speech is alike"; 71 and he began to curse, and certain young man was following Him, having cast to swear, "I have not known this Man of whom you a linen cloth on [his] naked [body], and the young speak"; 72 and a second time a rooster crowed, and men lay hold on him, 52 and he, having left the linen Peter remembered the saying that Jesus said to him, cloth, fled from them naked. 53 And they led Jesus "Before a rooster crows twice, you may deny Me away to the chief priest, and all the chief priests, three times"; and having thought thereon—he was and the elders, and the scribes come together; 54 weeping.

and Peter followed Him far off, to the inside of the hall of the chief priest, and he was sitting with the officers, and warming himself near the fire. 55 And the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin were seeking testimony against Jesus—to put Him to death, and they were not finding, 56 for many were bearing false testimony against Him, and their testimonies were not alike. 57 And certain having risen up, were bearing false testimony against Him, saying, 58 "We heard Him saying, I will throw down this temple made with hands, and by three days, I will build another made without hands"; 59 and neither so was their testimony

15 And immediately, in the morning, the chief priests having made a consultation with the elders, and scribes, and the whole Sanhedrin, having bound Jesus, led [Him] away, and delivered [Him] to Pilate; 2 and Pilate questioned Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He answering said to him, "You say [it]." 3 And the chief priests were accusing Him of many things, [but He answered nothing.] 4 And Pilate again questioned Him, saying, "You do not answer anything? Behold, how many things they testify against You!" 5 And Jesus no longer answered anything, so that Pilate wondered. 6 And at every

celebration he was releasing to them one prisoner, slandering Him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Ha! whomsoever they were asking for; 7 and there was The [One] throwing down the temple, and building [one] named Barabbas, bound with those making [it] in three days! 30 Save Yourself, and come down insurrection with him, who had committed murder in from the cross!" 31 And in like manner also the chief of the insurrection. 8 And the multitude having cried out, priests, mocking with one another, with the scribes, began to ask for themselves as he was always doing said, "He saved others; He is not able to save Himself. to them, 9 and Pilate answered them, saying, "Will 32 The Christ! The King of Israel—let Him come down you [that] I will release to you the King of the Jews?" now from the cross, that we may see and believe"; 10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered and those crucified with Him were reproaching Him. Him up because of envy; 11 and the chief priests 33 And the sixth hour having come, darkness came moved the multitude that he might rather release over the whole land until the ninth hour, 34 and at Barabbas to them. 12 And Pilate answering, again the ninth hour Jesus cried with a great voice, saying, said to them, "What, then, will you [that] I will do to "Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabachthani?" Which is, being Him whom you call King of the Jews?" 13 And they interpreted, "My God, My God, why did You forsake again cried out, "Crucify Him!" 14 And Pilate said to Me?" 35 And certain of those standing by, having them, "Why—what evil did He do?" And they cried out heard, said, "Behold, He calls Elijah"; 36 and one the more vehemently, "Crucify Him!" 15 And Pilate, having run, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, resolving to do that which [was] satisfactory to the having also put [it] on a reed, was giving Him to drink, multitude, released Barabbas to them, and delivered saying, "Let alone, let us see if Elijah comes to take up Jesus—having scourged [Him]—that He might Him down." 37 And Jesus having uttered a loud cry, be crucified. 16 And the soldiers led Him away into yielded the spirit, 38 and the veil of the temple was the hall, which is [the] Praetorium, and call together torn in two from top to bottom, 39 and the centurion the whole band, 17 and clothe Him with purple, and who was standing opposite Him, having seen that, having plaited a garland of thorns, they put [it] on having so cried out, He yielded the spirit, said, "Truly Him, 18 and began to greet Him, "Hail, King of the this Man was [the] Son of God." 40 And there were Jews!" 19 And they were striking Him on the head with also women beholding far off, among whom was also a reed, and were spitting on Him, and having bent the Mary the Magdalene, and Mary of James the less, knee, were prostrating to Him, 20 and when they [had] and of Joses, and Salome, 41 who also, when He was mocked Him, they took the purple from off Him, and in Galilee, were following Him and were ministering clothed Him in His own garments, and they led Him to Him, and many other women who came up with forth, that they may crucify Him. 21 And they impress Him to Jerusalem. 42 And now evening having come, a certain one passing by—Simon, a Cyrenian, coming seeing it was the Preparation, that is, before Sabbath, from the field, the father of Alexander and Rufus—that 43 Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counselor, who he may carry His cross, 22 and they bring Him to the also himself was waiting for the Kingdom of God, place [called] Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, came, boldly entered in to Pilate, and asked for the "Place of [the] Skull"; 23 and they were giving Him body of Jesus. 44 And Pilate wondered if He were wine mingled with myrrh to drink, and He did not already dead, and having called near the centurion, receive [it]. 24 And having crucified Him, they were questioned him if He were long dead, 45 and having dividing His garments, casting a lot on them, what known [it] from the centurion, he granted the body to each may take; 25 and it was the third hour, and they Joseph. 46 And he, having brought fine linen, and crucified Him; 26 and the inscription of His accusation having taken Him down, wrapped Him in the linen, was written above: "THE KING OF THE JEWS." 27 and laid Him in a tomb that had been hewn out of a And they crucify two robbers with Him, one on the rock, and he rolled a stone to the door of the tomb, right hand and one on His left, 28 [[and the Writing 47 and Mary the Magdalene, and Mary of Joses, were was fulfilled that is saying, "And He was numbered beholding where He is laid. with lawless ones."]] 29 And those passing by were

And He, having risen in the morning of the first of the week, appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons; 10 she having gone, told those who had been with Him, mourning and weeping; 11 and they, having heard that He is alive, and was seen by her, did not believe. 12 And after these things, to two of them, as they are going into a field, walking, He appeared in another form, 13 and they having gone, told [it] to the rest; not even them did they believe. 14 Afterward, as they are reclining, He appeared to the Eleven, and reproached their unbelief and stiffness of heart, because they did not believe those having seen Him being raised; 15 and He said to them, "Having gone into all the world, proclaim the good news to all the creation; 16 he who has believed and has been immersed will be saved; and he who has not believed will be condemned. 17 And signs will accompany those believing these things: they will cast out demons in My Name; they will speak with new tongues; 18 they will take up serpents; and if they may drink any deadly thing, it will not hurt them; they will lay hands on the ailing, and they will be well." 19 The LORD, then, indeed, after speaking to them, was received up to Heaven, and sat on the

1 Seeing that many took in hand to set in order a narration of the matters that have been fully assured among us, 2 as they delivered to us, who from the beginning became eyewitnesses, and officers of the word, 3 it seemed good also to me, having followed from the first after all things exactly, to write to you in order, most noble Theophilus, 4 that you may know the certainty of the things wherein you were instructed. 5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest, by name Zacharias, of the division of Abijah, and his wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name Elizabeth; 6 and they were both righteous before God, going on in all the commands and righteousnesses of the LORD blameless, 7 and they had no child, because that Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in their days. 8 And it came to pass, in his acting as priest, in the order of his division before God, 9 according to the custom of the priesthood, his lot was to make incense, having gone into the temple of the LORD, 10 and all the multitude of the people were praying outside, at the hour of the incense. 11 And there appeared to him a messenger of the LORD standing on the right side of the altar of the incense, 12 and Zacharias, having seen, was troubled, and fear fell on him; 13 and the messenger said to him, "Do not fear, Zacharias, for your supplication was heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear a son to you, and you will call his name John, 14 and there will be joy to you, and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, 15 for he will be great before the LORD, and wine and strong drink he may not drink, and he will be full of the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb; 16 and he will turn many of the sons of Israel to the LORD their God, 17 and he will go before Him, in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn hearts of fathers to children, and disobedient ones to the wisdom of righteous ones, to make ready for the LORD, a people prepared." 18 And Zacharias said to the messenger, "Whereby will I know this? For I am aged, and my wife is advanced in her days?" 19 And the messenger answering said to him, "I am Gabriel, who has been standing near before God, and I was sent to speak to you, and to proclaim this good news to you, 20 and behold, you will be silent, and not able to speak, until the day that these things will come to pass, because you did not believe my words that will be fulfilled in their season." 21 And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and wondering at his lingering in the temple, 22 and having come out, he was not able to speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple, and he was beckoning to them, and remained mute. 23 And it came to pass, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he went away to his house, 24 and after those days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 "Thus the LORD has done to me, in days in which He looked on [me], to take away my reproach among men." 26 And in the sixth month the messenger Gabriel was sent by God, to a city of Galilee, the name of which [is] Nazareth, 27 to a virgin, betrothed to a man, whose name [is] Joseph, of the house of David, and the name of the virgin [is] Mary. 28 And the messenger having come in to her, said, "Greetings, favored one, the LORD [is] with you; blessed [are] you among women"; 29 and she, having seen, was troubled at his word, and was reasoning of what kind this salutation may be. 30 And the messenger said to her, "Do not fear, Mary, for you have found favor with God; 31 and behold, you will conceive in the womb, and will bring forth a Son, and call His Name Jesus; 32 He will be great, and He will be called Son of the Highest, and the LORD God will give Him the throne of His father David, 33 and He will reign over the house of Jacob for all ages; and of His kingdom there will be no end." (aīōn g165) 34 And Mary said to the messenger, "How will this be, seeing I do not know a husband?" 35 And the messenger answering said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Highest will overshadow you, therefore also the holy-begotten thing will be called Son of God; 36 and behold, Elizabeth, your relative, she also has conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month to her who was called barren; 37 because nothing will be impossible with God." 38 And Mary said, "Behold, the maid-servant of the LORD; let it be to me according to your saying," and the messenger went away from her. 39 And Mary having arisen in those days, went into the hill-country, with haste, to a city of Judea, 40 and entered into the house of Zacharias, and greeted Elizabeth. 41 And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the salutation “What then will this child be?” And the hand of the of Mary, the baby leapt in her womb; and Elizabeth LORD was with him. 67 And his father Zacharias was was filled with the Holy Spirit, 42 and spoke out with filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, 68 a loud voice and said, “Blessed [are] you among “Blessed [is] the LORD, the God of Israel, Because women, and blessed [is] the Fruit of your womb; 43 He looked on, And worked redemption for His people, and from where [is] this to me, that the mother of my 69 And raised a horn of salvation to us, In the house Lord might come to me? 44 For behold, when the of His servant David, 70 As He spoke by the mouth of voice of your salutation came to my ears, the baby His holy prophets, Which have been from the age; in my womb leapt in gladness; 45 and blessed [is] (aiōn g165) 71 Salvation from our enemies, And out of she who believed, for there will be a completion to the hand of all hating us, 72 To do kindness with our the things spoken to her from the LORD.” 46 And fathers, And to be mindful of His holy covenant, 73 An Mary said, “My soul magnifies the LORD, 47 And oath that He swore to Abraham our father, 74 To give my spirit was glad on God my Savior, 48 Because to us, without fear, Having been delivered out of the He looked on the lowliness of His maid-servant, For hand of our enemies, 75 To serve Him, in holiness behold, from now on all the generations will call me and righteousness Before Him, all the days of our blessed, 49 For He who is mighty did great things to life. 76 And you, child, Prophet of the Highest will me, And holy [is] His Name, 50 And His kindness you be called; For you will go before the face of the [is] to generations of generations, To those fearing LORD, To prepare His ways. 77 To give knowledge of Him; 51 He did powerfully with His arm, He scattered salvation to His people In forgiveness of their sins, 78 abroad the proud in the thought of their heart, 52 Through the yearnings of our God, In which the rising He brought down the mighty from thrones, And He from on high looked on us, 79 To give light to those exalted the lowly, 53 He filled the hungry with good, sitting in darkness and death-shade, To guide our And the rich He sent away empty; 54 He has taken hold of His servant Israel, To remember kindness, 55 As He spoke to our fathers, To Abraham and to his seed—throughout the age.” (aiōn g165) 56 And Mary remained with her about three months, and turned back to her house. 57 And to Elizabeth was the time fulfilled for her bringing forth, and she bore a son, 58 and the neighbors and her relatives heard that the LORD was making His kindness great with her, and they were rejoicing with her. 59 And it came to pass, on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were calling him by the name of his father, Zacharias, 60 and his mother answering said, “No, but he will be called John.” 61 And they said to her, “There is none among your relatives who is called by this name,” 62 and they were making signs to his father, what he would wish him to be called, 63 and having asked for a tablet, he wrote, saying, “John is his name”; and they all wondered; 64 and his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue, and he was speaking, praising God. 65 And fear came on all those dwelling around them, and in all the hill-country of Judea were all these sayings spoken of, 66 and all who heard laid them up in their hearts, saying,

2 And it came to pass in those days, there went forth a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world be registered— 2 this census first came to pass when Quirinius was governor of Syria— 3 and all were going to be registered, each to his proper city, 4 and Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, that is called Beth-Lehem, because of his being of the house and family of David, 5 to register himself with Mary his betrothed wife, being with Child. 6 And it came to pass, in their being there, the days were fulfilled for her bringing forth, 7 and she brought forth her Son—the firstborn, and wrapped Him up, and laid Him down in the manger, because there was not a place for them in the guest-chamber. 8 And there were shepherds in the same region, lodging in the field and keeping the night-watches over their flock, 9 and behold, a messenger of the LORD stood over them, and the glory of the LORD shone around them, and they feared [with] a great fear. 10 And the messenger said to them, “Do not fear, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be to all the salvation, 31 which You prepared before the face of people, 11 because today in the city of David a Savior all the peoples, 32 a light to the uncovering of nations, was born to you, who is Christ the LORD! 12 And this and the glory of Your people Israel." 33 And Joseph [is] the sign to you: you will find a Baby wrapped up, and His mother were wondering at the things spoken lying in the manger." 13 And suddenly there came concerning Him, 34 and Simeon blessed them and with the messenger a multitude of the heavenly host, said to His mother Mary, "Behold, this [One] is set for praising God, and saying, 14 "Glory in the highest to the falling and rising again of many in Israel, and for God, and on earth peace, among men—good will!" a sign spoken against— 35 (and also a sword will 15 And it came to pass, when the messengers were pass through your own soul)—that the reasonings of gone away from them to the heavens, that the men, many hearts may be revealed." 36 And there was the shepherds, said to one another, "We may indeed Anna, a prophetess, daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe go over to Beth-Lehem and see this thing that has of Asher, she was much advanced in days, having come to pass, that the LORD made known to us!" 16 lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, And they came, having hurried, and found both Mary, 37 and she [is] a widow of about eighty-four years, and Joseph, and the Baby lying in the manger, 17 and who did not depart from the temple, serving with fasts having seen, they made known abroad concerning and supplications, night and day, 38 and she, at that the saying spoken to them concerning the Child. 18 hour, having come in, was confessing, likewise, to And all who heard [it] wondered concerning the things the LORD, and was speaking concerning Him to all spoken to them by the shepherds; 19 and Mary was those looking for redemption in Jerusalem. 39 And preserving all these things, pondering [them] in her when they completed all things according to the Law heart; 20 and the shepherds turned back, glorifying of the LORD, they turned back to Galilee, to their and praising God for all those things they heard and city of Nazareth; 40 and the Child grew and was saw, as it was spoken to them. 21 And when eight strengthened in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and days were fulfilled to circumcise the Child, then was the grace of God was on Him. 41 And His parents His Name called Jesus, having been so called by were going yearly to Jerusalem, at the Celebration of the messenger before His being conceived in the the Passover, 42 and when He became twelve years womb. 22 And when the days of their purification old, they having gone up to Jerusalem according to were fulfilled, according to the Law of Moses, they the custom of the celebration, 43 and having finished brought Him up to Jerusalem, to present to the LORD, the days, in their returning the child Jesus remained 23 as it has been written in the Law of the LORD: behind in Jerusalem, and Joseph and His mother "Every male opening a womb will be called holy to did not know, 44 and having supposed Him to be in the LORD," 24 and to give a sacrifice, according to the company, they went a day's journey, and were that said in the Law of the LORD: "A pair of turtle- seeking Him among the relatives and among the doves, or two young pigeons." 25 And behold, there acquaintances, 45 and having not found Him, they was a man in Jerusalem whose name [is] Simeon, turned back to Jerusalem seeking Him. 46 And it and this man is righteous and devout, looking for came to pass, after three days they found Him in the comforting of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both him, 26 and it has been divinely told him by the hearing them and questioning them, 47 and all those Holy Spirit—not to see death before he may see the hearing Him were astonished at His understanding Christ of the LORD. 27 And he came in the Spirit and answers. 48 And having seen Him, they were into the temple, and in the parents bringing in the amazed, and His mother said to Him, "Child, why child Jesus, for their doing according to the custom did You do this to us? Behold, Your father and I, of the Law regarding Him, 28 then he took Him in sorrowing, were seeking You." 49 And He said to his arms, and blessed God, and he said, 29 "Now them, "Why [is it] that you were seeking Me? Did You send Your servant away, O LORD, according to you not know that it is necessary for Me to be in the Your word, in peace, 30 because my eyes saw Your things of My Father?" 50 And they did not understand the saying that He spoke to them, 51 and He went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and He was subject to them, and His mother was keeping all these sayings in her heart, 52 and Jesus was advancing in wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and men.

3 And in the fifteenth year of the government of Tiberius Caesar—Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip, tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, 2 [and] Annas and Caiaphas being chief priests—there came a word of God to John the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness, 3 and he came to all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming an immersion of conversion for forgiveness of sins, 4 as it has been written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet: “A voice of one crying in the wilderness: Prepare the way of the LORD, Make His paths straight; 5 Every valley will be filled, And every mountain and hill will be made low, And the crooked will become straightness, And the rough become smooth ways; 6 And all flesh will see the salvation of God.” 7 Then he said to the multitudes coming forth to be immersed by him, “Brood of vipers! Who prompted you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Make, therefore, fruits worthy of conversion, and do not begin to say within yourselves, We have a father—Abraham; for I say to you that God is able to raise children to Abraham out of these stones; 9 and also the axe is already laid to the root of the trees, every tree, therefore, not making good fruit is cut down, and it is cast into fire.” 10 And the multitudes were questioning him, saying, “What, then, will we do?” 11 And he answering says to them, “He having two coats, let him impart to him having none; and he having food, let him do in like manner.” 12 And there also came tax collectors to be immersed, and they said to him, “Teacher, what will we do?” 13 And he said to them, “Exact no more than that directed you.” 14 And also questioning him were those warring, saying, “And we, what will we do?” And he said to them, “Do violence to no one, nor accuse falsely, and be content with your wages.” 15 And the people are looking forward, and all are reasoning in their hearts concerning John, whether or not he may be the Christ; 16 John answered, saying to all, “I indeed immerse you in water, but He comes who is mightier than I, of whom I am not worthy to loose the strap of His sandals—He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire; 17 whose winnowing shovel [is] in His hand, and He will thoroughly cleanse His floor, and will gather the wheat into His storehouse, and He will burn the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

18 And therefore, indeed, with many other things, exhorting, he was proclaiming good news to the people, 19 and Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him concerning Herodias, the wife of his brother Philip, and concerning all the evils that Herod did, 20 added also this to all, that he shut up John in the prison. 21 And it came to pass, in all the people being immersed, Jesus also being immersed, and praying, Heaven was opened, 22 and the Holy Spirit came down in a bodily appearance, as if a dove, on Him, and a voice came out of Heaven, saying, “You are My Son, the Beloved, in You I delighted.” 23 And Jesus Himself was beginning to be about thirty years of age, being, as was supposed, Son of Joseph, 24 the [son] of Eli, the [son] of Matthat, the [son] of Levi, the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Janna, the [son] of Joseph, 25 the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Amos, the [son] of Nahum, the [son] of Esli, 26 the [son] of Naggai, the [son] of Maath, the [son] of Mattathias, the [son] of Semei, the [son] of Joseph, the [son] of Judah, 27 the [son] of Joanna, the [son] of Rhesa, the [son] of Zerubbabel, the [son] of Shealtiel, 28 the [son] of Neri, the [son] of Melchi, the [son] of Addi, the [son] of Cosam, the [son] of Elmodam, the [son] of Er, 29 the [son] of Jose, the [son] of Eliezer, the [son] of Jorim, the [son] of Matthat, 30 the [son] of Levi, the [son] of Simeon, the [son] of Judah, the [son] of Joseph, the [son] of Jonan, the [son] of Eliakim, 31 the [son] of Melea, the [son] of Mainan, the [son] of Mattatha, the [son] of Nathan, 32 the [son] of David, the [son] of Jesse, the [son] of Obed, the [son] of Boaz, the [son] of Salmon, the [son] of Nahshon, 33 the [son] of Amminadab, the [son] of Aram, the [son] of Esrom, the [son] of Perez, 34 the [son] of Judah, the [son] of Jacob, the [son] of Isaac, the [son] of Abraham, the [son] of Terah, the [son] of Nahor, 35 the [son] of Serug, the [son] of Reu, the [son] of Peleg, the [son] of Eber, 36 the [son] of Salah, the [son] of Cainan, the [son] of Arphaxad, the [son] of

Shem, the [son] of Noah, the [son] of Lamech, 37 the [son] of Methuselah, the [son] of Enoch, the [son] of Jared, the [son] of Mahalaleel, 38 the [son] of Cainan, the [son] of Enos, the [son] of Seth, the [son] of Adam, the [son] of God.

4 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, turned back from the Jordan, and was brought in the Spirit into the wilderness, 2 being tempted by the Devil forty days, and He did not eat anything in those days, and they having been ended, He afterward hungered, 3 and the Devil said to Him, “If You are [the] Son of God, speak to this stone that it may become bread.”

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, “It has been written, that, Not on bread only will man live, but on every saying of God.” 5 And the Devil having brought Him up to a high mountain, showed to Him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time, 6 and the Devil said to Him, “To You I will give all this authority, and their glory, because to me it has been delivered, and to whomsoever I will, I give it; 7 You, then, if You may worship me—all will be Yours.”

8 And Jesus answering him said, “[Get behind Me, Satan, for] it has been written: You will worship the LORD your God, and Him only you will serve.” 9 And he brought Him to Jerusalem, and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, cast Yourself down from here, 10 for it has been written: To His messengers He will give charge concerning you, to guard over you; 11 and: On hands they will bear you up, lest at any time you may dash your foot against a stone.”

12 And Jesus answering said to him, “It has been said, You will not tempt the LORD your God.” 13 And having ended all temptation, the Devil departed from Him until a convenient season. 14 And Jesus turned back in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a fame went forth through all the surrounding region concerning Him, 15 and He was teaching in their synagogues, being glorified by all. 16 And He came to Nazareth, where He has been brought up, and He went in, according to His custom, on the day of the Sabbaths, into the synagogue, and stood up to read; 17 and there was given over to Him a scroll of Isaiah the prophet, and having unfolded the scroll, He found the place where it has been written: 18 “The Spirit of the LORD [is] on Me, Because He anointed Me To proclaim good news to the poor, Sent Me to heal the broken of heart, To proclaim to captives deliverance, And to blind receiving of sight, To send the bruised away with deliverance, 19 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD.” 20 And having folded the scroll, having given [it] back to the officer, He sat down, and the eyes of all in the synagogue were gazing on Him. 21 And He began to say to them, “Today this writing has been fulfilled in your ears”; 22 and all were bearing testimony to Him, and were wondering at the gracious words that are coming forth out of His mouth, and they said, “Is this not the Son of Joseph?” 23 And He said to them, “Certainly you will say to Me this allegory, Physician, heal yourself; as great things as we heard done in Capernaum, do also here in Your country”; 24 and He said, “Truly I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country; 25 and of a truth I say to you, many widows were in the days of Elijah, in Israel, when the sky was shut for three years and six months, when great famine came on all the land, 26 and to none of them was Elijah sent, but—to Sarepta of Sidon, to a woman, a widow; 27 and many lepers were in the time of Elisha the prophet, in Israel, and none of them was cleansed, but—Naaman the Syrian.” 28 And all in the synagogue were filled with wrath, hearing these things, 29 and having risen, they put Him forth outside the city, and brought Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built—to cast Him down headlong, 30 and He, having gone through the midst of them, went away. 31 And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths, 32 and they were astonished at His teaching, because His word was with authority. 33 And in the synagogue was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a great voice, 34 “Aah! What [regards] us and You, Jesus, O Nazarene? You came to destroy us; I have known who You are—the Holy One of God!” 35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come forth out of him”; and the demon having cast him into the midst, came forth from him, having hurt him nothing; 36 and amazement came on all, and they were speaking together with one another, saying, “What [is] this word, that with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come forth?” 37 And there was going forth a fame concerning Him to every place of the surrounding region. 38 And having risen out of the synagogue, He entered into the house of Simon, and the mother-in-law of Simon was pressed with a great fever, and they having risen, she was ministering to them. 40 And at the setting of the sun, all, as many as had any ailment with manifold diseases, brought them to Him, and He, having put hands on each one of them, healed them. 41 And demons were also coming forth from many, having come, having gone forth, He went on to a desolate place, and the multitudes were seeking Him, to go on from them, 43 and He said to them, "Also to the other cities it is necessary for Me to proclaim good news of the Kingdom of God, because for this I have been sent"; 44 and He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

5 And it came to pass, in the multitude pressing on Him to hear the word of God, that He was standing beside the Lake of Gennesaret, 2 and He saw two boats standing beside the lake, and the fishers, having gone away from them, were washing the nets, 3 and having entered into one of the boats, that was Simon's, He asked him to put back a little from the land, and having sat down, was teaching the multitudes out of the boat. 4 And when He left off speaking, He said to Simon, "Put back into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch"; 5 and Simon answering said to Him, "Master, through the whole night, having labored, we have taken nothing, but at Your saying I will let down the net." 6 And having done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes, and their net was breaking, 7 and they beckoned to the partners who [are] in the other boat, having come, to help them; and they came, and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking. 8 And Simon Peter having seen, fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying, "Depart from me, because I am a sinful man, O Lord"; 9 for astonishment seized him, and all those with him, at the catch of the fishes that they took, 10 and in like manner also James and John, sons of

Zebedee, who were partners with Simon; and Jesus said to Simon, "Do not fear, from now on you will be catching men"; 11 and they, having brought the boats on the land, having left all, followed Him. 12 asked Him about her, 39 and having stood over her, And it came to pass, in His being in one of the cities, He rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately, having stretched forth [His] hand, He touched him, having said, "I will be cleansed"; and 13 and having stretched forth [His] hand, He having put hands on each one of them, healed them. 14 And crying out and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God"; and rebuking, He did not permit them to speak, because they knew Him to be the Christ. 42 And day by day your cleansing according as Moses directed, for a having come, having gone forth, He went on to a testimony to them"; 15 but the more was the report of Him of their sicknesses, 16 and He was withdrawing Himself in the desolate places and was praying. 17 And it came to pass, on one of the days, that He was teaching, and there were sitting by Pharisees and teachers of the Law, who were come out of every village of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem, and the power of the LORD was—to heal them. 18 And behold, men carrying a man on a bed, who has been struck with palsy, and they were seeking to bring him in, and to place before Him, 19 and having not found by what way they may bring him in because of the multitude, having gone up on the housetop, through the tiles they let him down with the little bed, into the midst before Jesus, 20 and He having seen their faith, said to him, "Man, your sins have been forgiven you." 21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks evil words? Who is able to forgive sins, except God only?" 22 And Jesus having known their reasonings, answering, said to them, "What reason you in your hearts? 23 Which is easier—to say, Your sins have been forgiven you? Or to say, Arise, and walk? 24 And that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on the earth to forgive sins—(He said to the one struck with palsy)—I say to you, arise, and having taken up your little bed, be going on to your house." 25 And immediately having risen before them, having taken up [that] on which he was lying, he went away to his house, glorifying God, 26 and astonishment took all, and they were glorifying God, and were filled with fear, saying, "We saw strange things today." 27 And after these things He went forth, and beheld a tax collector, by name Levi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow Me"; 28 and he, having left all, having arisen, followed Him. 29 And Levi made a great entertainment to Him in his house, and there was a great multitude of tax collectors and others who were with them reclining, 30 and the scribes and the Pharisees among them were murmuring at His disciples, saying, "Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" 31 And Jesus answering said to them, "They who are well have no need of a physician, but they that are ill: 32 I did not come to call the righteous men, but sinners, to conversion." 33 And they said to Him, "Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make supplications—in like manner also those of the Pharisees—but Yours eat and drink?" 34 And He said to them, "Are you able to make the sons of the bride-chamber—in the Bridegroom being with them—to fast? 35 But days will come, and when the Bridegroom may be taken away from them, then they will fast in those days." 36 And He spoke also an allegory to them: "No one puts a patch of new clothing on old clothing, and if otherwise, the new makes a split, and with the old the patch does not agree, that [is] from the new. 37 And no one puts new wine into old skins, and if otherwise, the new wine will burst the skins, and itself will be poured out, and the skins will be destroyed; 38 but new wine is to be put into new skins, and both are preserved together; 39 and no one having drunk old, immediately wishes new, for he says, The old is better."

came to pass also, on another Sabbath, that He goes into the synagogue, and teaches, and there a man, and his right hand was withered, 7 and the scribes and the Pharisees were watching Him, and said to him, "If on the Sabbath He will heal, that they might find an accusation against Him. 8 And He Himself had known their reasonings and said to the man having the withered hand, "Rise, and stand in the midst"; and he having risen, stood. 9 Then Jesus said to them, "I will question you something: is it lawful on the Sabbaths to do good, or to do evil? To save life or to kill?" 10 And having looked around on them all, He said to the man, "Stretch forth your hand"; and he did so, and his hand was restored whole as the other; 11 and they were filled with madness, and were speaking with one another what they might do to Jesus. 12 And it came to pass in those days, He went forth to the mountain to pray, and was passing the night in the prayer of God, 13 and when it became day, He called near His disciples, also having chosen twelve from them, whom He also named apostles: 14 Simon, whom He also named Peter, and his brother Andrew, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, 15 Matthew and Thomas, James of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zealot, 16 Judas of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also became betrayer. 17 And having come down with them, He stood on a level spot; and a crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of the people from all Judea, and Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, 18 who came to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases, [gathered]. And those harassed by unclean spirits [also gathered] and were healed. 19 And all the multitude were seeking to touch Him, because power was going forth from Him, and He was healing all. 20 And He, having lifted up His eyes to His disciples, said: "Blessed the poor—because yours is the Kingdom of God. 21 Blessed those hungering now—because you will be filled. Blessed those weeping now—because you will laugh. 22 Blessed are you when men will hate you, and when they will separate you, and will reproach, and will cast forth your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake— 23 rejoice in that day, and leap, for behold, your reward [is] great in Heaven, for according to these things were their fathers doing to the prophets. 24 But woe to you—the rich, because you have gotten your comfort. 25 Woe to you who have been filled—because you will hunger. Woe to you who are laughing now—because you will mourn and weep. 26 Woe to you when all men will speak well of you—for according to these things were their fathers doing to false prophets. 27 But I say to you who are hearing, love your enemies, do good to those hating you, 28 bless those cursing you, pray for those hating you; 29 and to him striking you on the cheek, give also the other, and from him taking away your goods, do not do what I say? 30 And to everyone who is asking of you, be giving; and from him who is taking away your goods, do not be asking again; 31 and as you wish that men may do to you, do also to them in like manner; 32 shake it, for it had been founded on the rock. 33 And if you do good to those doing good to you, what grace is it to you? For also the sinful do the same; 34 and if you lend [to those] of whom you hope to receive back, what grace is it to you? For also the sinful lend to sinners—that they may receive again as much. 35 But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Highest, because He is kind to the ungracious and evil; 36 be therefore merciful, as also your Father is merciful. 37 And do not judge, and you may not be judged; do not condemn, and you may not be condemned; release, and you will be released. 38 Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, pressed, and shaken, and running over, they will give into your bosom; for with that measure with which you measure, it will be measured to you again.” 39 And He spoke an allegory to them, “Is blind able to lead blind? Will they not both fall into a pit? 40 A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone perfected will be as his teacher. 41 And why do you behold the speck that is in your brother’s eye, and do not consider the beam that [is] in your own eye? 42 Or how are you able to say to your brother, Brother, permit, I may take out the speck that [is] in your eye—yourself not beholding the beam in your own eye? Hypocrite, first take the beam out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that [is] in your brother’s eye. 43 For there is not a good tree making bad fruit, nor a bad tree making good fruit; 44 for each tree is known from its own fruit, for they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they crop a grape from a bramble. 45 The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which [is] good; and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which [is] evil; for out of the abounding of the heart his mouth speaks. 46 And why do you call Me, Lord, Lord, and maligning you; 47 Everyone who is coming to Me, and is hearing My words, and is doing them, I will show you to whom he is like: 48 he is like to a man building a house, who dug and deepened, and laid a foundation on the rock, and a flood having come, the stream broke forth on that house, and was not able to break it, for it had been founded on the rock. 49 And he who heard and did not, is like to a man having built a house on the earth, without a foundation, against which the stream broke forth, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house became great.”

6 And it came to pass, on a Sabbath, as He is going through the grainfields, that His disciples were plucking the ears, and were eating, rubbing with the hands, 2 and certain of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbaths?" 3 And Jesus answering said to them, "Did you not read even this that David did when he hungered, himself and those who are with him, 4 how he went into the house of God, and took the Bread of the Presentation, and ate, and gave also to those with him, which it is not lawful to eat, except only to the priests?" 5 And He said to them, "The Son of Man is Lord also of the Sabbath." 6 And it

7 And when He completed all His sayings in the ears of the people, He went into Capernaum; 2 and a certain centurion’s servant being ill, was about to die, who was much valued by him, 3 and having heard about Jesus, he sent to Him elders of the Jews, imploring Him, that having come He might thoroughly save his servant. 4 And they, having come near to Jesus, were calling on Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy to whom You will do this, 5 for he loves our nation, and he built to us the synagogue.” 6 And Jesus was going on with them, and now when He is not far distant from the house the centurion sent to Him friends, saying to Him, “Lord, do not be troubled, for I am not worthy that You may enter under my roof; 7 for this reason I did not consider myself worthy to come to You, but say in a word, and my boy will be healed; 8 for I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers, and I say to this [one], Go, and he goes; and to another, Be coming, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does [it].” 9 And having heard these things Jesus wondered at him, and having turned to the multitude following Him, He said, “I say to you, not even in Israel did I find so much faith”; 10 and those sent, having turned back to the house, found the ailing servant in health. 11 And it came to pass, on the next day, He was going on to a city called Nain, and there were going with Him

many of His disciples, and a great multitude, 12 and of John, 30 but the Pharisees and the lawyers put as He came near to the gate of the city, then, behold, away the counsel of God for themselves, having not one dead was being carried forth, an only son of his been immersed by him. 31 And the LORD said, "To mother, and she a widow, and a great multitude of the what, then, will I liken the men of this generation? And city was with her. 13 And the LORD having seen her, to what are they like? 32 They are like to children, was moved with compassion toward her and said to to those sitting in a marketplace, and calling to one her, "Do not be weeping"; 14 and having come near, another, and saying, We piped to you, and you did not He touched the bier, and those carrying [it] stood still, dance, we mourned to you, and you did not weep! 33 and He said, "Young man, to you I say, Arise"; 15 and For John the Immerser came neither eating bread nor the dead sat up, and began to speak, and He gave drinking wine, and you say, He has a demon; 34 the him to his mother; 16 and fear took hold of all, and Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, they were glorifying God, saying, "A great prophet has Behold, a man, a glutton, and a wine drinker, a friend risen among us," and, "God looked on His people." of tax collectors and sinners; 35 and the wisdom was 17 And the account of this went forth in all Judea justified from all her children." 36 And a certain one of about Him, and in all the region around. 18 And the the Pharisees was asking Him that He might eat with disciples of John told him about all these things, 19 him, and having gone into the house of the Pharisee and John having called near a certain two of his He reclined, 37 and behold, a woman in the city, who disciples, sent to Jesus, saying, "Are You He who is was a sinner, having known that He reclines in the coming, or do we look for another?" 20 And having house of the Pharisee, having provided an alabaster come near to Him, the men said, "John the Immerser box of ointment, 38 and having stood behind, beside sent us to You, saying, Are You He who is coming, or His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with the do we look for another?" 21 And in that hour He cured tears, and with the hairs of her head she was wiping, many from diseases, and plagues, and evil spirits, and was kissing His feet, and was anointing with and He granted sight to many blind. 22 And Jesus the ointment. 39 And the Pharisee who called Him, answering said to them, "Having gone on, report to having seen, spoke within himself, saying, "This One, John what you saw and heard, that blind men see if He were a prophet, would have known who and of again, lame walk, lepers are cleansed, deaf hear, what kind [is] the woman who touches Him, that she dead are raised, poor have good news proclaimed; is a sinner." 40 And Jesus answering said to him, 23 and blessed is he who ever may not be stumbled in "Simon, I have something to say to you"; and he says, Me." 24 And the messengers of John having gone "Teacher, say on." 41 "Two debtors were to a certain away, He began to say to the multitudes concerning creditor; one was owing five hundred denarii, and the John: "What have you gone forth into the wilderness other fifty; 42 and they not having [with which] to give to look on? A reed shaken by the wind? 25 But what back, he forgave both; which of them then, do you have you gone forth to see? A man clothed in soft say, will love him more?" 43 And Simon answering garments? Behold, they in splendid clothing, and said, "I suppose that to whom he forgave the more"; living in luxury, are in the houses of kings! 26 But what and He said to him, "You judged correctly." 44 And have you gone forth to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to having turned to the woman, He said to Simon, "See you, and much more than a prophet: 27 this is he this woman? I entered into your house; you did not concerning whom it has been written: Behold, I send give water for My feet, but this woman wet My feet My messenger before Your face, who will prepare with tears, and wiped with the hairs of her head; Your way before You; 28 for I say to you, there is 45 you did not give a kiss to Me, but this woman, not a greater prophet, among those born of women, from what [time] I came in, did not cease kissing My than John the Immerser; but the least in the Kingdom feet; 46 you did not anoint My head with oil, but this of God is greater than he." 29 And all the people woman anointed My feet with oil; 47 therefore I say having heard, and the tax collectors, declared God to you, her many sins have been forgiven, because righteous, having been immersed with the immersion she loved much; but to whom is forgiven little, loves little." 48 And He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven"; 49 and those dining with Him began to say within themselves, "Who is this, who also forgives sins?" 50 And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you, be going on to peace."

8 And it came to pass thereafter, that He was going through every city and village, preaching and proclaiming good news of the Kingdom of God, and the Twelve [are] with Him, 2 and certain women who were healed of evil spirits and sicknesses, Mary who is called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone forth, 3 and Joanna wife of Chuza, steward of Herod, and Susanna, and many others, who were ministering to Him from their substance. 4 And a great multitude having gathered, and those who from city and city were coming to Him, He spoke by an allegory: 5 "The sower went forth to sow his seed, and in his sowing some indeed fell beside the way, and it was trodden down, and the birds of the sky devoured it. 6 And other fell on the rock, and having sprung up, it withered, through having no moisture. 7 And other fell amidst the thorns, and the thorns having sprung up with it, choked it. 8 And other fell on the good ground, and having sprung up, it made fruit a hundredfold." Saying these things, He was calling, "He having ears to hear—let him hear." 9 And His disciples were questioning Him, saying, "What may this allegory be?" 10 And He said, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in allegories, that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. 11 And this is the allegory: the seed is the word of God, 12 and those beside the way are those hearing, then comes the Devil, and takes up the word from their heart, lest having believed, they may be saved. 13 And those on the rock: they who, when they may hear, receive the word with joy, and these have no root, who for a time believe, and in time of temptation fall away. 14 And that which fell to the thorns: these are they who have heard, and going forth, through anxieties, and riches, and pleasures of life, are choked, and do not bear to completion. 15 And that in the good ground: these are they who in an upright and good heart, having heard the word, retain [it], and bear fruit in continuance. 16 And no one having lighted a lamp covers it with a vessel, or puts [it] under a bed; but he puts [it] on a lampstand, that those coming in may see the light, 17 for nothing is secret, that will not become visible, nor hid, that will not be known and become visible. 18 See, therefore, how you hear, for whoever may have, there will be given to him, and whoever may not have, also what he seems to have will be taken from him." 19 And there came to Him His mother and brothers, and they were not able to get to Him because of the multitude, 20 and it was told Him, saying, "Your mother and Your brothers stand outside, wishing to see You"; 21 and He answering said to them, "My mother and My brothers! They are those who are hearing the word of God, and doing." 22 And it came to pass, on one of the days, that He Himself went into a boat with His disciples, and He said to them, "We may go over to the other side of the lake"; and they set forth, 23 and as they are sailing He fell deeply asleep, and there came down a storm of wind to the lake, and they were filling, and were in peril. 24 And having come near, they awoke Him, saying, "Master, Master, we perish!" And He, having arisen, rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and there came a calm, 25 and He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they being afraid wondered, saying to one another, "Who, then, is this, that He even commands the winds and the water, and they obey Him?" 26 And they sailed down to the region of the Gadarenes that is opposite Galilee, 27 and He having gone forth on the land, there met Him a certain man, out of the city, who had demons for a long time, and was not clothed with a garment, and was not abiding in a house, but in the tombs, 28 and having seen Jesus, and having cried out, he fell before Him, and with a loud voice, said, "What [regards] me and You, Jesus, Son of God Most High? I implore You, may You not afflict me!" 29 For He commanded the unclean spirit to come forth from the man, for many times it had caught him, and he was being bound with chains and shackles—guarded, and breaking apart the bonds he was driven by the demons into the deserts. 30 And Jesus questioned him, saying, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," because many demons were entered into him, 31 and he was calling on Him that He may not command them to go away into the abyss, (Abyssos g12) 32 and there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they were calling on faith has saved you, be going on to peace." 49 While Him that He might permit them to enter into these, He is yet speaking, there comes a certain one from and He permitted them, 33 and the demons having the chief of the synagogue's [house], saying to him, gone forth from the man, entered into the pigs, and "Your daughter has died, do not harass the Teacher"; the herd rushed down the steep into the lake, and 50 and Jesus having heard, answered him, saying, were drowned. 34 And those feeding [them], having "Do not be afraid, only believe, and she will be saved." seen what was come to pass, fled, and having gone, 51 And having come into the house, He permitted no told [it] to the city, and to the fields; 35 and they came one to go in, except Peter, and James, and John, forth to see what was come to pass, and they came and the father of the child, and the mother; 52 and to Jesus, and found the man sitting, out of whom the they were all weeping, and beating themselves for demons had gone forth, clothed, and right-minded, at her, and He said, "Do not weep, she did not die, but the feet of Jesus, and they were afraid; 36 and those sleeps"; 53 and they were deriding Him, knowing that also having seen [it], told them how the demoniac she died; 54 and He having put all forth outside, and was saved. 37 And the whole multitude of the region having taken hold of her hand, called, saying, "Child, of the Gadarenes asked Him to go away from them, arise"; 55 and her spirit came back, and she arose because they were pressed with great fear, and He immediately, and He directed that there be given to having entered into the boat, turned back. 38 And her to eat; 56 and her parents were amazed, but He the man from whom the demons had gone forth was charged them to say to no one what had come to imploring of Him to be with Him, and Jesus sent pass.

him away, saying, 39 "Return to your house, and tell how God did great things to you"; and he went away through all the city proclaiming how Jesus did great things to him. 40 And it came to pass, in the turning back of Jesus, the multitude received Him, for they were all looking for Him, 41 and behold, there came a man whose name [is] Jairus, and he was a chief of the synagogue, and having fallen at the feet of Jesus, was calling on Him to come to his house, 42 because he had an only daughter about twelve years [old], and she was dying. And in His going away, the multitudes were thronging Him, 43 and a woman, being with a flow of blood for twelve years, who, having spent all her living on physicians, was not able to be healed by any, 44 having come near behind, touched the fringe of His garment, and immediately the flow of her blood stood still. 45 And Jesus said, "Who [is] it that touched Me?" And all denying, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press You, and throng [You], and You say, Who [is] it that touched Me?" 46 And Jesus said, "Someone touched Me, for I knew power having gone forth from Me." 47 And the woman, having seen that she was not hid, trembling, came, and having fallen before Him, for what cause she touched Him declared to Him before all the people, and how she was healed instantly; 48 and He said to her, "Take courage, daughter, your

9 And having called together His twelve disciples, He gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to cure diseases, 2 and He sent them to proclaim the Kingdom of God, and to heal the ailing. 3 And He said to them, "Take nothing for the way, neither staff, nor leather pouch, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats each; 4 and into whatever house you may enter, remain there, and depart from there; 5 and as many as may not receive you, going forth from that city, even the dust from your feet shake off, for a testimony against them." 6 And going forth they were going through the several villages, proclaiming good news, and healing everywhere. 7 And Herod the tetrarch heard of all the things being done by Him, and was perplexed, because it was said by some that John has been raised out of the dead, 8 and by some that Elijah appeared, and by others, that a prophet, one of the ancients, was risen; 9 and Herod said, "I beheaded John, but who is this concerning whom I hear such things?" And he was seeking to see Him. 10 And the apostles having turned back, declared to Him how they did great things, and having taken them, He withdrew by Himself into a city called Bethsaida, 11 and the multitudes having known followed Him, and having received them, He was speaking to them concerning the Kingdom of God, and He cured those having need of service. 12 And the day began to decline, and altered, and His clothing became flashing white. 30 the Twelve having come near, said to Him, "Let away And behold, two men were speaking together with the multitude, that having gone into the surrounding Him, who were Moses and Elijah, 31 who having villages and the fields, they may lodge and may find appeared in glory, spoke of His outgoing that He was provision, because here we are in a desolate place." about to fulfill in Jerusalem, 32 but Peter and those 13 And He said to them, "You give them to eat"; and with him were heavy with sleep, and having awoken, they said, "We have no more than five loaves and they saw His glory, and the two men standing with two fishes: except, having gone, we may buy food for Him. 33 And it came to pass, in their parting from all this people"; 14 for they were about five thousand Him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good to us men. And He said to His disciples, "Cause them to to be here; and we may make three shelters: one recline in companies, in each fifty"; 15 and they did for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not so, and made all to recline; 16 and having taken the knowing what he says: 34 and as he was speaking five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the these things, there came a cloud, and overshadowed sky, He blessed them, and broke, and was giving to them, and they feared in their entering into the cloud, the disciples to set before the multitude; 17 and they 35 and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is ate, and were all filled, and there was taken up what My Son, the Beloved; hear Him"; 36 and when the was over to them of broken pieces, twelve baskets. voice was past, Jesus was found alone; and they 18 And it came to pass, as He is praying alone, the were silent, and declared to no one in those days disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, anything of what they have seen. 37 And it came to saying, "Who do the multitudes say I am?" 19 And pass on the next day, they having come down from they answering said, "John the Immerser; and others, the mountain, a great multitude met Him there, 38 and Elijah; and others, that a prophet, one of the ancients, behold, a man from the multitude cried out, saying, was risen"; 20 and He said to them, "And you—who "Teacher, I implore You, look on my son, because he do you say I am?" And Peter answering said, "The is my only begotten; 39 and behold, a spirit takes him, Christ of God." 21 And having charged them, He and suddenly he cries out, and it convulses him, with commanded [them] to say this to no one, 22 saying, foaming, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him, "It is necessary for the Son of Man to suffer many 40 and I implored Your disciples that they might cast it things, and to be rejected by the elders, and chief out, and they were not able." 41 And Jesus answering priests, and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised said, "O generation, unsteadfast and perverse, until the third day." 23 And He said to all, "If anyone wills when will I be with you, and endure you? Bring your to come after Me, let him disown himself, and take up son near here"; 42 and as he is yet coming near, his cross daily, and follow Me; 24 for whoever may will the demon threw him down, and convulsed [him], to save his life will lose it, and whoever may lose his and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the life for My sake, he will save it; 25 for what is a man youth, and gave him back to his father. 43 And they profited, having gained the whole world, and having were all amazed at the greatness of God, and while lost or having forfeited himself? 26 For whoever may all are wondering at all things that Jesus did, He said be ashamed of Me and of My words, of this one will to His disciples, 44 "Lay to your ears these words, for the Son of Man be ashamed when He may come in the Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the His glory, and the Father's, and the holy messengers'; hands of men." 45 And they were not knowing this 27 and I say to you, truly, there are certain of those saying, and it was veiled from them, that they might standing here who will not taste of death until they not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask Him about may see the Kingdom of God." 28 And it came to this saying. 46 And there entered a reasoning among pass, after these words, as it were eight days, that them, this—who may be greater of them. 47 And having taken Peter, and John, and James, He went Jesus having seen the reasoning of their heart, having up to the mountain to pray, 29 and it came to pass, taken hold of a child, set him beside Him, 48 and in His praying, the appearance of His face became said to them, "Whoever may receive this child in My Name, receives Me, and whoever may receive Me, indeed there may be there the son of peace, your receives Him who sent Me, for he who is least among peace will rest on it; and if not so, it will turn back on you all—he will be great.” 49 And John answering you. 7 And remain in that house, eating and drinking said, “Master, we saw a certain one casting forth the things they have, for worthy [is] the workman of demons in Your Name, and we forbade him, because his hire; do not go from house to house, 8 and into he does not follow with us”; 50 and Jesus said to him, whatever city you enter, and they may receive you, “Do not forbid, for he who is not against us, is for eat the things set before you, 9 and heal the ailing in us.” 51 And it came to pass, in the completing of the it, and say to them, The Kingdom of God has come days of His being taken up, that He fixed His face near to you. 10 And into whatever city you enter, and to go on to Jerusalem, 52 and He sent messengers they may not receive you, having gone forth to its before His face, and having gone on, they went into a broad places, say, 11 And the dust that has cleaved to village of Samaritans, to make ready for Him, 53 and us from your city, we wipe off against you, but know they did not receive Him, because His face was going this, that the Kingdom of God has come near to you; on to Jerusalem. 54 And His disciples James and 12 and I say to you that it will be more tolerable for John having seen, said, “Lord, will You [that] we may Sodom in that day than for that city. 13 Woe to you, command fire to come down from Heaven, and to Chorazin; woe to you, Bethsaida; for if the mighty consume them, as Elijah also did?” 55 And having works that were done in you had been done in Tyre turned, He rebuked them and said, “You have not and Sidon, they had converted long ago, sitting in known of what spirit you are, 56 for the Son of Man sackcloth and ashes; 14 but it will be more tolerable did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save”; and for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. 15 they went on to another village. 57 And it came to And you, Capernaum, which were exalted to Heaven, pass, as they are going on in the way, a certain one you will be brought down to Hades. (Hades g86) 16 He said to Him, “I will follow You wherever You may go, who is hearing you, hears Me; and he who is putting Lord”; 58 and Jesus said to him, “The foxes have you away, puts Me away; and he who is putting Me holes, and the birds of the sky places of rest, but the away, puts away Him who sent Me.” 17 And the Son of Man has nowhere He may recline the head.” seventy turned back with joy, saying, “Lord, and the 59 And He said to another, “Follow Me”; and he said, demons are being subjected to us in Your Name”; 18 “Lord, permit me, having gone away, to first bury my and He said to them, “I was beholding Satan having father”; 60 and Jesus said to him, “Permit the dead to fallen as lightning from Heaven; 19 behold, I give to bury their own dead, and you, having gone away, you the authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, publish the Kingdom of God.” 61 And another also and on all the power of the enemy, and nothing by any said, “I will follow You, Lord, but first permit me to means will hurt you; 20 but do not rejoice in this, that take leave of those in my house”; 62 and Jesus said the spirits are subjected to you, but rejoice rather that to him, “No one having put his hand on a plow, and your names were written in the heavens.” 21 In that looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God.” hour Jesus was glad in the Spirit and said, “I confess to You, Father, Lord of Heaven and of earth, that You hid these things from wise men and understanding, and revealed them to babies; yes, Father, because so it became good pleasure before You. 22 All things were delivered up to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whom the Son may resolve to reveal [Him].” 23 And having turned to the disciples, He said, by themselves, “Blessed the eyes that are perceiving what you perceive; 24 for I say to you that many prophets and kings wished to

10 And after these things, the LORD also appointed seventy others, and sent them by twos before His face, to every city and place to where He Himself was about to come, 2 then He said to them, “The harvest [is] indeed abundant, but the workmen few; implore then the Lord of the harvest, that He may put forth workmen to His harvest. 3 Go away; behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves; 4 carry no bag, no leather pouch, nor sandals; and greet no one on the way; 5 and into whatever house you enter, first say, Peace to this house; 6 and if

see what you perceive, and did not see, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear." 25 And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, trying Him, and saying, "Teacher, what having done, will I inherit continuous life?" (aiōnios g166) 26 And He said to him, "In the Law what has been written? How do you read [it]?" 27 And he answering said, "You will love the LORD your God out of all your heart, and out of all your soul, and out of all your strength, and out of all your understanding, and your neighbor as yourself." 28 And He said to him, "You answered correctly; do this, and you will live." 29 And he, willing to declare himself righteous, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" 30 And Jesus having taken up [the word], said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, and having stripped him and inflicted blows, they went away, leaving [him] half dead. 31 And by a coincidence a certain priest was going down in that way, and having seen him, he passed over on the opposite side; 32 and in like manner also, a Levite, having been around the place, having come and seen, passed over on the opposite side. 33 But a certain Samaritan, journeying, came along him, and having seen him, he was moved with compassion, 34 and having come near, he bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and having lifted him up on his own beast, he brought him to an inn, and was careful of him; 35 and on the next day, going forth, taking out two denarii, he gave to the innkeeper and said to him, Be careful of him, and whatever you may spend more, I, in my coming again, will give back to you. 36 Who, then, of these three, seems to you to have become neighbor of him who fell among the robbers?" 37 And he said, "He who did the kindness with him," then Jesus said to him, "Be going on, and you be doing in like manner." 38 And it came to pass, in their going on, that He entered into a certain village, and a certain woman, by name Martha, received Him into her house, 39 and she also had a sister, called Mary, who also, having seated herself beside the feet of Jesus, was hearing the word, 40 and Martha was distracted about much serving, and having stood by Him, she said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister left me alone to serve? Say then to her that she may partake along with me." 41 And Jesus answering said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and disquieted about many things, 42 but of one thing there is need, and Mary chose the good part; that will not be taken away from her."

11 And it came to pass, in His being in a certain place praying, as He ceased, a certain one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as also John taught his disciples." 2 And He said to them, "When you may pray, say: Our Father who is in the heavens, hallowed be Your Name; Your kingdom come, Your will come to pass, as in Heaven also on earth; 3 be giving us daily our appointed bread; 4 and forgive us our sins, for we also ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us; and may You not bring us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil [one]." 5 And He said to them, "Who of you will have a friend, and will go on to him at midnight, and may say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves, 6 seeing a friend of mine came out of the way to me, and I have not what I will set before him, 7 and he from within answering may say, Do not give me trouble, the door has already been shut, and my children are with me in the bed, I am not able, having risen, to give to you. 8 I say to you, even if he will not give to him, having risen, because of his being his friend, yet because of his persistence, having risen, he will give him as many as he needs; 9 and I say to you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you; 10 for everyone who is asking receives; and he who is seeking finds; and to him who is knocking it will be opened. 11 And of which of you—the father—if the son will ask [for] a loaf, will present to him a stone? And [if] a fish, instead of a fish, will present to him a serpent? 12 And [if] he may ask [for] an egg, will present to him a scorpion? 13 If, then, you, being evil, have known to be giving good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father who is from Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those asking Him!" 14 And He was casting forth a demon, and it was mute, and it came to pass, the demon having gone forth, the mute man spoke, and the multitudes wondered, 15 and certain of them said, "By Beelzebul, ruler of the demons, He casts forth the demons"; 16 and others, tempting, were asking [for] a sign out of Heaven from Him. 17 And He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom having been divided against itself is desolated; and house against house falls; 18 and if Satan was also divided when it may be evil, your body is also darkened; against himself, how will his kingdom be made to stand? For you say by Beelzebul is My casting forth the demons, 19 but if I, by Beelzebul, cast forth the demons—your sons, by whom do they cast forth? Because of this they will be your judges; 20 but if by light." 37 And in [His] speaking, a certain Pharisee the finger of God I cast forth the demons, then he was asking Him that He might dine with him, and Kingdom of God came unaware on you. 21 When he having gone in, He reclined, 38 and the Pharisee strong man may keep his hall armed, his goods are having seen, wondered that He did not first immerse in peace; 22 but when the stronger than he, having Himself before the early meal. 39 And the LORD said come on [him], may overcome him, he takes away to him, "Now you, the Pharisees, make the outside his whole armor in which he had trusted, and he of the cup and of the plate clean, but your inward distributes his spoils; 23 he who is not with Me is part is full of robbery and wickedness. 40 Unthinking against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me [ones]! Did He who made the outside not also make scatters. 24 When the unclean spirit may go forth from the inside? 41 But what you have given [as] alms, the man, it walks through waterless places seeking and behold, all things are clean to you. 42 But woe rest, and not finding, it says, I will return to my house to you, the Pharisees, because you tithe the mint, from where I came forth; 25 and having come, it finds and the rue, and every herb, and you pass by the [it] swept and adorned; 26 then it goes, and takes to it judgment and the love of God; these things [you] seven other spirits more evil than itself, and having should do, and those not to be neglecting. 43 Woe entered, they dwell there, and the last of that man to you, the Pharisees, because you love the first becomes worse than the first." 27 And it came to seats in the synagogues and the salutations in the pass, in His saying these things, a certain woman marketplaces. 44 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, having lifted up the voice out of the multitude, said to hypocrites, because you are as the unseen tombs, Him, "Blessed the womb that carried You, and the and the men walking above have not known." 45 And breasts that You sucked!" 28 And He said, "Indeed, one of the lawyers answering, says to Him, "Teacher, rather, blessed those hearing the word of God, and saying these things, You also insult us"; 46 and He keeping [it]!" 29 And the multitudes crowding together said, "And to you, the lawyers, woe! Because you on Him, He began to say, "This generation is evil, it burden men with burdens [too] grievous to bear, and seeks after a sign, and a sign will not be given to you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one it, except the sign of Jonah the prophet, 30 for as of your fingers. 47 Woe to you, because you build Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so also will the the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed Son of Man be to this generation. 31 A queen of the them. 48 Then you testify, and are well pleased with south will rise up in the judgment with the men of the works of your fathers, because they indeed killed this generation, and will condemn them, because she them, and you build their tombs; 49 because of this came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom also the wisdom of God said: I will send to them of Solomon; and behold, [One] greater than Solomon prophets, and apostles, and some of them they will kill [is] here! 32 Men of Nineveh will stand up in the and persecute, 50 that the blood of all the prophets, judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, that is being poured forth from the foundation of the because they converted at the proclamation of Jonah; world, may be required from this generation— 51 and behold, [One] greater than Jonah [is] here! 33 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who And no one having lighted a lamp, puts [it] in a secret place, nor under the measure, but on the lampstand, to you, it will be required from this generation. 52 that those coming in may behold the light. 34 The Woe to you, the lawyers, because you took away the lamp of the body is the eye, when then your eye may be blinded to the knowledge; you yourselves did not enter; be simple, your whole body is also lightened; and and you hindered those coming in." 53 And in His speaking these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began fearfully to urge and to press Him to speak about many things, 54 laying wait for Him, and seeking to catch something out of His mouth, that they might accuse Him.

12 At which time the myriads of the multitude having been gathered together, so as to tread on one another, He began to say to His disciples, first, "Take heed to yourselves of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy; 2 and there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hid that will not be known; 3 because whatever you said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you spoke to the ear in the inner-chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops. 4 And I say to you, my friends, do not be afraid of those killing the body, and after these things are not having anything more to do; 5 but I will show to you whom you may fear: fear Him who, after the killing, is having authority to cast into Gehenna; yes, I say to you, fear Him. (Geenna g1067) 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two assaria? And one of them is not forgotten before God, 7 but even the hairs of your head have all been numbered; therefore do not fear, you are of more value than many sparrows. 8 And I say to you, everyone who may confess in Me before men, the Son of Man will also confess in him before the messengers of God, 9 and he who has denied Me before men, will be denied before the messengers of God, 10 and everyone who will say a word to the Son of Man, it will be forgiven to him, but the [one] having slandered to the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. 11 And when they bring you before the synagogues, and the rulers, and the authorities, do not be anxious how or what you may reply, or what you may say, 12 for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that hour what [you] should say." 13 And a certain one out of the multitude said to Him, "Teacher, say to my brother to divide with me the inheritance." 14 And He said to him, "Man, who set Me a judge or a divider over you?" 15 And He said to them, "Observe, and beware of the covetousness, because his life is not in the abundance of one's goods." 16 And He spoke an allegory to them, saying, "Of a certain rich man the field brought forth well; 17 and he was reasoning within himself, saying, What will I do, because I have nowhere I will gather together my fruits? 18 And he said, This I will do, I will take down my storehouses, and I will build greater ones, and I will gather together there all my products and my good things, 19 and I will say to my soul, Soul, you have many good things laid up for many years, be resting, eat, drink, be merry. 20 And God said to him, Unthinking [one]! This night your life is required of you, and what things you prepared—to whom will they be [given]? 21 So [is] he who is treasuring up to himself, and is not rich toward God." 22 And He said to His disciples, "Because of this, to you I say, do not be anxious for your life, what you may eat; nor for the body, what you may put on; 23 life is more than nourishment, and the body than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens, that they do not sow, nor reap, to which there is no barn nor storehouse, and God nourishes them; how much better are you than the birds? 25 And who of you, being anxious, is able to add to his age one cubit? 26 If, then, you are not able for the least—why are you anxious for the rest? 27 Consider the lilies, how do they grow? They do not labor, nor do they spin, and I say to you, not even Solomon in all his glory was clothed as one of these; 28 and if the herbage in the field, that today is, and tomorrow is cast into an oven, God so clothes, how much more you of little faith? 29 And you—do not seek what you may eat, or what you may drink, and do not be in suspense, 30 for the nations of the world seek after all these things, and your Father has known that you have need of these things; 31 but seek the Kingdom of God, and all these things will be added to you. 32 Do not fear, little flock, because your Father delighted to give you the kingdom; 33 sell your goods, and give alms, make to yourselves bags that do not become old, a treasure unfailing in the heavens, where thief does not come near, nor moth destroy; 34 for where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 35 Let your loins be girded, and the lamps burning, 36 and you [be] like to men waiting for their lord when he will return out of the wedding feasts, that he having come and knocked, immediately they may open to him. 37 Blessed those servants, whom the lord, having come, will find watching; truly I say to you that he will gird himself, and will cause them to recline, and having come near, will minister to them; 38 and if he may come in the second watch, and in the third

watch he may come, and may find [it] so, blessed are those servants. 39 And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief comes, he would have watched, and would not have permitted his house to be broken through; 40 and you, then, become ready, because at the hour you do not think, the Son of Man comes." 41 And Peter said to Him, "Lord, do You speak this allegory to us, or also to all?" 42 And the LORD said, "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the lord will set over his household, to give in season the wheat measure? 43 Blessed that servant, whom his lord, having come, will find doing so; 44 truly I say to you that he will set him over all his goods. 45 And if that servant may say in his heart, My lord delays to come, and may begin to beat the menservants and the maidservants, to eat also, and to drink, and to be drunken, 46 the lord of that servant will come in a day in which he does not look for [him], and in an hour that he does not know, and will cut him off, and he will appoint his portion with the unfaithful. 47 And that servant, who having known his lord's will, and having not prepared, nor having gone according to his will, will be beaten with many stripes, 48 and he who, not having known, and having done things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few; and to everyone to whom much was given, much will be required from him; and to whom they committed much, more abundantly they will ask of him. 49 I came to cast fire to the earth, and what I wish [is] if it were already kindled! 50 But I have an immersion to be immersed with, and how I am pressed until it may be accomplished! 51 Do you think that I came to give peace in the earth? No, I say to you, but rather division; 52 for there will be from now on five in one house divided—three against two, and two against three; 53 a father will be divided against a son, and a son against a father, a mother against a daughter, and a daughter against a mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law." 54 And He also said to the multitudes, "When you may see the cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, A shower comes, and it is so; 55 and when a south wind is blowing, you say that there will be heat, and it is; 56 hypocrites! You have known to discern the face of the earth and of the sky, but how do you not discern this time? 57 And why, also, of yourselves, do you not judge what is righteous? 58 For as you are going away with your opponent to the ruler, in the way give diligence to be released from him, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge may deliver you to the officer, and the officer may cast you into prison; 59 I say to you, you may not come forth from there until even the last mite you may give back."

13 And there were some present at that time, telling Him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate mingled with their sacrifices; 2 and Jesus answering said to them, "Do you think that these Galileans became sinners beyond all the Galileans, because they have suffered such things? 3 No—I say to you, but if you may not convert, even so will all you perish. 4 Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, do you think that these became debtors beyond all men who are dwelling in Jerusalem? 5 No—I say to you, but if you may not convert, all you will perish in like manner." 6 And He spoke this allegory: "A certain one had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit in it, and he did not find; 7 and he said to the vinedresser, Behold, three years I come seeking fruit in this fig tree, and do not find [it], cut it off, why does it also render the ground useless? 8 And he answering says to him, Lord, permit it also this year, until I may dig around it, and cast in dung; 9 and if indeed it may bear fruit—and if not so, thereafter you will cut it off." 10 And He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath, 11 and behold, there was a woman having a spirit of disability [for] eighteen years, and she was bent together, and not able to bend back at all, 12 and Jesus having seen her, called [her] near and said to her, "Woman, you have been loosed from your disability"; 13 and He laid on her [His] hands, and immediately she was set upright, and was glorifying God. 14 And the chief of the synagogue answering—much displeased that on the Sabbath Jesus healed—said to the multitude, "Six days there are in which it is necessary to be working; in these, then, coming, be healed, and not on the day of the Sabbath." 15 Then the LORD answered him and said, "Hypocrite, do not each of you loose his ox or donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and having led [it] away, water [it]? 16 And this one, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan bound Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that is killing the prophets, and eighteen years, behold, did [she] not ought to be stoning those sent to her, how often I willed to gather loosed from this bond on the day of the Sabbath?" 17 together your children, as a hen [gathers] her brood And He saying these things, all who were opposed under the wings, and you did not will. 35 Behold, your to Him were being ashamed, and all the multitude house is being left to you desolate, and truly I say to were rejoicing over all the glorious things that are you, you may not see Me, until it may come when being done by Him. 18 And He said, "To what is the you may say, Blessed [is] He who is coming in the Kingdom of God like? And to what will I liken it? 19 Name of the LORD."

It is like to a grain of mustard, which a man having taken, cast into his garden, and it increased, and came to a great tree, and the birds of the heavens rested in its branches." 20 And again He said, "To what will I liken the Kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven, which a woman, having taken, hid in three measures of meal, until all was leavened." 22 And He was going through cities and villages, teaching, and making progress toward Jerusalem; 23 and a certain one said to Him, "Lord, are those saved few?" And He said to them, 24 "Be striving to go in through the straight gate, because many, I say to you, will seek to go in, and will not be able; 25 from the time the Master of the house may have risen up, and may have shut the door, and you may begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us, and He answering will say to you, I have not known you from where you are, 26 then you may begin to say, We ate before You, and drank, and You taught in our broad places; 27 and He will say, I say to you, I have not known you from where you are; depart from Me, all you workers of the unrighteousness. 28 There will be there the weeping and the gnashing of the teeth when you may see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of God, and yourselves being cast outside; 29 and they will come from east and west, and from north and south, and will recline in the Kingdom of God, 30 and behold, there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last." 31 On that day there came near certain Pharisees, saying to Him, "Go forth, and be going on from here, for Herod wishes to kill You"; 32 and He said to them, "Having gone, say to that fox, Behold, I cast forth demons, and perfect cures today and tomorrow, and the third [day] I am being perfected; 33 but it is necessary for Me today, and tomorrow, and the [day] following, to go on, because it is not possible for a prophet to perish out of Jerusalem. 34

14 And it came to pass, on His going into the house of a certain one of the chiefs of the Pharisees, on a Sabbath, to eat bread, that they were watching Him, 2 and behold, there was a certain dropsical man before Him; 3 and Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" 4 And they were silent, and having taken hold of [him], He healed him, and let [him] go; 5 and answering them He said, "Of which of you will a donkey or ox fall into a pit, and he will not immediately draw it up on the Sabbath day?" 6 And they were not able to answer Him again to these things. 7 And He spoke an allegory to those called, marking how they were choosing out the first couches, saying to them, 8 "When you may be called by anyone to wedding feasts, you may not recline on the first couch, lest [one] more honorable than you may have been called by him, 9 and he who called you and him having come will say to you, Give to this one [your] place, and then you may begin to occupy the last place with shame. 10 But when you may be called, having gone on, recline in the last place, that when he who called you may come, he may say to you, Friend, come up higher; then you will have glory before those dining with you; 11 because everyone who is exalting himself will be humbled, and he who is humbling himself will be exalted." 12 And He also said to him who called Him, "When you may make an early meal or a dinner, do not be calling your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor rich neighbors, lest they may also call you again, and a repayment may come to you; 13 but when you may make a feast, be calling poor, maimed, lame, blind, 14 and you will be blessed, because they have nothing to repay you, for it will be repaid to you in the resurrection of the righteous." 15 And one of those dining with Him, having heard these things, said to Him, "Blessed [is] he who will eat bread in the Kingdom of God"; 16 and

He said to him, "A certain man made a great dinner, it outside. He who is having ears to hear—let him and called many, 17 and he sent his servant at the hour of the dinner to say to those having been called, Be coming, because now all things are ready. 18 And all began with one [voice] to excuse themselves. The first said to him, I bought a field, and I have need to go forth and see it; I beg of you, have me excused. 19 And another said, I bought five yoke of oxen, and I go on to prove them; I beg of you, have me excused. 20 And another said, I married a wife, and because of this I am not able to come. 21 And that servant having come, told these things to his lord, then the master of the house, having been angry, said to his servant, Go forth quickly into the broad places and lanes of the city, and the poor, and maimed, and lame, and blind, bring in here. 22 And the servant said, Lord, it has been done as you commanded, and still there is room. 23 And the lord said to the servant, Go forth into the ways and hedges, and constrain to come in, that my house may be filled; 24 for I say to you that none of those men who have been called will taste of my dinner." 25 And there were going on with Him great multitudes, and having turned, He said to them, 26 "If anyone comes to Me, and does not hate his own father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and yet even his own life, he is not able to be My disciple; 27 and whoever does not carry his cross, and come after Me, is not able to be My disciple. 28 For who of you, willing to build a tower, does not first, having sat down, count the expense, whether he has the things for completing? 29 Lest that he having laid a foundation, and not being able to finish, all who are beholding may begin to mock him, 30 saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish. 31 Or what king going on to engage with another king in war, does not, having sat down, first consult if he with ten thousand is able to meet him who is coming against him with twenty thousand? 32 And if not so—he being yet a long way off—having sent a delegation, he asks the things for peace. 33 So, then, everyone of you who does not take leave of all that he himself has, is not able to be My disciple. 34 The salt [is] good, but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what will it be seasoned? 35 It is neither fit for land nor for manure—they cast it outside. He who is having ears to hear—let him hear."

15 And all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to Him, to hear Him, 2 and the Pharisees and the scribes were murmuring, saying, "This One receives sinners, and eats with them." 3 And He spoke to them this allegory, saying, 4 "What man of you having one hundred sheep, and having lost one out of them, does not leave behind the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go on after the lost one, until he may find it? 5 And having found, he lays [it] on his shoulders rejoicing, 6 and having come into the house, he calls together the friends and the neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me, because I found my sheep—the lost one. 7 I say to you that [more] joy will be in Heaven over one sinner converting, rather than over ninety-nine righteous men who have no need of conversion. 8 Or what woman having ten drachmas, if she may lose one drachma, does not light a lamp, and sweep the house, and seek carefully until she may find? 9 And having found, she calls together the female friends and the neighbors, saying, Rejoice with me, for I found the drachma that I lost. 10 So I say to you, joy comes before the messengers of God over one sinner converting." 11 And He said, "A certain man had two sons, 12 and the younger of them said to the father, Father, give me the portion of the substance falling to [me], and he divided to them the living. 13 And not many days after, having gathered all together, the younger son went abroad to a far country, and there he scattered his substance, living riotously; 14 and he having spent all, there came a mighty famine on that country, and himself began to be in want; 15 and having gone on, he joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into the fields to feed pigs, 16 and he was desirous to fill his belly from the husks that the pigs were eating, and no one was giving to him. 17 And having come to himself, he said, How many hired workers of my father have a superabundance of bread, and I am perishing here with hunger! 18 Having risen, I will go on to my father, and will say to him, Father, I sinned—to Heaven, and before you, 19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired workers. 20 And having risen, he went to his own father, and he being yet far distant, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and having ran he fell on his neck and kissed him; 21 and the son said to him, Father, I sinned—to Heaven, and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. 22 And the father said to his servants, Bring forth the foremost robe, and clothe him, and give a ring for his hand, and sandals for the feet; 23 and having brought the fatted calf, kill [it], and having eaten, we may be merry, 24 because this son of mine was dead, and lived again, and he was lost, and was found; and they began to be merry. 25 And his elder son was in a field, and as, coming, he drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing, 26 and having called near one of the young men, he was inquiring what these things might be, 27 and he said to him, Your brother has arrived, and your father killed the fatted calf, because he received him back in health. 28 And he was angry, and would not go in, therefore his father, having come forth, was pleading him; 29 and he answered said to the father, Behold, so many years I serve you, and never did I transgress your command, and you never gave to me a kid that I might make merry with my friends; 30 but when your son—this one who devoured your living with prostitutes—came, you killed to him the fatted calf. 31 And he said to him, Child, you are always with me, and all my things are yours; 32 but to be merry, and to be glad, it was necessary, because this your brother was dead, and lived again, he was lost, and was found."

16 And He also said to His disciples, "A certain man was rich, who had a steward, and he was accused to him as scattering his goods; 2 and having called him, he said to him, What [is] this I hear about you? Render the account of your stewardship, for you may not be steward any longer. 3 And the steward said in himself, What will I do, because my lord takes away the stewardship from me? I am not able to dig, I am ashamed to beg— 4 I have known what I will do, that, when I may be removed from the stewardship, they may receive me to their houses. 5 And having called near each one of his lord's debtors, he said to the first, How much do you owe to my lord? 6 And he said, One hundred baths of oil; and he said to him, Take your bill, and having sat down write fifty. 7 Afterward to another he said, And you, how much do you owe? And he said, One hundred cors of wheat; and he says to him, Take your bill, and write eighty. 8 And the lord commanded the unrighteous steward that he did prudently, because the sons of this age are more prudent than the sons of the light in respect to their generation. (aiōn g165) 9 And I say to you, make to yourselves friends out of the wealth of unrighteousness, that when you may fail, they may receive you into the continuous dwelling places. (aiōnios g166) 10 He who is faithful in the least, [is] also faithful in much; and he who in the least [is] unrighteous, is also unrighteous in much; 11 if, then, in the unrighteous wealth you did not become faithful—who will entrust to you the true? 12 And if in the other's you did not become faithful—who will give to you your own? 13 No servant is able to serve two lords, for either he will hate the one, and he will love the other; or one he will hold to, and of those declaring yourselves righteous before men, are those being lovers of money, were hearing all these things, serving God and wealth." 14 And also the Pharisees, being lovers of money, were deriding Him, 15 and He said to them, "You are those declaring yourselves righteous before men, but God knows your hearts; because that which is high among men [is] abomination before God; 16 the Law and the Prophets [are] until John; since then the good news of the Kingdom of God is proclaimed, and everyone presses into it; 17 and it is easier for the heaven and the earth to pass away, than one tittle to fall of the Law. 18 Everyone who is sending his wife away, and marrying another, commits adultery; and everyone who is marrying her sent away from a husband commits adultery. 19 And—a certain man was rich, and was clothed in purple and fine linen, making merry sumptuously every day, 20 and there was a certain poor man, by name Lazarus, who was laid at his porch, full of sores, 21 and desiring to be filled from the crumbs that are falling from the table of the rich man; indeed, also the dogs, coming, were licking his sores. 22 And it came to pass, that the poor man died, and that he was carried away by the messengers into the bosom of Abraham—and the rich man also died, and was buried; 23 and having lifted up his eyes in Hades, being in torments, he sees Abraham far off, and Lazarus in his bosom, (Hades g86) 24 and having cried, he said, Father Abraham, deal kindly with me, and send Lazarus, that he may we owed to do we have done." 11 And it came to dip the tip of his finger in water, and may cool my pass, in His going on to Jerusalem, that He passed tongue, because I am distressed in this flame. 25 And through the midst of Samaria and Galilee, 12 and He Abraham said, Child, remember that you received entering into a certain village, there ten leproous men your good things in your life, and Lazarus in like met Him, who stood far off, 13 and they lifted up the manner the evil things, and now he is comforted, and voice, saying, "Jesus, Master, deal kindly with us"; 14 you are distressed; 26 and besides all these things, and having seen [them], He said to them, "Having between us and you a great chasm is fixed, so that gone on, show yourselves to the priests"; and it came they who are willing to go over from here to you are to pass, in their going, they were cleansed, 15 and not able, nor do they pass through from there to one of them having seen that he was healed turned us. 27 And he said, I ask, then, father, that you may back, glorifying God with a loud voice, 16 and he fell send him to the house of my father, 28 for I have five on [his] face at His feet, giving thanks to Him, and brothers, so that he may thoroughly testify to them, he was a Samaritan. 17 And Jesus answering said, that they also may not come to this place of torment. "Were not the ten cleansed, and the nine—where? 18 29 Abraham says to him, They have Moses and the There were none found who turned back to give glory prophets, let them hear them; 30 and he said, No, to God, except this foreigner"; 19 and He said to him, father Abraham, but if anyone from the dead may go "Having risen, be going on, your faith has saved you." to them, they will convert. 31 And he said to him, If 20 And having been questioned by the Pharisees they do not hear Moses and the prophets, neither will when the Kingdom of God comes, He answered them they be persuaded if one may rise out of the dead."

17 And He said to the disciples, "It is impossible for the stumbling blocks not to come, but woe [to him] through whom they come; 2 it is more profitable to him if a weighty millstone is put around his neck, and he has been cast into the sea, than that he may cause one of these little ones to stumble. 3 Take heed to yourselves, and if your brother may sin in regard to you, rebuke him, and if he may change his mind, forgive him, 4 and if seven times in the day he may sin against you, and seven times in the day may return to you, saying, I change my mind, you will forgive him." 5 And the apostles said to the LORD, "Add to us faith"; 6 and the LORD said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard, you would have said to this sycamine, Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea, and it would have obeyed you. 7 But who is he of you—having a servant plowing or feeding—who, to him having come in out of the field, will say, Having come, recline at once? 8 But will not [rather] say to him, Prepare what I may dine, and having girded yourself around, minister to me, until I eat and drink, and after these things you will eat and drink? 9 Does he have favor to that servant because he did the things directed? I think not. 10 So also you, when you may have done all the things directed you, say, We are unprofitable servants, because that which observation; 21 nor will they say, Behold, here; or, Behold, there; for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you." 22 And He said to His disciples, "Days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man and you will not behold [it]; 23 and they will say to you, Behold, here; or, Behold, there; you may not go away, nor follow; 24 for as the lightning is flashing out of one [part] under the sky [and] shines to the other [part] under the sky, so will the Son of Man also be in His day; 25 and first it is necessary for Him to suffer many things, and to be rejected by this generation. 26 And as it came to pass in the days of Noah, so will it also be in the days of the Son of Man; 27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the Ark, and the flood came, and destroyed all; 28 in like manner also, as it came to pass in the days of Lot; they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building; 29 and on the day Lot went forth from Sodom, He rained fire and brimstone from the sky, and destroyed all. 30 According to these things it will be, in the day the Son of Man is revealed; 31 in that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his vessels in the house, do not let him come down to take them away; and he in the field, in like manner, do not let him turn backward; 32 remember the wife of Lot. 33 Whoever may seek to save his life, will lose it; and whoever may lose it, will preserve it. 34 I say to you, in that night there will be two [men] on one bed: one will be taken, and the other will be left; 35 two [women] will be grinding at the same place together: one will be taken, and the other will be left; 36 [[two [men]] will be in the field: one will be taken, and the other left."] 37 And they answering say to Him, "Where, Lord?" And He said to them, "Where the body [is], there the eagles will be gathered together."

18 And He also spoke an allegory to them, that it is always necessary to pray and not to faint, 2 saying, "A certain judge was in a certain city—he is not fearing God, and he is not regarding man— 3 and a widow was in that city, and she was coming to him, saying, Do me justice on my opponent, 4 and he would not for a time, but after these things he said in himself, Even if I do not fear God, and do not regard man, 5 yet because this widow gives me trouble, I will do her justice, lest, continuously coming, she may bruise me." 6 And the LORD said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says: 7 and will God not execute justice to His chosen ones, who are crying to Him day and night—bearing long in regard to them? 8 I say to you that He will execute justice to them quickly; but the Son of Man having come, will He find faith on the earth?" 9 And He also spoke to some who have been trusting in themselves that they were righteous, and have been despising the rest, this allegory: 10 "Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee, and the other a tax collector; 11 the Pharisee having stood by himself, thus prayed: God, I thank You that I am not as the rest of men, rapacious, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax collector; 12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all things—as many as I possess. 13 And the tax collector, having stood far off, would not even lift up the eyes to the sky, but was striking on his breast, saying, God be propitious to me—the sinner! 14 I say to you, this one went down declared righteous, to his house, rather than that one: for everyone who is exalting himself will be humbled, and he who is humbling himself will be exalted." 15 And they were also bringing the babies near, that He may touch them, and the disciples having seen, rebuked them, the little children to come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the Kingdom of God; 17 truly I say to you, whoever may not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, may not enter into it." 18 And a certain ruler questioned Him, saying, "Good Teacher, what having done—will I inherit continuous life?" (aiōnios g166) 19 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one [is] good, except one—God; 20 you have known the commands: You may not commit adultery, You may not murder, You may not steal, You may not bear false witness, Honor your father and your mother." 21 And he said, "All these I kept from my youth"; 22 and having heard these things, Jesus said to him, "Yet one thing to you is lacking: all things—as many as you have—sell, and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in Heaven, and come, follow Me"; 23 and he, having heard these things, became very sorrowful, for he was exceedingly rich. 24 And Jesus having seen him become very sorrowful, said, "How hardly will those having riches enter into the Kingdom of God! 25 For it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God." 26 And those who heard, said, "And who is able to be saved?" 27 And He said, "The things impossible with men are possible with God." 28 And Peter said, "Behold, we left all, and followed You"; 29 and He said to them, "Truly I say to you that there is not one who left house, or parents, or brothers, or wife, or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, 30 who may not receive back manifold more in this time, and in the coming age, continuous life." (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 31 And having taken the Twelve aside, He said to them, "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things will be accomplished that have been written through the prophets to the Son of Man, 32 for He will be delivered up to the nations, and will be mocked, and insulted, and spit on, 33 and having scourged they will put Him to death, and on the third day He will rise again." 34 And they understood none of these things, and this saying was hid from them, and they were not knowing the things said. 35 And it came to pass, in His coming near to Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting beside the way begging, 36 and having heard a multitude going by, he was inquiring We do not wish this one to reign over us. 15 And what this may be, 37 and they brought him word it came to pass, on his coming back, having taken that Jesus the Nazarene passes by, 38 and he cried the kingdom, that he commanded these servants to out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, deal kindly with be called to him, to whom he gave the money, that me"; 39 and those going before were rebuking him, he might know what anyone had done in business. that he might be silent, but he was crying out much 16 And the first came near, saying, Lord, your mina more, "Son of David, deal kindly with me!" 40 And gained ten minas; 17 and he said to him, Well done, Jesus having stood, commanded him to be brought good servant, because you became faithful in a very to Him, and he having come near, He questioned little, be having authority over ten cities. 18 And the him, 41 saying, "What do you will I will do to you?" second came, saying, Lord, your mina made five And he said, "Lord, that I may receive sight." 42 And minas; 19 and he also said to this one, And you, Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has become [ruler] over five cities. 20 And another came, saved you"; 43 and instantly he received sight, and saying, Lord, behold, your mina, that I had lying away was following Him, glorifying God; and all the people, in a napkin; 21 for I was afraid of you, because you having seen, gave praise to God.

19 And having entered, He was passing through Jericho, 2 and behold, a man, by name called Zaccheus, and he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich, 3 and he was seeking to see Jesus, who He is, and was not able for the multitude, because he was small in stature, 4 and having run forward before, he went up on a sycamore, that he may see Him, because through that [way] He was about to pass by. 5 And as Jesus came up to the place, having looked up, He saw him and said to him, "Zaccheus, having hurried, come down, for it is necessary for Me to remain in your house today"; 6 and he having hurried came down, and received Him rejoicing; 7 and having seen [it], they were all murmuring, saying, "He went in to lodge with a sinful man!" 8 And Zaccheus having stood, said to the LORD, "Behold, half of my goods, Lord, I give to the poor, and if I took by false accusation anything of anyone, I give back fourfold." 9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation came to this house, inasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham; 10 for the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost." 11 And while they are hearing these things, having added He spoke an allegory, because of His being near to Jerusalem, and of their thinking that the Kingdom of God is immediately about to appear. 12 He therefore said, "A certain man of birth went on to a far country, to take to himself a kingdom, and to return, 13 and having called ten servants of his own, he gave ten minas to them and said to them, Do business—until I come; 14 and his citizens were hating him, and sent a delegation after him, saying, are an austere man; you take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow. 22 And he says to him, Out of your mouth I will judge you, evil servant: you knew that I am an austere man, taking up what I did not lay down, and reaping what I did not sow! 23 And why did you not give my money to the bank, and I, having come, might have received it with interest? 24 And to those standing by he said, Take the mina from him, and give to him having the ten minas— 25 (and they said to him, Lord, he has ten minas)— 26 for I say to you that to everyone having will be given, and from him not having, also what he has will be taken from him, 27 but those my enemies, who did not wish me to reign over them, bring here and slay before me." 28 And having said these things, He went on before, going up to Jerusalem. 29 And it came to pass, as He came near to Bethphage and Bethany, to that called the Mount of Olives, He sent two of His disciples, 30 having said, "Go away into the village in front of [you], in which, entering in, you will find a colt bound, on which no one of men ever sat, having loosed it, bring [it]; 31 and if anyone questions you, Why do you loose [it]? Thus you will say to him: The LORD has need of it." 32 And those sent, having gone away, found according as He said to them, 33 and while they are loosing the colt, its owners said to them, "Why do you loose the colt?" 34 And they said, "The LORD has need of it"; 35 and they brought it to Jesus, and having cast their garments on the colt, they sat Jesus on it. 36 And as He is going, they were spreading their garments in the way, 37 and as He is coming near now, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began rejoicing to praise God with a great voice for all the mighty works they had seen, saying, "Blessed [is] the King coming in the Name of the LORD; peace in Heaven, and glory in the highest!" And certain of the Pharisees from the multitude said to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples"; answering said to them, "I say to you that if these will be silent, the stones will cry out!" 41 And when He came near, having seen the city, He wept over it, saying, "If you knew, even you, at least in this day, the things for your peace; but now they were hid from your eyes. 43 Because days will come on within you, and they will not leave in you a stone on a house is a house of prayer—but you made it a den of robbers." 47 And He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes were seeking to destroy Him—also the chiefs of the people—and they were not finding what they will do, for all the people were hanging on Him, hearing Him.

20 And it came to pass, on one of those days, as He is teaching the people in the temple, and proclaiming good news, the chief priests and the scribes, with the elders, came on [Him], and spoke to Him, saying, "Tell us by what authority You do these things? Or who is he that gave to You this authority?" 3 And He answering said to them, "I will question you—I also—one thing, and tell Me: 4 the immersion of John, was it from Heaven, or from men?" 5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we may say, From Heaven, He will say, Why, then, did you not believe him? 6 And if we may say, From men, all the people will stone us, for they are having been persuaded John to be a prophet." 7 And they answered that they did not know from where [it was], 8 and Jesus said to them, "Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these things." 9 And He began to speak to the people this allegory: "A certain man planted a vineyard, and gave it out to farmers, and went abroad for a long time, 10 and at the season he sent a servant to the farmers, that they may give to him from the fruit of the vineyard, but the farmers having beat him, sent [him] away empty. 11 And he added to send another servant, and they also having beaten and dishonored that one, sent to Him, "Teacher, rebuke Your disciples"; 40 and He [him] away empty; 12 and he added to send a third, answering said to them, "I say to you that if these will and this one also, having wounded, they cast out. 13 And the owner of the vineyard said, What will I do? I will send my son, the beloved, perhaps having seen this one, they will respect [him]; 14 and having day, the things for your peace; but now they were seen him, the farmers reasoned among themselves, hid from your eyes. 43 Because days will come on saying, This is the heir; come, we may kill him, that you, and your enemies will cast a rampart around the inheritance may become ours; 15 and having cast you, and surround you around, and press you on him outside of the vineyard, they killed [him]; what, every side, 44 and lay you low, and your children then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come, and destroy these farmers, and will stone, because you did not know the time of your give the vineyard to others." And having heard, they inspection." 45 And having entered into the temple, said, "Let it not be!" 17 And He, having looked on He began to cast forth those selling in it, and those them, said, "What, then, is this that has been written: buying, 46 saying to them, "It has been written, My A stone that the builders rejected—this became head of a corner? 18 Everyone who has fallen on that robbers." 47 And He was teaching daily in the temple, stone will be broken, and on whom it may fall, it will crush him to pieces." 19 And the chief priests to destroy Him—also the chiefs of the people— 48 and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him in that hour, and they feared the people, for they knew that

He spoke this allegory against them. 20 And having watched [Him], they sent forth ones lying in wait, feigning themselves to be righteous, that they might take hold of His word, to deliver Him up to the rule and to the authority of the governor, 21 and they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we have known that You say and teach correctly, and do not receive a person, but in truth teach the way of God. 22 Is it lawful to us to give tribute to Caesar or not?" 23 And He, having perceived their craftiness, said to them, "Why do you tempt Me? 24 Show Me a denarius; of whom does it have an image and inscription?" And they answering said, "Of Caesar": 25 and He said to them, "Give back, therefore, the things of Caesar to Caesar, and the things of God to God"; 26 and they were not able to take hold on His saying before the people, and having wondered at His answer, they were silent. 27 And certain of the Sadducees, who are denying that there is a resurrection, having come near, questioned Him, 28 saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us if anyone's brother may die, having a wife, and he may die childless—that his brother may take the wife, and may raise up seed to his brother. 29 There were, then, seven brothers, and the first having taken a wife, died childless, 30 and the second took the wife, and he died childless, 31 and the third took also died: 33 in the resurrection, then, of which of them does she become wife? For the seven had her as wife." 34 And Jesus answering said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, (aiōn g165) 35 but those accounted worthy to obtain that age, and the resurrection that is out of the dead, neither marry, nor are they given in marriage; (aiōn g165) 36 for neither are they able to die anymore—for they are like messengers—and they are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection. 37 And that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the Bush, since he calls the LORD the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; 38 and He is not a God of dead men, but of living, for all live to Him." 39 And certain of the scribes answering said, "Teacher, You said well"; 40 and they no longer dared question Him anything. 41 And He said to them, "How do they say the Christ is [the] son of David, 42 and David himself says in [the] Scroll of Psalms, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit on My right hand, 43 Until I will make at the banquets, 47 who devour the houses of the widows, and make long prayers for a pretense, these will receive more abundant judgment."

and devoted things, He said, 6 "These things that you behold—days will come in which there will not be left a stone on a stone that will not be thrown down." 7 And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, when, then, will these things be? And what [is] the sign when these things may be about to happen?" 8 And He said, "See—you may not be led astray, for many children, and they died; 32 and last of all the woman also died: time has come near; do not then go on after them; 9 and when you may hear of wars and uprisings, do not be terrified, for it is necessary for these things to happen first, but the end [is] not immediately." 10 Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, 11 also great shakings, and there will be famines and pestilences in every place; also there will be fearful things and great signs from the sky; 12 and before all these, they will lay on you their hands, and persecute, delivering up to synagogues and prisons, being brought before kings and governors for My Name's sake; 13 and it will become to you for a testimony. 14 Settle, then, to your hearts, not to meditate beforehand to reply, 15 for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all your opposers will not be able to refute or resist. 16 And you will be delivered up also by parents, and brothers, and relatives, and friends, and they will put 17 and you will be hated by all because of My Name—18 and a hair out of your head will not perish; 19 in your patience possess Him Lord, and how is He his son?" 45 And all the your souls. 20 And when you may see Jerusalem people hearing, He said to His disciples, 46 "Take heed of the scribes, who are wishing to walk in long robes, and are cherishing salutations in the markets, and first seats in the synagogues, and first couches at the banquets, 47 who devour the houses of the widows, and make long prayers for a pretense, these will receive more abundant judgment."

21 And having looked up, He saw those who cast their gifts into the treasury—rich men, 2 and He also saw a certain poor widow casting two mites there, 3 and He said, "Truly I say to you that this poor widow cast in more than all; 4 for all these out of their superabundance cast into the gifts to God, but this one out of her want, all the living that she had, cast in." 5 And [as] some were speaking about the temple, that it has been adorned with good stones

and devoted things, He said, 6 "These things that you behold—days will come in which there will not be left a stone on a stone that will not be thrown down." 7 And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, when, then, will these things be? And what [is] the sign when these things may be about to happen?" 8 And He said, "See—you may not be led astray, for many children, and they died; 32 and last of all the woman also died: time has come near; do not then go on after them; 9 and when you may hear of wars and uprisings, do not be terrified, for it is necessary for these things to happen first, but the end [is] not immediately." 10 Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, 11 also great shakings, and there will be famines and pestilences in every place; also there will be fearful things and great signs from the sky; 12 and before all these, they will lay on you their hands, and persecute, delivering up to synagogues and prisons, being brought before kings and governors for My Name's sake; 13 and it will become to you for a testimony. 14 Settle, then, to your hearts, not to meditate beforehand to reply, 15 for I will give to you a mouth and wisdom that all your opposers will not be able to refute or resist. 16 And you will be delivered up also by parents, and brothers, and relatives, and friends, and they will put 17 and you will be hated by all because of My Name—18 and a hair out of your head will not perish; 19 in your patience possess Him Lord, and how is He his son?" 45 And all the your souls. 20 And when you may see Jerusalem people hearing, He said to His disciples, 46 "Take heed of the scribes, who are wishing to walk in long robes, and are cherishing salutations in the markets, and first seats in the synagogues, and first couches at the banquets, 47 who devour the houses of the widows, and make long prayers for a pretense, these will receive more abundant judgment."

world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. say to the master of the house, The Teacher says 27 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in to you, Where is the guest-chamber where I may a cloud, with power and much glory; 28 and these eat the Passover with My disciples? 12 And he will things beginning to happen, bend yourselves back, show you a large upper room furnished, make ready and lift up your heads, because your redemption there"; 13 and they, having gone away, found as He draws near." 29 And He spoke an allegory to them: has said to them, and they made the Passover ready. "See the fig tree, and all the trees, 30 when they may 14 And when the hour was come, He reclined, and now cast forth, having seen, of yourselves you know the twelve apostles with Him, 15 and He said to them, that now the summer is near; 31 so also you, when "With desire I desired to eat this Passover with you you may see these things happening, you know that before My suffering, 16 for I say to you that I may eat the Kingdom of God is near; 32 truly I say to you, of it no longer until it may be fulfilled in the Kingdom this generation may not pass away until all may have of God." 17 And having taken a cup, having given come to pass; 33 the sky and the earth will pass thanks, He said, "Take this and divide to yourselves, away, but My words may not pass away. 34 And take 18 for I say to you that I may not drink of the produce heed to yourselves lest your hearts may be weighed of the vine until the Kingdom of God may come." 19 down with carousing, and drunkenness, and anxieties And having taken bread, having given thanks, He of life, and suddenly that day may come on you, 35 broke and gave to them, saying, "This is My body, for it will come as a snare on all those dwelling on that is being given for you, do this in remembrance of the face of all the earth, 36 watch, then, in every Me." 20 In like manner, also, the cup after the dining, season, praying that you may be accounted worthy saying, "This cup [is] the New Covenant in My blood, to escape all these things that are about to come to that is being poured forth for you. 21 But behold, pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." 37 And the hand of him delivering Me up [is] with Me on the He was teaching in the temple during the days, and table, 22 and, indeed, the Son of Man goes according during the nights, going forth, He was lodging at [that] to what has been determined; but woe to that man called the Mount of Olives; 38 and all the people were through whom He is being delivered up." 23 And they coming early to Him in the temple to hear Him.

22 And the Celebration of the Unleavened [Bread] was coming near, that is called Passover, 2 and the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how they may take Him up, for they were afraid of the people. 3 And Satan entered into Judas, who is surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the Twelve, 4 and he, having gone away, spoke with the chief priests and the magistrates, how he might deliver Him up to them, 5 and they rejoiced, and covenanted to give him money, 6 and he agreed, and was seeking a favorable season to deliver Him up to them without tumult. 7 And the day of the Unleavened [Bread] came, in which it was necessary [for] the Passover to be sacrificed, 8 and He sent Peter and John, saying, "Having gone on, prepare to us the Passover, that we may eat"; 9 and they said to Him, "Where do You will that we might prepare?" 10 And He said to them, "Behold, in your entering into the city, a man will meet you there, carrying a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he goes in, 11 and you will began to reason among themselves who then of them it may be who is about to do this thing. 24 And there happened also a strife among them—who of them is accounted to be greater. 25 And He said to them, "The kings of the nations exercise lordship over them, and those exercising authority on them are called benefactors; 26 but you [are] not so, but he who is greater among you—let him be as the younger; and he who is leading, as he who is ministering; 27 for who is greater? He who is reclining, or he who is ministering? Is it not he who is reclining? And I am in your midst as He who is ministering. 28 And you are those who have remained with Me in My temptations, 29 and I appoint to you a kingdom, as My Father appointed to Me, 30 that you may eat and may drink at My table, in My kingdom, and may sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel." 31 And the LORD said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked for himself to sift you as the wheat, 32 and I implored for you that your faith may not fail; and you, when you turned, strengthen your brothers." 33

And he said to Him, "Lord, I am ready to go with You with you in the temple, you stretched forth no hands both to prison and to death"; 34 and He said, "I say against Me; but this is your hour and the power of to you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today, before the darkness." 54 And having taken Him, they led you may disown knowing Me three times." 35 And and brought Him into the house of the chief priest. He said to them, "When I sent you without bag, and And Peter was following far off, 55 and they having leather pouch, and sandals, did you lack anything?" kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and having sat And they said, "Nothing." 36 Then He said to them, down together, Peter was sitting in the midst of them, "But now, he who is having a bag, let him take [it] 56 and a certain maid having seen him sitting at the up, and in like manner also a leather pouch; and light, and having earnestly looked at him, she said, he who is not having, let him sell his garment, and "And this one was with Him!" 57 And he disowned buy a sword, 37 for I say to you that this which has Him, saying, "Woman, I have not known Him." 58 And been written is necessary to be accomplished in Me: after a while, another having seen him, said, "And And He was reckoned with lawless ones; for also you are of them!" And Peter said, "Man, I am not." the things concerning Me have an end." 38 And they 59 And one hour, as it were, having intervened, a said, "Lord, behold, here [are] two swords"; and He certain other was confidently affirming, saying, "Of said to them, "It is sufficient." 39 And having gone a truth this one also was with Him, for he is also a forth, He went on, according to custom, to the Mount Galilean"; 60 and Peter said, "Man, I have not known of Olives, and His disciples also followed Him, 40 and what you say"; and immediately, while he is speaking, having come to the place, He said to them, "Pray to a rooster crowed. 61 And the LORD, having turned, not enter into temptation." 41 And He was withdrawn looked on Peter, and Peter remembered the word from them, as it were a stone's cast, and having fallen of the LORD, how He said to him, "Before a rooster on the knees He was praying, 42 saying, "Father, if will crow, you may disown Me three times"; 62 and You are willing, remove this cup from Me, but not My Peter having gone outside, wept bitterly. 63 And the will, but Yours be done." 43 And there appeared to men who were holding Jesus were mocking Him, Him a messenger from Heaven strengthening Him; beating [Him]; 64 and having blindfolded Him, they 44 and having been in agony, He was more earnestly were striking Him on the face, and were questioning praying, and His sweat became, as it were, great Him, saying, "Prophesy who he is who struck You?" drops of blood falling on the ground. 45 And having 65 And many other things, slandering, they spoke in risen up from the prayer, having come to the disciples, regard to Him. 66 And when it became day there was He found them sleeping from the sorrow, 46 and He gathered together the eldership of the people, chief said to them, "Why do you sleep? Having risen, pray priests also, and scribes, and they led Him up to their that you may not enter into temptation." 47 And while own Sanhedrin, 67 saying, "If You are the Christ, tell He is speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who is us." And He said to them, "If I may tell you, you will called Judas, one of the Twelve, was coming before not believe; 68 and if I also question [you], you will them, and he came near to Jesus to kiss Him, 48 not answer Me or send Me away; 69 from now on, and Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you deliver up there will be the Son of Man sitting on the right hand the Son of Man with a kiss?" 49 And those around of the power of God." 70 And they all said, "You, then, Him, having seen what was about to be, said to Him, are the Son of God?" And He said to them, "You say "Lord, will we strike with a sword?" 50 And a certain [it], because I AM"; 71 and they said, "What need do one of them struck the servant of the chief priest, we have yet of testimony? For we ourselves heard [it] and took off his right ear, 51 and Jesus answering from His mouth." said, "Permit thus far," and having touched his ear, He healed him. 52 And Jesus said to those having come on Him—chief priests, and magistrates of the temple, and elders, "Have you come forth with swords and sticks as on a robber? 53 While daily I was saying, "You are the King of the Jews?" And He has been cast into the prison, whom they were asking answering him, said, "You say [it]." 4 And Pilate said for, and he gave up Jesus to their will. 26 And as they to the chief priests and the multitude, "I find no fault in led Him away, having taken hold on Simon, a certain this Man"; 5 and they were the more urgent, saying, Cyrenian, coming from the field, they put the cross on "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout the whole him to carry [it] behind Jesus. 27 And a great multitude of Judea—having begun from Galilee—to this place." of the people were following Him, and of women, who 6 And Pilate having heard of Galilee, questioned if the also were beating themselves and lamenting Him, 28 Man is a Galilean, 7 and having known that He is and Jesus having turned to them, said, "Daughters from the jurisdiction of Herod, he sent Him back to of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for Herod, he also being in Jerusalem in those days. 8 yourselves and for your children; 29 for behold, days And Herod rejoiced exceedingly having seen Jesus, come in which they will say, Blessed the barren, and for he was wishing to see Him for a long [time], wombs that did not bear, and breasts that did not give because of hearing many things about Him, and he suck; 30 then they will begin to say to the mountains, was hoping to see some sign done by Him, 9 and was Fall on us, and to the hills, Cover us; 31 for if they questioning Him in many words, and He answered do these things in the green tree, what may happen him nothing. 10 And the chief priests and the scribes in the dry?" 32 And there were also others—two stood vehemently accusing Him, 11 and Herod with evildoers—with Him, to be put to death; 33 and when his soldiers having set Him at nothing, and having they came to the place that is called "[Place] of [the] mocked, having cast radiant apparel around Him, Skull," there they crucified Him and the evildoers, one sent Him back to Pilate, 12 and both Pilate and Herod on the right hand and one on the left. 34 And Jesus became friends with one another on that day, for they said, "Father, forgive them, for they have not known were previously at enmity between themselves. 13 what they do"; and parting His garments they cast And Pilate having called together the chief priests, a lot. 35 And the people were standing, looking on, and the rulers, and the people, 14 said to them, "You and the rulers were also sneering with them, saying, brought this Man to me as perverting the people, "He saved others, let Him save Himself, if this be the and behold, I having examined [Him] before you, Christ, the Chosen One of God." 36 And the soldiers found no fault in this Man in those things you bring were also mocking Him, coming near and offering forward against Him; 15 no, neither Herod, for he sent vinegar to Him, 37 and saying, "If You are the King of Him back to us, and behold, nothing worthy of death the Jews, save Yourself." 38 And there was also an is having been done by Him; 16 having corrected, inscription written over Him [[in letters of Greek, and therefore, I will release Him," 17 [[for it was necessary Latin, and Hebrew]]: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE for him to release to them one at every celebration,]] JEWS." 39 And one of the evildoers who were hanged 18 and they cried out—the whole multitude—saying, was slandering Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, "Away with this One, and release Barabbas to us," 19 save Yourself and us." 40 And the other answering, who had been cast into prison, because of a certain was rebuking him, saying, "Do you not even fear sedition made in the city, and murder. 20 Pilate again God, that you are in the same judgment? 41 And then—wishing to release Jesus—called to them, 21 we indeed justly, for we are receiving back [things] but they were calling out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify worthy of what we did, but this One did nothing out Him!" 22 And he said to them a third time, "Why, of place"; 42 and he said to Jesus, "Remember me, what evil did He do? I found no cause of death in Lord, when You may come in Your kingdom"; 43 and Him; having corrected Him, then, I will release [Him]." Jesus said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you will 23 And they were pressing with loud voices asking be with Me in Paradise." 44 And it was, as it were, Him to be crucified, and their voices, and those of the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land the chief priests, were prevailing, 24 and Pilate gave until the ninth hour, 45 and the sun was darkened, judgment for their request being done, 25 and he and the veil of the temple was torn in the middle, released him who because of sedition and murder 46 and having cried with a loud voice, Jesus said,

23 And having risen, the whole multitude of them led Him to Pilate, 2 and began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this One perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying Himself to be Christ, a king." 3 And Pilate questioned Him,

"Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit"; now were not believing them. 12 And Peter having risen, having said this, He breathed His last. 47 And the ran to the tomb, and having stooped down he sees centurion having seen what was done, glorified God, the linen clothes lying alone, and he went away to saying, "Truly this Man was righteous"; 48 and all his own home, wondering at that having come to the multitudes having come together to this sight, pass. 13 And behold, two of them were going on beholding the things that came to pass, turned back during that day to a village, being sixty stadia distant striking their breasts; 49 and all His acquaintances from Jerusalem, the name of which [is] Emmaus, 14 stood far off, and women who followed Him from and they were conversing with one another about all Galilee, beholding these things. 50 And behold, a these things that have happened. 15 And it came to man, by name Joseph, being a counselor, a man pass in their conversing and reasoning together, that good and righteous, 51 from Arimathea, a city of the Jesus Himself, having come near, was going on with Jews, who also himself was expecting the Kingdom them, 16 and their eyes were restrained so as not of God, he was not consenting to their counsel and to know Him, 17 and He said to them, "What [are] deed, 52 he having gone near to Pilate, asked for these words that you exchange with one another, the body of Jesus, 53 and having taken it down, he walking, and you are sad?" 18 And one, whose name wrapped it in fine linen, and placed it in a hewn out was Cleopas, answering, said to Him, "Are You alone tomb, where no one was yet laid. 54 And it was [the] visiting Jerusalem and have not known the things Day of Preparation, and Sabbath was approaching, having come to pass in it in these days?" 19 And He 55 and the women who also have come with Him out said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, of Galilee having followed after, beheld the tomb, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who became a and how His body was placed, 56 and having turned man—a prophet—powerful in deed and word, before back, they made ready spices and ointments, and on God and all the people, 20 how also the chief priests the Sabbath, indeed, they rested, according to the command.

24 And on the first [day] of the weeks, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, carrying the spices they made ready, and certain [others] with them, 2 and they found the stone having been rolled away from the tomb, 3 and having gone in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4 And it came to pass, while they are perplexed about this, that behold, two men stood by them in clothing—flashing [with light]; 5 and on their having become afraid, and having inclined the face to the earth, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living with the dead? 6 He is not here, but was raised; remember how He spoke to you, being yet in Galilee, 7 saying, It is necessary for the Son of Man to be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and to be crucified, and to rise again [on] the third day." 8 And they remembered His sayings, 9 and having turned back from the tomb, told all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. 10 And it was Mary the Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary of James, and the other women with them, who told these things to the apostles, 11 and their sayings appeared before them as idle talk, and they

and our rulers delivered Him up to a judgment of death, and crucified Him; 21 and we were hoping that it is He who is about to redeem Israel, and also with all these things, this third day is passing today since these things happened. 22 And certain of our women also astonished us, coming early to the tomb, 23 and having not found His body, they came, saying to have also seen an apparition of messengers who say He is alive, 24 and certain of those with us went away to the tomb, and found [it] so, even as the women said, and they did not see Him." 25 And He said to them, "O inconsiderate and slow in heart to believe on all that the prophets spoke! 26 Was it not necessary [for] the Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into His glory?" 27 And having begun from Moses, and from all the Prophets, He was expounding to them in all the Writings the things about Himself. 28 And they came near to the village to where they were going, and He made an appearance of going on further, 29 and they constrained Him, saying, "Remain with us, for it is toward evening," and the day declined, and He went in to remain with them. 30 And it came to pass, in His reclining with them, having taken the bread, He blessed, and having broken, He was giving to them, 31 and their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him, and He became unseen by them. Jerusalem with great joy, 53 and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

32 And they said to one another, "Was our heart not burning within us as He was speaking to us in the way, and as He was opening the Writings up to us?"

33 And they, having risen up the same hour, turned back to Jerusalem, and found the Eleven gathered together, and those with them, 34 saying, "The Lord was indeed raised, and was seen by Simon"; 35 and they were expounding the things in the way, and how He was made known to them in the breaking of the bread, 36 and as they are speaking these things, Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them, and says to them, "Peace to you"; 37 and being amazed, and becoming frightened, they were thinking themselves to see a spirit. 38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do reasonings come up in your hearts? 39 See My hands and My feet, that I am He; handle Me and see, because a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see Me having." 40 And having said this, He showed the hands and the feet to them, 41 and while they are not believing from the joy, and wondering, He said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?" 42 And they gave to Him part of a broiled fish, and of a honeycomb, 43 and having taken, He ate before them, 44 and He said to them, "These [are] the words that I spoke to you, being yet with you, that it is necessary to be fulfilled all the things that are written in the Law of Moses, and the Prophets, and the Psalms, about Me." 45 Then He opened up their understanding to understand the Writings, 46 and He said to them, "Thus it has been written, and thus it was necessary [for] the Christ to suffer, and to rise out of the dead [on] the third day, 47 and conversion and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in His Name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem: 48 and you are witnesses of these things. 49 And behold, I send the promise of My Father on you, but you—abide in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high." 50 And He led them forth outside—to Bethany, and having lifted up His hands He blessed them, 51 and it came to pass, in His blessing them, He was parted from them, and was carried up into Heaven; 52 and they, having worshiped Him, turned back to

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God; 2 this One was in the beginning with God; 3 all things happened through Him, and without Him not even one thing happened that has happened. 4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men, 5 and the light shined in the darkness, and the darkness did not perceive it. 6 There came a man—having been sent from God—whose name [is] John, 7 this one came for testimony, that he might testify about the Light, that all might believe through him; 8 that one was not the Light, but—that he might testify about the Light. 9 He was the true Light, which enlightens every man, coming into the world; 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him: 11 He came to [His] own, and [His] own did not receive Him; 12 but as many as received Him, to them He gave authority to become sons of God—to those believing in His Name, 13 who were begotten, not of blood, nor of will of flesh, nor of will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of [the] only begotten of [the] Father, full of grace and truth. 15 John testifies concerning Him, and has cried, saying, "This was He of whom I said, He who is coming after me has come before me, for He was before me." 16 And we all received out of His fullness, and grace for grace; 17 for the Law was given through Moses, the grace and the truth came through Jesus Christ. 18 No one has ever seen God; the only begotten God who is on the bosom of the Father—He has expounded [Him]. 19 And this is the testimony of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites out of Jerusalem, that they might question him, "Who are you?" 20 And he confessed and did not deny, and confessed, "I am not the Christ." 21 And they questioned him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" And he says, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" And he answered, "No." 22 Then they said to him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those sending us? What do you say concerning yourself?" 23 He said, "I [am] a voice of one crying in the wilderness: Make straight the way of the LORD, as Isaiah the prophet said." 24 And those sent were of the Pharisees, 25 and they questioned him and said to him, "Why, then, do you immerse, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the prophet?" 26 John answered them, saying, "I immerse in water, but in the midst of you has stood He whom you have not known, it is this One who is coming after me, who has been before me, 27 of whom I am not worthy that I may loose the strap of His sandal." 28 These things came to pass in Bethabara, beyond the Jordan, where John was immersing. 29 On the next day John sees Jesus coming to him and says, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who is taking away the sin of the world; 30 this is He concerning whom I said, After me comes a Man who has come before me, because He was before me: 31 and I did not know Him, but that He might be revealed to Israel, because of this I came immersing in water." 32 And John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit coming down out of Heaven as a dove, and [that] One remained on Him; 33 and I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water, He said to me, On whomsoever you may see the Spirit coming down, and remaining on Him, this is He who is immersing in the Holy Spirit; 34 and I have seen, and have testified, that this is the Son of God." 35 On the next day, again, John was standing, and two of his disciples, 36 and having looked on Jesus walking, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God"; 37 and the two disciples heard him speaking, and they followed Jesus. 38 And Jesus having turned, and having beheld them following, says to them, "What do you seek?" And they said to Him, "Rabbi" (which is, being interpreted, Teacher), "where do You remain?" 39 He says to them, "Come and see"; they came and saw where He remains, and they remained with Him that day and the hour was about the tenth. 40 Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard from John, and followed Him; 41 this one first finds his own brother Simon and says to him, "We have found the Messiah," (which is, being interpreted, Anointed One), 42 and he brought him to Jesus: and having looked on him, Jesus says, "You are Simon, the son of Jonas, you will be called Cephas," (which is interpreted, A rock). 43 On the next day He willed to go forth to Galilee, and He finds Philip and says to him, "Follow Me." 44 And Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter; 45 Philip finds Nathanael and says to him, "Him of whom Moses wrote in the Law, the money-changers sitting, 15 and having made a whip of small cords, He put all forth out of the temple, Joseph, who [is] from Nazareth!" 46 And Nathanael also the sheep, and the oxen; and He poured out the said to him, "Is any good thing able to be out of coins of the money-changers, and He overthrew the Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." 47 tables, 16 and He said to those selling the doves, Jesus saw Nathanael coming to Him, and He says "Take these things from here; do not make the house concerning him, "Behold, truly an Israelite, in whom is of My Father a house of merchandise." 17 And His no guile"; 48 Nathanael says to Him, "From where do disciples remembered that it is written: "The zeal of You know me?" Jesus answered and said to him, Your house ate Me up"; 18 the Jews then answered "Before Philip's calling you, being under the fig tree, I and said to Him, "What sign do You show to us—that saw you." 49 Nathanael answered and says to Him, You do these things?" 19 Jesus answered and said to "Rabbi, You are the Son of God, You are the King of them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will Israel." 50 Jesus answered and said to him, "Because raise it up." 20 The Jews, therefore, said, "This temple I said to you, I saw you under the fig tree, you believe; was built [in] forty-six years, and will You raise it up in you will see greater things than these"; 51 and He three days?" 21 But He spoke concerning the temple says to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, from now on of His body; 22 when, then, He was raised out of the you will see Heaven opened, and the messengers of dead, His disciples remembered that He said this to God going up and coming down on the Son of Man."

2 And [on] the third day a wedding happened in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there, 2 and also Jesus was called, and His disciples, to the wedding; 3 and wine having failed, the mother of Jesus says to Him, "They have no wine"; 4 Jesus says to her, "What [is that] to Me and to you, woman? My hour is not yet come." 5 His mother says to the servants, "Whatever He may say to you—do." 6 And there were six water-jugs of stone there, placed according to the purifying of the Jews, holding each two or three measures. 7 Jesus says to them, "Fill the water-jugs with water"; and they filled them—to the brim; 8 and He says to them, "Draw out, now, and carry to the headwaiter"; and they bore. 9 And as the headwaiter tasted the water become wine, and did not know where it is from (but the servants knew, who have drawn the water), the headwaiter calls the bridegroom, 10 and says to him, "Every man, at first, sets forth the good wine; and when they may have drunk freely, then the inferior; you kept the good wine until now." 11 This [is the] beginning of the signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him; 12 after this He went down to Capernaum, He, and His mother, and His brothers, and His disciples; and they did not remain there many days. 13 And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 14 and He found in the temple those selling oxen, and sheep, and doves, and them, and they believed the Writing, and the word that Jesus said. 23 And as He was in Jerusalem, in the Passover, in the celebration, many believed in His Name, beholding His signs that He was doing; 24 and Jesus Himself was not trusting Himself to them, because of His knowing all [men], 25 and because He had no need that any should testify concerning man, for He Himself was knowing what was in man.

3 And there was a man of the Pharisees, his name Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews; 2 this one came to Him by night and said to Him, "Rabbi, we have known that You have come from God—a teacher, for no one is able to do these signs that You do, if God may not be with him." 3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may not be born from above, he is not able to see the Kingdom of God"; 4 Nicodemus says to Him, "How is a man able to be born, being old? Is he able to enter into the womb of his mother a second time, and to be born?" 5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may not be born of water and the Spirit, he is not able to enter into the Kingdom of God; 6 that which has been born of the flesh is flesh, and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit. 7 You may not wonder that I said to you, It is required for you to be born from above; 8 the Spirit blows where [that] One wills, and you hear [that] One's voice, but you have not known from where [that] One comes, and to where [that] One goes; thus is everyone who has been born of the Spirit." 9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How said I am not the Christ, but that I am having been are these things able to happen?" 10 Jesus answered sent before Him; 29 He who is having the bride is and said to him, "You are the teacher of Israel and bridegroom, and the friend of the bridegroom, who is you do not know these things? 11 Truly, truly, I say standing and hearing Him, rejoices with joy because to you, what We have known We speak, and what of the voice of the bridegroom; this, then, my joy has We have seen We testify, and you do not receive been fulfilled. 30 It is necessary [for] Him to increase, Our testimony; 12 if I spoke to you of the earthly and me to become less; 31 He who is coming from things, and you do not believe, how, if I will speak to you of the heavenly things, will you believe? 13 the earth he is, and from the earth he speaks; He And no one has gone up to Heaven, except He who came down out of Heaven—the Son of Man who is in He has seen and heard—this He testifies, and none Heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so it is necessary for the Son of Man to be lifted up, 15 that everyone who is believing in Him may not perish, but may have continuous life, (aiōnios g166) 16 for God so loved the world that He gave the only begotten Son, that everyone who is believing in Him may not perish, but may have continuous life. (aiōnios g166) 17 For God did not send His Son into the world that He may judge the world, but that the world may be saved through Him; 18 he who is believing in Him is not judged, but he who is not believing has been judged already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were evil; 20 for everyone who is doing wicked things hates the light, and does not come into the light, that his works may not be detected; 21 but he who is doing the truth comes into the light, that his works may be revealed, that in God they are having been worked." 22 After these things Jesus and His disciples came into the land of Judea, and there He tarried with them, and was immersing; 23 and John was also immersing in Aenon, near to Salem, because there were many waters there, and they were coming and were being immersed— 24 for John was not yet cast into the prison— 25 there arose then a question from the disciples of John with [some] Jews about purifying, 26 and they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you testified, behold, this One is immersing, and all are coming to Him." 27 John answered and said, "A man is not able to receive anything if it may not have been given him from Heaven; 28 you yourselves testify to me that I receives His testimony; 33 he who is receiving His testimony sealed that God is true; 34 for He whom God sent, He speaks the sayings of God; for God does not give the Spirit by measure; 35 the Father loves the Son, and has given all things into His hand; 36 he who is believing in the Son has continuous life; and he who is not believing the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him." (aiōnios g166)

4 When therefore the LORD knew that the Pharisees heard that Jesus makes and immerses more disciples than John, 2 (though indeed Jesus Himself was not immersing, but His disciples), 3 He left Judea and went away again to Galilee, 4 and it was necessary [for] Him to go through Samaria. 5 He comes, therefore, to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near to the place that Jacob gave to his son Joseph; 6 and there was there a well of Jacob. Jesus therefore having been weary from the journeying, was thus sitting on the well; it was as it were the sixth hour; 7 there comes a woman out of Samaria to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give Me to drink"; 8 for His disciples were gone away into the city that they may buy food; 9 the Samaritan woman therefore says to Him, "How do You, being a Jew, ask drink from me, being a Samaritan woman?" For Jews have no dealing with Samaritans. 10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you had known the gift of God, and who it is who is saying to you, Give Me to drink, you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water." 11 The woman says to Him, "Lord, You do not even have a vessel to draw with, and the well is deep; from where, then, have You the living water? 12 Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and himself drank out of it, and his sons, and his livestock?" 13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who is drinking of this water will thirst again; 14 but whoever may drink of the water that I will give him, may not thirst—throughout the age; and the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water, springing up to continuous life." (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 15 The woman says to Him, "Lord, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw." 16 Jesus says to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here"; 17 the woman answered and said, "I do not have a husband." 18 for you woman testifying, "He told me all things—as many as have had five husbands, and now, he whom you have I did." 19 The woman says to Him, "Lord, I perceive that You are a prophet; 20 our fathers worshiped in this mountain, and You say that in Jerusalem is the place where it is required to worship." 21 Jesus says to her, "Woman, believe Me, that there comes an hour when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father; 22 you worship what you have not known; we worship what we have known, because salvation is of the Jews; 23 but there comes Messiah comes, who is called Christ, when that One may come, He will tell us all things"; 24 Jesus says to her, "I who am speaking to you am [He]."

25 The woman says to Him, "I have known that Jesus comes to speak with me, and I know that He is the Christ." 26 Jesus says to her, "I am speaking to you, and you believe not." 27 And on asking Him that He may come down and heal his son, for he was about to die. 28 The woman then left her water-jug and went away into the city, and says to the men, "Come, see a Man who told me all things—as many as I did; believed the word that Jesus said to him, and was this the Christ?" 29 They went forth therefore out of Judea to Galilee, went away to Him, and was eat that you have not known." 30 They went forth therefore out going on, and he now going down, his servants of the city, and were coming to Him. 31 And in the hour the fever left him"; 32 he meanwhile His disciples were asking Him, saying, "Did anyone bring Him anything [it was] in that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your to eat?" 33 The disciples then said to one another, "Did anyone bring Him anything [it was] in that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your to eat?" 34 Jesus says to them, "My food is that I son lives," and he himself believed, and his whole may do the will of Him who sent Me, and may finish His work; 35 do not say that it is yet four months, and the harvest comes; behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes, and see the fields, that they are white to harvest already. 36 And he who is reaping receives a reward, and gathers fruit to continuous life, that both he who is sowing and he who is reaping may rejoice together; (aiōnios g166) 37 for in this the saying is the true one, that one is the sower and another the reaper. 38 I sent you to reap on that which you have entered not labored; others labored, and you have entered into their labor." 39 And many from that city believed in Him, of the Samaritans, because of the word of the did you say—I do not have a husband; 40 When, then, the Samaritans came to Him, is not your husband; you have said this correctly." they were asking Him to remain with them, and He remained there two days; 41 and many more believed no longer believe because of your speaking; for we ourselves have heard and known that this is truly the Savior of the world—the Christ." 42 And said to the woman, "We the two days He went forth from there, and went away to Galilee, 43 And after also seeks such to worship Him; 44 for Jesus Himself testified that received Him, having seen all things that He did in Jerusalem in the celebration—for they also went to Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine, and truth." 45 when then, He came to Galilee, the Galileans out of Judea to Galilee, went away to Him, and was his son, for he was about to die. 46 Jesus came, therefore, again to Cana of Galilee, where He made the water wine, and truth." 47 he, having heard that Jesus comes to speak with me, and I know that He is the Christ." 48 Jesus then said to him, "If you may not see signs and wonders, you will not believe." 49 The attendant says to Him, "Lord, her?" 50 Jesus says to him, "Be going on; your son lives." And the man came His disciples, and were wondering that He his son, for he was about to die. 51 And in the met him, and told, saying, "Your child lives"; 52 he to him, "Be going on; your son lives." And the man house; 53 then the father knew that son lives," and he himself believed, and his whole again [was] a second sign Jesus did, His work; 54 this again [was] a second sign Jesus did, and the harvest comes; behold, I say to you, lift up

5 After these things there was a celebration of the Son, and shows to Him all things that He Himself Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, 2 and does; and greater works than these He will show Him, there is in Jerusalem by the sheep-[gate] a pool that that you may wonder. 21 For as the Father raises is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches, 3 the dead, and makes alive, so also the Son makes in these were lying a great multitude of the ailing, alive whom He wills; 22 for neither does the Father blind, lame, withered, [[waiting for the moving of the judge anyone, but all the judgment He has given to water, 4 for a messenger at a set time was going the Son, 23 that all may honor the Son according as down in the pool, and was troubling the water, the first they honor the Father; he who is not honoring the then having gone in after the troubling of the water, Son, does not honor the Father who sent Him. 24 became whole of whatever sickness he was held.]] 5 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is hearing My word, And there was a certain man there being in ailment and is believing Him who sent Me, has continuous thirty-eight years, 6 him Jesus having seen lying, and life, and he does not come into judgment, but has having known that he is already a long time, He says passed out of death into life. (aiōnios g166) 25 Truly, to him, "Do you wish to become whole?" 7 The ailing truly, I say to you, [that] there comes an hour, and it man answered Him, "Lord, I have no man, that, when now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son the water may be troubled, he may put me into the of God, and those having heard will live; 26 for as the pool, and while I am coming, another goes down Father has life in Himself, so He gave also to the Son before me." 8 Jesus says to him, "Rise, take up your to have life in Himself, 27 and authority He gave Him pallet, and be walking"; 9 and immediately the man also to do judgment, because He is Son of Man. 28 became whole, and he took up his pallet, and was Do not wonder at this, because there comes an hour walking, and it was a Sabbath on that day, 10 the in which all those in the tombs will hear His voice, 29 Jews then said to him that has been healed, "It is a and they will come forth; those who did good things Sabbath; it is not lawful to you to take up the pallet." to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced evil 11 He answered them, "He who made me whole—that things to a resurrection of judgment. 30 I am not able One said to me, Take up your pallet, and be walking"; of Myself to do anything; according as I hear I judge, 12 they questioned him, then, "Who is the Man who is and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek saying to you, Take up your bed and be walking?" 13 My own will, but the will of the Father who sent Me. But he that was healed had not known who He is, for 31 If I testify concerning Myself, My testimony is not Jesus moved away, a multitude being in the place. 14 true; 32 there is another who is testifying concerning After these things, Jesus finds him in the temple and Me, and I have known that the testimony that He said to him, "Behold, you have become whole; sin no testifies concerning Me is true; 33 you have sent to more, lest something worse may happen to you." 15 John, and he has testified to the truth. 34 But I do The man went away, and told the Jews that it is Jesus not receive testimony from man, but these things I who made him whole, 16 and because of this were say that you may be saved; 35 he was the burning the Jews persecuting Jesus, and seeking to kill Him, and shining lamp, and you willed to be glad, for an because these things He was doing on a Sabbath. 17 hour, in his light. 36 But I have the testimony greater And Jesus answered them, "My Father works until than John's, for the works that the Father gave Me, now, and I work"; 18 because of this, then, were the that I might finish them, the works themselves that I Jews seeking the more to kill Him, because not only do, they testify concerning Me, that the Father has was He breaking the Sabbath, but He also called God sent Me. 37 And the Father who sent Me has testified His own Father, making Himself equal to God. 19 Himself concerning Me; you have neither heard His Jesus therefore responded and said to them, "Truly, voice at any time, nor have you seen His appearance; truly, I say to you, the Son is not able to do anything of 38 and you do not have His word remaining in you, Himself, if He may not see the Father doing anything; because you do not believe Him whom He sent. 39 for whatever things He may do, these also the Son You search the Writings, because you think in them does in like manner; 20 for the Father cherishes the to have continuous life, and these are they that are testifying concerning Me; (aiōnios g166) 40 and you did, said, "This is truly the Prophet who is coming into do not will to come to Me, that you may have life; the world"; 15 Jesus, therefore, having known that 41 I do not receive glory from man, 42 but I have they are about to come, and to seize Him by force known you, that you do not have the love of God in that they may make Him king, retired again to the yourselves. 43 I have come in the Name of My Father, mountain Himself alone. 16 And when evening came, and you do not receive Me; if another may come His disciples went down to the sea, 17 and having in his own name, him you will receive; 44 how are entered into the boat, they were going over the sea to you able—you—to believe, receiving glory from one Capernaum, and darkness had already come, and another, and the glory that [is] from God alone you do Jesus had not come to them, 18 the sea also—a great not seek? 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the wind blowing—was being raised, 19 having pushed Father; there is [one] who is accusing you, Moses—in onward, therefore, about twenty-five or thirty stadia, whom you have hoped; 46 for if you were believing they behold Jesus walking on the sea, and coming Moses, you would have been believing Me, for he near to the boat, and they were afraid; 20 and He says wrote concerning Me; 47 but if you do not believe his to them, "I AM; do not be afraid"; 21 they were willing writings, how will you believe My sayings?" then to receive Him into the boat, and immediately the boat came to the land to which they were going.

6 After these things Jesus went away beyond the Sea of Galilee (of Tiberias), 2 and there was following Him a great multitude, because they were seeing His signs that He was doing on the ailing; 3 and Jesus went up to the mountain, and He was sitting with His disciples there, 4 and the Passover was near, the celebration of the Jews. 5 Jesus then having lifted up [His] eyes and having seen that a great multitude comes to Him, says to Philip, "From where will we buy loaves, that these may eat?" 6 And this He said, trying him, for He Himself had known what He was about to do. 7 Philip answered Him, "Two hundred denarii worth of loaves are not sufficient to them, that each of them may receive some little"; 8 one of His disciples—Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter—says to Him, 9 "There is one little boy here who has five barley loaves and two fishes, but these—what are they to so many?" 10 And Jesus said, "Make the men to sit down"; and there was much grass in the place, the men then sat down, in number, as it were, five thousand, 11 and Jesus took the loaves, and having given thanks He distributed [them] to the disciples, and the disciples to those reclining, in like manner, also of the little fishes as much as they wished. 12 And when they were filled, He says to His disciples, "Gather together the broken pieces that are left over, that nothing may be lost"; 13 they gathered together, therefore, and filled twelve hand-baskets with broken pieces, from the five barley loaves that were over to those having eaten. 14 The men, then, having seen the sign that Jesus

22 On the next day, the multitude that was standing on the other side of the sea, having seen that there was no other little boat there except one—that into which His disciples entered—and that Jesus did not go in with His disciples into the little boat, but His disciples went away alone 23 (and other little boats came from Tiberias, near the place where they ate the bread, the LORD having given thanks), 24 when therefore the multitude saw that Jesus is not there, nor His disciples, they also entered into the boats themselves, and came to Capernaum seeking Jesus; 25 and having found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "Rabbi, when have You come here?" 26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were satisfied; 27 do not work for the food that is perishing, but for the food that is remaining to continuous life, which the Son of Man will give to you, for the Father sealed Him—[even] God." (aiōnios g166) 28 Therefore they said to Him, "What may we do that we may work the works of God?" 29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you may believe in Him whom He sent." 30 Therefore they said to Him, "What sign, then, do You do, that we may see and may believe You? What do You work? 31 Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, according as it is having been written: He gave them bread out of Heaven to eat." 32 Jesus, therefore, said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread out of

Heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of Heaven; 33 for the bread of God is Him coming down out of Heaven, and giving life to the world." 34 Therefore they said to Him, "Lord, always give us this bread." 35 And Jesus said to them, "I AM the bread of life; he who is coming to Me may not hunger, and he who is believing in Me may not thirst—at any time; 36 but I said to you that you also have seen Me, and you do not believe; 37 all that the Father gives to Me will come to Me; and him who is coming to Me, I will never cast outside, 38 because I have come down out of Heaven, not that I may do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me. 39 And this is the will of the Father who sent Me, that all that He has given to Me, I may lose none of it, but may raise it up in the last day; 40 and this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who is beholding the Son, and is believing in Him, may have continuous life, and I will raise him up in the last day." (aiōnios g166) 41 The Jews, therefore, were murmuring at Him, because He said, "I AM the bread that came down out of Heaven"; 42 and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the Son of Joseph, whose father and mother we have known? How then does Jesus answered, therefore, and said to them, "Do not murmur with one another; 44 no one is able to come to Me if the Father who sent Me may not draw him, and I will raise him up in the last day; 45 it is having been written in the Prophets: And they will all be taught of God; everyone, therefore, who heard from the Father, and learned, comes to Me; 46 not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from God, He has seen the Father. 47 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is believing in Me has continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 48 I AM the bread of life; 49 your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died; 50 this is the bread that is coming down out of Heaven, that anyone may eat of it, and not die. 51 I AM the living bread that came down out of Heaven; if anyone may eat of this bread he will live—throughout the age; and the bread also that I will give is My flesh, that I will give for the life of the world." (aiōn g165) 52 The Jews, therefore, were striving with one another, saying, "How is this One able to give us [His] flesh to eat?" 53 Jesus, therefore, said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, if you may not eat the flesh of the Son of Man, and may not drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves; 54 he who is eating My flesh, and is drinking My blood, has continuous life, and I will raise him up in the last day; (aiōnios g166) 55 for My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink; 56 he who is eating My flesh, and is drinking My blood, remains in Me, and I in him. 57 According as the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, he also who is eating Me, even that one will live because of Me; 58 this is the bread that came down out of Heaven; not as your fathers ate the manna, and died; he who is eating this bread will live—throughout the age." (aiōn g165) 59 He said these things in a synagogue, teaching in Capernaum; 60 many, therefore, of His disciples having heard, said, "This word is hard; who is able to hear it?" 61 And Jesus having known in Himself that His disciples are murmuring about this, said to them, "Does this stumble you? 62 If then you before? 63 It is the Spirit that is giving life; the flesh does not profit anything; the sayings that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life; 64 but there are certain of you who do not believe"; for Jesus had known from the beginning who they are who are not believing, and who is he who will deliver Him up, 65 and He said, "Because of this I have said to you, No one is able to come to Me if it may not have been given him from My Father." 66 From this [time] many of His disciples went away backward, and were no longer walking with Him, 67 Jesus, therefore, said to the Twelve, "Do you also wish to go away?" 68 Simon Peter, therefore, answered Him, "Lord, to whom will we go? You have sayings of continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 69 and we have believed, and we have known, that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." 70 Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you—the Twelve? And of you—one is a devil." 71 And He spoke of Judas, [son] of Simon Iscariot, for he was about to deliver Him up, being one of the Twelve.

7 And Jesus was walking after these things in Galilee, for He did not wish to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill Him, 2 and the celebration of the Jews was near—that of Shelters— 3 His brothers, therefore, said to Him, "Depart from here, and go away to Judea, that Your disciples may also behold Your works that You do; 4 for no one

does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be in this One—we have known where He is from; and public; if you do these things—reveal Yourself to the the Christ, when He comes, no one knows where world"; 5 for not even His brothers were believing He is from." 28 Jesus cried, therefore, in the temple, in Him. 6 Jesus, therefore, says to them, "My time teaching and saying, "You have both known Me, and is not yet present, but your time is always ready; 7 you have known from where I am; and I have not the world is not able to hate you, but it hates Me, come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom because I testify concerning it that its works are evil. you have not known; 29 and I have known Him, 8 You—go up to this celebration; I do not yet go up because I am from Him, and He sent Me." 30 They to this celebration, because My time has not yet were seeking, therefore, to seize Him, and no one been fulfilled"; 9 and saying these things to them, He laid the hand on Him, because His hour had not yet remained in Galilee. 10 And when His brothers went come, 31 and many out of the multitude believed in up, then also He Himself went up to the celebration, Him and said, "The Christ—when He may come—will not openly, but as in secret; 11 the Jews, therefore, He do more signs than these that this One did?" were seeking Him in the celebration, and said, "Where 32 The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring is that One?" 12 And there was much murmuring these things concerning Him, and the Pharisees and about Him among the multitudes, some indeed said, the chief priests sent officers that they may take "He is good"; and others said, "No, but He leads the Him; 33 Jesus, therefore, said to them, "Yet a short multitude astray"; 13 no one, however, was speaking time I am with you, and I go away to Him who sent freely about Him, through fear of the Jews. 14 And Me; 34 you will seek Me, and you will not find; and it being now the middle of the celebration, Jesus where I am, you are not able to come." 35 The Jews, went up to the temple, and He was teaching, 15 therefore, said among themselves, "To where is this and the Jews were wondering, saying, "How has this One about to go that we will not find Him? Is He One known letters—having not learned?" 16 Jesus about to go to the dispersion of the Greeks, and answered them and said, "My teaching is not Mine, to teach the Greeks? 36 What is this word that He but His who sent Me; 17 if anyone may will to do His said, You will seek Me, and you will not find? And, will, he will know concerning the teaching, whether it Where I am, you are not able to come?" 37 And is of God, or—if I speak from Myself. 18 He who is in the last, the great day of the celebration, Jesus speaking from himself seeks his own glory, but he stood and cried, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him who is seeking the glory of him who sent him, this one come to Me and drink; 38 he who is believing in is true, and unrighteousness is not in him; 19 has not Me, according as the Writing said, Rivers of living Moses given you the Law? And none of you does the water will flow out of his belly"; 39 and this He said of Law; why do you seek to kill Me?" 20 The multitude the Spirit, which those believing in Him were about answered and said, "You have a demon, who seeks to receive; for not yet was the Holy Spirit, because to kill You?" 21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I Jesus was not yet glorified. 40 Many, therefore, out of did one work, and you all wonder, 22 because of this, the multitude, having heard the word, said, "This is Moses has given you the circumcision—not that it is truly the Prophet"; 41 others said, "This is the Christ"; of Moses, but of the fathers—and on a Sabbath you and others said, "Why, does the Christ come out of circumcise a man; 23 if a man receives circumcision Galilee? 42 Did the Writing not say that out of the on a Sabbath that the Law of Moses may not be seed of David, and from Beth-Lehem—the village broken, are you angry with Me that I made a man all where David was—the Christ comes?" 43 A division, whole on a Sabbath? 24 Do not judge according to therefore, arose among the multitude because of appearance, but the righteous judgment judge." 25 Him. 44 And certain of them were willing to seize Him, Certain, therefore, of the Jerusalemites said, "Is this but no one laid hands on Him; 45 the officers came, not He whom they are seeking to kill? 26 And behold, therefore, to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they He speaks freely, and they say nothing to Him; did said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?" 46 The rulers truly know that this is the Christ? 27 But officers answered, "Never so spoke man—as this Man." 47 The Pharisees, therefore, answered them, "Have you also been led astray? 48 Did anyone out of the rulers believe in Him? Or out of the Pharisees? 49 But this multitude, that is not knowing the Law, has accursed." 50 Nicodemus says to them—he who came by night to Him—being one of them, 51 "Does our law judge the Man, if it may not hear from Him first, and know what He does?" 52 They answered and said to him, "Are you also out of Galilee? Search and see that a prophet has not risen out of Galilee"; [53 and each one went on to his house, but Jesus went on to the Mount of Olives.

8 And at dawn He came again to the temple [courts],

2 and all the people were coming to Him, and having sat down, He was teaching them; 3 and the scribes and the Pharisees bring to Him a woman having been taken in adultery, and having set her in the midst, 4 they say to Him, "Teacher, this woman was taken in the very crime [of] committing adultery, 5 and in the Law, Moses commanded us that such be stoned; You, therefore, what do You say?" 6 And this they said, trying Him, that they might have to accuse Him. And Jesus, having stooped down, with the finger He was writing on the ground, 7 and when they continued asking Him, having bent Himself back, He said to them, "The sinless of you—let him cast the first stone at her"; 8 and again having stooped down, He was writing on the ground, 9 and they having heard, and being convicted by the conscience, were going forth one by one, having begun from the elders—to the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. 10 And Jesus having bent Himself back, and having seen no one but the woman, said to her, "Woman, where are those—your accusers? Did no one pass sentence on you?" 11 And she said, "No one, Lord"; and Jesus said to her, "Neither do I pass sentence on you; be going on, and sin no more."] 12 Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I AM the light of the world; he who is following Me will not walk in the darkness, but he will have the light of life." 13 The Pharisees, therefore, said to Him, "You testify of Yourself, Your testimony is not true"; 14 Jesus answered and said to them, "And if I testify of Myself—My testimony is true, because I have known from where I came, and to where I go, and you have not known from where I come, or to where I go. 15 You judge according to the flesh; I do not judge anyone, 16 and even if I do judge My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but I and the Father who sent Me; 17 and also in your law it has been written that the testimony of two men is true; 18 I am [One] who is testifying of Myself, and the Father who sent Me testifies of Me." 19 They said, therefore, to Him, "Where is Your father?" Jesus answered, "You have neither known Me nor My Father: if you had known Me, you had also known My Father." 20 Jesus spoke these sayings in the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come; 21 therefore Jesus said again to them, "I go away, and you will seek Me, and you will die in your sin; to where I go away, you are not able to come." 22 The Jews, therefore, said, "Will He kill Himself, because He says, To where I go away, you are not able to come?" 23 And He said to them, "You are from beneath, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world; 24 I said, therefore, to you, that you will die in your sins, for if you may not believe that I AM, you will die in your sins." 25 They said, therefore, to Him, "You—who are You?" And Jesus said to them, "Even what I spoke of to you at the beginning; 26 many things I have to speak concerning you and to judge, but He who sent Me is true, and I—what things I heard from Him—these I say to the world." 27 They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father; 28 Jesus, therefore, said to them, "When you may lift up the Son of Man then you will know that I AM; and I do nothing of Myself, but according as My Father taught Me, these things I speak; 29 and He who sent Me is with Me; the Father did not leave Me alone, because I always do the things pleasing to Him." 30 As He is speaking these things, many believed in Him; 31 Jesus, therefore, said to the Jews who believed in Him, "If you may remain in My word, you are truly My disciples, 32 and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." 33 They answered Him, "We are seed of Abraham; and we have been servants to no one at any time; how do You say—You will become free?" 34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who is committing sin, is a servant of sin, 35 and the servant does not remain in the house—throughout the age, the Son remains—throughout the age; (aiōn g165) 36 if then you say that He is your God; 55 and you have not the Son may make you free, in reality you will be known Him, and I have known Him, and if I say that free. 37 I have known that you are seed of Abraham, I have not known Him, I will be like you—speaking but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no falsely; but I have known Him, and I keep His word; place in you; 38 I speak that which I have seen with 56 your father Abraham was glad that he might see My Father, and you, therefore, do that which you My day; and he saw, and rejoiced.” 57 The Jews, have seen with your father.” 39 They answered and therefore, said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years said to Him, “Our father is Abraham”; Jesus says to old, and You have seen Abraham?” 58 Jesus said to them, “If you were children of Abraham, the works of them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham’s Abraham you were doing; 40 and now, you seek to coming—I AM”; 59 they took up, therefore, stones kill Me—a Man who has spoken to you the truth I that they may cast at Him, but Jesus hid Himself, and heard from God; Abraham did not do this; 41 you went forth out of the temple, going through the midst do the works of your father.” They said, therefore, of them, and so passed by.

to Him, “We have not been born of whoredom; we have one Father—God”; 42 Jesus then said to them, “If God were your father, you were loving Me, for I came forth from God, and am come; for neither have I come of Myself, but He sent Me; 43 why do you not know My speech? Because you are not able to hear My word. 44 You are of a father—the Devil, and the desires of your father you will to do; he was a manslayer from the beginning, and he has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him; when one may speak the falsehood, he speaks of his own, because he is a liar—also his father. 45 And because I say the truth, you do not believe Me. 46 Who of you convicts Me of sin? And if I speak truth, why do you not believe Me? 47 He who is of God, he hears the sayings of God; because of this you do not hear, because you are not of God.” 48 The Jews, therefore, answered and said to Him, “Do we not say well, that You are a Samaritan, and have a demon?” 49 Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me; 50 and I do not seek My own glory; there is [One] who is seeking and is judging; 51 truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone may keep My word, he may not see death—throughout the age.” (aiōn g165) 52 The Jews, therefore, said to Him, “Now we have known that You have a demon; Abraham died, and the prophets, and You say, If anyone may keep My word, he will not taste of death—throughout the age! (aiōn g165) 53 Are You greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died; whom do You make Yourself?” 54 Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; it is My Father who is glorifying Me, of whom

9 And passing by, He saw a man blind from birth, 2 and His disciples asked Him, saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this one or his parents, that he should be born blind?” 3 Jesus answered, “Neither this one sinned nor his parents, but that the works of God may be revealed in him; 4 it is necessary for Me to be working the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; night comes when no one is able to work: 5 when I am in the world, I AM [the] light of the world.” 6 Saying these things, He spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and rubbed the clay on the eyes of the blind man, and said to him, 7 “Go away, wash at the pool of Siloam,” which is, interpreted, Sent. He went away, therefore, and washed, and came seeing; 8 the neighbors, therefore, and those seeing him before, that he was blind, said, “Is this not he who is sitting and begging?” 9 Others said, “This is he”; and others, “He is like to him”; he himself said, “I am [he].” 10 They said, therefore, to him, “How were your eyes opened?” 11 He answered and said, “A man called Jesus made clay, and rubbed my eyes, and said to me, Go away to the pool of Siloam, and wash; and having gone away and having washed, I received sight”; 12 they said, therefore, to him, “Where is that One?” He says, “I have not known.” 13 They bring him who once [was] blind to the Pharisees, 14 and it was a Sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes. 15 Again, therefore, the Pharisees also were asking him how he received sight, and he said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed—and I see.” 16 Certain of the Pharisees therefore said, “This Man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath”; others said, “How is a man—a sinful one—able to do such signs?" of God?" 36 He answered and said, "Who is He, Lord, And there was a division among them. 17 They said that I may believe in Him?" 37 And Jesus said to him, to the blind man again, "You—what do you say of "You have both seen Him, and He who is speaking Him—that He opened your eyes?" 18 And he said, with you is He"; 38 and he said, "I believe, Lord," and "He is a prophet." The Jews, therefore, did not believe worshiped Him. 39 And Jesus said, "I came to this concerning him that he was blind and received sight, world for judgment, that those not seeing may see, until they called the parents of him who received and those seeing may become blind." 40 And those of sight, 19 and they asked them, saying, "Is [this] your son, of whom you say that he was born blind? How the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and they said to Him, "Are we also blind?" 41 Jesus then does he now see?" 20 His parents answered said to them, "If you were blind, you were not having them and said, "We have known that this is our son, had sin, but now you say—We see, therefore your sin and that he was born blind; 21 and how he now sees, remains."

we have not known; or who opened his eyes, we have not known; he is of age, ask him; he himself will speak concerning himself." 22 His parents said these things, because they were afraid of the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed together, that if anyone may confess Him—Christ, he may be put out of the synagogue; 23 because of this his parents said, "He is of age, ask him." 24 They called, therefore, the man who was blind a second time, and they said to him, "Give glory to God, we have known that this Man is a sinner"; 25 he answered, therefore, and said, "If He is a sinner—I have not known, one thing I have known, that, being blind, now I see." 26 And they said to him again, "What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?" 27 He answered them, "I told you already, and you did not hear; why do you wish to hear [it] again? Do you also wish to become His disciples?" 28 They reviled him, therefore, and said, "You are His disciple, and we are Moses' disciples; 29 we have known that God has spoken to Moses, but this One—we have not known where He is from." 30 The man answered and said to them, "Why, in this is a wonderful thing, that you have not known where He is from, and He opened my eyes! 31 And we have known that God does not hear sinners, but if anyone may be a worshiper of God, and may do His will, He hears him; 32 from the age it was not heard that anyone opened eyes of one who has been born blind; (aiōn g165) 33 if this One were not from God, He were not able to do anything." 34 They answered and said to him, "In sins you were born altogether, and you teach us?" And they cast him forth outside. 35 Jesus heard that they cast him forth outside, and having found him, He said to him, "Do you believe in the Son

10 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is not entering through the door to the fold of the sheep, but is going up from another side, that one is a thief and a robber; 2 and he who is entering through the door is shepherd of the sheep; 3 the doorkeeper opens to this one, and the sheep hear his voice, and his own sheep he calls by name, and leads them forth; 4 and when he may put forth his own sheep, he goes on before them, and the sheep follow him, because they have known his voice; 5 and they will not follow a stranger, but will flee from him, because they have not known the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus spoke this allegory to them, and they did not know what the things were that He was speaking to them; 7 Jesus therefore said again to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I AM the door of the sheep; 8 all, as many as came before Me, are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them; 9 I AM the door, if anyone may come in through Me, he will be saved, and he will come in, and go out, and find pasture. 10 The thief does not come, except that he may steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they may have life, and may have [it] abundantly. 11 I AM the good shepherd; the good shepherd lays His life down for the sheep; 12 and the hired worker, and not being a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, beholds the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees; and the wolf snatches them, and scatters the sheep; 13 and the hired worker flees because he is a hired worker, and is not caring for the sheep. 14 I AM the good shepherd, and I know My [sheep], and am known by Mine, 15 according as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father, and My life I lay down for the sheep, 16 and other sheep I have that are not of this fold, these also it is necessary for Me to bring, and My voice they will hear, and there will become one flock—one shepherd. 17 Because of this the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, that again I may take it; 18 no one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself; authority I have to lay it down, and authority I have again to take it; this command I received from My Father.”

19 Therefore, again, there came a division among the Jews, because of these words, 20 and many of them said, “He has a demon, and is mad, why do you hear Him?” 21 Others said, “These sayings are not those of a demoniac; is a demon able to open blind men’s eyes?” 22 And the Dedication in Jerusalem came, and it was winter, 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the porch of Solomon, 24 the Jews, therefore, came around Him and said to Him, “Until when do You hold our soul in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us freely.” 25 Jesus answered them, “I told you, and you do not believe; the works that I do in the Name of My Father, these testify concerning Me; 26 but you do not believe, for you are not of My sheep, 27 according as I said to you: My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, 28 and I give continuous life to them, and they will not perish—throughout the age, and no one will snatch them out of My hand; (aiōn g165, aiōnios g166) 29 My Father, who has given to Me, is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch out of the hand of My Father; 30 I and the Father are one.” 31 Therefore, again, the Jews took up stones that they may stone Him; 32 Jesus answered them, “I showed you many good works from My Father; because of which work of them do you stone Me?” 33 The Jews answered Him, saying, “We do not stone You for a good work, but for slander, and because You, being a man, make Yourself God.” 34 Jesus answered them, “Is it not having been written in your law: I said, you are gods? 35 If He called them gods to whom the word of God came (and the Writing is not able to be broken), 36 of Him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, do you say—You slander, because I said, I am [the] Son of God? 37 If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me; 38 and if I do, even if you may not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and may believe that the Father [is] in Me, and I in Him.” 39 Therefore they were seeking again to seize Him, and He went forth out of their hand, 40 and went away again to the other side of the Jordan, to the place where John was at first immersing, and lay down My life, that again I may take it; 41 no one remained there, 42 and many came to Him and said, “John, indeed, did no sign, and all things, as many as I have about this One were true”; 43 and many believed in Him there.

11 And there was a certain one ailing, Lazarus, from Bethany, of the village of Mary and Martha her sister— 2 and it was Mary who anointed the LORD with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ailing— 3 therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, “Lord, behold, he whom You cherish is ailing”; 4 and Jesus having heard, said, “This ailment is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.” 5 And Jesus was loving Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus, 6 when, therefore, He heard that he is ailing, then indeed He remained in the place in which He was two days, 7 then after this, He says to the disciples, “We may go to Judea again”; 8 the disciples say to Him, “Rabbi, the Jews were just seeking to stone You, and again You go there?” 9 Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone may walk in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world; 10 and if anyone may walk in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.” 11 He said these things, and after this He says to them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go on that I may awake him”; 12 therefore His disciples said, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will be saved”; 13 but Jesus had spoken about his death, but they thought that He speaks about the repose of sleep. 14 Then, therefore, Jesus said to them freely, “Lazarus has died; 15 and I rejoice, for your sake (that you may believe), that I was not there; but we may go to him”; 16 therefore Thomas, who is called Didymus, said to the fellow-disciples, “We may go—we also, that we may die with Him,” 17 Jesus, therefore, having come, found him having already been four days in the tomb. 18 And Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia off, 19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, that they might comfort them concerning their brother; 20 Martha, therefore, when she heard that Jesus comes, met Him, and Mary kept sitting in the house. 21 Martha, therefore, said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother that You sent Me." 43 And saying these things, He had not died; 22 but even now, I have known that cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" 44 whatever You may ask of God, God will give to You"; And he who died came forth, feet and hands being 23 Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24 bound with grave-clothes, and his face was bound Martha says to Him, "I have known that he will rise around with a napkin; Jesus says to them, "Loose again in the resurrection in the last day"; 25 Jesus him, and permit to go." 45 Many, therefore, of the said to her, "I AM the resurrection, and the life; he Jews who came to Mary, and beheld what Jesus did, who is believing in Me, even if he may die, will live; believed in Him; 46 but certain of them went away to 26 and everyone who is living and believing in Me the Pharisees, and told them what Jesus did; 47 the will not die—throughout the age; (aiōn g165) 27 do you chief priests, therefore, and the Pharisees, gathered believe this?" She says to Him, "Yes, Lord, I have together [the] Sanhedrin and said, "What may we do? believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, Because this Man does many signs? 48 If we may who is coming into the world." 28 And having said leave Him alone thus, all will believe in Him; and the these things, she went away, and called Mary her Romans will come, and will take away both our place sister privately, saying, "The Teacher is present, and and nation." 49 And a certain one of them, Caiaphas, calls you"; 29 she, when she heard, rises up quickly, being chief priest of that year, said to them, "You and comes to Him; 30 and Jesus had not yet come have not known anything, 50 nor reason that it is into the village, but was in the place where Martha good for us that one man may die for the people, met Him; 31 the Jews, therefore, who were with and not the whole nation perish." 51 And he did not her in the house, and were comforting her, having say this of himself, but being chief priest of that year, seen Mary that she rose up quickly and went forth, he prophesied that Jesus was about to die for the followed her, saying, "She goes away to the tomb, nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but that also the that she may weep there." 32 Mary, therefore, when children of God, who have been scattered abroad, she came where Jesus was, having seen Him, fell He may gather together into one. 53 From that day, at His feet, saying to Him, "Lord, if You had been therefore, they took counsel together that they may here, my brother had not died"; 33 Jesus, therefore, kill Him; 54 Jesus, therefore, was no longer freely when He saw her weeping, and the Jews who came walking among the Jews, but went away from there with her weeping, groaned in the spirit, and troubled into the region near the wilderness, to a city called Himself, and He said, 34 "Where have you laid him?" Ephraim, and there He tarried with His disciples. They say to Him, "Lord, come and see"; 35 Jesus 55 And the Passover of the Jews was near, and wept. 36 The Jews, therefore, said, "Behold, how He many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before was cherishing him!" 37 And certain of them said, the Passover, that they might purify themselves; 56 "Was not this One, who opened the eyes of the blind therefore they were seeking Jesus and said with one man, also able to cause that this one might not have another, standing in the temple, "What appears to died?" 38 Jesus, therefore, again groaning in Himself, you—that He may not come to the celebration?" 57 comes to the tomb, and it was a cave, and a stone And both the chief priests and the Pharisees had was lying on it, 39 Jesus says, "Take away the stone"; given a command, that if anyone may know where the sister of him who has died—Martha—says to Him, He is, he may show [it], so that they may seize Him. "Lord, he already stinks, for he is four days dead"; 40 Jesus says to her, "Did I not say to you that if you may believe, you will see the glory of God?" 41 Therefore they took away the stone where the dead was laid, and Jesus lifted His eyes upwards, and said, "Father, I thank You that You heard Me; 42 and I knew that You always hear Me, but because of the multitude that is standing by, I said [it], that they may believe

12 Jesus, therefore, six days before the Passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had died, whom He raised out of the dead; 2 they made, therefore, a dinner to Him there, and Martha was ministering, and Lazarus was one of those reclining together with Him; 3 Mary, therefore, having taken a pound of ointment of spikenard, of great price, anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped His feet

with her hair, and the house was filled from the earth, may not die, itself remains alone; and if it may fragrance of the ointment. 4 Therefore one of His die, it bears much fruit; 25 he who is cherishing his life disciples—Judas Iscariot, of Simon, who is about will lose it, and he who is hating his life in this world to deliver Him up—says, 5 "Why was this ointment will keep it to continuous life; (aionios g166) 26 if anyone not sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the may minister to Me, let him follow Me, and where I poor?" 6 And he said this, not because he was caring am, there My servant will be also; and if anyone may for the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the minister to Me—the Father will honor him. 27 Now My bag, and what things were put in he was carrying. 7 soul has been troubled; and what will I say—Father, Jesus, therefore, said, "Permit her; she has kept it for save Me from this hour? But because of this I came the day of My embalming, 8 for you always have the to this hour; 28 Father, glorify Your Name." Therefore poor with yourselves, and you do not always have there came a voice out of Heaven, "I both glorified, Me." 9 Therefore, a great multitude of the Jews knew and again I will glorify [it]"; 29 the multitude, therefore, that He is there, and they came, not only because of having stood and heard, were saying that there has Jesus, but that they may also see Lazarus, whom He been thunder; others said, "A messenger has spoken raised out of the dead; 10 and the chief priests took to Him." 30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice has counsel, that they may also kill Lazarus, 11 because not come because of Me, but because of you; 31 now on account of him many of the Jews were going is a judgment of this world, now will the ruler of this away, and were believing in Jesus. 12 On the next world be cast forth; 32 and I, if I may be lifted up from day, a great multitude that came to the celebration, the earth, will draw all men to Myself." 33 And this He having heard that Jesus comes to Jerusalem, 13 took said signifying by what death He was about to die; the branches of the palms, and went forth to meet Him, and were crying, "Hosanna! Blessed [is] He who 34 the multitude answered Him, "We heard that the is coming in the Name of the LORD—the King of Israel"; 14 and Jesus having found a young donkey of Man be lifted up? Who is this—the Son of Man?" sat on it, according as it is written, 15 "Do not fear, (aion g165) 35 Therefore Jesus said to them, "Yet a daughter of Zion, behold, your King comes, sitting on short time is the light with you; walk while you have a colt of a donkey." 16 And His disciples did not know the light, that darkness may not overtake you; and these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, he who is walking in the darkness has not known then they remembered that these things were having where he goes; 36 while you have the light, believe in been written about Him, and these things they did to the light, that you may become sons of light." Jesus were testifying that He called Lazarus out of the tomb, hid from them, 37 yet He, having done so many signs and raised him out of the dead; 18 because of this before them, they were not believing in Him, 38 that the multitude also met Him, because they heard of the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which His having done this sign, 19 therefore the Pharisees he said, "LORD, who gave credence to our report? said among themselves, "You see that you do not And the arm of the LORD—to whom was it revealed?" gain anything, behold, the world went after Him." 20 39 Because of this they were not able to believe, that And there were certain Greeks out of those coming again Isaiah said, 40 "He has blinded their eyes, and up that they may worship in the celebration, 21 these hardened their heart, that they might not see with the then came near to Philip, who [is] from Bethsaida of eyes, and understand with the heart, and turn, and I Galilee, and were asking him, saying, "Lord, we wish might heal them"; 41 Isaiah said these things when he to see Jesus"; 22 Philip comes and tells Andrew, and saw His glory, and spoke of Him. 42 Still, however, out again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. 23 And Jesus of the rulers many also believed in Him, but because responded to them, saying, "The hour has come that of the Pharisees they were not confessing, that they the Son of Man may be glorified; 24 truly, truly, I say might not be put out of the synagogue, 43 for they to you, if the grain of the wheat, having fallen to the loved the glory of men more than the glory of God. 44

And Jesus cried and said, "He who is believing in Me, does not believe in Me, but in Him who sent Me; 45 and He who is beholding Me, beholds Him who sent Me; 46 I—light to the world—have come, that everyone who is believing in Me may not remain in the darkness; 47 and if anyone may hear My sayings, My sayings, has one who is judging him, the word that I spoke, that will judge him in the last day, 49 because I did not speak from Myself, but the Father who sent Me, He gave Me a command, what I may say, and what I may speak, 50 and I have known that His command is continuous life; what, therefore, I speak, according as the Father has said to Me, so I speak." (aiōnios g166)

He said to them, "Do you know what I have done and you say well, for I am; 14 if then I washed your feet—the LORD and the Teacher—you also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I gave to you an example, that, according as I did to you, you also may do; 16 truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his lord, nor an apostle greater than he who sent him; 17 if you have known these things, you are blessed if you may do them; 18 I do not speak concerning you all; I have known whom I chose for Myself; but that the Writing may be fulfilled: He who is eating the bread with Me, lifted up his heel against Me. 19 From this time I tell you, before its coming to pass, that, when it may come to pass, you may believe that I AM; 20 truly, truly, I say to you, he who is receiving whomsoever I may send, receives Me; and he who is receiving Me, receives Him who sent Me." 21 Having said these things, Jesus was troubled in the spirit, and testified and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you that one of you will deliver Me up"; 22 the disciples were looking, therefore, at one another, doubting concerning of whom He speaks. 23 And there was one of His disciples reclining in the bosom of Jesus, whom Jesus was loving; 24 Simon Peter, then, beckons to this one, to inquire who he may be concerning whom He speaks, 25 and that one having leaned back on the breast of Jesus, responds to Him, "Lord, who is it?" 26 Jesus answers, "It is that one to whom I, having dipped the morsel, will give it"; and having dipped the morsel, He gives [it] to Judas of Simon, Iscariot. 27 And after the morsel, then Satan entered into that one. Jesus, therefore, says to him, "What you do—do quickly"; 28 and none of those reclining to eat knew for what intent He said this to him, 29 for certain [of them] were thinking, since Judas had the bag, that Jesus says to him, "Buy what we have need of for the celebration"; or that he may give something to the poor; 30 having received, therefore, the morsel, that one immediately went forth, and it was night. 31 When, therefore, he went forth, Jesus says, "Now was the Son of Man glorified, and God was glorified in Him; 32 if God was glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself; indeed, He will immediately glorify Him. 33 Little children, yet a little [while] am I with you; you will seek Me, and

13 And before the Celebration of the Passover,

Jesus knowing that His hour has come, that He may depart out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who [are] in the world—to the end He loved them. 2 And dinner having come, the Devil already having put [it] into the heart of Judas of Simon, Iscariot, that he may deliver Him up, 3 Jesus knowing that all things the Father has given to Him—into [His] hands, and that He came forth from God, and He goes to God, 4 rises from the dinner, and lays down His garments, and having taken a towel, He girded Himself; 5 afterward He puts water into the basin, and began to wash the feet of His disciples, and to wipe with the towel with which He was being girded. 6 He comes, therefore, to Simon Peter, and that one says to Him, "Lord, You—do You wash my feet?" 7 Jesus answered and said to him, "That which I do you have not known now, but you will know after these things"; 8 Peter says to Him, "You may not wash my feet—throughout the age." Jesus answered him, "If I may not wash you, you have no part with Me"; (aiōn g165) 9 Simon Peter says to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also the hands and the head." 10 Jesus says to him, "He who has been bathed has no need except to wash his feet, but he is clean altogether; and you are clean, but not all"; 11 for He knew him who is delivering Him up; because of this He said, "You are not all clean." 12 When, therefore, He washed their feet, and took His garments, having reclined again, according as I said to the Jews, I also say to you and He will give to you another Comforter, that He now: To where I go away, you are not able to come. may remain with you throughout the age: (aiōn g165)

34 A new command I give to you, that you love one 17 the Spirit of truth, whom the world is not able to receive, because it does not see nor know [this] One, another; according as I loved you, that you also love and you know [this] One, because [this] One remains one another; 35 in this will all know that you are My disciples, if you may have love one to another.” 36 with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you

disciples, if you may have love one to another.” 36 with you, and will be in you. 18 I will not leave you

Simon Peter says to Him, “Lord, to where do You go bereaved, I come to you; 19 yet a little [while] and away?” Jesus answered him, “To where I go away, the world beholds Me no more, and you behold Me, because I live, and you will live; 20 in that day you will you are not able now to follow Me, but afterward you will follow Me.” 21 Peter says to Him, “Lord, why am I not able to follow You now? I will lay down my life for know that I [am] in My Father, and you in Me, and I

You”; 38 Jesus answered him, “You will lay down your in you; 21 he who is having My commands, and is life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, a rooster will not keeping them, that one it is who is loving Me, and he crow until you may deny Me three times.” who is loving Me will be loved by My Father, and I will

love him, and will manifest Myself to him.” 22 Judas

14 “Do not let your heart be troubled, believe in God, believe also in Me; 2 in the house of My Father are many rooms; and if not, I would have told you; I go on to prepare a place for you; 3 and if I go on and prepare a place for you, I come again, and will receive you to Myself, that where I am you also may be; 4 and to where I go away you have known, and the way you have known.” 5 Thomas says to Him, “Lord, we have not known to where You go away, and how are we able to know the way?” 6 Jesus says to him, “I AM the way, and the truth, and the life, no one comes to the Father, if not through Me; 7 if you had known Me, you would also have known My Father, and from this time you have known Him, and have seen Him.” 8 Philip says to Him, “Lord, show to us the Father, and it is enough for us”; 9 Jesus says to him, “Such [a] long time am I with you, and you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father; and how do you say, Show to us the Father? 10 Do you not believe that I [am] in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The sayings that I speak to you, I do not speak from Myself, and the Father who is abiding in Me does the works Himself; 11 believe Me, that I [am] in the Father, and the Father in Me; and if not, because of the works themselves, believe Me. 12 Truly, truly, I say to you, he who is believing in Me, the works that I do—that one will also do, and greater than these he will do, because I go on to My Father; 13 and whatever you may ask in My Name, I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son; 14 if you ask anything in My Name I will do [it]. 15 If you love Me, keep My commands, 16 and I will ask the Father, and you know [this] One, because [this] One remains bereaved, I come to you; 19 yet a little [while] and because I live, and you will live; 20 in that day you will

will follow Me.” 21 Peter says to Him, “Lord, why am I know that I [am] in My Father, and you in Me, and I

in you; 21 he who is having My commands, and is keeping them, that one it is who is loving Me, and he who is loving Me will be loved by My Father, and I will

love him, and will manifest Myself to him.” 22 Judas

says to Him (not the Iscariot), “Lord, what has come to pass, that You are about to manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?” 23 Jesus answered and said to him, “If anyone may love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him, and We will make [an] abode with him; 24 he who is not loving Me does not keep My words; and the word that you hear is not Mine, but the Father's who sent

Me. 25 These things I have spoken to you, remaining with you, 26 and the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My Name, He will teach you all things, and remind you of all things that I said to you.

27 Peace I leave to you; My peace I give to you. Not according as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid. 28 You heard that I said to you, I go away, and I come to you. If you loved Me, you would have rejoiced that I said, I go on to the Father, because My Father is greater than I. 29 And now I have said [it] to you before it comes to pass, that when it may come to pass, you may believe. 30 I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world comes, and he has nothing in Me; 31 but that the world may know that I love the Father, and according as the Father gave Me command, so I do; arise, we may go from here.”

15 “I AM the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser; 2 every branch not bearing fruit in Me, He takes it away, and everyone bearing fruit, He cleanses by pruning it, that it may bear more fruit; 3 you are already clean, because of the word that I have spoken to you; 4 remain in Me, and I in you, as the branch is not able to bear fruit of itself, if it may not remain in the vine, so neither you, if you may not remain in Me. 5 I AM the vine, you the branches; he who is remaining in Me, and I in him, this one bears much fruit, because apart from Me you are not able to do anything; 6 if anyone may not remain in Me, he was cast forth outside as the branch, and was withered, and they gather them, and cast into fire, and they are burned; 7 if you may remain in Me, and having sin, and now they have both seen and hated both Me and My Father; 25 but—that the word may be fulfilled that was written in their law—They hated Me without a cause. 26 And when the Comforter may come, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth, who comes forth from the Father, He will testify of Me; 27 and you also testify, because you are with Me from the beginning."

My sayings may remain in you, whatever you may wish you will ask, and it will be done to you. 8 In this was My Father glorified, that you may bear much fruit, and you will become My disciples. 9 According as the Father loved Me, I also loved you, remain in My love; 10 if you may keep My commands, you will remain in My love, according as I have kept the commands of My Father, and remain in His love; 11 these things I have spoken to you, that My joy in you may remain, and your joy may be full. 12 This is My command, that you love one another, according as I loved you; 13 greater love has no one than this, that anyone may lay down his life for his friends; 14 you are My friends if you may do whatever I command you; 15 I no longer call you servants, because the servant has not known what his lord does, and I have called you friends, because all things that I heard from My Father, I made known to you. 16 You did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you might go away, and might bear fruit, and your fruit might remain, that whatever you may ask of the Father in My Name, He may give you. 17 These things I command you, that you love one another; 18 if the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before you; 19 if you were of the world, the world would have been cherishing its own, but because you are not of the world, but I chose [you] out of the world—because of this the world hates you. 20 Remember the word that I said to you: A servant is not greater than his lord; if they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will also keep yours; 21 but all these things will they do to you, because of My Name, because they have not known Him who sent Me; 22 if I had not come and spoken to them, they were not having sin; but now they have no pretext for their sin. 23 He who is hating Me, hates My Father also; 24 if I did not do among them the works that no other has done, they were not

16 "These things I have spoken to you, that you may not be stumbled. 2 They will put you out of the synagogues, but an hour comes that everyone who has killed you may think to offer service to God; 3 and these things they will do to you, because they did not know the Father, nor Me. 4 But these things I have spoken to you, that when the hour may come, you may remember them, that I said [them] to you, and I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you; 5 and now I go away to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, To where do you go? 6 But because I have said to you these things, the sorrow has filled your heart. 7 But I tell you the truth; it is better for you that I go away, for if I may not go away, the Comforter will not come to you, and if I go on, I will send Him to you; 8 and having come, He will convict the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment; 9 concerning sin indeed, because they do not believe in Me; 10 and concerning righteousness, because I go away to My Father, and you behold Me no more; 11 and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged. 12 I have yet many things to say to you, but you are not able to bear [them] now; 13 and when He may come—the Spirit of truth—He will guide you to all the truth, for He will not speak from Himself, but as many things as He will hear He will speak, and the coming things He will tell you; 14 He will glorify Me, because He will take of Mine, and will tell to you. 15 All things, as many as the Father has, are Mine; because of this I said that He will take of Mine, and will tell to you; 16 a little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me, because I go away to the Father." 17 Therefore [some] of His disciples said to one another, "What is this that He says to us, A little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me, and, Because I go away to the Father?"

18 They said then, "What is this He says—the little while? We have not known what He says." 19 Jesus, therefore, knew that they were wishing to ask Him, and He said to them, "Concerning this do you seek with one another, because I said, A little while, and you do not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me? 20 Truly, truly, I say to you that you will weep and lament, and the world will rejoice; and you will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will become joy. 21 The woman, when she may bear, has sorrow, because her hour came, and when she may bear the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, because of the joy that a man was born into the world. 22 they have kept Your word; 7 now they have known And you, therefore, now indeed have sorrow; and again I will see you, and your heart will rejoice, and no one takes your joy from you, 23 and in that day you will question nothing of Me; truly, truly, I say to you, as many things as you may ask of the Father in You, and they believed that You sent Me. 9 I ask in My Name, He will give you; 24 until now you asked nothing in My Name; ask, and you will receive, that you have believed that I came forth from God; 28 Name; I guarded those whom You have given to Me, I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; again I leave the world, and go on to the world; 32 and now it has come, that you may leave Me alone, and I am not alone, because the Father is with Me; 33 these things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace, in the world come, glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify

You, 2 according as You gave to Him authority over all flesh, that—all that You have given to Him—He may give to them continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 3 and this is the continuous life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Him whom You sent—Jesus Christ; (aiōnios g166) 4 I glorified You on the earth, having completed the work that You have given Me, that I should do. 5 And now, glorify Me, You Father, with Yourself, with the glory that I had with You before the world was; 6 I revealed Your Name to the men whom You have given to Me out of the world; they were Yours, and You have given them to Me, and from You, 8 because the sayings that You have given received, and have known truly, that I came forth from you, as many things as you may ask of the Father in You, and they believed that You sent Me. 10 and all Mine are Yours, allegories to you, but there comes an hour when I and Yours [are] Mine, and I have been glorified in will no longer speak to you in allegories, but will tell them; 11 and I am no longer in the world, and these you freely of the Father. 26 In that day you will make request in My Name, and I do not say to you that I am in the world, and I come to You. Holy Father, keep will ask the Father for you, 27 for the Father Himself that they may be one as We [are one]; 12 when I was cherishes you, because you have cherished Me, and you have believed that I came forth from God; 28 Name; I guarded those whom You have given to Me, I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; again I leave the world, and go on to the world; 32 and now it has come, that you may leave Me alone, and I am not alone, because the Father is with Me; 33 these things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace, in the world come, glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify

now we have known that You have known all things, and have no need that anyone questions You; in this we believe that You came forth from God." 31 Jesus world, as I am not of the world; 15 I do not ask that answered them, "Now do you believe? Behold, there comes an hour, 32 and now it has come, that you may leave Me alone, and I am not alone, because the Father is with Me; 33 these things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace, in the world come, glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify

You may take them out of the world, but that You may keep them out of the evil. 16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world; 17 sanctify them in Your truth, Your word is truth; 18 as You sent Me into the world, I also sent them into the world; 19 and I sanctify Myself for them, that they also may be sanctified in truth themselves. 20 And I do not ask in regard to these alone, but also in regard to those who will be believing in Me through their word, 21 that they all may be one, as You Father [are] in Me, and I in You, that they also may be one in Us, that the world

17 These things Jesus spoke, and lifted up His eyes to the sky, and said, "Father, the hour has come, glorify Your Son, that Your Son may also glorify may believe that You sent Me. 22 And I have given to them the glory that You have given to Me, that they may be one as We are one— 23 I in them, and You in Me, that they may be perfected into one, and that the world may know that You sent Me, and loved them as You loved Me. 24 Father, those whom You have given to Me, I will that where I am they also may be with Me, because You loved Me before the foundation of the world. 25 Righteous Father, also the world did not know You, and I knew You, and these have known that You sent Me, 26 and I made known to them Your Name, and will make known, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.”

18 Having said these things, Jesus went forth

with His disciples beyond the Brook of Kidron, where [there] was a garden, into which He entered, Himself and His disciples, 2 and Judas also, who delivered Him up, had known the place, because Jesus assembled there with His disciples many times. 3 Judas, therefore, having taken the band and officers out of the chief priests and Pharisees, comes there with torches and lamps, and weapons; 4 Jesus, therefore, knowing all things that are coming on Him, having gone forth, said to them, “Whom do you seek?” 5 They answered Him, “Jesus the Nazarene”; Jesus says to them, “I AM”; and Judas who delivered Him up was standing with them. 6 When, therefore, He said to them, “I AM,” they went away backward, and fell to the ground. 7 Again, therefore, He questioned them, “Whom do you seek?” And they said, “Jesus the Nazarene”; 8 Jesus answered, “I said to you that I AM; if, then, you seek Me, permit these to go away”; 9 that the word might be fulfilled that He said, “Those whom You have given to Me, I did not lose even one of them.” 10 Simon Peter, therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the chief priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear—and the name of the servant was Malchus— 11 Jesus, therefore, said to Peter, “Put the sword into the sheath; the cup that the Father has given to Me, may I not drink it?” 12 The band, therefore, and the captain, and the officers of the Jews, took hold on Jesus, and bound Him, 13 and they led Him away to Annas first, for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was chief priest of that year, 14 and Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews that it is good for one man to perish for the people. 15 And following Jesus was Simon Peter, and the other disciple, and that disciple was known to the chief priest, and he entered with Jesus into the hall of the chief priest, 16 and Peter was standing at the door outside, therefore the other disciple who was known to the chief priest went forth, and he spoke to the doorkeeper, and he brought in Peter. 17 Then the maid, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, “Are you also one of the disciples of this Man?” He says, “I am not”; 18 and the servants and the officers were standing, having made a fire of coals, because it was cold, and they were warming themselves, and Peter was standing with them, and warming himself. 19 The chief priests, therefore, questioned Jesus concerning His disciples, and concerning His teaching; 20 Jesus answered him, “I spoke freely to the world, I always taught in a synagogue, and in the temple, where the Jews always come together; and I spoke nothing in secret; 21 why do you question Me? Question those having heard what I spoke to them; behold, these have known what I said.” 22 And He having said these things, one of the officers standing by gave Jesus a slap, saying, “Thus do You answer the chief priest?” 23 Jesus answered him, “If I spoke ill, testify concerning the ill; and if well, why do you strike Me?” 24 Annas then sent Him bound to Caiaphas the chief priest. 25 And Simon Peter was standing and warming himself, then they said to him, “Are you also of His disciples?” He denied and said, “I am not.” 26 One of the servants of the chief priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, says, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?” 27 Again, therefore, Peter denied, and immediately a rooster crowed. 28 They led, therefore, Jesus from Caiaphas into the Praetorium, and it was early, and they themselves did not enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover; 29 Pilate, therefore, went forth to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this Man?” 30 They answered and said to him, “If He were not doing evil, we had not delivered Him to you.” 31 Pilate, therefore, said to them, “Take Him—you—and judge Him according to your law”; the Jews, therefore, said to him, “It is not lawful to us to put anyone to death”; 32 that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled which

He said, signifying by what death He was about to die. 33 Pilate, therefore, entered into the Praetorium again, and called Jesus, and said to Him, "You are against Me if it were not having been given you from the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered him, "Do you say this from yourself? Or did others say it to you?" 35 Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? seeking to release Him, and the Jews were crying out, saying, "If you may release this One, you are not a friend of Caesar; everyone making himself a kingdom is not of this world; if My kingdom were of this world, My officers had struggled that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but now My kingdom is not from here." 37 Pilate, therefore, said to Him, "Are You then a king?" Jesus answered, "You say [it], because I am a king; I have been born for this, and I have come into the world for this, that I may testify to the truth; everyone who is of the truth, hears My voice." 38 Pilate says to Him, "What is truth?" And having said this, again he went forth to the Jews and says, "I find no fault in Him; 39 and you have a custom that I will release to you one in the Passover; do you determine, therefore, [that] I will release to you the King of the Jews?" 40 Therefore they all cried out again, saying, "Not this One—but Barabbas"; and Pilate says to them, "Will I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." 11 Jesus answered, "You would have no authority above; because of this, he who is delivering Me up to you has greater sin." 12 From this [time] Pilate was brought Jesus outside—and he sat down on the judgment seat—to a place called "Pavement," and in Hebrew, Gabbatha; 14 and it was the sixth hour, and he says to the Jews, "Behold, your King!" 15 And they cried out, "Take away! Take away! Crucify Him!" Pilate says to them, "Will I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king except Caesar." 16 Then, therefore, he delivered Him to them, "I find no fault in Him; 17 and you have a custom that He may be crucified, and they took Jesus and led [Him] away, 18 and carrying His cross, He went forth to the [place] called "Place of the Skull," which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha—19 where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, on this side and on that side, but Jesus in the middle. 20 And Pilate also wrote a title, and put [it] on the cross, and it was written: "JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS"; 21 therefore many of the Jews read this title, because the place was near to the city where Jesus was crucified, and it was having been written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Latin. 22 The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews', but that this One said, 'I am King of the Jews'"; 23 Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written." 24 The soldiers, therefore, when they crucified Jesus, took His garments, and made four parts, to each soldier a part, also the coat, and the coat was seamless, from the top woven throughout; 25 they said, therefore, to one another, "We may not tear it, but cast a lot for it, whose it will be"; that the Writing might be fulfilled, that is saying, "They divided My garments to themselves, and they cast a lot for My clothing"; the soldiers, therefore, indeed, did these things. 26 And there stood by the cross of Jesus His mother, and His mother's sister, Mary of Cleopas, and Mary the Magdalene; 27 Jesus, therefore, having seen [His] mother, and the disciple

19 Then, therefore, Pilate took Jesus and scourged [Him], 2 and the soldiers having plaited a garland of thorns, placed [it] on His head, and they cast a purple garment around Him, 3 and said, "Hail! The King of the Jews"; and they were giving Him slaps. 4 Pilate, therefore, again went forth outside and says to them, "Behold, I bring Him to you outside, that you may know that I find no fault in Him"; 5 Jesus, therefore, came forth outside, bearing the thorny garland and the purple garment; and he says to them, "Behold, the Man!" 6 When, therefore, the chief priests and the officers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate says to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify, for I find no fault in Him"; 7 the Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, for He made Himself Son of God." 8 When, therefore, Pilate heard this word, he was more afraid, 9 and entered again into the Praetorium and says to Jesus, "Where are You from?" And Jesus gave him no answer. 10 Pilate, therefore, says to Him, "Do You not speak to me? Have You not known that I have authority to standing by, whom He was loving, He says to His darkness) to the tomb, and she sees the stone mother, "Woman, behold, your son"; 27 afterward He having been taken away out of the tomb; 28 she runs, says to the disciple, "Behold, your mother"; and from therefore, and comes to Simon Peter, and to the other that hour the disciple took her to his own [home]. 29 disciple whom Jesus was cherishing, and says to After this, Jesus knowing that all things have now them, "They took away the Lord out of the tomb, and been accomplished, that the Writing may be fulfilled, we have not known where they laid Him." 30 Peter, says, "I thirst"; 31 a vessel, therefore, was placed full therefore, went forth, and the other disciple, and they of vinegar, and having filled a sponge with vinegar, were coming to the tomb, 32 and the two were running and having put [it] around a hyssop stalk, they put [it] together, and the other disciple ran forward more to His mouth; 33 when, therefore, Jesus received the quickly than Peter, and came first to the tomb, 34 vinegar, He said, "It has been accomplished." And 35 and having stooped down, sees the linen clothes having bowed the head, gave up the spirit. 36 The lying, yet, indeed, he did not enter. 37 Simon Peter, Jews, therefore, that the bodies might not remain on therefore, comes, following him, and he entered into the cross on the Sabbath, since it was the Preparation the tomb, and beholds the linen clothes lying [there], (for that Sabbath day was a great one), asked of 38 and the napkin that was on His head not lying with Pilate that their legs may be broken, and they [are] the linen clothes, but apart, having been folded up, in taken away. 39 The soldiers, therefore, came, and one place; 40 then, therefore, the other disciple who they indeed broke the legs of the first and of the other came first to the tomb entered also, and he saw and who was crucified with Him, 41 and having come to believed; 42 for they did not yet know the Writing, Jesus, when they saw Him already having been dead, that it was necessary for Him to rise again out of the they did not break His legs; 43 but one of the soldiers dead. 44 The disciples therefore went away again to pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there their own friends, 45 and Mary was standing near the came forth blood and water; 46 and he who has tomb, weeping outside; as she was weeping, then, seen has testified, and his testimony is true, and that she stooped down into the tomb, and beholds two one has known that he speaks true things, that you messengers in white, sitting, 47 one at the head and also may believe. 48 For these things came to pass, one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been that the Writing may be fulfilled, "A bone of Him will laid. 49 And they say to her, "Woman, why do you not be broken"; 50 and again another Writing says, weep?" She says to them, "Because they took away "They will look to Him whom they pierced." 51 And my Lord, and I have not known where they laid Him"; after these things, Joseph of Arimathea—being a 52 and having said these things, she turned backward, disciple of Jesus, but concealed, through the fear of and sees Jesus standing, and she had not known that the Jews—asked of Pilate, that he may take away it is Jesus. 53 Jesus says to her, "Woman, why do the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave leave; he came, you weep? Whom do you seek?" She, supposing that therefore, and took away the body of Jesus, 54 and He is the gardener, says to Him, "Lord, if You carried Nicodemus also came—who came to Jesus by night Him away, tell me where You laid Him, and I will take at the first—carrying a mixture of myrrh and aloes, as Him away"; 55 Jesus says to her, "Mary!" Having it were, one hundred pounds. 56 Therefore they took turned, she says to Him, "Rabboni!" That is to say, the body of Jesus, and bound it with linen clothes "Teacher." 57 Jesus says to her, "Do not be touching with the spices, according as it was the custom of Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father; and be the Jews to prepare for burial; 58 and there was a going on to My brothers, and say to them, I ascend to garden in the place where He was crucified, and a My Father and your Father, and [to] My God and your new tomb in the garden, in which no one was yet laid; God." 59 Mary the Magdalene comes, reporting to 60 therefore, because the tomb was near, there they the disciples that she has seen the LORD, and [that] laid Jesus because of the Preparation of the Jews. He said these things to her. 61 It being, therefore, 20 And on the first [day] of the weeks, Mary evening, on that day, the first [day] of the weeks, and the Magdalene comes early (there being yet the doors having been shut where the disciples were assembled through fear of the Jews, Jesus came to them, "No"; and He said to them, "Cast the net at the right side of the boat, and you will find [some]"; they to you"; 20 and having said this, He showed them cast, therefore, and no longer were they able to draw His hands and side; the disciples, therefore, rejoiced, it, from the multitude of the fishes. 7 That disciple, having seen the LORD. 21 Jesus, therefore, said to therefore, whom Jesus was loving says to Peter, "It is them again, "Peace to you; according as the Father the Lord!" Simon Peter, therefore, having heard that it has sent Me, I also send you"; 22 having said this, is the LORD, girded on the outer coat (for he was He breathed on [them], and says to them, "Receive naked), and cast himself into the sea; 8 and the other the Holy Spirit; 23 if you may forgive the sins of any, disciples came by the little boat, for they were not far they are forgiven them; if you may retain of any, they from the land, but about two hundred cubits away, have been retained." 24 And Thomas, one of the dragging the net of the fishes; 9 when, therefore, they Twelve, who is called Didymus, was not with them came to the land, they behold a fire of coals lying when Jesus came; 25 the other disciples, therefore, [there], and a fish lying on it, and bread. 10 Jesus said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" And he said to says to them, "Bring from the fishes that you caught them, "If I may not see the mark of the nails in His now"; 11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net up hands, and may [not] put my finger into the mark of on the land, full of great fishes—one hundred fifty-the nails, and may [not] put my hand into His side, I three; and though they were so many, the net was not will not believe." 26 And after eight days, again His split. 12 Jesus says to them, "Come, dine"; and none disciples were within, and Thomas [was] with them; of the disciples were venturing to inquire of Him, "Who Jesus comes, the doors having been shut, and He are You?" Knowing that it is the LORD; 13 Jesus, stood in the midst and said, "Peace to you!" 27 Then therefore, comes and takes the bread and gives [it] to He says to Thomas, "Bring your finger here, and see them, and the fish in like manner; 14 this [is] now a My hands, and bring your hand, and put [it] into My third time Jesus was revealed to His disciples, having side, and do not become unbelieving, but believing." been raised from the dead. 15 When, therefore, they 28 And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord dined, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon, [son] of and my God!" 29 Jesus says to him, "Because you Jonas, do you love Me more than these?" He says to have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed; blessed Him, "Yes, Lord; You have known that I cherish You"; [are] those having not seen, and having believed." 30 He says to him, "Feed My lambs." 16 He says to Many indeed, therefore, other signs Jesus also did him again, a second time, "Simon, [son] of Jonas, do before His disciples that are not written in this scroll; you love Me?" He says to Him, "Yes, Lord; You have 31 and these have been written that you may believe known that I cherish You"; He says to him, "Tend My that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that sheep." 17 He says to him the third time, "Simon, [son] believing, you may have life in His Name.

21 After these things Jesus Himself again appeared to the disciples on the Sea of Tiberias, and He revealed Himself thus: 2 Simon Peter, and Thomas who is called Didymus, and Nathanael from Cana of Galilee, and the [sons] of Zebedee, and two of His other disciples were together. 3 Simon Peter says to them, "I go away to fish"; they say to him, "We go—we also—with you"; they went forth and immediately entered into the boat, and on that night they caught nothing. 4 And morning having now come, Jesus stood at the shore, yet indeed the disciples did not know that it is Jesus; 5 Jesus, therefore, says to them, "Boys, do you have any meat?" 6 They answered of Jonas, do you cherish Me?" Peter was grieved that He said to him the third time, "Do you cherish Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, You have known all things; You know that I cherish You." Jesus says to him, "Feed My sheep; 18 truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you were girding yourself and were walking to where you willed, but when you may be old, you will stretch forth your hands, and another will gird you, and will carry [you] to where you do not will"; 19 and this He said, signifying by what death he will glorify God; and having said this, He says to him, "Follow Me." 20 And having turned, Peter sees the disciple whom Jesus was loving following (who also reclined in the dinner on His breast and said, "Lord, who is he who is delivering You up?"') 21 Having seen this one, Peter says to Jesus, "Lord, and what of this one?" 22 Jesus says to him, "If I will him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you? Follow Me." 23 This word, therefore, went forth to the brothers that this disciple does not die, yet Jesus did not say to him that he does not die, but, "If I will him to remain until I come, what [is that] to you?" 24 This is the disciple who is testifying concerning these things, and he wrote these things, and we have known that his testimony is true. 25 And there are also many other things—as many as Jesus did—which, if they may be written one by one, I think the world itself does not even have place for the scrolls written. Amen.

Acts

1 The former account, indeed, I made concerning all things, O Theophilus, that Jesus began both to do and to teach, 2 until the day in which, having given command through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He chose out, He was taken up, 3 to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, in many certain proofs, being seen by them through forty days, and speaking the things concerning the Kingdom of God. 4 And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, "Which you heard from Me; 5 because John, indeed, immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit not many days after these." 6 They, therefore, indeed, having come together, were questioning Him, saying, "Lord, do You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" 7 And He said to them, "It is not yours to know times or seasons that the Father appointed in His own authority; 8 but you will receive power at the coming of the Holy Spirit on you, and you will be witnesses for Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." 9 And having said these things—they beholding—He was taken up, and a cloud received Him up from their sight; 10 and as they were looking steadfastly to the sky in His going on, then, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing, 11 who also said, "Men, Galileans, why do you stand gazing into the sky? This Jesus who was received up from you into Heaven, will so come in what manner you saw Him going on to Heaven." 12 Then they returned to Jerusalem from [that] called the Mount of Olives, that is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath's journey; 13 and when they came in, they went up into the upper room, where were abiding both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James, of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas, of James; 14 these were all continuing with one accord in prayer and supplication, with women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brothers. 15 And in these days, Peter having risen up in the midst of the disciples, said (also the multitude of the names at the same place was, as it were, one hundred and twenty), 16 "Men, brothers, it was necessary [for] this Writing to be fulfilled that the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David, concerning Judas, who became guide to those who took Jesus, 17 because he was numbered among us, and received the share in this ministry. 18 (This one, indeed, then, purchased a field out of the reward of unrighteousness, and falling headlong, burst apart in the midst, and all his bowels gushed forth, 19 and it became known to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, insomuch that this place is called, in their proper dialect, Aceldama, that is, Field of Blood.) 20 For it has been written in [the] Scroll of Psalms: Let his lodging-place become desolate, and let no one be dwelling in it, and let another take his oversight. 21 It is necessary, therefore, of the men who went with us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us, 22 beginning from the immersion of John, to the day in which He was received up from us, one of these to become with us a witness of His resurrection." 23 And they set two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias, 24 and having prayed, they said, "You, LORD, who are knowing the heart of all, show which one You chose of these two, 25 to receive the share of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas, by transgression, fell, to go on to his proper place"; 26 and they gave their lots, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

2 And in the day of the Pentecost being fulfilled, they were all with one accord at the same place, 2 and there came suddenly out of the sky a sound as of a violent rushing wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting, 3 and there appeared to them divided tongues, as it were of fire; it also sat on each one of them, 4 and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, according as the Spirit was giving them to declare. 5 And there were Jews dwelling in Jerusalem, devout men from every nation of those under the heaven, 6 and the rumor of this having come, the multitude came together, and was confounded, because they were, each one, hearing them speaking in his proper dialect, 7 and they were all amazed, and wondered, saying to one another, "Behold, are not all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 And how do we hear, each in our proper dialect, in which we were born? 9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and those dwelling in Mesopotamia, in Judea also, and will fill me with joy with Your countenance. 29 Men, Cappadocia, Pontus, and Asia, 10 Phrygia also, brothers! It is permitted to speak with freedom to you and Pamphylia, Egypt, and the parts of Libya that concerning the patriarch David, that he both died and [are] along Cyrene, and the strangers of Rome, both was buried, and his tomb is among us to this day; 30 Jews and proselytes, 11 Cretes and Arabians, we therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God heard them speaking the great things of God in our tongues." 12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying to one another, "What would this wish to be?" 13 And others mocking said, "They are full of sweet wine"; 14 and Peter having stood up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice and declared to them: g86) 32 God raised up this Jesus, of which we are all "Men—Jews, and all those dwelling in Jerusalem! Let this be known to you, and listen to my sayings, 15 for these are not drunken, as you take it up, for it is the prophesy, And your young men will see visions, And your old men will dream dreams; 18 And also on My menservants, and on My maidservants, In those days, 37 And having heard, they were pricked to the heart; I will pour out of My Spirit, And they will prophesy; 19 they also say to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, And I will give wonders in the sky above, And signs on the earth beneath—Blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke, 20 The sun will be turned to darkness, And the moon to blood, Before the coming of the Day of the LORD—the great and conspicuous; 21 And it will be, everyone who, if he may have called on the Name of the LORD, will be saved. 22 Men, Israelites! Hear these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man approved of God among you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs, that God did through Him in the midst of you, according as also you yourselves have known, 23 this One, by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, being given out, having been taken by lawless hands, having been crucified—you slew, 24 whom God raised up, having loosed the travails of death, because it was not possible for Him to be held by it; 25 for David says in regard to Him: I foresaw the LORD always before me—Because He is on my right hand—That I may not be moved; 26 Because of this was my heart cheered, And my tongue was glad, And yet—my flesh will also rest on hope, 27 Because You will not leave my soul to Hades, Nor will You give Your Holy One to see corruption; (Hades g86) 28 You made known to me ways of life, You swore to him with an oath, out of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, to raise up the Christ, to sit on his throne, 31 having foreseen, he spoke concerning left to Hades, nor did His flesh see corruption. (Hades the resurrection of the Christ, that His soul was not the Holy Spirit from the Father—He poured forth this which you now see and hear; 34 for David did not go hand of God—also having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father—He poured forth this assuredly, therefore, Your enemies Your footstool; 36 assuredly, therefore, let all the house of Israel know that God made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified."

witnesses; 33 then having been exalted at the right hand of God—also having received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father—He poured forth this third hour of the day. 16 But this is that which has been prophesy, And your young men will see visions, And let all the house of Israel know that God made Him your old men will dream dreams; 18 And also on My both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified."

says to my Lord, Sit at My right hand, 35 Until I make on all flesh, And your sons and your daughters will Your enemies Your footstool; 36 assuredly, therefore, menservants, and on My maidservants, In those days, 37 And having heard, they were pricked to the heart; I will pour out of My Spirit, And they will prophesy; 19 they also say to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, And I will give wonders in the sky above, And signs "What will we do, men, brothers?" 38 And Peter said to them, "Convert, and each of you be immersed on smoke, 20 The sun will be turned to darkness, And the Name of Jesus Christ, for forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit, 39 for the LORD our God will of the LORD, will be saved. 22 Men, Israelites! Hear call." 40 Also with many more other words he was these words: Jesus the Nazarene, a man approved of God among you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs, that God did through Him in the midst of you, gladly received his word were immersed, and there according as also you yourselves have known, 23 this were added on that day, as it were, three thousand souls, 42 and they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the apostles, and the fellowship, and the hands, having been crucified—you slew, 24 whom breaking of the bread, and the prayers. 43 And fear God raised up, having loosed the travails of death, came on every soul, also many wonders and signs because it was not possible for Him to be held by were being done through the apostles, 44 and all it; 25 for David says in regard to Him: I foresaw the those believing were at the same place, and had

all things common, 45 and they were selling the right hand—That I may not be moved; 26 Because possessions and the goods, and were parting them to daily with one accord in the temple, also breaking all, according as anyone had need. 46 Also continuing glad, And yet—my flesh will also rest on hope, 27 bread at every house, they were partaking of food in gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising God, and having favor with all the people, and the LORD was adding those being saved every day to the Assembly.

3 And Peter and John were going up at the same time into the temple, at the hour of the prayer, the ninth [hour]. 2 and a certain man, being lame from the womb of his mother, was being carried, whom they were laying every day at the gate of the temple, called Beautiful, to ask a kindness from those entering into the temple, 3 who, having seen Peter and John about to go into the temple, was begging to receive a kindness. 4 And Peter, having looked steadfastly toward him with John, said, "Look toward us"; 5 and he was giving heed to them, looking to receive something from them; 6 and Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I have, that I give to you; in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and be walking." 7 And having seized him by the right hand, he raised [him] up, and instantly his feet and ankles were strengthened, 8 and springing up, he stood, and was walking, and entered with them into the temple, walking and springing, and praising God; 9 and all the people saw him walking and praising God, 10 and they knew him, that this it was who for a kindness was sitting at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what has happened to him. 11 And at the lame man who was healed holding Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch called Solomon's—greatly amazed, 12 and Peter having seen, answered to the people, "Men, I laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the Israelites! Why do you wonder at this? Or why do you look on us so earnestly, as if by our own power or piety we have made him to walk?" 13 The God of fathers, glorified His child Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied Him in the presence of Pilate, he having given judgment to release [Him], 14 and you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and desired a man—a murderer—to be granted to you, 15 and the Prince of life you killed, whom God raised out of the dead, of which we are witnesses; 16 and on the faith of His Name, this one whom you see and have known, His Name made strong, even the faith that [is] through Him gave to him this perfect soundness before you all. 17 And now, brothers, I have known that through ignorance you did [it], as also your rulers;

18 and God, what things He had declared before through the mouth of all His prophets, that the Christ should suffer, He thus fulfilled; 19 convert, therefore, and turn back, for your sins being blotted out, that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the LORD, 20 and He may send Jesus Christ who before has been preached to you, 21 whom Heaven required, indeed, to receive until times of a restitution of all things, of which God spoke through the mouth of all His holy prophets from the age. (aiōn g165) 22 For Moses, indeed, said to the fathers—The LORD your God will raise up a Prophet to you out of your brothers, like to me; you will hear Him in all things, as many as He may speak to you; 23 and it will be, every soul that may not hear that Prophet will be utterly destroyed out of the people; 24 and also all the prophets from Samuel and those following in order, as many as spoke, also foretold of these days. 25 You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant that God made to our fathers, saying to Abraham: And in your Seed will all the families of the earth be blessed; 26 to you first, God, having raised up His child Jesus, sent Him, blessing you, in the turning away of each one from your evil ways."

4 And as they are speaking to the people, there came to them the priests, and the magistrate of the temple, and the Sadducees— 2 being grieved because of their teaching the people, and preaching in Jesus the resurrection out of the dead— 3 and they Peter having been filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them: "Rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, 9 if known, we are examined today concerning the good deed to [is] through Him gave to him this perfect soundness the ailing man, by whom he has been saved, 10 be it before you all. 17 And now, brothers, I have known known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised out of the dead, in Your counsel determined before to come to pass. Him has this one stood by before you whole. 11 29 And now, LORD, look on their threatenings, and This is the stone that was set at nothing by you—the grant to Your servants to speak Your word with all builders, that became head of a corner; 12 and there freedom, 30 in the stretching forth of Your hand, for is not salvation in any other, for there is no other healing, and signs, and wonders, to come to pass name under Heaven that has been given among through the Name of Your holy child Jesus." 31 And men, in which it is required of us to be saved." 13 they having prayed, the place was shaken in which And beholding the openness of Peter and John, and they were gathered together, and they were all filled having perceived that they are illiterate men and with the Holy Spirit, and were speaking the word of commoners, they were wondering—they were also God with freedom, 32 and of the multitude of those taking knowledge of them that they had been with who believed, the heart and the soul were one, and Jesus— 14 and seeing the man standing with them not one was saying that anything of the things he had who has been healed, they had nothing to say against was his own, but all things were in common to them. [it], 15 and having commanded them to go away out 33 And with great power the apostles were giving of the Sanhedrin, they took counsel with one another, the testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, 16 saying, "What will we do to these men? Because great grace was also on them all, 34 for there was that, indeed, a notable sign has been done through not anyone among them who lacked, for as many as them [is] apparent to all those dwelling in Jerusalem, were possessors of fields, or houses, selling [them], and we are not able to deny [it]; 17 but that it may were bringing the prices of the thing sold, 35 and spread no further toward the people, let us strictly were laying them at the feet of the apostles, and threaten them to no longer speak in this Name to distribution was being made to each according as any man." 18 And having called them, they charged anyone had need. 36 And Joses, who was surnamed them not to speak at all, nor to teach, in the Name of by the apostles Barnabas—which is, having been Jesus, 19 and Peter and John answering to them interpreted, Son of Comfort—a Levite, of Cyprus by said, "Whether it is righteous before God to listen birth, 37 a field being his, having sold [it], brought the to you rather than to God, judge; 20 for we cannot money and laid [it] at the feet of the apostles.

but speak what we saw and heard." 21 And they having further threatened [them], let them go, finding no way how they may punish them, because of the people, because all were glorifying God for that which has been done, 22 for above forty years of age was the man on whom had been done this sign of the healing. 23 And being let go, they went to their own friends, and declared whatever the chief priests and the elders said to them, 24 and they having heard, lifted up the voice to God with one accord and said, "LORD, You [are] God, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that [are] in them, 25 who, through the mouth of Your servant David, said, Why did nations rage, and peoples meditate vain things? 26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the LORD and against His Christ; 27 for gathered together of a truth against Your holy child Jesus, whom You anointed, were both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with nations and peoples of Israel, 28 to do whatever Your hand and

5 And a certain man, Ananias by name, with his wife Sapphira, sold a possession, 2 and kept back of the price—his wife also knowing—and having brought a certain part, he laid [it] at the feet of the apostles. 3 And Peter said, "Ananias, why did Satan fill your heart, for you to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back of the price of the place? 4 While it remained, did it not remain yours? And having been sold, was it not in your authority? Why [is] it that you put this thing in your heart? You did not lie to men, but to God"; 5 and Ananias hearing these words, having fallen down, expired, and great fear came on all who heard these things, 6 and having risen, the younger men wound him up, and having carried forth, they buried [him]. 7 And it came to pass, about three hours after, that his wife, not knowing what has happened, came in, 8 and Peter answered her, "Tell me if for so much you sold the place"; and she said, "Yes, for so much." 9 And Peter said to her, "How was it agreed by you to tempt the Spirit of the LORD? Behold, the feet of those who buried your husband [are] at the door, the people, lest they should be stoned; 27 and having and they will carry you forth"; 10 and immediately brought them, they set [them] in the Sanhedrin, and she fell down at his feet, and expired, and the young the chief priest questioned them, 28 saying, "Did men having come in, found her dead, and having we not strictly command you not to teach in this carried forth, they buried [her] by her husband; 11 Name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with and great fear came on all the Assembly, and on all your teaching, and you intend to bring on us the who heard these things. 12 And through the hands of blood of this Man." 29 And Peter and the apostles the apostles came many signs and wonders among answering, said, "It is required to obey God, rather the people, and they were all with one accord in the than men; 30 and the God of our fathers raised up porch of Solomon; 13 and of the rest no one was Jesus, whom you slew, having hanged on a tree; 31 daring to join himself to them, but the people were this One, God, a Prince and a Savior, has exalted magnifying them, 14 (and the more were believers with His right hand, to give conversion to Israel, and added to the LORD, multitudes of both men and forgiveness of sins; 32 and we are His witnesses of women), 15 so as to bring forth the ailing into the these sayings, and the Holy Spirit also, whom God broad places, and to lay [them] on beds and pallets, gave to those obeying Him." 33 And they having that at the coming of Peter, even [his] shadow might heard, were cut [to the heart], and were intending to overshadow someone of them; 16 and there were slay them, 34 but a certain one, having risen up in the also coming together the people of the surrounding Sanhedrin—a Pharisee, by name Gamaliel, a teacher cities to Jerusalem, carrying ailing persons, and those of law honored by all the people—commanded to harassed by unclean spirits—who were all healed. 17 put the apostles forth a little, 35 and said to them, And having risen, the chief priest, and all those with "Men, Israelites, take heed to yourselves about these him—being the sect of the Sadducees—were filled men, what you are about to do, 36 for before these with zeal, 18 and laid their hands on the apostles, days Theudas rose up, saying that he was someone, and put them in a public prison; 19 but through the to whom a number of men joined themselves, as it night a messenger of the LORD opened the doors were four hundred, who was slain, and all, as many as of the prison, having also brought them forth, he as were obeying him, were scattered, and came to said, 20 "Go on, and standing, speak in the temple nothing. 37 After this one, Judas the Galilean rose to the people all the sayings of this life"; 21 and up, in the days of the census, and drew away people having heard, they entered into the temple at the after him, and that one perished, and all, as many as dawn, and were teaching. And the chief priest having were obeying him, were scattered; 38 and now I say come, and those with him, they called together the to you, refrain from these men, and leave them alone, Sanhedrin and all the Senate of the sons of Israel, because if this counsel or this work may be of men, it and they sent to the prison to have them brought, will be overthrown, 39 and if it be of God, you are not 22 and the officers having come, did not find them able to overthrow it, lest perhaps you are also found in the prison, and having turned back, they told, 23 fighting against God." 40 And to him they agreed, saying, "We indeed found the prison shut in all safety, and having called near the apostles, having beaten and the keepers standing outside before the doors, [them], they commanded [them] not to speak in the and having opened—we found no one within." 24 Name of Jesus, and let them go; 41 they, indeed, And as the priest, and the magistrate of the temple, then, departed from the presence of the Sanhedrin, and the chief priests, heard these words, they were rejoicing that for His Name they were counted worthy doubting concerning them to what this would come; to suffer dishonor, 42 also every day in the temple, 25 and coming near, a certain one told them, saying, and in every house, they were not ceasing teaching "Behold, the men whom you put in the prison are in and proclaiming good news—Jesus the Christ. the temple standing and teaching the people"; 26 then the magistrate having gone away with officers, brought them without violence, for they were fearing overlooked in the daily ministry, 2 and the Twelve, him to this land wherein you now dwell, 5 and He having called near the multitude of the disciples, said, gave him no inheritance in it, not even a footstep, and “It is not pleasing that we, having left the word of God, promised to give it to him for a possession, and to his minister at tables; 3 look out, therefore, brothers, seed after him—he having no child. 6 And God spoke seven men of you who are testified well of, full of the thus, that his seed will be sojourning in a strange Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may set over this land, and they will cause it to serve, and will do it necessity, 4 and we to prayer, and to the ministry of evil [for] four hundred years. 7 And the nation whom the word, will give ourselves continually.” 5 And the they will serve I will judge, said God; And after these thing was pleasing before all the multitude, and they things they will come forth and will do Me service chose Stephen, a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit, in this place. 8 And He gave to him a covenant of and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, circumcision, and so he begot Isaac, and circumcised and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch, him on the eighth day, and Isaac [begot] Jacob, and 6 whom they set before the apostles, and they, having Jacob—the twelve patriarchs; 9 and the patriarchs, prayed, laid [their] hands on them. 7 And the word having been moved with jealousy, sold Joseph to of God increased, and the number of the disciples Egypt, and God was with him, 10 and delivered him multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly; a great multitude out of all his tribulations, and gave him favor and of the priests were also obedient to the faith. 8 And wisdom before Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he set Stephen, full of faith and power, was doing great him—governor over Egypt and all his house. 11 And wonders and signs among the people, 9 and there there came a scarcity on all the land of Egypt and arose certain of those of the synagogue, the [one] Canaan, and great tribulation, and our fathers were called Libertines (and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, not finding sustenance, 12 and Jacob having heard and of those from Cilicia, and Asia), disputing with that there was grain in Egypt, sent forth our fathers a Stephen, 10 and they were not able to resist the first time; 13 and at the second time was Joseph made wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking; known to his brothers, and Joseph’s family became 11 then they suborned men, saying, “We have heard disclosed to Pharaoh, 14 and Joseph having sent, him speaking slanderous sayings in regard to Moses called for his father Jacob, and all his relatives—with and God.” 12 They also stirred up the people, and the seventy-five souls— 15 and Jacob went down to elders, and the scribes, and having come on [him], Egypt, and died, himself and our fathers, 16 and they they caught him, and brought [him] to the Sanhedrin; were carried over into Shechem, and were laid in the 13 they also set up false witnesses, saying, “This one tomb that Abraham bought for a price in money from does not cease to speak evil sayings against this the sons of Emmor, of Shechem. 17 And according holy place and the Law, 14 for we have heard him as the time of the promise was drawing near, which saying that this Jesus the Nazarean will overthrow God swore to Abraham, the people increased and this place, and will change the customs that Moses multiplied in Egypt, 18 until another king rose, who delivered to us”; 15 and gazing at him, all those sitting had not known Joseph; 19 this one, having dealt in the Sanhedrin saw his face as it were the face of a messenger.

6 And in these days, the disciples multiplying, there came a murmuring of the Hellenists at the Hebrews, because their widows were being

7 And the chief priest said, “Are then these things so?” 2 And he said, “Men, brothers, and fathers, listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, being in Mesopotamia, before his dwelling in Haran, 3 and He said to him, Go forth out of your land, and out of your relatives, and come to a land that I will show you. 4 Then having come forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, he dwelt in Haran, and from there, after the death of his father, He removed

seen a certain one suffering injustice, he defended, made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice and did justice to the oppressed, having struck the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their Egyptian; 25 and he was supposing his brothers to hands, 42 and God turned, and gave them up to do understand that God gives salvation through his hand; service to the host of Heaven, according as it has and they did not understand. 26 On the succeeding been written in the scroll of the Prophets: Did you day, also, he showed himself to them as they are offer slain beasts and sacrifices to Me forty years striving, and urged them to peace, saying, Men, you in the wilderness, O house of Israel? 43 And you are brothers, why do you do injustice to one another? took up the dwelling place of Moloch, and the star of 27 And he who is doing injustice to the neighbor, your god Remphan—the figures that you made to thrusted him away, saying, Who set you a ruler and a worship them, and I will remove your dwelling beyond judge over us? 28 Do you wish to kill me, as you killed Babylon. 44 The Dwelling Place of the Testimony was the Egyptian yesterday? 29 And Moses fled at this among our fathers in the wilderness, according as word, and became a sojourner in the land of Midian, He directed, who is speaking to Moses, to make it where he begot two sons, 30 and forty years having according to the figure that he had seen; 45 which also been fulfilled, there appeared to him in the wilderness our fathers having in succession received, brought in of Mount Sinai [the] Messenger of the LORD, in a with Joshua, into the possession of the nations whom flame of fire of a bush, 31 and Moses having seen, God drove out from the presence of our fathers, wondered at the sight; and he drawing near to behold, until the days of David, 46 who found favor before there came a voice of the LORD to him, 32 I [am] God, and requested to find a dwelling place for the the God of your fathers; the God of Abraham, and God of Jacob; 47 and Solomon built Him a house. the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses 48 But the Most High does not dwell in sanctuaries having become terrified, did not dare behold, 33 and made with hands, according as the prophet says: 49 the LORD said to him, Loose the sandal of your Heaven [is] My throne, And the earth My footstool, feet, for the place in which you have stood is holy What house will you build to Me? Says the LORD; ground; 34 seeing I have seen the affliction of My Or what [is] the place of My rest? 50 Has My hand people that [is] in Egypt, and I heard their groaning, not made all these things? 51 You stiff-necked and and came down to deliver them; and now come, I uncircumcised in heart and in ears! You always resist will send you to Egypt. 35 This Moses, whom they the Holy Spirit; as your fathers—also you; 52 which of refused, saying, Who set you a ruler and a judge? the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they This one God sent [as] a ruler and a redeemer, by killed those who declared before about the coming of the hand of [the] Messenger who appeared to him in the Righteous One, of whom you have now become the bush; 36 this one brought them forth, having done betrayers and murderers, 53 who received the Law wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the by arrangement of messengers, and did not keep Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years; 37 this is [it]." 54 And hearing these things, they were cut to the the Moses who said to the sons of Israel: The LORD hearts, and gnashed the teeth at him; 55 and being your God will raise up to you a Prophet out of your full of the Holy Spirit, having looked steadfastly to the brothers, like to me, Him will you hear. 38 This is he sky, he saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on who was in the assembly in the wilderness, with the the right hand of God, 56 and he said, "Behold, I see Messenger who is speaking to him in Mount Sinai, the heavens having been opened, and the Son of and with our fathers who received the living oracles Man standing on the right hand of God." 57 And they, to give to us; 39 to whom our fathers did not wish to having cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, become obedient, but thrusted away, and turned back and rushed with one accord on him, 58 and having in their hearts to Egypt, 40 saying to Aaron, Make to cast him forth outside of the city, they were stoning us gods who will go on before us, for this Moses, who [him]—and the witnesses put down their garments at brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, we have the feet of a young man called Saul— 59 and they not known what has happened to him. 41 And they were stoning Stephen, [as he was] calling and saying,

"Lord Jesus, receive my spirit"; 60 and having bowed the knees, he cried with a loud voice, "LORD, may You not lay to them this sin"; and having said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Saul was assenting to his death, and there came in that day a great persecution on the Assembly in Jerusalem, all were also scattered abroad in the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles; 2 and devout men carried Stephen away, and made great lamentation over him; 3 and Saul was making havoc of the Assembly, entering into every house, and dragging away men and women, giving them up to prison; 4 they then indeed, having been scattered, went abroad proclaiming good news—the word. 5 And Philip having gone down to a city of Samaria, was preaching the Christ to them; 6 the multitudes were also giving heed to the things spoken by Philip, with one accord, in their hearing and seeing the signs that he was doing, 7 for unclean spirits came forth from many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice, and many who have been paralytic and lame were healed, 8 and there was great joy in that city. 9 And a certain man, by name Simon, was previously in the city using magic, and amazing the nation of Samaria, saying himself to be a certain great one, 10 to whom they were all giving heed, from small to great, saying, "This one is the great power of God"; 11 and they were giving heed to him, because of his having amazed them for a long time with deeds of magic. 12 And when they believed Philip, proclaiming good news, the things concerning the Kingdom of God and the Name of Jesus Christ, they were immersed—both men and women; 13 and Simon himself also believed, and having been immersed, he was continuing with Philip, beholding also signs and mighty acts being done, he was amazed. 14 And the apostles in Jerusalem having heard that Samaria has received the word of God, sent Peter and John to them, 15 who having come down prayed concerning them, that they may receive the Holy Spirit—16 for as yet He was fallen on none of them, and only they have been immersed—into the Name of the Lord Jesus; 17 then they were laying hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. 18 And Simon, having beheld that through the laying on of the hands of the apostles the Holy Spirit is given, brought money before them, 19 saying, "Give also to me this authority, that on whomsoever I may lay the hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit." 20 And Peter said to him, "Your silver with you—may it be to destruction! Because you thought to possess the gift of God through money; 21 you have neither part nor lot in this thing, for your heart is not right before God; 22 convert, therefore, from this your wickedness, and implore God, if then the purpose of your heart may be forgiven you, 23 for in the gall of bitterness, and bond of unrighteousness, I perceive you being." 24 And Simon answering, said, "Implore for me to the LORD, that nothing may come on me of the things you have spoken." 25 They indeed, therefore, having testified fully, and spoken the word of the LORD, turned back to Jerusalem; they also proclaimed good news in many villages of the Samaritans. 26 And a messenger of the LORD spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go on toward the south, on the way that is going down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desolate.) 27 And having arisen, he went on, and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch, a man of rank, of Candace the queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship; 28 he was also returning, and is sitting on his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. 29 And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and be joined to this chariot"; 30 and Philip having run near, heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said, "Do you then know what you read?" 31 And he said, "Why, how am I able, if someone may not guide me?" He called Philip also, having come up, to sit with him. 32 And the passage of the Writing that he was reading was this: "He was led as a sheep to slaughter, And as a lamb before his shearer is silent, So He does not open His mouth; 33 In His humiliation His judgment was taken away, And His generation—who will declare? Because His life is taken from the earth." 34 And the eunuch answering Philip said, "I beg you, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself, or about some other one?" 35 And Philip having opened his mouth, and having begun from this Writing, proclaimed good news to him—Jesus. 36 And as they were going on the way, they came on some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, water; what hinders me to be immersed?" 37 [And Philip said, "If you believe out of all the heart, it is lawful"; and he answering said, "I believe Jesus is a chosen vessel to Me, to carry My Name before Christ to be the Son of God":] 38 and he commanded nations and kings—also the sons of Israel; 16 for I the chariot to stand still, and they both went down will show him how many things he must suffer for to the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he My Name." 17 And Ananias went away, and entered immersed him; 39 and when they came up out of the into the house, and having put on him [his] hands, water, the Spirit of the LORD snatched up Philip, and said, "Saul, brother, the LORD has sent me—Jesus the eunuch saw him no more, for he was going on his who appeared to you in the way in which you were way rejoicing; 40 and Philip was found at Azotus, and coming—that you may see again, and may be filled passing through, he was proclaiming good news to all with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately there fell the cities, until his coming to Caesarea.

9 And Saul, yet breathing of threatening and slaughter to the disciples of the LORD, having gone to the chief priest, 2 asked from him letters to Damascus, to the synagogues, that if he may find any being of The Way, both men and women, he may bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3 And in the going, he came near to Damascus, and suddenly there shone around him a light from Heaven, 4 and having fallen on the earth, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?" 5 And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" And the LORD said, "I am Jesus whom you persecute; [[hard for you to kick at the goads"]; 6 trembling also, and astonished, he said, "Lord, what do You wish me to do?" And the LORD [said] to him,] "Arise, and enter into the city, and it will be told [to] you what you must do." 7 And the men who are journeying with him stood speechless, indeed hearing the voice but seeing no one, 8 and Saul arose from the earth, and his eyes having been opened, he beheld no one, and leading him by the hand they brought him to Damascus, 9 and he was three days without seeing, and he neither ate nor drank. 10 And there was a certain disciple in Damascus, by name Ananias, and the LORD said to him in a vision, "Ananias"; and he said, "Behold me, Lord"; 11 and the LORD [says] to him, "Having risen, go on to the street that is called Straight, and seek in the house of Judas, [one] by name Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he prays, 12 and he saw in a vision a man, by name Ananias, coming in, and putting a hand on him, that he may see again." 13 And Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how many evils he did to Your holy ones in Jerusalem, 14 and here he has authority from the chief priests, to bind all those calling on Your Name." 15 And the LORD said to him, "Go, because this one said, "Saul, brother, the LORD has sent me—Jesus who appeared to you in the way in which you were coming—that you may see again, and may be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales, he also saw again instantly, and having risen, was immersed, 19 and having received nourishment, was strengthened, and Saul was with the disciples in Damascus certain days, 20 and immediately he was preaching the Christ in the synagogues, that He is the Son of God. 21 And all those hearing were amazed and said, "Is this not he who laid waste in Jerusalem those calling on this Name, and here to this intent had come, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?" 22 And Saul was still more strengthened, and he was confounding the Jews dwelling in Damascus, proving that this is the Christ. 23 And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel together to kill him, 24 and their counsel against [him] was known to Saul; they were also watching the gates both day and night, that they may kill him, 25 and the disciples having taken him, by night let him down by the wall, letting down in a basket. 26 And Saul, having come to Jerusalem, tried to join himself to the disciples, and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he is a disciple, 27 and Barnabas having taken him, brought [him] to the apostles, and declared to them how he saw the LORD in the way, and that He spoke to him, and how in Damascus he was speaking boldly in the Name of Jesus. 28 And he was with them, coming in and going out in Jerusalem, 29 and speaking boldly in the Name of the Lord Jesus; he was both speaking and disputing with the Hellenists, and they were taking in hand to kill him, 30 and the brothers having known, brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. 31 Then, indeed, the assemblies throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, had peace, being built up, and going on in the fear of the LORD, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, they were multiplied. 32 And it came to pass that Peter, passing throughout all [quarters], also came down to the holy ones who were dwelling at Lydda, 33 and he found there a certain man, Aeneas by name—for eight years laid him continually, 34 and Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus the Christ heals you; arise and spread for yourself”; and immediately he rose, 35 near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop and all those dwelling at Lydda and Saron saw him, pray, about the sixth hour, 36 And in Joppa there was a certain female disciple, by name Tabitha (which interpreted, is called Dorcas); this woman was full of good works and kind acts that she was doing; 37 great sheet, bound at the four corners, and let down and it came to pass in those days she, having ailed, on the earth, 38 and Lydda being near to Joppa, the chamber, 39 And Peter having come through to them. 40 And Peter having risen, went with them, whom having come, they brought into the upper chamber, and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing coats and garments, as many as Dorcas was making while she was with them. 41 and having given her [his] hand, he lifted her up, and having bowed the knees, prayed, and having turned to the body, said, “Tabitha, arise”; and she opened her eyes, and having seen Peter, she sat up, 42 and it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed on the LORD; 43 and it came to pass, that he remained many days in Joppa, with a certain one, Simon a tanner.

10 And there was a certain man in Caesarea, by name Cornelius, a centurion from a cohort that is called Italian, 2 pious, and fearing God with all his house, also doing many kind acts to the people, and always imploring God; 3 he saw in a vision openly, as it were the ninth hour of the day, a messenger of God coming in to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius”; 4 and he having looked earnestly on him, and becoming afraid, said, “What is it, Lord?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your kind acts came up for a memorial before God, 5 and now send men to Joppa, and send for a certain one Simon, who is surnamed Peter; 6 this one lodges with a certain Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea; this one will speak to you what you must do.” 7 And when the messenger who is speaking to Cornelius went away, having called two of his servants, and a pious soldier of those waiting on them, he sent them to Joppa. 9 And on the next day, as these are proceeding on the way, and are drawing near to the city, Peter went up on the housetop and turned to the LORD. 10 and he became very hungry, and wished to eat; and they making ready, there fell on him a trance, 11 and he beholds Heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending to him, as a great sheet, bound at the four corners, and let down and it came to pass in those days she, having ailed, on the earth, 12 in which were all the four-footed beasts of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky, 13 and there came a voice to him: “Having risen, Peter, slay and sent two men to him, calling on him not to delay to eat.” 14 And Peter said, “Not so, Lord; because I might be, then, behold, the men who have been sent and [there is] a voice again a second time to him: “What God cleansed, you do not declare common”; 15 and this was done three times, and again was perplexed in himself what the vision that he saw was as Dorcas was making while she was with them. 16 and this was done three times, and again was perplexed in himself what the vision that he saw was as Dorcas was making while she was with them. 17 And as Peter And Peter having put them all forth outside, having bowed the knees, prayed, and having turned to the body, said, “Tabitha, arise”; and she opened her eyes, from Cornelius, having made inquiry for the house and having seen Peter, she sat up, 18 and having given her [his] hand, he lifted her up, and having called the holy ones and the widows, he presented lodges here. 19 And Peter thinking about the vision, her alive, 20 but having risen, go down and go on with them, doubtless nothing, because I have sent them”; 21 and with Cornelius to him, said, “Behold, I am he whom you seek, what [is] the cause for which you are present?” 22 And they said, “Cornelius, a centurion, a man righteous and fearing God, well testified to, also, by all the nation of the Jews, was divinely warned by a holy messenger to send for you, to his house, and to hear sayings from you.” 23 Having called them in, therefore, he lodged them, and on the next day Peter went forth with them, and certain of the brothers from Joppa went with him, 24 and on the next day they entered into Caesarea; and Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and near friends, 25 and as it came that Peter entered in, Cornelius having met him, having fallen at [his] feet, worshiped [him]; 26 and Peter raised him, saying, “Stand up; I am also a man myself”; 27 and talking with him he went in, and finds many having come together. 28 And he said to them, "You know how it is unlawful for a man, a Jew, to keep company with, or to come to, one of another race, but God showed to me to call no man common or unclean; 29 therefore also without contradicting I came, having been sent to come to, one of another race, but God showed to me to call no man common or unclean; 29 therefore also without contradicting I came, having been sent for; I ask, therefore, for what matter you sent for me?" 30 And Cornelius said, "Four days ago until this hour, I was fasting, and [at] the ninth hour praying in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in radiant clothing, 31 and he said, Cornelius, your prayer was heard, and your kind acts were remembered before God; 32 send, therefore, to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter; this one lodges in the house of Simon a tanner, by the sea, who having come, will speak to you; 33 at once, therefore, I sent to you; you also did well, having come; now, therefore, we are all present before God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God." 34 And Peter having opened his mouth, said, "Of a truth, I perceive that God is not favoring by appearance, 35 but in every nation he who is fearing Him, and is working righteousness, is acceptable to Him; 36 the word that He sent to the sons of Israel, proclaiming good news—peace through Jesus Christ (this One is Lord of all), 37 you have known the word that came throughout all Judea, having begun from Galilee, after the immersion that John preached; 38 Jesus who [is] from Nazareth—how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and power; who went through, doing good, and healing all those oppressed by the Devil, because God was with Him; 39 and we are witnesses of all things that He did, both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem—whom they slew, having hanged [Him] on a tree. 40 This One God raised up [on] the third day, and gave Him to become visible, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses, to those having been chosen before by God—to us who ate with [Him], and drank with Him, after His rising out of the dead; 42 and He commanded us to preach to the people, and to fully testify that it is He who has been ordained judge of living and dead by God— 43 to this One do all the Prophets testify, that through His Name everyone that is believing in Him receives forgiveness of sins." 44 While Peter is yet speaking these sayings, the Holy Spirit fell on all those hearing the word, 45 and those of circumcision [who were] believing were astonished—as many as came with Peter—because the gift of the Holy Spirit has also been poured out on the nations, 46 for they were hearing them speaking with tongues and magnifying God. 47 Then Peter answered, "Is anyone able to forbid the water, that these may not be immersed, who received the Holy Spirit—even as us also?" 48 He commanded them to also be immersed in the Name of the LORD; then they implored him to remain certain days.

11 And the apostles and the brothers who are in Judea heard that the nations also received the word of God, 2 and when Peter came up to Jerusalem, those of circumcision were contending with him, 3 saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!" 4 And Peter having begun, set [it] forth to them in order, saying, 5 "I was in the city of Joppa praying, and I saw in a trance a vision, a certain vessel coming down, as a great sheet by four corners being let down out of Heaven, and it came to me; 6 at which having looked steadfastly, I was considering, and I saw the four-footed beasts of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky; 7 and I heard a voice saying to me, Having risen, Peter, slay and eat; 8 and I said, Not so, Lord, because anything common or unclean has at no time entered into my mouth; 9 and a voice answered me a second time out of Heaven, What God cleansed, you do not declare common. 10 And this happened three times, and again was all drawn up to Heaven, 11 and behold, immediately, three men stood at the house in which I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me, 12 and the Spirit said to me to go with them, doubting nothing, and these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man, 13 he also declared to us how he saw the messenger standing in his house, and saying to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, who is surnamed Peter, 14 who will speak sayings by which you will be saved, you and all your house. 15 And in my beginning to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as also on us in the beginning, 16 and I remembered the saying of the LORD, how He said, John indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit; 17 if then God gave to them the equal gift as also to us, having believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, I—how was I able to withstand God?" 18 And they, having heard these things, were silent, and were glorifying God, saying, "Then, indeed, God also gave conversion to life to the nations." 19 Those, indeed, therefore, having been scattered abroad, from the tribulation that came after Stephen, went through to Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to none except to Jews only; 20 and there were certain of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who having entered into Antioch, were speaking to the Hellenists, proclaiming good news—the Lord Jesus, 21 and the hand of the LORD was with them, a great number also, having believed, turned to the LORD. 22 And the account was heard in the ears of the assembly that [is] in Jerusalem and he says to him, "Cast your garment around and was with them, a great number also, having believed, follow me"; 9 and having gone forth, he was following him, and he did not know that it is true that which is done through the messenger, and was thinking he concerning them, and they sent forth Barnabas to go through to Antioch, 23 who, having come, and having seen the grace of God, was glad, and was exhorting all with purpose of heart to cleave to the LORD, 24 because he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith, and a great multitude was assembled together a whole year in the assembly, of the Jews"; 12 also, having considered, he came and taught a great multitude, and the disciples were brought him to Antioch, and it came to pass that they there came from Jerusalem prophets to Antioch, 28 together and praying. 13 And Peter having knocked and one of them, by name Agabus, having stood up, signified through the Spirit a great scarcity is about to be throughout all the world—which also came to pass in the time of Claudius Caesar— 29 and the disciples, according as anyone was prospering, determined each of them to send for ministry to the brothers dwelling in Judea, 30 which also they did, having sent to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

12 And about that time, Herod the king put forth his hands to do evil to certain of those of the Assembly, 2 and he killed James, the brother of John, with the sword, 3 and having seen that it is pleasing to the Jews, he added to lay hold of Peter also—and they were the days of the Unleavened [Bread]— 4 whom also having seized, he put in prison, having delivered [him] to four squads of four soldiers to guard him, intending to bring him forth to the people after the Passover. 5 Peter, therefore, indeed, was kept in the prison, and fervent prayer was being made by the Assembly to God for him, 6 and when Herod was sleeping between two soldiers, having been bound with two chains, guards were also keeping the prison before the door, 7 and behold, a messenger of the LORD stood by, and a light shone in the buildings, and having struck Peter on the side, he raised him up, saying, "Rise in haste," and his chains fell from off [his] hands. 8 The messenger also said to him, "Gird yourself, and bind on your sandals"; and he did so; and having saw a vision, 10 and having passed through a first ward, and a second, they came to the iron gate that is leading into the city, which opened to them of its own accord, and having gone forth, they went on through one street, and immediately the messenger departed from him. 11 And Peter having come to himself, said, "Now I have known of a truth that the LORD sent Tarsus, to seek for Saul, 26 and having found him, he forth His messenger, and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and all the expectation of the people as assembled together a whole year in the assembly, of the Jews"; 12 also, having considered, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who is first called Christians in Antioch. 27 And in those days surnamed Mark, where there were many thronged together and praying. 13 And Peter having knocked at the door of the porch, there came a girl to listen, by name Rhoda, 14 and having known the voice of Peter, from the joy she did not open the porch, but in the porch, 15 and they said to her, "You are mad"; and she was confidently affirming [it] to be so, and they said, "It is his messenger"; 16 and Peter was continuing knocking, and having opened, they saw him, and were astonished, 17 and having beckoned to them with the hand to be silent, he declared to them how the LORD brought him out of the prison, and he said, "Declare these things to James and to the brothers"; and having gone forth, he went on to another place. 18 And day having come, there was not a little stir among the soldiers what then was become of Peter, 19 and Herod having sought for him, and having not found, having examined the guards, commanded [them] to be led away to punishment, and having gone down from Judea to Caesarea, a hand of the LORD [is] on you, and you will be he was abiding [there]. 20 And Herod was highly blind, not seeing the sun for a season"; and instantly displeased with the Tyrians and Sidonians, and with there fell on him a mist and darkness, and he, going one accord they came to him, and having made a around, was seeking some to lead [him] by the hand; friend of Blastus, who [is] over the bed-chambers of 12 then the proconsul having seen what has come the king, they were asking peace, because of their to pass, believed, being astonished at the teaching country being nourished from the king's; 21 and on of the LORD. 13 And those around Paul having set a set day, Herod having clothed himself in kingly sail from Paphos, came to Perga of Pamphylia, and clothing, and having sat down on the judgment seat, John having departed from them, turned back to was making an oration to them, 22 and the populace Jerusalem, 14 and they having gone through from were shouting, "The voice of a god, and not of a Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia, and having gone man!" 23 And immediately a messenger of the LORD into the synagogue on the day of the Sabbaths, they struck him in return for that he did not give the glory sat down, 15 and after the reading of the Law and of to God, and having been eaten of worms, he expired. the Prophets, the chief men of the synagogue sent to 24 And the word of God grew and multiplied, 25 and them, saying, "Men, brothers, if there be a word in you Barnabas and Saul turned back out of Jerusalem, of exhortation to the people—say on." 16 And Paul having fulfilled the ministry, having also taken John having risen, and having beckoned with the hand, with [them], who was surnamed Mark.

13 And there were certain in Antioch, in the assembly there, prophets and teachers: both Barnabas, and Simeon who is called Niger, and Lucius the Cyrenian, Manaen also—Herod the tetrarch's foster-brother—and Saul; 2 and in their ministering to the LORD and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate to Me both Barnabas and Saul to the work to which I have called them," 3 then having fasted, and having prayed, and having laid the hands on them, they sent [them] away. 4 These, indeed, then, having been sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus, 5 and having come to Salamis, they declared the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews, and they also had John [as] a servant; 6 and having gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain magus, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name [is] Bar-Jesus; 7 who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man; this one having called for Barnabas and Saul, desired to hear the word of God, 8 and there withstood them Elymas the magus—for so is his name interpreted—seeking to pervert the proconsul from the faith. 9 And Saul—who also [is] Paul—having been filled with the Holy Spirit, and having looked steadfastly on him, 10 said, "O full of all guile, and all recklessness, son of a devil, enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease perverting the right ways of the LORD? 11 And now, behold, said, "Men, Israelites, and those fearing God, listen: 17 the God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and He exalted the people in their sojourning in the land of Egypt, and He brought them out of it with a high arm; 18 and about a period of forty years He endured their conduct in the wilderness, 19 and having destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, He divided their land to them by lot. 20 And after these things, about four hundred and fifty years, He gave judges—until Samuel the prophet; 21 and thereafter they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul, son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years; 22 and having removed him, He raised up to them David for king, to whom also having testified, He said, I found David, the [son] of Jesse, a man according to My heart, who will do all My will. 23 Of this one's seed, God, according to promise, raised to Israel a Savior—Jesus, 24 John having first preached, before His coming, an immersion of conversion to all the people of Israel; 25 and as John was fulfilling the course, he said, Whom do you suppose I am? I am not [He], but behold, He comes after me, of whom I am not worthy to loose the sandal of [His] feet. 26 Men, brothers, sons of the race of Abraham, and those among you fearing God, to you was the word of this salvation sent, 27 for those dwelling in Jerusalem, and their chiefs, having not known this One, also the voices of the Prophets, which are being read every Sabbath—having judged [Him]—fulfilled, 28 and having found no cause of death, they asked of Pilate that He should be slain, 29 and when they fulfilled all the things written about Him, having taken [Him] down from the tree, they laid Him in a tomb; 30 and God raised Him out of the dead, 31 and He was seen for many days of those who came up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are His witnesses to the people. 32 And we proclaim good news to you—that the promise made to the fathers, 33 God has completed this in full to us their children, having raised up Jesus, as also in the second Psalm it has been written: You are My Son—I have begotten You today. 34 And that He raised Him up out of the dead, to no longer return to corruption, He has said this: I will give to You the holy [blessings] of David [that are] faithful; 35 for what reason He also says in another [place]: You will not give Your Holy One to see corruption; 36 for David, indeed, having served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was added to his fathers, and saw corruption, 37 but He whom God raised up, did not see corruption. 38 Let it therefore be known to you, men, brothers, that the forgiveness of sins is declared to you through this One, 39 and from all things in the Law of Moses from which you were not able to be declared righteous, everyone who is believing in this One is declared righteous; 40 see, therefore, it may not come on you that has been spoken in the Prophets: 41 See, you despisers, and wonder, and perish, because I work a work in your days, a work in which you may not believe, though anyone may declare [it] to you." 42 And having gone forth out of the synagogue of the Jews, the nations were calling on [them] that on the next Sabbath these sayings may be spoken to them, 43 and the synagogue having been dismissed, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were persuading them to remain in the grace of God. 44 And on the coming Sabbath, almost all the city was gathered together to hear the word of God, 45 and the Jews having seen the multitudes, were filled with zeal, and contradicted the things spoken by Paul—contradicting and slandering. 46 And speaking boldly, Paul and Barnabas said, "It was necessary that the word of God be first spoken to you, and seeing you thrust it away, and do not judge yourselves worthy of the continuous life, behold, we turn to the nations; (aiōnios g166) 47 for so the LORD has commanded us: I have set you for a light of nations—for your being for salvation to the end of the earth." 48 And the nations hearing were glad, and were glorifying the word of the LORD, and believed—as many as were appointed to continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 49 and the word of the LORD was spread abroad through all the region. 50 And the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the first men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and put them out from their borders; 51 and having shaken off the dust of their feet against them, they came to Iconium, 52 and the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

14 And it came to pass in Iconium, that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and spoke, so that there believed a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks; 2 and the unbelieving Jews stirred up and made the souls of the nations evil against the brothers; 3 [for a] long time, indeed, therefore, they abided speaking boldly in the LORD, who is testifying to the word of His grace, and granting signs and wonders to come to pass through their hands. 4 And the multitude of the city was divided, and some were with the Jews, and some with the apostles, 5 and when there was a purpose both of the nations and of the Jews with their rulers to mistreat [them], and to stone them, 6 they having become aware, fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the surrounding region, 7 and there they were proclaiming good news. 8 And a certain man in Lystra, impotent in the feet, was sitting, being lame from the womb of his mother—who never had walked; 9 this one was hearing Paul speaking, who, having steadfastly beheld him, and having seen that he has faith to be saved, 10 said with a loud voice, "Stand up on your feet upright"; and he was springing and walking, 11 and the multitudes having seen what Paul did, lifted up their voice in the speech of Lycaonia, saying, "The gods, having become like men, came down to us"; 12 they were also calling Barnabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes, since he was the leader in speaking. 13 And the priest of the Zeus that is before their city, having brought oxen and garlands to the porches, wished to sacrifice with the multitudes, 14 and having heard, the apostles Barnabas and Paul, then, having been sent forward by the assembly, were having torn their garments, sprung into the multitude, passing through Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring crying 15 and saying, "Men, why do you do these things? And we are similar-feeling men with you, great joy to all the brothers. 4 And having come to proclaiming good news to you, to turn to the living Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly, and God from these vanities, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all the things in them; 16 many things as God did with them; 5 and there rose who in the past generations permitted all the nations up certain of those of the sect of the Pharisees who to go on in their ways, 17 though, indeed, He did not believed, saying, "It is required to circumcise them, to leave Himself without witness, doing good—giving command them also to keep the Law of Moses." 6 rains to us from Heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling And there were gathered together the apostles and our hearts with food and gladness"; 18 and saying the elders, to see about this matter, 7 and there these things, they scarcely restrained the multitudes having been much disputing, Peter having risen up from sacrificing to them. 19 And there came there, said to them, "Men, brothers, you know that from from Antioch and Iconium, Jews, and they having former days God made choice among us, through persuaded the multitudes, and having stoned Paul, my mouth, for the nations to hear the word of the drew him outside of the city, having supposed him good news, and to believe; 8 and the heart-knowing to be dead; 20 and the disciples having surrounded God bore them testimony, having given to them the him, having risen he entered into the city, and on the Holy Spirit, even as also to us, 9 and also put no next day he went forth with Barnabas to Derbe. 21 difference between us and them, having purified their Having also proclaimed good news to that city, and hearts by faith; 10 now, therefore, why do you tempt having discipled many, they turned back to Lystra, God, to put a yoke on the neck of the disciples, which and Iconium, and Antioch, 22 confirming the souls of neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? 11 the disciples, exhorting to remain in the faith, and that But through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we it is required of us to enter into the Kingdom of God believe to be saved, even as also they." 12 And all the through many tribulations, 23 and having appointed multitude kept silence and were listening to Barnabas to them elders in every assembly by vote, having and Paul expounding as many signs and wonders as prayed with fastings, they commended them to the God did among the nations through them; 13 and LORD in whom they had believed. 24 And having after they were silent, James answered, saying, "Men, passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia, 25 brothers, listen to me: 14 Simeon expounded how and having spoken the word in Perga, they went at first God looked on [us] to take a people out of down to Attalia, 26 and [from] there sailed to Antioch, [the] nations for His Name, 15 and to this the words from where they had been given by the grace of God of the Prophets agree, as it has been written: 16 for the work that they fulfilled; 27 and having come After these things I will return, And I will rebuild the and gathered the assembly together, they declared dwelling place of David that has fallen down, And I as many things as God did with them, and that He will rebuild its ruins, And will set it upright— 17 That opened a door of faith to the nations; 28 and they the remnant of men may seek after the LORD, And abided there with the disciples [for] not a short time. all the nations on whom My Name has been called, Says the LORD, who is doing all these things. 18 Known from the ages to God are all His works. (αιὸν g165) 19 For this reason I judge: not to trouble those who turn back to God from the nations, 20 but to write to them to abstain from the defilements of the idols, and the whoredom, and the strangled thing, and the blood; 21 for Moses has those preaching him from former generations in every city—being

15 And certain having come down from Judea, were teaching the brothers, "If you are not circumcised after the custom of Moses, you are not able to be saved"; 2 there having been, therefore, not a little dissension and debate to Paul and Barnabas with them, they arranged for Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, to go up to the apostles and elders to Jerusalem about this question; 3 they indeed, read every Sabbath in the synagogues.” 22 Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas chosen men out of themselves—Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, leading men among the brothers— 23 having written through their hand thus: “The apostles, and the elders, and the brothers, to those in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia, brothers, who [are] of the nations, greeting; 24 seeing we have heard that some having gone forth from us troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying to be circumcised and to keep the Law, to whom we gave no charge, 25 it seemed good to us, having come together with one accord, to send to you chosen men, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul— 26 men who have given up their lives for the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ— 27 we have sent, therefore, Judas and Silas, and they are telling the same things by word. 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no more burden on you, except these necessary things: 29 to abstain from things offered to idols, and blood, and a strangled thing, and whoredom; keeping yourselves from which, you will do well; be strong!” 30 They then, indeed, having been let go, went to Antioch, and having brought the multitude together, delivered the letter, 31 and having read [it] they rejoiced for the consolation; 32 Judas also and Silas, also being prophets themselves, through much discourse exhorted the brothers, and confirmed, 33 and having passed some time, they were let go with peace from the brothers to the apostles; 34 [[and it seemed good to Silas to remain there still.]] 35 And Paul and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming good news—with many others also—the word of the LORD; 36 and after certain days, Paul said to Barnabas, “Having turned back again, we may look after our brothers, in every city in which we have preached the word of the LORD—how they are.” 37 And Barnabas resolved to take with [them] John called Mark, 38 and Paul was not thinking it good to take him with them who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and did not go with them to the work; 39 there came, therefore, a sharp contention, so that they were parted from one another, and Barnabas having taken Mark, sailed to Cyprus, 40 and Paul having chosen Silas, went forth, having been given up to the grace of God by the brothers; 41 and he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the assemblies.

16 And he came to Derbe and Lystra, and behold, a certain disciple was there, by name Timotheus, son of a certain woman, a believing Jewess, but of a father, a Greek, 2 who was well testified to by the brothers in Lystra and Iconium; 3 Paul wished this one to go forth with him, and having taken [him], he circumcised him, because of the Jews who are in those places, for they all knew his father—that he was a Greek. 4 And as they were going on through the cities, they were delivering to them the decrees to keep, that have been judged by the apostles and the elders who [are] in Jerusalem, 5 then, indeed, were the assemblies established in the faith, and were abounding in number every day; 6 and having gone through Phrygia and the region of Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia, 7 having gone toward Mysia, they were trying to go on toward Bithynia, and the Spirit did not permit them, 8 and having passed by Mysia, they came down to Troas. 9 And a vision through the night appeared to Paul—a certain man of Macedonia was standing, calling on him, and saying, “Having passed through to Macedonia, help us.” 10 And when he saw the vision, immediately we endeavored to go forth to Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the LORD has called us to preach good news to them, 11 having set sail, therefore, from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, on the next day also to Neapolis, 12 there also to Philippi, which is a principal city of the part of Macedonia—a colony. And we were abiding in this city some days; 13 on the day of the Sabbaths we also went forth outside of the city, by a river, where there used to be prayer, and having sat down, we were speaking to the women who came together, 14 and a certain woman, by name Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, worshiping God, was hearing, whose heart the LORD opened to attend to the things spoken by Paul; 15 and when she was immersed, and her household, she called on us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the LORD, having entered into my house, remain”; and she constrained us. 16 And it came to pass in our going on to prayer, a certain maid, having a spirit of Python, met us, who brought much employment to her masters by soothsaying; 17 she having followed the magistrates sent the rod-bearers, saying, "Let Paul and us, was crying, saying, "These men are those men go"; 36 and the jailor told these words to servants of the Most High God, who declare to us Paul, "The magistrates have sent, that you may be let [the] way of salvation!" 18 And this she was doing go; now, therefore, having gone forth go on in peace"; for many days, but Paul having been grieved, and 37 and Paul said to them, "Having beaten us publicly having turned, said to the spirit, "I command you, in uncondemned—men, being Romans—they cast [us] the Name of Jesus Christ, to come forth from her"; to prison, and now privately they cast us forth! Why and it came forth the same hour. 19 And her masters no! But having come themselves, let them bring us having seen that the hope of their employment was forth." 38 And the rod-bearers told these sayings to gone, having caught Paul and Silas, drew [them] the magistrates, and they were afraid, having heard into the marketplace, to the rulers, 20 and having that they are Romans, 39 and having come, they brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These implored them, and having brought [them] forth, they men being Jews exceedingly trouble our city; 21 were asking [them] to go forth from the city; 40 and and they proclaim customs that are not lawful for they, having gone forth out of the prison, entered into us to receive nor to do, being Romans." 22 And the [the house of] Lydia, and having seen the brothers, multitude rose up together against them, and the they comforted them, and went forth.

magistrates having torn their garments from them, were commanding to beat [them] with rods, 23 having also laid on them many blows, they cast them into prison, having given charge to the jailor to keep them safely, 24 who having received such a charge, put them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in the stocks. 25 And at midnight Paul and Silas praying, were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were hearing them, 26 and suddenly a great earthquake came, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, also all the doors were immediately opened, and of all—the bands were loosed; 27 and the jailor having come out of sleep, and having seen the doors of the prison open, having drawn a sword, was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners to have fled, 28 and Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "You may not do yourself any harm, for we are all here!" 29 And having asked for a light, he sprang in, and he fell down before Paul and Silas trembling, 30 and having brought them forth, said, "Lords, what must I do that I may be saved?" 31 And they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved—you and your household." 32 And they spoke to him the word of the LORD, and to all those in his household; 33 and having taken them, in that hour of the night, he bathed [them] from the blows, and immediately he and all of his were immersed, 34 having also brought them into his house, he set food before [them], and was glad with all the household, he having believed in God. 35 And day having come,

17 And having passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where the synagogue of the Jews was, 2 and according to the custom of Paul, he went in to them, and for three Sabbaths he was reasoning with them from the Writings, 3 opening and alleging that it was necessary [for] the Christ to suffer, and to rise again out of the dead, and that "this is the Christ—Jesus whom I proclaim to you." 4 And certain of them believed, and attached themselves to Paul and to Silas, also a great multitude of the worshiping Greeks, also not a few of the principal women. 5 And the Jews, having been moved with envy, and having taken to themselves certain evil men of the agitators, and having made a crowd, were setting the city in an uproar; having also assailed the house of Jason, they were seeking them to bring [them] to the populace, 6 and having not found them, they drew Jason and certain brothers to the city rulers, calling aloud, "These, having put the world in commotion, are also present here, 7 whom Jason has received; and all these do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying another to be king—Jesus." 8 And they troubled the multitude and the city rulers, hearing these things, 9 and having taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go. 10 And the brothers immediately, through the night, sent forth both Paul and Silas to Berea, who having come, went into the synagogue of the Jews; 11 and these were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all readiness of mind, examining the Writings every day [to see] whether those things were so; 12 therefore, many of them, indeed, believed, and not a few of the honorable Greek women and men. 13 And when the Jews from Thessalonica knew that also in Berea was the word of God declared by Paul, they came there also, agitating the multitudes; 14 and then immediately the brothers sent forth Paul, to go on as it were to the sea, but both Silas and Timotheus were remaining there. 15 And those conducting Paul, brought him to Athens, and having received a command to Silas and Timotheus that with all speed they may come to him, they departed; 16 and Paul with the Jews, and with the worshiping persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met with him. 18 And certain of the Epicurean and of the Stoic philosophers, were meeting together to see him, and some were saying, "What would this seed picker wish to say?" And others, "He seems to be an announcer of strange demons"; because he proclaimed to them Jesus and the resurrection as good news, 19 having also taken him, they brought [him] to the Areopagus, saying, "Are we able to know what this new teaching [is] that is spoken by you, 20 for you bring certain strange things to our ears? We resolve, then, to know what these things would wish to be"; 21 and all Athenians, and the strangers sojourning, for nothing else were at leisure but to say something, and to hear some newer thing. 22 And Paul, having stood in the midst of the Areopagus, said, "Men, Athenians, in all things I perceive you as over-religious; 23 for passing through and contemplating your objects of worship, I also found an altar on which had been inscribed: To God—unknown; whom, therefore—not knowing—you worship, this One I announce to you. 24 God, who made the world, and all things in it, this One, being Lord of Heaven and of earth, does not dwell in temples made with hands, 25 neither is He served by the hands of men—needing anything, He giving life to all, and breath, and all things; 26 He also made every nation of man of one blood, to dwell on all the face of the earth—having ordained times before appointed, and the bounds of their dwellings—27 to seek the LORD, if perhaps they felt after Him and found, though, indeed, He is not far from each one of us, 28 for in Him we live, and move, and are; as certain of your poets have also said: For we are also His offspring. 29 Being, therefore, offspring of God, we ought not to think the Godhead to be like gold, or silver, or stone, [an] engraving of art and imagination of man; 30 therefore indeed God, having overlooked the times of ignorance, now commands a day in which He is about to judge the world in righteousness, by a Man whom He ordained, having given assurance to all, having raised Him out of the dead." 32 And having heard of a resurrection of the him, beholding the city wholly given to idolatry, 17 dead, some, indeed, were mocking, but others said, therefore, indeed, he was reasoning in the synagogue "We will hear you again concerning this"; 33 and so Paul went forth from the midst of them, 34 and certain men having cleaved to him, believed, among whom [is] also Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman, by name Damaris, and others with them.

18 And after these things, Paul having departed out of Athens, came to Corinth, 2 and having found a certain Jew, by name Aquilas, of Pontus by birth, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla—because of Claudius having directed all the Jews to depart out of Rome—he came to them, 3 and because of being of the same craft, he remained with them, and was working, for they were tentmakers as to craft; 4 and he was reasoning in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading both Jews and Greeks. 5 And when both Silas and Timotheus came down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the Spirit, testifying fully to the Jews Jesus the Christ; 6 and on their resisting and slandering, having shaken [his] garments, he said to them, "Your blood [is] on your head—I am clean; from now on I will go on to the nations." 7 And having departed from there, he went to the house of a certain one, by name Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house was adjoining the synagogue, 8 and Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue believed in the LORD with all his house, and many of the Corinthians hearing were believing, and they were being immersed. 9 And the LORD said through a vision in the night to Paul, "Do not be afraid, but be speaking and you may not be silent; 10 because I am with you, and no one will set on you to do evil [to] you, because I have many people in this city"; 11 and he continued a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. 12 28 for he was powerfully refuting the Jews publicly, And Gallio being proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a rush with one accord on Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 saying, "This one persuades men to worship God against the Law"; 14 and Paul being about to open [his] mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If, indeed, then, it was anything unrighteous, or an act of wicked recklessness, O Jews, according to reason I had borne with you, 15 but if it is a question concerning words and names, and of your law, look [to it] yourselves, for I do not intend to be a judge of these things," 16 and he drives them from the judgment seat; 17 and all the Greeks having taken Sosthenes, the chief man of the synagogue, were beating [him] before the judgment seat, and Gallio was not even caring for these things. 18 And Paul having remained yet a good many days, having taken leave of the brothers, was sailing to Syria—and with him [are] Priscilla and Aquilas—having shorn [his] head in Cenchera, for he had a vow; 19 and he came down to Ephesus, and left them there, and he himself having entered into the synagogue reasoned with the Jews: 20 and they having requested [him] to remain a longer time with them, he did not consent, 21 but took leave of them, saying, "It is necessary for me by all means to keep the coming celebration at Jerusalem, and again I will return to you—God willing." And he sailed from Ephesus, 22 and having come down to Caesarea, having gone up, and having greeted the assembly, he went down to Antioch. 23 And having stayed some time, he went forth, going successively through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples. 24 And a certain Jew, Apollos by name, an Alexandrian by birth, a man of eloquence, being mighty in the Writings, came to Ephesus; 25 this one was instructed in the way of the LORD, and being fervent in the Spirit, was speaking and teaching exactly the things about the LORD, knowing only the immersion of John; 26 this one also began to speak boldly in the synagogue, and Aquilas and Priscilla having heard of him, took him to [them], and more exactly set forth to him The Way of God, 27 and he resolving to go through into Achaia, the brothers wrote to the disciples, having exhorted them to receive him, who having come, helped them much who have believed through grace, showing through the Writings Jesus to be the Christ.

19 And it came to pass, in Apollos being in Corinth, Paul having gone through the upper parts, came to Ephesus, and having found certain disciples, 2 he said to them, "Having believed, did you receive the Holy Spirit?" And they said to him, "But we did not even hear whether there is any Holy Spirit"; 3 and he said to them, "Into what, then, were you immersed?" And they said, "Into John's immersion." 4 And Paul said, "John, indeed, immersed with an immersion of conversion, saying to the people that they should believe in Him who is coming after him—that is, in the Christ—Jesus"; 5 and they, having heard, were immersed into the Name of the Lord Jesus, 6 and Paul having laid [his] hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, they were also speaking with tongues, and prophesying, 7 and all the men were, as it were, twelve. 8 And having gone into the synagogue, he was speaking boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading the things concerning the Kingdom of God, 9 and when certain were hardened and were disbelieving, speaking evil of The Way before the multitude, having departed from them, he separated the disciples, reasoning every day in the school of a certain Tyrannus. 10 And this happened for two years so that all those dwelling in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks, 11 also mighty works—not common—God was working through the hands of Paul, 12 so that even to the ailing were brought from his body handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them; the evil spirits also went forth from them. 13 And certain of the wandering exorcist Jews, took on [them] to name over those having the evil spirits the Name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preaches"; 14 and there were certain—seven sons of Sceva, a Jew, a chief priest—who are doing this thing; 15 and the evil spirit, answering, said, "I know Jesus, and I am acquainted with Paul; and you—who are you?" 16 And the man, in whom was the evil spirit, leaping on them, and having overcome them, prevailed against them, so that they fled naked and wounded out of that house, 17 and this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who are dwelling at Ephesus, and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified; 18 many also known that he is a Jew, one voice came out of all, of those who believed were coming, confessing and declaring their acts, 19 and many of those who had practiced the superfluous arts, having brought the scrolls together, were burning [them] before all; and they reckoned together the prices of them, and found [it] fifty thousand pieces of silver, 20 so powerfully was the word of God increasing and prevailing. 21 And Artemis, and of that which fell down from Zeus? 36 when these things were fulfilled, Paul purposed in the Spirit, having gone through Macedonia and Achaia, to go on to Jerusalem, saying, "After my being there, it is also necessary for me to see Rome"; 22 and having sent to Macedonia two of those ministering to him—Timotheus and Erastus—he himself stayed a time in Asia. 23 And there came, at that time, not a little stir about The Way, 24 for a certain one, Demetrius by name, a worker in silver, making silver sanctuaries of Artemis, was bringing to the craftsmen not a little gain, 25 whom, having brought in a crowd together, and those who worked around such things, he said, "Men, you know that by this work we have our wealth; 26 and you see and hear, that not only to make defense to the populace, 34 and having known that he is a Jew, one voice came out of all, for about two hours, crying, "Great [is] the Artemis practiced the superfluous arts, having brought the Ephesians!" 35 And the public clerk having quieted the multitude, says, "Men, Ephesians, why, who is the man that does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of that which fell down from Zeus? 36 These things, then, being undeniable, it is necessary for you to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly. 37 For you brought these men, who are neither temple-robbers nor slandering of your goddess; 38 if indeed, therefore, Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a matter with anyone, court [days] are held, and there a time with anyone, court [days] are held, and there a time in Asia. 23 And there came, at that time, are proconsuls; let them accuse one another. 39 And not a little stir about The Way, 24 for a certain one, if you seek after anything concerning other matters, it will be determined in the legal assembly; 40 for we are also in peril of being accused of insurrection in regard to this day, there being no occasion by which we will be able to give an account of this concourse"; 41 and having said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

at Ephesus, but almost in all Asia, this Paul, having persuaded, turned away a great multitude, saying that they who are made by hands are not gods; 27 and not only is this department in danger for us of coming into disregard, but also, that of the great goddess Artemis, the temple is to be reckoned for nothing, and also her greatness is about to be brought down, whom all Asia and the world worships." 28 And having heard, and having become full of wrath, they were crying out, saying, "Great [is] the Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29 And the whole city was filled with confusion; they rushed also with one accord into the theater, having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians, Paul's fellow-travelers. 30 And on Paul's resolving to enter in to the populace, the disciples were not permitting him, 31 and also some of the chief men of Asia, being his friends, having sent to him, were pleading [with] him not to venture into the theater himself. 32 Some indeed, therefore, were calling out one thing, and some another, for the assembly was confused, and the greater part did not know for what they had come together; 33 and out of the multitude they put forward Alexander—the Jews thrusting him forward—and Alexander having beckoned with the hand, wished

20 And after the ceasing of the tumult, Paul having called near the disciples, and having embraced [them], went forth to go on to Macedonia; 2 and having gone through those parts, and having exhorted them with many words, he came to Greece; 3 and having continued three months—a counsel of the Jews having been against him—being about to set forth to Syria, there came [to him] a resolution of returning through Macedonia. 4 And there were accompanying him to Asia, Sopater of Pyrrhus from Berea, and of Thessalonians Aristarchus and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asians Tychicus and Trophimus; 5 these, having gone before, remained for us in Troas, 6 and we sailed, after the days of the Unleavened [Bread], from Philippi, and came to them to Troas in five days, where we abided seven days. 7 And on the first [day] of the weeks, the disciples having been gathered together to break bread, Paul was discoursing to them, about to depart on the next day, he was also continuing the discourse until midnight, 8 and there were many lamps in the upper chamber where they were gathered together, 9 and there a certain youth was sitting, by name Eutychus, on the window—being borne down by a deep sleep,

Paul discoursing long—he having sunk down from yourselves, and to all the flock, among which the Holy sleep, fell down from the third story, and was Spirit made you overseers, to feed the Assembly of lifted up dead. 10 And Paul, having gone down, fell God that He acquired through His own blood, 29 for on him, and having embraced [him], said, "Make no I have known this, that there will enter in, after my tumult, for his life is in him"; 11 and having come up, departing, grievous wolves to you, not sparing the and having broken bread, and having tasted, for a flock, 30 and there will arise men of your own selves, long time also having talked—until daylight, so he speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples went forth, 12 and they brought up the boy alive, and after them. 31 Therefore, watch, remembering that were comforted in no ordinary measure. 13 And we three years, night and day, I did not cease with tears having gone before to the ship, sailed to Assos, there warning each one; 32 and now, I commend you, intending to take in Paul, for so he had arranged, brothers, to God, and to the word of His grace, that intending himself to go on foot; 14 and when he met is able to build up, and to give you an inheritance with us at Assos, having taken him up, we came to among all those sanctified. 33 I coveted the silver or Mitylene, 15 and there having sailed, on the next day gold or clothing of no one; 34 and you yourselves we came opposite Chios, and the next day we arrived know that to my necessities, and to those who were at Samos, and having remained in Trogyllium, on the with me, these hands ministered; 35 I showed you all following day we came to Miletus, 16 for Paul decided things, that, thus laboring, it is necessary to partake to sail past Ephesus, that there may not be to him a with the ailing, to also be mindful of the words of the loss of time in Asia, for he was hurrying, if it were Lord Jesus, that He Himself said: It is more blessed possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of to give than to receive." 36 And having said these the Pentecost. 17 And from Miletus, having sent to things, having bowed his knees, with them all, he Ephesus, he called for the elders of the assembly, 18 prayed, 37 and there came a great weeping to all, and and when they were come to him, he said to them, having fallen on the neck of Paul, they were kissing "You know from the first day in which I came to Asia, him, 38 sorrowing most of all for the word that he had how I was with you at all times; 19 serving the LORD said—that they are about to see his face no longer; with all humility, and many tears, and temptations, that and they were accompanying him to the ship.

befell me in the counsels of the Jews against [me]; 20 how I kept back nothing of what things are profitable, not to declare to you, and to teach you publicly, and in every house, 21 testifying fully both to Jews and Greeks, conversion toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ. 22 And now, behold, I—bound in the Spirit—go on to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that will befall me in it, 23 except that the Holy Spirit fully testifies in every city, saying that bonds and tribulations remain for me; 24 but I make account of none of these, neither do I count my life precious to myself, so that I finish my course with joy, and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify [to] the good news of the grace of God. 25 And now, behold, I have known that you will no longer see my face, among all you [to] whom I went preaching the Kingdom of God; 26 for this reason I take you to witness this day, that I [am] clear from the blood of all, 27 for I did not keep back from declaring to you all the counsel of God. 28 Take heed, therefore, to

21 And it came to pass, at our sailing, having been parted from them, having run direct, we came to Coos, and the succeeding [day] to Rhodes, and there to Patara, 2 and having found a ship passing over to Phoenicia, having gone on board, we sailed, 3 and having discovered Cyprus, and having left it on the left, we were sailing to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there was the ship discharging the cargo. 4 And having found out the disciples, we tarried there seven days, and they said to Paul, through the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem; 5 but when it came that we completed the days, having gone forth, we went on, all bringing us on the way, with women and children, to the outside of the city, and having bowed the knees on the shore, we prayed, 6 and having embraced one another, we embarked in the ship, and they returned to their own friends. 7 And we, having finished the course, from Tyre came down to Ptolemais, and having greeted the brothers, we remained one day with them; 8 and on the next day

Paul and his company having gone forth, we came to Caesarea, and having entered into the house of Philip who have believed, we have written, having given the evangelist—who is of the seven—we remained to keep themselves both from idol-sacrifices, and with him, ⁹ and this one had four daughters, virgins, blood, and a strangled thing, and whoredom.” ²⁶ Then prophesying. ¹⁰ And we remaining many more days, Paul, having taken the men, on the following day, there came down a certain one from Judea, a prophet, having purified himself with them, was entering into by name Agabus, ¹¹ and he having come to us, the temple, announcing the fulfilment of the days of and having taken up the girdle of Paul, having also bound his own hands and feet, said, “Thus says the one of them. ²⁷ And as the seven days were about to Holy Spirit: The man whose is this girdle—so will be fully ended, the Jews from Asia having beheld him the Jews in Jerusalem bind, and they will deliver in the temple, were stirring up all the multitude, and [him] up into the hands of nations.” ¹² And when we heard these things, we called on [him]—both we, and those of that place—not to go up to Jerusalem, the Law, and this place, is teaching all everywhere; ¹³ and Paul answered, “Why are you weeping, and crushing my heart? For I am ready, not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the Name of the Lord Jesus”; ¹⁴ and he not being persuaded, whom they were supposing that Paul brought into we were silent, saying, “The will of the LORD be done.” ¹⁵ And after these days, having taken [our] vessels, we were going up to Jerusalem, ¹⁶ and there went also of the disciples from Caesarea with us, bringing with them him with whom we may lodge, a certain Mnason of Cyprus, an aged disciple. ¹⁷ And we having come to Jerusalem, the brothers gladly received us, ¹⁸ and on the next day Paul was going through his ministry, ¹⁹ and having seen the chief captain and the soldiers, left having greeted them, he was expounding, one by one, each of the things God did among the nations to be carried into the stronghold, ²⁰ and they having heard, were taught concerning you, that you nations, saying not to circumcise the children, nor to walk after the customs; ²¹ and they are instructed concerning you, that you must come together, for they will hear that you have come. ²² This, therefore, that we say to you, do. We have four men having a vow to be purified with them, and be at expense with them, that they may shave the head, and all may know that the things of which they have been instructed concerning you are nothing, but you walk—yourself also—keeping the desert?” ²³ And Paul being about to you, do. We have four men having a vow to be led into the stronghold, says to the chief captain, themselves, ²⁴ having taken these, be purified with “Is it permitted to me to say anything to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek? ²⁵ Are you not, then, the Egyptian who made an uprising before these days, of which they have been instructed concerning you and led the four thousand men of the assassins into are nothing, but you walk—yourself also—keeping the desert?” ²⁶ And Paul said, “I, indeed, am a man, the Law. ²⁷ And concerning those of the nations a Jew, of Tarsus of Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city; and I implore you, permit me to speak to the people." 40 And he having given him leave, Paul having stood on the stairs, beckoned with the hand to the people, and there having been a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew dialect, saying:

22 "Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defense now to you." 2 and they having heard that he was speaking to them in the Hebrew dialect, they became even more silent, and he says, 3 "I, indeed, am a man, a Jew, having been born in Tarsus of Cilicia, and brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, having been taught according to the exactness of a law of the fathers, being zealous of God, as all you are today. 4 And this Way I persecuted to death, binding and delivering up to prisons both men and women, 5 as also the chief priest testifies to me, and all the eldership; from whom also having received letters to the brothers, to Damascus, I was going on, to bring also those there bound to Jerusalem that they might be punished, 6 and it came to pass, in my going on and coming near to Damascus, about noon, suddenly out of Heaven there shone a great light around me; 7 I also fell to the ground, and I heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me? 8 And I answered, Who are You, Lord? And He said to me, I am Jesus the Nazarene whom you persecute— 9 and they who are with me saw the light, and became afraid, and they did not hear the voice of Him who is speaking to me— 10 and I said, What will I do, Lord? And the LORD said to me, Having risen, go on to Damascus, and there it will be told you concerning all things that have been appointed for you to do. 11 And when I did not see from the glory of that light, being led by the hand by those who are with me, I came to Damascus, 12 and a certain one, Ananias, a pious man according to the Law, being testified to by all the Jews dwelling [there], 13 having come to me and stood by [me], said to me, Saul, brother, look up; and the same hour I looked up to him; 14 and he said, The God of our fathers chose you beforehand to know His will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice out of His mouth, 15 because you will be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard; 16 and now, why do you linger? Having immerse yourself, and wash away your sins, calling on the Name of the LORD. 17 And it came to pass, when I returned to Jerusalem, and while I was praying in the temple, I came into a trance, 18 and I saw Him saying to me, Hurry and go forth in haste out of Jerusalem, because they will not receive your testimony concerning Me; 19 and I said, LORD, they know that I was imprisoning and was scourging those believing on You in every synagogue; 20 and when the blood of your witness Stephen was being poured forth, I was also standing by and assenting to his death, and keeping the garments of those putting him to death; 21 and He said to me, Go, because I will send you to far-off nations." 22 And they were hearing him to this word, and they lifted up their voice, saying, "Away from the earth with such a one; for it is not fit for him to live." 23 And they crying out and casting up their garments, and throwing dust into the air, 24 the chief captain commanded him to be brought into the stronghold, saying, "Let him be examined by scourges," that he might know for what cause they were crying so against him. 25 And as he was stretching him with the straps, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful to you to scourge a man, a Roman, uncondemned?" 26 And the centurion having heard, having gone near to the chief captain, told, saying, "Take heed what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman"; 27 and the chief captain having come near, said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes"; 28 and the chief captain answered, "I, with a great sum, obtained this citizenship"; but Paul said, "But I have even been born [so]." 29 Immediately, therefore, they departed from him, those being about to examine him, and the chief captain was also afraid, having learned that he is a Roman, and because he had bound him, 30 and the next day, intending to know the certainty for what reason he is accused by the Jews, he loosed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all their Sanhedrin to come, and having brought down Paul, he set [him] before them.

23 And Paul having earnestly beheld the Sanhedrin, said, "Men, brothers, I have lived to God in all good conscience to this day"; 2 and the chief priest Ananias commanded those standing by him to strike him on the mouth, 3 then Paul said to him, "God is risen, immerse yourself, and wash away your sins, sit judging me according to the Law, and violating law, order me to be struck!" 4 And those who stood by said, "Do you revile the chief priest of God?" 5 And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he is chief priest, for it has been written: You will not speak to tell me?" 6 And he said, "The Jews agreed to evil of the ruler of your people"; 7 and Paul having known that one part are Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, cried out in the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, more exactly concerning him; 8 you, therefore, may I am a Pharisee—son of a Pharisee—concerning [the] them lie in wait for him, who cursed themselves—not And he having spoken this, there came a dissension to eat nor to drink until they kill him, and now they are of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees, and the ready, waiting for the promise from you." 9 The chief crowd was divided, 10 for Sadducees, indeed, say captain, then, indeed, let the young man go, having there is no resurrection, nor messenger, nor spirit, charged [him], "Tell no one that you have shown but Pharisees confess both. 11 And there came these things to me"; 12 and having called a certain great cry, and the scribes of the Pharisees' part two of the centurions near, he said, "Make ready two having arisen, were striving, saying, "We find no hundred soldiers, that they may go on to Caesarea, evil in this man; and if a spirit spoke to him, or a and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, messenger, we may not fight against God"; 13 and from the third hour of the night; 14 also provide a great dissension having come, the chief captain beasts, that, having set Paul on, they may bring him having been afraid lest Paul may be pulled to pieces safe to Felix the governor"; 15 he having written a by them, commanded the army, having gone down, to letter after this description: 16 "Claudius Lysias, to the seize him out of their midst, and to bring [him] into the most noble governor Felix, greetings: 17 This man stronghold. 18 And on the following night, the LORD having been taken by the Jews, and being about having stood by him, said, "Take courage, Paul, for to be killed by them—having come with the army, I as you fully testified [to] the things concerning Me at rescued him, having learned that he is a Roman; 19 Jerusalem, so you must also testify at Rome." 20 And and intending to know the cause for which they were day having come, certain of the Jews having made accusing him, I brought him down to their Sanhedrin, a concourse, cursed themselves, saying neither to 21 whom I found accused concerning questions of eat nor to drink until they may kill Paul; 22 and they their law, and having no accusation worthy of death were more than forty who made this conspiracy by or bonds; 23 and a plot having been intimated to me oath, 24 who having come near to the chief priests against this man—about to be of the Jews—I sent and to the elders said, "With a curse we accused to you at once, having also given command to the ourselves—to taste nothing until we have killed Paul; accusers to say the things against him before you; be 25 now, therefore, you, signify to the chief captain, strong." 26 Then, indeed, the soldiers according to with the Sanhedrin, that tomorrow he may bring him that directed them, having taken up Paul, brought down to you, as being about to know more exactly him through the night to Antipatris, 27 and on the the things concerning him; and we, before his coming next day, having permitted the horsemen to go on near, are ready to put him to death." 28 And the son of with him, they returned to the stronghold; 29 those Paul's sister having heard of the lying in wait, having having entered into Caesarea, and delivered the gone and entered into the stronghold, told Paul, 30 letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him. and Paul having called near one of the centurions, 31 And the governor having read [it], and inquired said, "Lead this young man to the chief captain, for of what province he is, and understood that [he is] he has something to tell him." 32 He indeed, then, from Cilicia; 33 "I will hear you," he said, "when your having taken him, brought him to the chief captain accusers may also have come"; he also commanded and says, "The prisoner Paul, having called me near, him to be kept in the Praetorium of Herod.

25 Festus, therefore, having come into the province,
after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea, 2 and the chief priest and the principal men of the Jews disclosed to him [the things] against Paul,
and were calling on him, 3 asking favor against him,
that he may send for him to Jerusalem, making an ambush to put him to death in the way. 4 Then, indeed, Festus answered that Paul is kept in Caesarea, and is himself about to go forth speedily, 5 “Therefore those able among you,” he says, “having come down
together, if there be anything in this man—let them
accuse him”; 6 and having tarried among them more than ten days, having gone down to Caesarea, on the next day having sat on the judgment seat, he commanded Paul to be brought; 7 and he having come, there stood around the Jews who have come down from Jerusalem—many and weighty charges
they are bringing against Paul, which they were not able to prove, 8 he making defense, [said.]
“Neither in regard to the Law of the Jews, nor in regard to the temple, nor in regard to Caesar—did audience chamber, with the chief captains also, and I commit any sin.” 9 And Festus willing to lay on the principal men of the city, and Festus having the Jews a favor, answering Paul, said, “Are you ordered—Paul was brought forth. 24 And Festus said, willing, having gone up to Jerusalem, to be judged “King Agrippa, and all men who are present with us, before me there concerning these things?” 10 And you see this one, about whom all the multitude of Paul said, “At the judgment seat of Caesar I am the Jews dealt with me, both in Jerusalem and here, standing, where it is necessary for me to be judged; I crying out, He ought not to live any longer; 25 and did no unrighteousness to Jews, as you also very well I, having found him to have done nothing worthy know; 11 for if I am indeed unrighteous, and have of death, and he also himself having appealed to done anything worthy of death, I do not deprecate to Sebastus, I decided to send him, 26 concerning whom die; and if there is none of the things of which these I have no certain thing to write to [my] lord, for what accuse me, no one is able to make a favor of me to reason I brought him forth before you, and especially them; I appeal to Caesar!” 12 Then Festus, having before you, King Agrippa, that the examination having communed with the council, answered, “To Caesar been made, I may have something to write; 27 for it you have appealed; to Caesar you will go.” 13 And seems to me irrational, sending a prisoner, not to also certain days having passed, Agrippa the king, and signify the charges against him.”

Bernice, came down to Caesarea greeting Festus, 14 and as they were continuing there more days, Festus submitted to the king the things concerning Paul, saying, “There is a certain man, left by Felix, a prisoner, 15 about whom, in my being at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid information, asking a decision against him, 16 to whom I answered, that it is not a custom of Romans to make a favor of any man to die, before that he who is accused may have the accusers face to face, and may receive place of defense in regard to the charge laid against [him]. 17 They, therefore, having come together—I, making no delay, on the succeeding [day] having sat on the judgment seat, commanded the man to be brought, 18 concerning whom the accusers, having stood up, were bringing against [him] no accusation of the things I was thinking of, 19 but certain questions concerning their own religion they had against him, and concerning a certain Jesus who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive; 20 and I, doubting in regard to the question concerning this, asked if he was willing to go on to Jerusalem, and to be judged there concerning these things— 21 but Paul having appealed to be kept to the hearing of Sebastus, I commanded him to be kept until I might send him to Caesar.” 22 And Agrippa said to Festus, “I was also intending to hear the man myself”; and he said, “Tomorrow you will hear him”; 23 on the next day, therefore—on the coming of Agrippa and Bernice with much display, and they having entered into the

26 And Agrippa said to Paul, “It is permitted to you to speak for yourself”; then Paul having stretched forth the hand, was making a defense: 2 “Concerning all things of which I am accused by Jews, King Agrippa, I have thought myself blessed, being about to make a defense before you today, 3 especially knowing you to be acquainted with all things—both customs and questions—among Jews; for this reason, I implore you to hear me patiently. 4 The manner of my life then, indeed, from youth—which from the beginning was among my nation, in Jerusalem—all the Jews know, 5 knowing me before from the first (if they may be willing to testify), that after the most exact sect of our worship, I lived a Pharisee; 6 and now for the hope of the promise made to the fathers by God, I have stood judged, 7 to which our twelve tribes, intently serving night and day, hope to come, concerning which hope I am accused, King Agrippa, by the Jews; 8 why is it judged incredible with you if God raises the dead? 9 I indeed, therefore, thought with myself that it was necessary [for me] to do many things against the Name of Jesus of Nazareth, 10 which I also did in Jerusalem, and I shut up many of the holy ones in prison, having received the authority from the chief priests; they also being put to death, I gave my vote against them, 11 and in every synagogue, often punishing them, I was constraining [them] to speak evil, being also exceedingly mad against them, I was also persecuting [them] even to strange cities. 12

against goads! 15 And I said, Who are You, Lord? And He said, I am Jesus whom you persecute; 16 but rise, and stand on your feet, for this I appeared to you, to appoint you an officer and a witness both of the things you saw, and of the things [in which] I will appear to you, 17 delivering you from the people, and the nations, to whom I now send you, 18 to open their eyes, to turn [them] from darkness to light, and [from] the authority of Satan to God, for their receiving forgiveness of sins, and a lot among those having been sanctified by faith that [is] toward Me. 19 After which, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but to those in Damascus first, and to those in Jerusalem, also to all the region of Judea, and to the nations, I was preaching to convert, and to turn back to God, doing works worthy of conversion; 21 because of these things the Jews—having caught me in the temple—were endeavoring to kill [me]. 22 Having obtained, therefore, help from God, until this day, I have stood witnessing both to small and to great, saying nothing besides the things that both the prophets and Moses spoke of as about to come, 23 that the Christ is to suffer, whether first by a resurrection from the dead, He is about to proclaim light to the people and to the nations.” 24 And he thus making a defense, Festus said with a loud voice, “You are mad, Paul; much learning turns you mad!” 25 And he says, “I am not mad, most noble Festus, but of truth and soberness I speak forth the sayings; 26 for the king knows concerning these things, before whom I also speak boldly, for none of these things, I am persuaded, are hidden from him; for this thing has not been done in a corner; 27 do you believe, King Agrippa, the prophets? I have known that you believe!” 28 And Agrippa said to Paul, “In [so] little you persuade me to become a Christian?” 29 And Paul said, “I would have wished to God, both in a little, and in much, not only you, but also all those hearing me

27 And when our sailing to Italy was determined, they were delivering up both Paul and certain others, prisoners, to a centurion, by name Julius, of the band of Sebastus, 2 and having embarked in a ship of Adramyttium, we, being about to sail by the coasts of Asia, set sail, there being with us Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, 3 on the next [day] also we touched at Sidon, and Julius, courteously treating Paul, permitted [him], having gone on to friends, to receive [their] care. 4 And there, having set sail, we sailed under Cyprus, because of the winds being contrary, 5 and having sailed over the sea down by Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myria of Lycia, 6 and there the centurion having found a ship of Alexandria, sailing to Italy, put us into it, 7 and having sailed slowly many days, and with difficulty coming down by Cnidus, the wind not permitting us, we sailed under Crete, down by Salmone, 8 and hardly passing it, we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near to which was the city of Lasaea. 9 And much time being spent, and the sailing now being dangerous—because of the fast also being already past—Paul was admonishing, 10 saying to them, “Men, I perceive that with hurt, and much damage, not only of the load and of the ship, but also of our lives—the voyage is about to be”; 11 but the centurion gave more credence to the pilot and to the shipowner than to the things spoken by Paul; 12 and the haven being not well placed to winter in, the greater part gave counsel to sail from there, if somehow they might be able, having attained to Phoenix, to winter [there], [which is] a haven of Crete, looking to the southwest and northwest, 13 and a south wind blowing softly, having thought they had obtained [their] purpose, having lifted anchor, they sailed close by Crete, 14 and not long after, there came down from it a turbulent wind [that] is called the Euroclydon, 15 and the ship being caught, and not being able to bear up against the wind, having given this reason I call on you to take nourishment, for [her] up, we were carried on, 16 and having run under this is for your safety, for of not one of you will a certain little island called Clauda, we were hardly able to become masters of the boat, 17 which having taken up, they were using helps, undergirding the ship, and fearing lest they may fall into the [sandbars] Syrtis, having let down the mast—so were carried ship with our own hands, 20 and neither sun nor stars appearing for more days, and not a little storm lying on us, from then on all hope was taken away of our then Paul having stood in the midst of them, said, “It was necessary, indeed, O men—having listened to me—not to set sail from Crete, and to save this hurt and damage; 22 and now I exhort you to be of good cheer, for there will be no loss of life among you—but messenger of God—whose I am, and whom I serve—24 saying, Do not be afraid Paul; it is necessary for you to stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted to you all those sailing with you; 25 for this reason be of good cheer, men! For I believe God, that so it will be, even as it has been spoken to me, 26 and on a certain island it is necessary for us to be cast.” 27 And when the fourteenth night came—we being carried up and down in the Adria—toward the middle of the night the sailors were supposing that some country drew near to them; 28 and having sounded they found twenty fathoms, and having gone a little farther, and again having sounded, they found fifteen fathoms, 29 and fearing lest we may fall on rough places, having cast four anchors out of the stern, they were wishing day to come. 30 And the sailors seeking to flee out of the ship, and having let down the boat to the sea, in pretense as [if] out of the prow they are about to cast anchors, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, “If these do not remain in the ship—you are not able to be saved”; 32 then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and permitted it to fall off. 33 And until the day was about to be, Paul was calling on all to partake of nourishment, saying, “Fourteen days today, waiting, you continue fasting, having taken nothing, 34 for hair fall from the head”; 35 and having said these things, and having taken bread, he gave thanks to God before all, and having broken [it], he began to eat; 36 and all having become of good cheer, also in the ship—two hundred, seventy-six), 38 and having lightening and on the third [day] we cast out the tackling of the ship, casting forth the wheat into the sea. 39 And when the day came, they were not discerning the land, but were perceiving a certain bay having a beach, into which they took counsel, if possible, to thrust forward the ship, 40 and having taken up the anchors, they were committing [it] to the sea, at the same time—having loosed the bands of the rudders, and having hoisted up the foresail to the wind—they were making for the shore, 41 and having fallen into a place of two seas, they ran the ship aground, and the prow, indeed, having stuck fast, remained immovable, but the stern was broken by the violence of the waves. 42 And the soldiers’ counsel was that they should kill the prisoners, lest anyone having swam out should escape, 43 but the centurion, resolving to save Paul, hindered them from having cast themselves out first—to get to the land, 44 and the rest, some indeed on boards, and some on certain things of the ship; and thus it came to pass that all came safe to the land.

28 And having been saved, then they knew that the island is called Malta, 2 and the foreigners were showing us no ordinary kindness, for having kindled a fire, they received us all, because of the pressing rain, and because of the cold; 3 but Paul having gathered together a quantity of sticks, and having laid [them] on the fire, a viper—having come out of the heat—fastened on his hand. 4 And when the foreigners saw the beast hanging from his hand, they said to one another, “Certainly this man is a murderer, whom, having been saved out of the sea, the justice did not permit to live”; 5 he then, indeed, having shaken off the beast into the fire, suffered no evil, 6 and they were expecting him to be about to be inflamed, or to suddenly fall down dead, and they, expecting [it] a long time, and seeing nothing uncommon happening to him, changing [their] minds, think, for indeed, concerning this sect it is known said he was a god. 7 And in the neighborhood of that to us that it is spoken against everywhere"; 23 and place were lands of the principal man of the island, by having appointed him a day, more of them came to name Publius, who, having received us, courteously him, to the lodging, to whom he was setting [it] forth, lodged [us for] three days; 8 and it came to pass, the testifying fully the Kingdom of God, persuading them father of Publius was lying, oppressed with fevers also of the things concerning Jesus, both from the and dysentery, to whom Paul, having entered and Law of Moses, and the Prophets, from morning until having prayed, having laid [his] hands on him, healed evening, 24 and some, indeed, were believing the him; 9 this, therefore, being done, also the others things spoken, and some were not believing. 25 And in the island having sicknesses were coming and not being agreed with one another, they were going were healed; 10 who also honored us with many away, Paul having spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit honors, and we setting sail—they were loading [us] spoke well through Isaiah the prophet to our fathers, with the things that were necessary. 11 And after three 26 saying, Go on to this people and say, With hearing months, we set sail in a ship (that had wintered in the you will hear, and you will not understand, and seeing island) of Alexandria, with the sign Dioscuri, 12 and you will see, and you will not perceive, 27 for the having landed at Syracuse, we remained three days, heart of this people was made obtuse, and with the 13 there having gone around, we came to Rhegium, ears they barely heard, and they closed their eyes, and after one day, a south wind having sprung up, the lest they may see with the eyes, and may understand second [day] we came to Puteoli, 14 where, having with the heart, and should turn, and I may heal them. found brothers, we were called on to remain with 28 Be it known, therefore, to you, that the salvation of them seven days, and thus we came to Rome; 15 and God was sent to the nations, these also will hear it"; there, the brothers having heard the things concerning 29 [[and he having said these things, the Jews went us, came forth to meet us, as far as [the] Forum of away, having much debate among themselves;]] 30 Appius, and Three Taverns—whom Paul having seen, and Paul remained an entire two years in his own having given thanks to God, took courage. 16 And hired [house], and was receiving all those coming when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered up in to him, 31 preaching the Kingdom of God, and the prisoners to the captain of the barracks, but Paul teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ was permitted to remain by himself, with the soldier with all boldness—unforbidden.

guarding him. 17 And it came to pass after three days, Paul called together those who are the principal men of the Jews, and they having come together, he said to them: "Men, brothers, I—having done nothing contrary to the people, or to the customs of the fathers—a prisoner from Jerusalem, was delivered up into the hands of the Romans; 18 who having examined me, were willing to release [me], because of there being no cause of death in me, 19 and the Jews having spoken against [it], I was constrained to appeal to Caesar—not as having anything to accuse my nation of; 20 for this cause, therefore, I called for you to see and to speak with [you], for because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain." 21 And they said to him, "We neither received letters concerning you from Judea, nor did anyone who came of the brothers declare or speak any evil concerning you, 22 and we think it good from you to hear what you

Romans

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, a called apostle, having been separated to the good news of God, 2 which He announced before through His prophets in holy writings, 3 concerning His Son—who has come of the seed of David according to the flesh, 4 who is marked out [as the] Son of God in power, according to the Spirit of sanctification, by the resurrection from the dead—Jesus Christ our Lord; 5 through whom we received grace and apostleship, for obedience of faith among all the nations, in behalf of His Name; 6 among whom are also you, the called of Jesus Christ; 7 to all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called holy ones: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 8 First, indeed, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is proclaimed in the whole world; 9 for God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the good news of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you, 10 always in my prayers imploring, if by any means now at length I will have a prosperous journey, by the will of God, to come to you, 11 for I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, that you may be established; 12 and that is, that I may be comforted together among you, through faith in one another, both yours and mine. 13 And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that many times I purposed to come to you—and was hindered until the present time—that some fruit I might have also among you, even as also among the other nations. 14 Both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to wise and to thoughtless, I am a debtor, 15 so, as much as in me is, I am ready also to you who [are] in Rome to proclaim good news, 16 for I am not ashamed of the good news of the Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation to everyone who is believing, both to Jew first, and to Greek. 17 For the righteousness of God in it is revealed from faith to faith, according as it has been written: “And the righteous one will live by faith,” 18 for the wrath of God is revealed from Heaven on all impiety and unrighteousness of men, holding down the truth in unrighteousness. 19 Because that which is known of God is revealed among them, for God revealed [it] to them, 20 for the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world, by the things made being understood, are plainly seen, both His eternal power and Godhead—to their being inexcusable; (αἰδίος g126) 21 because, having known God they did not glorify [Him] as God, nor gave thanks, but were made vain in their reasonings, and their unintelligent heart was darkened, 22 professing to be wise, they were made fools, 23 and changed the glory of the incorruptible God into the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and of quadrupeds, and of reptiles. 24 For this reason also God gave them up, in the desires of their hearts, to uncleanness, to dishonor their bodies among themselves; 25 who changed the truth of God into the lie, and honored and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed for all ages. Amen. (αἰών g165) 26 Because of this God gave them up to dishonorable affections, for even their females changed the natural use into that against nature; 27 and in like manner also the males having left the natural use of the female, burned in their longing toward one another; males with males working shame, and the repayment of their error that was fit, in themselves receiving. 28 And according as they did not approve of having God in knowledge, God gave them up to a disapproved mind, to do the things not seemly; 29 having been filled with all unrighteousness, whoredom, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil dispositions; whisperers, 30 evil-speakers, God-haters, insulting, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, 31 unintelligent, faithless, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful; 32 who the righteous judgment of God having known—that those practicing such things are worthy of death—not only do them, but also have delight with those practicing them.

2 Therefore, you are inexcusable, O man—everyone who is judging—for in that in which you judge the other, yourself you condemn, for the same things you practice who are judging, 2 and we have known that the judgment of God is according to truth, on those practicing such things. 3 And do you think this, O man, who are judging those who such things are practicing, and are doing them, that you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or the riches of His goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering, do you despise, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to conversion? 5 But according to may keep the righteousness of the Law, will not his your hardness and impenitent heart, you treasure uncircumcision be reckoned for circumcision? 27 And up wrath to yourself in [the] day of wrath and of the uncircumcision, by nature, fulfilling the Law, will the revelation of the righteous judgment of God, 6 judge you who, through letter and circumcision, [are] who will render to each according to his works; 7 to a transgressor of law. 28 For he is not a Jew who is those, indeed, who in continuance of a good work, [so] outwardly, neither [is] circumcision that which seek glory, and honor, and incorruptibility—continuous is outward in flesh; 29 but a Jew [is] he who is [so] life; (aiōnios g166) 8 and to those contentious, and inwardly, and circumcision [is] of the heart, in spirit, disobedient, indeed, to the truth, and obeying the not in letter, of which the praise is not of men, but of unrighteousness—indignation and wrath, 9 tribulation God.

and distress, on every soul of man that is working the evil, both of Jew first, and of Greek; 10 and glory, and honor, and peace, to everyone who is working the good, both to Jew first, and to Greek. 11 For there is no favor by appearance with God, 12 for as many as sinned without law, will also perish without law, and as many as sinned in law, through law will be judged, 13 for not the hearers of the Law [are] righteous before God, but the doers of the Law will be declared righteous. 14 For when nations that have no law, by nature may do the things of the Law, these not having a law—to themselves are a law, 15 who show the work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience also witnessing with them, and between one another the thoughts accusing or else defending, 16 in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my good news, through Jesus Christ. 17 Behold, you are named a Jew, and rest on the Law, and boast in God, 18 and know the will, and approve the distinctions, being instructed out of the Law, 19 and have confidence that you yourself are a leader of blind ones, a light of those in darkness, 20 a corrector of foolish ones, a teacher of babies, having the form of the knowledge and of the truth in the Law. 21 You, then, who are teaching another, do you not teach yourself? 22 You who are preaching not to steal, do you steal? You who are saying not to commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who are abhorring the idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who boast in the Law, through the transgression of the Law do you dishonor God? 24 For evil is spoken of the Name of God among the nations because of you, according as it has been written. 25 For circumcision, indeed, profits, if you may practice law, but if you may be a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 If, therefore, the uncircumcision

3 What, then, [is] the superiority of the Jew? Or what the profit of the circumcision? 2 Much in every way; for first, indeed, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God; 3 for what, if certain were faithless? Will their faithlessness make the faithfulness of God useless? 4 Let it not be! And let God become true, and every man false, according as it has been written: "That You may be declared righteous in Your words, and may overcome in Your being judged." 5 And if our unrighteousness establishes God's righteousness, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who is inflicting the wrath? (I speak after the manner of a man.) 6 Let it not be! Since how will God judge the world? 7 For if the truth of God in my falsehood abounded more to His glory, why am I also yet judged as a sinner? 8 And not, as we are spoken evil of, and as certain affirm us to say, "We may do the evil things, that the good ones may come?" Whose judgment is righteous. 9 What, then? Are we better? Not at all! For we charged before both Jews and Greeks with being all under sin, 10 according as it has been written: "There is none righteous, not even one; 11 there is none who is understanding, there is none who is seeking after God. 12 All went out of the way, together they became unprofitable, there is none doing good, there is not even one. 13 Their throat [is] an opened grave; with their tongues they used deceit; poison of cobras [is] under their lips— 14 whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness. 15 Their feet [are] swift to shed blood. 16 Ruin and misery [are] in their ways. 17 And a way of peace they did not know. 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes." 19 And we have known that as many things as the Law says, to those in the Law it speaks, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may come under judgment to God; 20 for this reason by works of law will no flesh be declared righteous before Him, for through law is a knowledge of sin. 21 And now apart from law the righteousness of God has been revealed, testified to by the Law and the Prophets, 22 and the righteousness of God [is] through the faith of Jesus Christ to all, and on all those believing—for there is no difference, 23 for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God— 24 [is] being declared righteous freely by His grace through the redemption that [is] in Christ Jesus, 25 whom God shows forth of His righteousness, for the showing forth of His righteousness, because of the passing over of the former sins in the forbearance of God— 26 for the showing forth of His righteousness in the present time, for His being righteous, and declaring him righteous who [is] of the faith of Jesus. 27 Where then [is] the boasting? It was excluded; by what law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith: 28 therefore we reckon a man to be declared righteous by faith, apart from works of law. 29 [Is He] only the God of Jews, and not also of nations? 30 Yes, also of nations; since [there is] one God who will declare righteous circumcised by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. 31 Do we then make law useless through faith? Let it not be! Indeed, we establish law.

4 What, then, will we say Abraham our father to have found, according to flesh? 2 For if Abraham was declared righteous by works, he has to boast—but not before God; 3 for what does the writing say? "And Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness"; 4 and to him who is working, the reward is not reckoned of grace, but of debt; 5 and to him who is not working, and is believing on Him who is declaring righteous the impious, his faith is reckoned for righteousness— 6 even as David also speaks of the blessedness of the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works: 7 "Blessed [are] they whose lawless acts were forgiven, And whose sins were covered; 8 Blessed [is] the man To whom the LORD may not reckon sin." 9 [Is] this blessedness, then, on the circumcision, or also on the uncircumcision—for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness? 10 How then was it reckoned? He being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision; 11 and he received a sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of faith in the uncircumcision, for his being father of all those believing through uncircumcision, for the righteousness also being reckoned to them, 12 and [is] in the uncircumcision of our father Abraham. 13 For not through law [is] the promise to Abraham, or to his seed, of his being heir of the world, but set forth [as] a propitiatory covering, through faith in His blood, for the showing forth of His righteousness, are of law [are] heirs, and the promise has been made void, because of the passing over of the former sins in and the promise has been made useless; 15 for the forbearance of God— the Law works wrath; for where law is not, neither His righteousness in the present time, for His being righteous, and declaring him righteous who [is] of that [it may be] according to grace, for the promise of the faith of Jesus. 16 Because of this [it is] of faith, righteously transgression. 17 who is father of us all (according as it has been written: "A father of many nations I have set law. 18 Who, against hope, believed in hope, for his becoming father of many nations according to quickening the dead, and is calling the things that are not as being. 19 And having not been weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already become dead (being about one hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb, 20 and at the promise of God did not stagger in unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, having given glory to God, 21 and having been fully persuaded that what He has promised He is also able to do: 22 for this reason also it was reckoned to him for righteousness. 23 And it was not written on his account alone that it was reckoned to him, 24 but also on ours, to whom it is about to be reckoned—to us believing on Him who raised up Jesus our Lord out of the dead, 25 who was delivered up because of our offenses, and was raised up because of our being declared righteous.

5 Having been declared righteous, then, by faith, we have peace toward God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom also we have the access by faith into this grace in which we have stood, and we boast on the hope of the glory of God. 3 And righteousness? 4 How then was it reckoned? He not only [so], but we also boast in the tribulations, knowing that the tribulation works endurance; 4 and circumcision, experience; and the experience, hope;

5 and the hope does not make ashamed, because through the love of God has been poured forth in our hearts by the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. 6 What, then, will we say? Will we continue in sin that grace may abound? 2 Let it not be! We who died to sin—how will we still live in it? 3 Are you ignorant that we, as many as were immersed into the impious; 7 for scarcely for a righteous man will Christ Jesus, were immersed into His death? 4 We For in our being still ailing, Christ in due time died for anyone die, for the good man perhaps someone also were buried together, then, with Him through the dares to die; 8 and God commands His own love to immersion into death, that even as Christ was raised us, that, in our being still sinners, Christ died for us; 9 up out of the dead through the glory of the Father, so much more, then, having been declared righteous we also might walk in newness of life. 5 For if we have now in His blood, we will be saved through Him from become planted together to the likeness of His death, the wrath; 10 for if, being enemies, we have been reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much that our old man was crucified with [Him], that the more, having been reconciled, we will be saved in His body of sin may be made useless, for our no longer life. 11 And not only [so], but we are also boasting in serving sin, 7 for he who has died has been set free God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom from sin. 8 And if we died with Christ, we believe we now received the reconciliation; 12 because of that we also will live with Him, 9 knowing that Christ, this, even as through one man sin entered into the having been raised up out of the dead, dies no more; world, and through sin—death; and thus to all men death has no more lordship over Him; 10 for in that death passed through, for that all sinned; 13 for until He died, He died to sin once, and in that He lives, He law sin was in the world: and sin is not reckoned lives to God; 11 so also you, reckon yourselves to be when there is not law; 14 but death reigned from dead indeed to sin, and living to God in Jesus Christ Adam until Moses, even on those having not sinned our Lord. 12 Do not let then sin reign in your mortal in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is a type body, to obey it in its desires; 13 neither present your of Him who is coming. 15 But not as the offense so members instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but also [is] the free gift; for if by the offense of the one present yourselves to God as living out of the dead, the many died, much more the grace of God, and and your members instruments of righteousness to the free gift in grace of the one man Jesus Christ, God; 14 for sin will not have lordship over you, for you abound to the many; 16 and not as through one who are not under law, but under grace. 15 What then? sinned [is] the free gift, for the judgment indeed [is] Will we sin because we are not under law but under of one to condemnation, but the gift [is] of many grace? Let it not be! 16 Have you not known that to offenses to a declaration of "Righteous," 17 for if by whom you present yourselves servants for obedience, the offense of the one death reigned through the one, servants you are to him to whom you obey, whether much more those who are receiving the abundance of of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? 17 grace and of the free gift of righteousness, in life will And thanks to God, that you were servants of sin, reign through the one—Jesus Christ. 18 So, then, as and—were obedient from the heart to the form of through one offense to all men [it is] to condemnation, teaching to which you were delivered up; 18 and so also through one declaration of "Righteous" [it is] having been freed from sin, you became servants to to all men to justification of life; 19 for as through righteousness. 19 I speak in a human [way], because the disobedience of the one man, the many were of the weakness of your flesh, for even as you constituted sinners: so also through the obedience presented your members servants to the uncleanness of the One, will the many be constituted righteous. and to the lawlessness—to the lawlessness, so now 20 And law came in, that the offense might abound, present your members servants to righteousness—to and where sin abounded, grace hyper-abounded, sanctification, 20 for when you were servants of sin, 21 that even as sin reigned in death, so also grace you were free from righteousness. 21 What fruit, may reign, through righteousness, to continuous life, therefore, were you having then, in the things of through Jesus Christ our Lord. (aiōnios g166)

[is] death. 22 And now, having been freed from sin, and having become servants to God, you have your fruit—to sanctification, and the end continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 23 for the wages of sin [is] death, and the gift of God [is] continuous life in Christ Jesus our Lord. (aiōnios g166)

7 Are you ignorant, brothers—for to those knowing law I speak—that the law has lordship over the man as long as he lives? 2 For the married woman to the living husband has been bound by law, and if the husband may die, she has been free from the law of the husband; 3 so then, the husband being alive, she will be called an adulteress if she may become another man's; and if the husband may die, she is free from the law, so as not to be an adulteress, having become another man's. 4 So that, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of the Christ, for your becoming another's, who was raised up out of the dead, that we might bear fruit to God; 5 for when we were in the flesh, the passions of sins, that [are] through the Law, were working in our members, to bear fruit to death; 6 and now we have ceased from the Law, that being dead in which we were held, so that we may serve in newness of spirit, and not in oldness of letter. 7 What, then, will we say? The Law [is] sin? Let it not be! But I did not know sin except through law, for also the covetousness I had not known if the Law had not said: 8 "You will not covet"; and sin having received an opportunity, through the command, worked in me all covetousness—for apart from law sin is dead. 9 And I was alive apart from law once, and the command having come, sin revived, and I died; 10 and the command that [is] for life, this was found by me for death; 11 for sin, having received an opportunity, deceived me, and through it, slew [me], 12 so that the Law, indeed, [is] holy, and good. 13 That which is good then, has it become death to me? Let it not be! But sin, that it might appear sin, through the good, working death to me, that sin might become exceedingly sinful through the command. 14 For we have known that the Law is spiritual, and I am fleshly, sold by sin; 15 for that which I work, I acknowledge; for not what I will, this I practice, but what I hate, this I do. 16 And if what I do not will, this

I do, I consent to the Law that [it is] good, 17 and now it is no longer I that work it, but sin dwelling in me, 18 for I have known that there does not dwell in me, that is, in my flesh, good: for to will is present with me, and I do not find to work that which is right, 19 for the good that I will, I do not do; but the evil that I do not will, this I practice. 20 And if what I do not will, this I do, it is no longer I that work it, but sin that is dwelling in me. 21 I find, then, the law, that when I desire to do what is right, the evil is present with me, 22 for I delight in the Law of God according to the inward man, 23 and I behold another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin that [is] in my members. 24 A wretched man I [am]! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? 25 I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord; so then, I myself indeed serve the Law of God with the mind, and with the flesh, the law of sin.

8 There is, then, now no condemnation to those in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit; 2 for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus set me free from the law of sin and of death; 3 for what the Law was not able to do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, His own Son having sent in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh, 4 that righteousness of the Law may be fulfilled in us, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit. 5 For those who are according to the flesh, covetousness—the things of the flesh; and those according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit; 6 for the mind of the flesh, but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you; and if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ—this one is not His; 10 and if Christ [is] in you, the body, indeed, [is] dead because of sin, and the Spirit of Him who raised up Jesus out of the dead dwells in you, He who raised up the Christ out of the dead will also quicken your dying bodies, through His Spirit dwelling in you. 12 So, then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the [is] against us? 32 He who indeed did not spare His flesh; 13 for if according to the flesh you live, you are own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how will about to die; and if, by the Spirit, the deeds of the He not also with Him grant to us all things? 33 Who body you put to death, you will live; 14 for as many as will lay a charge against the chosen ones of God? are led by the Spirit of God, these are the sons of God [is] He that is declaring righteous; 34 who [is] he God; 15 for you did not receive a spirit of bondage that is condemning? Christ [is] He that died, indeed, again for fear, but you received [the] Spirit of adoption rather also, was raised up; who is also on the right in which we cry, "Abba! Father!" 16 [This] One—the hand of God—who also interceded for us. 35 Who will Spirit—testifies with our spirit, that we are children separate us from the love of the Christ? Tribulation, or of God; 17 and if children, also heirs, heirs, indeed, distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or of God, and heirs together of Christ—if, indeed, we peril, or sword? 36 According as it has been written: suffer together, that we may also be glorified together. "For Your sake we are put to death all the day long; 18 For I reckon that the sufferings of the present time we were reckoned as sheep of slaughter." 37 But in all [are] not worthy [to be compared] with the glory about these we more than conquer, through Him who loved to be revealed in us; 19 for the earnest looking out of us; 38 for I am persuaded that neither death, nor life, the creation expects the revelation of the sons of God; nor messengers, nor principalities, nor powers, nor 20 for to vanity was the creation made subject—not things present, 39 nor things about to be, nor height, of its will, but because of Him who subjected [it]—in nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to hope, 21 that also the creation itself will be set free separate us from the love of God that [is] in Christ from the servitude of the corruption to the liberty of Jesus our Lord.

the glory of the children of God; 22 for we have known that all the creation groans together, and travails in pain together until now. 23 And not only [so], but also we ourselves, having the first-fruit of the Spirit, we also ourselves groan in ourselves, expecting adoption—the redemption of our body; 24 for in hope we were saved, and hope beheld is not hope; for what anyone beholds, why does he also hope for [it]? 25 And if what we do not behold we hope for, through continuance we expect [it]. 26 And in like manner also, the Spirit helps our weaknesses; for what we may pray for, as it is necessary, we have not known, but [this] One—the Spirit—makes intercession for us with unutterable groanings, 27 and He who is searching the hearts has known what [is] the mind of the Spirit, because according to God He intercedes for holy ones. 28 And we have known that to those loving God all things work together for good, to those who are called according to purpose; 29 because whom He foreknew, He also foreordained, conformed to the image of His Son, that He might be firstborn among many brothers; 30 and whom He foreordained, these also He called; and whom He called, these also He declared righteous; and whom He declared righteous, these also He glorified. 31 What, then, will we say to these things? If God [is] for us, who

9 Truth I say in Christ, I do not lie, my conscience bearing testimony with me in the Holy Spirit, 2 that I have great grief and unceasing pain in my heart— 3 for I was wishing, I myself, to be accursed from the Christ—for my brothers, my relatives, according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites, whose [is] the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the lawgiving, and the service, and the promises, 5 whose [are] the fathers, and of whom [is] the Christ, according to the flesh, who is God over all, blessed for all ages. Amen. (aiōn g165) 6 And it is not possible that the word of God has failed; for not all who [are] of Israel are these of Israel; 7 nor because they are seed of Abraham [are] all children, but, "in Isaac will a seed be called to you"; 8 that is, the children of the flesh—these [are] not children of God; but the children of the promise are reckoned for seed; 9 for the word of promise [is] this: "According to this time I will come, and there will be to Sarah a son." 10 And not only [so], but also Rebecca, having conceived by one—our father Isaac 11 (for they being not yet born, neither having done anything good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to [divine] selection, might remain; not of works, but of Him who is calling), 12 it was said to her, "The greater will serve the less"; 13 according as it has been written: "Jacob I loved, and Esau I hated.” 14 What, then, will we say? Unrighteousness [is] with God? Let it not be! 15 For to Moses He says, “I will do kindness to whom I do kindness, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion”; 16 so then—not of him who is willing, nor of him who is running, but of God who is doing kindness; 17 for the Writing says to Pharaoh, “For this very thing I raised you up, that I might show in you My power, and that My Name might be declared in all the land”; 18 so then, to whom He wills, He does kindness, and to whom He wills, He hardens. 19 You will say, then, to me, “Why does He yet find fault? For who has resisted His counsel?” 20 No, but, O man, who are you that are answering again to God? Will the thing formed say to Him who formed [it], Why did you make me thus? 21 Does the potter not have authority over the clay, out of the same lump to make one vessel to honor and one to dishonor? 22 And if God, willing to show the wrath and to make known His power, endured, in much long suffering, vessels of wrath fitted for destruction, 23 and that He might make known the riches of His glory on vessels of kindness, that He before prepared for glory, whom also He called—us— 24 not only out of Jews, but also out of nations, 25 as also in Hosea He says, “I will call what [is] not My people—My people; and her not beloved—Beloved, 26 and it will be—in the place where it was said to them, You [are] not My people; there they will be called sons of the living God.” 27 And Isaiah cries concerning Israel, “If the number of the sons of Israel may be as the sand of the sea, the remnant will be saved; 28 for a matter He is finishing, and is cutting short in righteousness, because a matter cut short will the LORD do on the land.” 29 And according as Isaiah says before, “Except the LORD of Hosts left to us a seed, we had become as Sodom, and we had been made like Gomorrah.” 30 What, then, will we say? That nations who are not pursuing righteousness attained to righteousness, and righteousness that [is] of faith, 31 and Israel, pursuing a law of righteousness, did not arrive at a law of righteousness; 32 why? Because—not by faith, but as by works of law; for they stumbled at the stone of stumbling, 33 according as it has been written: “Behold, I place in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense; and everyone who is believing [is] with God; and everyone who is believing [is] with God, thereon will not be ashamed.”

10 Brothers, the pleasure indeed of my heart, and my supplication that [is] to God for Israel, is—for salvation; 2 for I bear them testimony that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge, 3 for not knowing the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not submit to the righteousness of God. 4 For Christ is an end of law for righteousness to everyone who is believing, 5 for Moses describes the righteousness that [is] of the Law, that, “The man who did them will live in them,” 6 and the righteousness of faith thus speaks: “You may not say in your heart, Who will go up to Heaven?” (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 or, “Who will go down to the abyss?” (that is, to bring up Christ out of the dead). (Abyssos g12) 8 But what does it say? “The saying is near you—in your mouth, and in your heart”: that is, the saying of the faith that we preach; 9 that if you may confess with your mouth that Jesus [is] LORD, and may believe in your heart that God raised Him out of the dead, you will be saved, 10 for with the heart [one] believes to righteousness, and with the mouth is confession made to salvation; 11 for the Writing says, “Everyone who is believing on Him will not be ashamed,” 12 for there is no difference between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord of all [is] rich to all those calling on Him, 13 for “Everyone who, if he may have called on the Name of the LORD, will be saved.” 14 How then will they call on [Him] in whom they did not believe? And how will they believe [on Him] of whom they did not hear? And how will they hear apart from one preaching? 15 And how will they preach, if they may not be sent? According as it has been written: “How beautiful the feet of those proclaiming good tidings of peace, of those proclaiming good tidings of the good things!” 16 But they were not all obedient to the good tidings, for Isaiah says, “LORD, who gave credence to our report?” 17 So then faith [is] by a report, and the report through a saying of God, 18 but I say, did they not hear? Yes, indeed, “their voice went forth to all the earth, and their sayings to the ends of the habitable world.” 19 But I say, did Israel not know? First Moses says, “I will provoke you to jealousy by [that which is] not a nation, By an unintelligent nation

I will anger you," 20 and Isaiah is very bold and says, "I was found by those not seeking Me; I became visible to those not inquiring after Me"; 21 and to Israel He says, "All the day I stretched out My hands to a people unbelieving and contradicting."

11 I say then, did God cast away His people? Let it not be! For I am also an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin: 2 God did not cast away His people whom He knew before; have you not known—in Elijah—what the Writing says? How he pleads with God concerning Israel, saying, 3 "LORD, they killed Your prophets, and they dug down Your altars, and I was left alone, and they seek my life"; 4 but what does the divine answer say to him? "I left to Myself seven thousand men who did not bow a knee to Ba'al." 5 So then also in the present time there has been a remnant according to the [divine] selection of grace; 6 and if by grace, no longer of works, otherwise grace becomes no longer grace; and if of works, it is no longer grace, otherwise work is no longer work. 7 What then? What Israel seeks after, this it did not obtain, and the chosen obtained, and the rest were hardened, 8 according as it has been written: "God gave to them a spirit of deep sleep, eyes not to see, and ears not to hear, to this very day," 9 and David says, "Let their table become for a snare, and for a trap, and for a stumbling-block, and for a repayment to them; 10 let their eyes be darkened—not to behold, and You always bow down their back." 11 I say then, did they stumble that they might fall? Let it not be! But by their fall the salvation [is] to the nations, to arouse them to jealousy; 12 and if their fall [is] the riches of [the] world, and their diminishment the riches of nations, how much more their fullness? 13 For to you I speak—to the nations—inasmuch as I am indeed an apostle of nations, I glorify my ministry; 14 if I will arouse my own flesh to jealousy by any means, and will save some of them, 15 for if the casting away of them [is] a reconciliation of the world, what the reception—if not life out of the dead? 16 And if the first-fruit [is] holy, the lump also; and if the root [is] holy, the branches also. 17 And if certain of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and became a fellow-partaker of the root and of the fatness of the olive tree— 18 do not boast against the branches; and if you boast, you do not bear the root, but the root you! 19 You will say, then, "The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in"; right! 20 By unbelief they were broken off, and you have stood by faith; do not be high-minded, but be fearing; 21 for if God did not spare the natural branches—lest perhaps He also will not spare you. 22 Behold, then, goodness and severity of God—on those indeed who fell, severity; and on you, goodness, if you may remain in the goodness, otherwise, you also will be cut off. 23 And those also, if they may not remain in unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again; 24 for if you, out of the olive tree, wild by nature, were cut out, and contrary to nature, were grafted into a good olive tree, how much rather will they, who [are] according to nature, be grafted into their own olive tree? 25 For I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, of this secret—that you may not be wise in your own conceits—that hardness in part to Israel has happened until the fullness of the nations may come in; 26 and so all Israel will be saved, according as it has been written: "There will come forth out of Zion He who is delivering, and He will turn away impiety from Jacob, 27 and this to them [is] the covenant from Me when I may take away their sins." 28 As regards, indeed, the good tidings, [they are] enemies on your account; and as regards the [divine] selection—beloved on account of the fathers; 29 for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable; 30 for as you also once did not believe in God, and now found kindness by the unbelief of these, 31 so also these now did not believe, that in your kindness they also may find kindness; 32 for God shut up together the whole to unbelief, that to the whole He might do kindness. (elēsē g1653) 33 O depth of riches, and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable His judgments, and untraceable His ways! 34 For who knew the mind of the LORD? Or who became His counselor? 35 Or who first gave to Him, and it will be given back to him again? 36 Because of Him, and through Him, and to Him [are] all things; to Him [is] the glory—for all ages. Amen. (aiōn g165)

12 I call on you, therefore, brothers, through the compassions of God, to present your bodies [as] a sacrifice—living, sanctified, acceptable to God—your intelligent service; 2 and do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, for your proving what [is] the will of God—the good, and acceptable, and perfect. (aiōn g165) 3 For I say, through the grace that was given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think above what as to each God dealt a measure of faith, 4 for as in one body we have many members, and all the members do not have the same office, 5 so we, the many, are one body in Christ, and members of one another—each one. 6 And having gifts, different according to the grace that was given to us: whether prophecy, according to the proportion of faith; 7 or he who is teaching, in the teaching; 8 or he who is exhorting, in the exhortation; 9 The love unhypocritical: abhorring the evil; cleaving to the good; 10 in the love of brothers, to one another; for he who is sharing, in simplicity; he who is leading, in diligence; he who is doing kindness, in cheerfulness. 11 in the diligence not slothful; in the spirit of the tribulation enduring; in the prayer persevering; 12 in the hope rejoicing; in the same mind toward one another, not minding the things, but with the lowly going along; do not become wise in your own conceit; 13 giving back to no one for evil; providing right things before all men. 14 Bless those persecuting you; bless, and do not curse; 15 to rejoice with the place to the wrath, for it has been written: “Vengeance [is] Mine, 20 I will repay again, says the LORD”; if, then, your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him drink; for doing this, you will heap coals of fire on his head. 21 Do not be overcome by the evil, but overcome, in the good, the evil.

but to the evil; and do you wish to not be afraid of the authority? Be doing that which is good, and you will have praise from it, 4 for it is a servant of God to be fearing, for it does not bear the sword in vain; for it is necessary to be subject, not only because of the wrath, but also because of the conscience, 6 for because of this you also pay tribute; for they are servants of God, on this very thing attending continually; 7 render, therefore, to all [their] dues; to whom tribute, the tribute; to whom custom, the custom; to whom fear, the fear; to whom honor, the honor. 8 To no one owe anything, except to love one another; for he who is loving the other—he has fulfilled law, 9 for, “You will not commit adultery, You will not murder, You will not steal, You will not bear false testimony, You will not covet”; and if there is any command, in this word it is summed up, in this: another; 10 the love fervent; serving the LORD; 11 in the hope rejoicing; in the neighbor works no ill; the love, therefore, [is] the fullness of law. 12 And this, knowing the time, to the necessities of the holy ones communicating; that for us, the hour already [is] to be aroused out of the hospitality pursuing. 13 As in daytime, let us walk properly; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and licentiousness, not in strife and jealousy; 14 but put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and take no forethought for the flesh—for desires.

13 Let every soul be subject to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and the authorities existing are appointed by God, 2 so that he who is setting himself against the authority, has resisted against God's ordinance; and those resisting will receive judgment to themselves. 3 For those ruling are not a terror to the good works,

14 And receive him who is weak in the faith—not to determinations of reasonings; 2 one believes that he may eat all things—and he who is weak eats herbs; 3 do not let him who is eating despise him who is not eating: and do not let him who is not eating judge him who is eating, for God received him. 4 You—who are you that are judging another's domestic [affairs]? To his own master he stands or falls; and he will be made to stand, for God is able to make him stand. 5 One judges one day above another, and another judges every day [alike]; let each be fully assured in his own mind. 6 He who is regarding the day, he regards [it] to the LORD, and

he who is not regarding the day, he does not regard neighbor for good, for edification, 3 for even the Christ [it] to the LORD. He who is eating, he eats to the did not please Himself, but according as it has been LORD, for he gives thanks to God; and he who is written: "The reproaches of those reproaching You fell not eating, he does not eat to the LORD, and gives on Me"; 4 for as many things as were written before, thanks to God. 7 For none of us lives to himself, for our instruction were written before, that through and none dies to himself; 8 for both, if we may live, the endurance, and the exhortation of the Writings, we live to the LORD; if also we may die, we die to we might have the hope. 5 And may the God of the the LORD; both then if we may live, also if we may endurance, and of the exhortation, give to you to die, we are the LORD's; 9 for because of this Christ have the same mind toward one another, according both died and rose again, and lived again, that He to Christ Jesus, 6 that with one accord—with one may be Lord both of dead and of living. 10 And you, mouth—you may glorify the God and Father of our why do you judge your brother? Or again, you, why Lord Jesus Christ; 7 for this reason receive one do you set at nothing your brother? For we will all another, according as also the Christ received us, to stand at the judgment seat of the Christ; 11 for it has the glory of God. 8 And I say Jesus Christ to have been written: "I live! Says the LORD—Every knee will become a servant of circumcision for the truth of bow to Me, and every tongue will confess to God"; God, to confirm the promises to the fathers, 9 and 12 so, then, each of us will give reckoning to God the nations for kindness to glorify God, according as concerning himself; 13 therefore, may we judge one it has been written: "Because of this I will confess another no longer, but rather judge this, not to put a to You among nations, and to Your Name I will sing stumbling-stone before the brother, or an offense. 14 I praise"; 10 and again it says, "Rejoice you nations, have known, and am persuaded, in the Lord Jesus, with His people"; 11 and again, "Praise the LORD, that nothing [is] unclean of itself, except to him who is all you nations; and laud Him, all you peoples"; 12 reckoning anything to be unclean—to that one [it is] and again, Isaiah says, "There will be the root of unclean; 15 and if your brother is grieved through Jesse, and He who is rising to rule nations—on Him food, you no longer walk according to love; do not will nations hope"; 13 and the God of the hope will destroy with your food that one for whom Christ died. fill you with all joy and peace in the believing, for 16 Do not let, then, evil be spoken of your good, 17 your abounding in the hope in power of the Holy for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, Spirit. 14 And I am persuaded, my brothers—I myself but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy also—concerning you, that you yourselves also are Spirit; 18 for he who in these things is serving the full of goodness, having been filled with all knowledge, Christ, [is] acceptable to God and approved of men. also able to admonish one another; 15 and the more 19 So, then, may we pursue the things of peace, and boldly I wrote to you, brothers, in part, as putting the things of building up one another. 20 Do not cast you in mind, because of the grace that is given to down the work of God for the sake of food; all things, me by God, 16 for my being a servant of Jesus indeed, [are] pure, but evil [is] to the man who is Christ to the nations, acting as priest in the good eating through stumbling. 21 [It is] not right to eat news of God, that the offering up of the nations may flesh, nor to drink wine, nor to [do anything] in which become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. your brother stumbles, or is made to fall, or is weak. 17 I have, then, a boasting in Christ Jesus, in the 22 You have faith! Have [it] to yourself before God; things pertaining to God, 18 for I will not dare to blessed is he who is not judging himself in what he speak anything of the things that Christ did not work approves, 23 and he who is making a difference, if he through me, to obedience of nations, by word and may eat, has been condemned, because [it is] not of deed, 19 in power of signs and wonders, in power faith; and all that [is] not of faith is sin.

15 And we ought—we who are strong—to bear the weaknesses of the powerless, and not to please ourselves; 2 for let each one of us please the of the Spirit of God; so that I, from Jerusalem, and in a circle as far as Illyricum, have fully preached the good news of the Christ; 20 and so counting it honor to proclaim good news, not where Christ was named—that on another's foundation I might not build— 21 but according as it has been written: "To Stachys, my beloved; 10 greet Apelles, the approved whom it was not told concerning Him, they will see; in Christ; greet those of the [household] of Aristobulus; and they who have not heard, will understand." 22 11 greet Herodion, my relative; greet those of the For this reason, also, I was hindered many times [household] of Narcissus, who are in the LORD; 12 from coming to you, 23 and now, no longer having place in these parts, and having a longing to come to you for many years, 24 when I may go on to Spain much in the LORD. 13 Greet Rufus, the chosen one I will come to you, for I hope in going through, to see you, and by you to be set forward there, if of Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, you first, in part, I will be filled. 25 And now, I go on to Jerusalem, ministering to the holy ones; 26 for Julias, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and it pleased Macedonia and Achaia well to make a certain contribution for the poor of the holy ones who [are] in Jerusalem; 27 for it pleased well, and their debtors they are, for if the nations participated in their spiritual things, they ought also, in the fleshly things, contrary to the teaching that you learned, and turn to minister to them. 28 This, then, having finished, and having sealed to them this fruit, I will return through you, to Spain; 29 and I have known that coming to the fullness of the blessing of the good news for me to God, 30 And I call on you, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ, and through the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers not believing in Judea, and that my ministry, that [is] for Jerusalem, may become acceptable to the holy ones; 32 that in joy I may come to you, through the will of God, and may be refreshed with you, 33 and the God of peace [be] with you all. Amen.

16 And I commend you to Phoebe our sister—being a servant of the assembly that [is] in Cenchrea— 2 that you may receive her in the LORD, worthily of the holy ones, and may assist her in whatever matter she may have need of you, for she also became a leader of many, and of myself. 3 Greet Priscilla and Aquilas, my fellow-workmen in Christ Jesus— 4 who laid down their own neck for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the nations— 5 and the assembly at their house; greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is first-fruit of Achaia to Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who labored much for us; 7 greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives, and my fellow-captives, who are of note among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me. 8 Greet Amplias, my beloved in the LORD; 9

greet Arbanus, our fellow-workman in Christ, and build— 21 but according as it has been written: "To Stachys, my beloved; 10 greet Apelles, the approved whom it was not told concerning Him, they will see; in Christ; greet those of the [household] of Aristobulus; and they who have not heard, will understand." 22 11 greet Herodion, my relative; greet those of the For this reason, also, I was hindered many times [household] of Narcissus, who are in the LORD; 12 from coming to you, 23 and now, no longer having place in these parts, and having a longing to come to the LORD; greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the LORD. 13 Greet Rufus, the chosen one I will come to you, for I hope in going through, to in the LORD, and his mother and mine, 14 greet see you, and by you to be set forward there, if of Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, you first, in part, I will be filled. 25 And now, I go on and the brothers with them; 15 greet Philologus, and to all the holy ones with them; 16 greet one another certain contribution for the poor of the holy ones who in a holy kiss; the assemblies of Christ greet you. 17 And I call on you, brothers, to mark those who are causing the divisions and the stumbling-blocks, 18 for such do not serve our Lord having sealed to them this fruit, I will return through Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and through the you, to Spain; 29 and I have known that coming to good word and fair speech they deceive the hearts of you—in the fullness of the blessing of the good news the harmless. 19 For your obedience reached to all; of Christ I will come. 30 And I call on you, brothers, I rejoice, therefore, as regards you, and I wish you through our Lord Jesus Christ, and through the love to be wise, indeed, as to the good, and pure as to of the Spirit, to strive together with me in the prayers the evil; 20 and the God of peace will bruise Satan for me to God, 31 that I may be delivered from those under your feet quickly; the grace of our Lord Jesus not believing in Judea, and that my ministry, that [is] Christ [be] with you. Amen! 21 Timotheus greets for Jerusalem, may become acceptable to the holy you, my fellow-workman, and Lucius, and Jason, ones; 32 that in joy I may come to you, through the and Sosipater, my relatives; 22 I, Tertius, greet you will of God, and may be refreshed with you, 33 and (who wrote the letter) in the LORD; 23 Gaius greets the God of peace [be] with you all. Amen.

you, my host, and of the whole Assembly; Erastus greets you, the steward of the city, and Quartus the brother. 24 [[The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [be] with you all! Amen.]] 25 And to Him who is able to establish you, according to my good news, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the secret, having been kept secret in the times of the ages, (αιῶνις g166) 26 and now having been revealed, also, through prophetic writings, according to a command of the perpetual God, having been made known to all the nations for obedience of faith— (αιῶνις g166) 27 to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, to Him [be] glory for all ages. Amen. (αιῶν g165)

1 Paul, a called apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and Sosthenes the brother, 2 to the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called holy ones, with all those calling on the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place—both theirs and ours: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 4 I give thanks to my God always concerning you for the grace of God that was given to you in Christ Jesus, 5 that in everything you were enriched in Him, in all discourse and all knowledge, 6 according as the testimony of the Christ was confirmed in you, 7 so that you are not behind in any gift, waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ, 8 who also will confirm you to the end—unblamable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ; 9 faithful [is] God, through whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son Jesus Christ our Lord. 10 And I call on you, brothers, through the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that the same thing you may all say, and there may not be divisions among you, and you may be perfected in the same mind, and in the same judgment, 11 for it was signified to me concerning you, my brothers, by those of Chloe, that contentions are among you; 12 and I say this, that each one of you says, “I, indeed, am of Paul,” and “I of Apollos,” and “I of Cephas,” and “I of Christ.” 13 Has the Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul? 14 I give thanks to God that I immersed no one of you, except Crispus and Gaius— 15 that no one may say that to my own name I immersed; 16 and I also immersed Stephanas’ household—further, I have not known if I immersed any other. 17 For Christ did not send me to immerse, but to proclaim good news, not in wisdom of discourse, that the Cross of the Christ may not be made of no effect; 18 for the word of the Cross to those indeed perishing is foolishness, and to us—those being saved—it is the power of God, 19 for it has been written: “I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the intelligence of the intelligent I will bring to nothing”; 20 where [is] the wise? Where the scribe? Where a disputer of this age? Did God not make foolish the wisdom of this world? (aiōn g165) 21 For seeing in the wisdom of God the world through the wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the preaching to save those believing. 22 Since also Jews ask a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom, 23 also we preach Christ crucified, to Jews, indeed, a stumbling-block, and to Greeks foolishness, 24 and to those called—both Jews and Greeks—Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God, 25 because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men; 26 for see your calling, brothers, that not many [are] wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble; 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world that He may put the wise to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world that He may put the strong to shame; 28 and God chose the base things of the world, and the things despised, and the things that are not, that He may make useless the things that are— 29 that no flesh may glory before Him; 30 but out of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us from God wisdom, righteousness also, and sanctification, and redemption, 31 that, according as it has been written: “He who is glorying—let him glory in the LORD.”

2 And I, having come to you, brothers, came—not in superiority of discourse or wisdom—declaring to you the testimony of God, 2 for I decided not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified; 3 and I, in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling, was with you; 4 and my word and my preaching was not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power— 5 that your faith may not be in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. 6 And wisdom we speak among the perfect, and wisdom not of this age, nor of the rulers of this age—of those becoming useless, (aiōn g165) 7 but we speak the hidden wisdom of God in a secret, that God foreordained before the ages to our glory, (aiōn g165) 8 which no one of the rulers of this age knew, for if they had known, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; (aiōn g165) 9 but according as it has been written: “What eye did not see, and ear did not hear, and on the heart of man did not come up, what God prepared for those loving Him”; 10 but God revealed [them] to us through His Spirit, for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God, 11 for who of men has known the things of the man, except the spirit of the man that [is] in him? So also the things of God no one has known, except the Spirit of God. 12 And we did not receive the spirit of the world, but the Spirit that [is] of God, that we may know the things conferred by God on us, 13 which things we also speak, not in words taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Holy Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things, 14 and the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he is not able to know [them], because they are discerned spiritually; 15 and he who is spiritual, indeed discerns all things, and he himself is discerned by no one; 16 for who knew the mind of the LORD that he will instruct Him? And we have the mind of Christ.

of God, and the Spirit of God dwells in you? 17 If anyone ruins the temple of God, God will ruin him; for the temple of God is holy, which you are. 18 Let no one deceive himself; if anyone seems to be wise among you in this age—let him become a fool, that he may become wise, (aiōn g165) 19 for the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, for it has been written: "Who is taking the wise in their craftiness"; 20 and again, "The LORD knows the reasonings of the wise, that they are vain." 21 So then, let no one glory in men, for all things are yours, 22 whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things about to be—all are yours, 23 and you [are] Christ's, and Christ [is] God's.

3 And I, brothers, was not able to speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly—as to babies in Christ; with milk I fed you, and not with meat, for you were not yet able, but not even yet are you now able, 3 for yet you are fleshly, for where [there is] among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not fleshly, and walk in the manner of men? 4 For when one may say, "I, indeed, am of Paul," and another, "I—of Apollos," are you not fleshly? 5 Who, then, is Paul, and who Apollos, but servants through whom you believed, and to each as the LORD gave? 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God was giving growth; 7 so that neither is he who is planting anything, nor he who is watering, but He who is giving growth—God; 8 and he who is planting and he who is watering are one, which has been written, that you may not be puffed up one for one against the other, 7 for who makes own labor, 9 for we are fellow-workmen of God; you are God's tillage, God's building. 10 According to the grace of God that was given to me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid a foundation, and another builds on [it], 11 for no one is able to lay another foundation except that which is laid, which is Jesus the Christ; 12 and if anyone builds on this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— 13 the work will become visible of each, for the day will declare [it], because it is revealed in fire, and the work of each, what kind it is, the fire will prove; 14 if the work of anyone remains that he built on [it], he will receive a wage; 15 if the work of any is burned up, he will suffer loss, but himself will be saved, but so as through fire. 16 Have you not known that you are a temple stewards of the secrets of God, 2 and as to the rest, it is required in the stewards that one may be found faithful, 3 and to me it is for a very little thing that by you I may be judged, or by man's Day, but I do not even judge myself, 4 for I have been conscious of nothing for myself, but I have not been declared right in this—and He who is discerning me is the LORD: 5 so, then, judge nothing before the time, until the LORD may come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of the darkness, and will reveal come to each from God. 6 And these things, brothers, I transferred to myself and to Apollos because of watering, but He who is giving growth—God; 8 and you, that in us you may learn not to think above that you to differ? And what do you have, that you did not receive? And if you also received, why do you glory as not having received? 8 Already you are having been filled, already you were rich, apart from us you reigned, and I also wish you reigned, that we also may reign together with you, 9 for I think that God set forth us the apostles last—as appointed to death, Christ, and you wise in Christ; we [are] ailing, and we [are] fools because of because we became a spectacle to the world, and become visible of each, for the day will declare [it], messengers, and men; 10 we [are] fools because of because it is revealed in fire, and the work of each, Christ, and you wise in Christ; we [are] ailing, and you strong; you glorious, and we dishonored; 11 and the present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and wage; 12 and we [are] naked, and are battered, and wander, 12 and labor, working with [our] own hands; being reviled, are naked, and are battered, and wander, 12 and we bless; being persecuted, we endure; 13 being spoken evil of, we plead; we became as filth of the world—all things an outcast—until now. 14 Not [as] putting you to shame do I write these things, but I admonish as my beloved children, 15 for if a myriad of child-conductors you may have in Christ, yet not many fathers; for in Christ Jesus, through the good news, I begot you; 16 I call on you, therefore, become followers of me; 17 because of this I sent to you Timotheus, who is my child, beloved and faithful in the LORD, who will remind you of my ways in Christ, according as everywhere in every assembly I teach. 18 And some were puffed up as if I were not coming to you; 19 but I will come quickly to you, if the LORD may will, and I will not know the word of those puffed up, but the power; 20 for not in word is the Kingdom of God, but in power. 21 What do you wish? Will I come to you with a rod, or in love, also with a spirit of meekness?

covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, such a one; 12 for what have I also to judge those outside? Do you not judge those within? 13 And judge those without God; and put away the evil from among yourselves.

6 Dare anyone of you, having a matter with the other, go to be judged before the unrighteous, and not before the holy ones? 2 Have you not known that the holy ones will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy of the smaller judgments? 3 Have you not known that we will judge messengers? Why not then the things of life? 4 Of the things of life, indeed, then, if you may have judgment, those despised in the Assembly—these you cause to sit; 5 I speak to your shame: so there is not among you one wise man, not even one, who will be able to discern in the midst of his brothers!

6 But brother with brother goes to be judged, and this before unbelievers! 7 Already, indeed, then, there is altogether a fault among you, that you have such whoredom as is not even named among the nations—as that one has the wife of the father! 2 And you are having been puffed up, and did not rather mourn, that he may be removed out of the midst of you who did this work, 3 for I indeed, as being absent as to the body, and present as to the spirit, have already judged, as being present, him who so worked this thing: 4 in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ—you being gathered together, also my spirit—with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, 5 to deliver up such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the Day of the Lord Jesus. 6 Your glorying [is] not good; have you not known that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? 7 Cleanse out, therefore, the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, according as you are unleavened, for our Passover was sacrificed for us also—Christ, 8 so that we may keep the celebration, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of evil and wickedness, but with unleavened [bread] of sincerity and truth. 9 I wrote to you in the letter, not to keep company with whoremongers—10 and certainly not with the whoremongers of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or idolaters, seeing you ought then to go forth out of the world—11 and now, I wrote to you not to keep company with [him], if anyone, being named a brother, may be a whoremonger, or judgments with one another; why do you not rather suffer injustice? Why not be defrauded? 8 But you do injustice, and you defraud, and these—brothers!

9 Have you not known that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Do not be led astray; neither whoremongers, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor sodomites, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of God. 11 And certain of you were these! But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were declared righteous, in the Name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God. 12 All things are lawful to me, but all things are not profitable; all things are lawful to me, but I will not be under authority by any; 13 the meats [are] for the belly, and the belly for the meats. And God will make useless both this and these; and the body [is] not for whoredom, but for the LORD, and the LORD for the body; 14 and God raised both the LORD, and will raise us up through His power. 15 Have you not known that your bodies are members of Christ? Having taken, then, the members of the Christ, will I make [them] members of a prostitute? Let it not be! 16 Have you not known that he who is joined to the prostitute is one body? For it says, "The two will be into one flesh.” 17 And he who is joined to the LORD is one spirit; 18 flee the whoredom; every sin—whatever a man may commit—is outside the body, and he who is committing whoredom sins against his own body. 19 Have you not known that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit in you, which you have from God? And you are not your own, 20 for you were bought with a price; glorify, then, God in your body and in your spirit, which are God’s.

7 And concerning the things of which you wrote to me: [it is] good for a man not to touch a woman, 2 and because of the whoredom let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her proper husband; 3 to the wife let the husband render the due benevolence, and in like manner also the wife to the husband; 4 the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband; and in like manner also, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife. 5 Do not defraud one another, except by consent for a time, that you may be free for fasting and prayer, and again may come together, that Satan may not tempt you because of your self-indulgence; 6 and this I say by way of concurrence—not of command, 7 for I wish all men to be even as I myself [am]; but each has his own gift of God, one indeed thus and one thus. 8 And I say to the unmarried and to the widows: it is good for them if they may remain even as I [am]; 9 and if they do not have continence—let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn; 10 and to the married I announce—not I, but the LORD—do not let a wife separate from a husband: 11 but, and if she may separate, let her remain unmarried, or let her be reconciled to the husband, and do not let a husband send a wife away. 12 And to the rest I speak—not the LORD—if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, do not let him send her away; 13 and a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, do not let her send him away; 14 for the unbelieving husband has been sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been sanctified in the husband; otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are holy. 15 And if the unbelieving separates himself—let him separate himself: the brother or the sister is not under servitude in such [cases], and in peace has God called us; 16 for what, have you known, O wife, whether you O husband, whether you will save the wife? 17 If not, as God distributed to each, as the LORD has called each—so let him walk; and thus I direct in all the assemblies: 18 being circumcised—was anyone called? Do not let him become uncircumcised; in uncircumcision was anyone called? Do not let him be circumcised; 19 the circumcision is nothing, and the uncircumcision is nothing—but a keeping of the commands of God. 20 Each in the calling in which he was called—in this let him remain; 21 a servant—were you called? Do not be anxious; but if also you are able to become free—use [it] rather; 22 for he who [is] in the LORD—having been called a servant—is the LORD’s freedman: in like manner also he the freeman, having been called, is servant of Christ: 23 you were bought with a price, do not become servants of men; 24 each, in that in which he was called, brothers, in this let him remain with God. 25 And concerning the virgins, I do not have a command of the LORD; and I give judgment as having obtained kindness from the LORD to be faithful. 26 I suppose, therefore, this to be good because of the present necessity, that [it is] good for a man that the matter be thus: 27 Have you been bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed; have you been loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. 28 But, and if you may marry, you did not sin; and if the virgin may marry, she did not sin; and such will have tribulation in the flesh: and I spare you. 29 And this I say, brothers, the time from now on is having been shortened—that both those having wives may be as not having; 30 and those weeping, as not weeping; and those rejoicing, as not rejoicing; and those buying, as not possessing; 31 and those using this world, as not using [it] up; for the [present] form of this world is passing away. 32 And I wish you to be without anxiety; the unmarried is anxious for the things of the LORD, how he will please the LORD; 33 and the married is anxious for the things of the world, how he will please the wife. 34 The wife and the virgin have been distinguished: the unmarried is anxious for the things of the LORD, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit, and the married is anxious for the things of the world, how she will please the husband. 35 And this I say for your own profit: not that I may cast a noose on you, but for the seemliness and devotedness to the LORD, undistractedly, 36 and if anyone thinks [it] to be unseemly to his virgin, if she for this reason, if food causes my brother to stumble, I may not eat flesh—throughout the age—that I may not cause my brother to stumble. (aiōn g165)

may be beyond the bloom of age, and it ought to be so, what he wills let him do; he does not sin—let him marry. 37 And he does well who has stood steadfast in the heart—not having necessity—and has authority over his own will, and he has determined this in his heart—to keep his own virgin; 38 so that both he who is giving in marriage does well, and he who is not giving in marriage does better. 39 A wife has been bound by law [for] as long [a] time as her husband may live, and if her husband may sleep, she is free to be married to whom she will—only in the LORD; 40 and she is happier if she may so remain—according to my judgment; and I think I also have the Spirit of God.

8 And concerning the things sacrificed to idols, we have known that we all have knowledge: knowledge puffs up, but love builds up; 2 and if anyone thinks to know anything, he has not yet known anything according as it is required to know; 3 and if anyone loves God, this one has been known by Him. 4 Concerning the eating then of the things sacrificed to idols, we have known that an idol [is] nothing in the world, and that there is no other God except one; 5 for even if there are those called gods, whether in Heaven, whether on earth—as there are many gods and many lords— 6 yet to us [is] one God, the Father, of whom [are] all things, and we to Him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom [are] all things, and we through Him; 7 but not in all men [is] the knowledge, and certain with conscience of the idol, until now, eat [it] as a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8 But food does not commend us to God, for neither if we may eat are we in advance; nor if we may not eat, are we behind; 9 but see, lest this privilege of yours may become a stumbling-block to the weak, 10 for if anyone may see you that have knowledge in an idol's temple reclining to eat, will not his conscience—he being weak—be emboldened to eat the things sacrificed to idols? 11 For the [one] being weak—the brother for whom Christ died—will perish by your knowledge. 12 And thus sinning in regard to the brothers, and striking their weak conscience—you sin in regard to Christ; 13

9 Am I not an apostle? Am I not free? Have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? Are you not my work in the LORD? 2 If I am not an apostle to others—yet doubtless I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the LORD. 3 My defense to those who examine me in this: 4 do we not have authority to eat and to drink? 5 Do we not have authority to lead about a sister—a wife—as also the other apostles, and the brothers of the LORD, and Cephas? 6 Or do only Barnabas and I have no authority not to work? 7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense at any time? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock and does not eat of the milk of the flock? 8 Do I speak these things according to man? Or does the Law not also say these things?

9 For in the Law of Moses it has been written: “you will not muzzle an ox treading out grain”; does God care for the oxen? 10 Or by all means does He say [it] because of us? Yes, because of us it was written, because in hope ought the plower to plow, and he who is treading [ought] of his hope to partake in hope. 11 If we sowed to you the spiritual things—[is it] great if we reap your fleshly things? 12 If others partake of the authority over you—[do] we not more? But we did not use this authority, but we bear all things, that we may give no hindrance to the good news of the Christ. 13 Have you not known that those working about the things of the temple eat of the temple, and those waiting at the altar are partakers with the altar? 14 So also the LORD directed to those proclaiming the good news to live of the good news. 15 And I have used none of these things; neither did I write these things that it may be so done in my case, for [it is] good for me rather to die, than that anyone may make my glorying void; 16 for if I may proclaim good news, it is no glorying for me, for necessity is laid on me, and woe is to me if I may not proclaim good news; 17 for if I do this willingly, I have a reward; and if unwillingly—I have been entrusted with a stewardship! 18 What, then, is my reward? That proclaiming good news, without charge I will make the good news of the Christ, not to abuse my authority in the good news; 19 for being free from all men, I made myself servant to all men, that the more I might gain; 20 and to the Jews I became like a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those under law as under law, that I might gain reason, my beloved, flee from the idolatry; 15 as to those under law; 21 to those without law, as without wise men I speak—judge what I say. 16 The cup of the law—not being without law to God, but within law blessing that we bless—is it not the fellowship of the to Christ)—that I might gain those without law; 22 blood of the Christ? The bread that we break—is it not to the weak I became weak, that I might gain the weak; to all men I have become all things, that by all means I may save some. 23 And I do this because of the good news, that I may become a fellow-partaker of it; 24 have you not known that those running in a race—all indeed run, but one receives the prize? That an idol is anything? Or that a sacrifice offered to So run that you may obtain; 25 and everyone who is striving is temperate in all things; these, indeed, that they may receive a corruptible garland, but we an incorruptible; 26 I, therefore, thus run, not as uncertainly, thus I fight, as not beating air; 27 but I bruise my body, and bring [it] into servitude, lest by any means, having preached to others—I myself may become disapproved.

10 And I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, 2 and all were immersed into Moses in the cloud, and in the sea; 3 and all ate the same spiritual food, 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking of a spiritual rock following them, and the rock was the Christ; 5 but in the most of them God was not well pleased, for they were strewn in the wilderness, 6 and those things became types of us, for our not passionately desiring evil things, as also these desired. 7 Neither become idolaters, as certain of them, as it has been written: "The people sat down to eat and to drink, and stood up to play"; 8 neither may we commit whoredom, as certain of them committed whoredom, and there fell in one day twenty-three thousand; 9 neither may we tempt the Christ, as also certain of them tempted, and perished by the serpents; 10 neither murmur, as also some of them murmured, and perished by the destroyer. 11 And all these things happened to those persons as types, and they were written for our admonition, to whom the end of the ages came, (aiōn g165) 12 so that he who is thinking to stand—let him observe, lest he fall. 13 No temptation has taken you—except that of man; and God is faithful, who will not permit you to be tempted above what you are able, but He will make, with the temptation, also the outlet, for your being able to bear [it]. 14 For this reason, my beloved, flee from the idolatry; 15 as to the fellowship of the body of the Christ? 16 Because one bread, one body, are we the many—for we all partake of the one bread. 18 See Israel according to the flesh! Are those not eating the sacrifices in the fellowship of the altar? 19 What do I say then? 20 [No.] but that the things that the nations sacrifice—they sacrifice to demons and not to God; and I do not wish you to come into the fellowship of the demons. 21 You are not able to drink the cup of the LORD and the cup of demons; you are not able to partake of the table of the LORD and of the table of demons; 22 do we arouse the LORD to jealousy? Are we stronger than He? 23 All things are lawful to me, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful to me, but not all things build up; 24 let no one seek his own—but each another's. 25 Eat whatever is sold in the meat-market, not inquiring, because of the conscience, 26 for the earth and its fullness [are] the LORD's; 27 and if anyone of the unbelieving calls you, and you wish to go, eat all that is set before you, inquiring nothing, because of the conscience; 28 and if anyone may say to you, "This is a thing sacrificed to an idol," do not eat, because of that one who showed [it], and of the conscience, for the LORD's [is] the earth and its fullness: 29 and conscience, I say, not of yourself, but of the other, for why [is it] that my liberty is judged by another's conscience? 30 And if I partake thankfully, why am I spoken of [as] evil, for that for which I give thanks? 31 Whether, then, you eat, or drink, or do anything, do all to the glory of God; 32 become offenseless, both to Jews and Greeks, and to the Assembly of God; 33 as I also please all in all things, not seeking my own profit, but that of many—that they may be saved.

11 Become followers of me, as I also [am] of Christ. 2 And I praise you, brothers, that in all things you remember me, and according as I delivered to you, you keep the deliverances, 3 and I wish you to know that the Christ is the head of every man, and the head of a woman is the husband, and the head of Christ is God. 4 Every man praying or prophesying, having the head covered, dishonors his head, 5 and every woman praying or prophesying with the head uncovered, dishonors her own head, for it is one and the same thing with her being shaven, 6 for if a woman is not covered—then let her be shorn, and if [it is] a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven—let her be covered; 7 for a man, indeed, ought not to cover the head, being the image and glory of God, and a woman is the glory of a man, 8 and for a man is not of a woman, but a woman [is] of a man, 9 for also was a man not created because of the woman, but a woman because of the man; 10 Because of this many [are] weak and sickly among the woman, but a woman because of the man; 11 but neither [is] a man apart from a woman, nor a woman apart from a man, in the LORD, 12 for as the woman [is] of the man, so also the man [is] through the woman, and all the things [are] of God. 13 Judge in your own selves: is it seemly for a woman to pray to God uncovered? 14 Does not even nature itself teach you, that if a man indeed has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? 15 And a woman, if she has long hair, it is a glory to her, because the hair has been given to her instead of a covering; 16 and if anyone thinks to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the assemblies of God. 17 And declaring this, I give no praise, because you do not come together for the better, but for the worse; 18 for first, indeed, coming together in an assembly, I hear of divisions being among you, and I partly believe [it], 19 for it is also necessary for sects to be among you, that those approved may become visible among you; 20 you, then, coming together at the same place—it is not to eat the LORD's Dinner; 21 for each takes his own dinner before in the eating, and one is hungry, and another is drunk; 22 why, do you not have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise the Assembly of God, and shame those not having? What may I say to you? Will I praise you in this? I do not praise! 23 For I received from the LORD that which I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which He was delivered up, took bread, 24 and having given thanks, He broke, and said, "Take, eat, this is My body that is being broken for you; do this—to the remembrance of Me." 25 In like manner also the cup after the supping, saying, "This cup is the New Covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you may drink [it]—to the remembrance of Me"; 26 for as often as you may eat this bread, and may drink this cup, and if you show forth the death of the LORD—until He may prove himself, and so let him eat of the bread, glory of God, and a woman is the glory of a man, 8 and let him drink of the cup; 29 for he who is eating for a man is not of a woman, but a woman [is] of a man, 9 for also was a man not created because of himself—not discerning the body of the LORD. 30 the woman, but a woman because of the man; 10 Because of this many [are] weak and sickly among the woman, but a woman because of the man; 11 but neither [is] a man apart from a woman, nor a woman apart from a man, in the LORD, 12 for as the woman [is] of the man, so also the man [is] through my brothers, coming together to eat, wait for one another; 34 and if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, that you may not come together to judgment; and the rest, whenever I may come, I will arrange.

12 And concerning the spiritual things, brothers,

I do not wish you to be ignorant; 2 you have known that you were nations, being carried away as you were led to the mute idols; 3 for this reason, I give you to understand that no one, speaking in the Spirit of God, says Jesus [is] accursed, and no one is able to say Jesus [is] LORD, except in the Holy Spirit. 4 And there are diversities of gifts, and the same Spirit; 5 and there are diversities of ministries, and the same Lord; 6 and there are diversities of workings, and it is the same God—who is working all in all. 7 And to each has been given the manifestation of the Spirit for profit; 8 for to one through the Spirit has been given a word of wisdom, and to another a word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; 9 and to another faith in the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healings in the same Spirit; 10 and to another in-workings of mighty deeds; and to another prophecy; and to another discernings of spirits; and to another [various] kinds of tongues; and to another interpretation of tongues: 11 and the one and the same Spirit works all these, dividing to each individually as He intends. 12 For even as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the one body, being many, are one body, so also [is] the Christ, 13 for also in one up my body that I may be burned, and do not have Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether love, I am profited nothing. 4 Love is long-suffering, it Jews or Greeks, whether servants or freemen, and all is kind, love does not envy, love does not vaunt itself, were made to drink one Spirit, 14 for also the body is not puffed up, 5 does not act unseemly, does not not one member, but many. 15 If the foot may say, seek its own things, is not provoked, does not impute "Because I am not a hand, I am not of the body," is evil, 6 [does] not rejoice over unrighteousness, and it not, because of this, not of the body? 16 And if rejoices with the truth; 7 it bears all things, it believes the ear may say, "Because I am not an eye, I am all, it hopes all, it endures all. 8 Love never fails; not of the body," is it not, because of this, not of the and whether [there be] prophecies, they will become body? 17 If the whole body [were] an eye, where the useless; whether tongues, they will cease; whether hearing? If the whole hearing, where the smelling? 18 knowledge, it will become useless; 9 for we know And now, God set the members, each one of them in part, and we prophesy in part; 10 and when that in the body, according as He willed, 19 and if all which is perfect may come, then that which [is] in were one member, where [is] the body? 20 And now, part will become useless. 11 When I was a child, I indeed, [are] many members, but one body; 21 and was speaking as a child, I was thinking as a child, I an eye is not able to say to the hand, "I have no was reasoning as a child, and when I have become a need of you"; nor again the head to the feet, "I have man, I have made useless the things of the child; 12 no need of you." 22 But much more the members for we now see obscurely through a mirror, and then of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary, face to face; now I know in part, and then I will fully 23 and those that we think to be less honorable know, as I was also known; 13 and now there remains of the body, around these we put more abundant faith, hope, love—these three; and the greatest of honor, and our unseemly things have more abundant these [is] love.

seemliness, 24 and our seemly things have no need; but God tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to the lacking part, 25 that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same anxiety for one another, 26 and whether one member suffers, all the members suffer with [it], or one member is glorified, all the members rejoice with [it]; 27 and you are the body of Christ, and members in particular. 28 And some, indeed, God set in the Assembly: first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, afterward powers, afterward gifts of healings, helpings, governings, various kinds of tongues. 29 [Are] all apostles? [Are] all prophets? [Are] all teachers? [Are] all powers? 30 [Do] all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? 31 And earnestly desire the better gifts; and yet I show to you a far [more] excelling way:

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of messengers, and do not have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal; 2 and if I have prophecy, and know all the secrets, and all the knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, and do not have love, I am nothing; 3 and if I give away all my goods to feed others, and if I give

14 Pursue love, and earnestly seek the spiritual things, and rather that you may prophesy, 2 for he who is speaking in an [unknown] tongue—he does not speak to men, but to God, for no one listens, and he speaks secrets in spirit; 3 and he who is prophesying to men speaks edification, and exhortation, and comfort; 4 he who is speaking in an [unknown] tongue, edifies himself, and he who is prophesying, edifies the Assembly; 5 and I wish you all to speak with tongues, and more that you may prophesy, for greater is he who is prophesying than he who is speaking with tongues, except one may interpret, that the Assembly may receive edification. 6 And now, brothers, if I may come to you speaking tongues, what will I profit you, except I will speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or in prophesying, or in teaching? 7 Yet the things without life giving sound—whether pipe or harp—if they may not give a difference in the sounds, how will be known that which is piped or that which is harped? 8 For also, if a trumpet may give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for battle? 9 So also you, if you may not give speech easily understood through the tongue—how will that which is spoken be known? For you will be speaking to air. 10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is unmeaning. 11 If, then, I do not know the power of the voice, I will be a foreigner to him who is speaking, and he who is speaking is a foreigner to me; 12 so you also, since you are earnestly desirous of spiritual gifts, seek for the building up of the Assembly in an [unknown] tongue—let him pray that he may interpret; 14 for if I pray in an [unknown] tongue, my spirit prays, and my understanding is unfruitful. 15 let them be silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted to them to speak, but to be subject, pray [with] understanding; I will sing psalms [in] the spirit, and I will also sing psalms [with] understanding; 16 since, if you may bless in spirit, he who is filling the place of the commoner, how will he say the Amen at your giving of thanks, since he has not known what you say? 17 For you, indeed, give thanks well, but the other is not built up! 18 I give thanks to my God—more than you all with tongues speaking—but I wish to speak five words in an assembly through my understanding, that I also may instruct others, rather than myriads of words in an [unknown] tongue. 19 Brothers, do not become children in the understanding, but in the evil be children, and in the understanding become perfect; 21 in the Law it has been written, that, "With other tongues and with other lips I will speak to this people, and even so they will not hear Me, says the LORD"; 22 so that the tongues are for a sign, not to the believing, but to the unbelieving; and the prophecy [is] not for the unbelieving, but for the believing. 23 If, therefore, the whole assembly may come together to the same place, and all may speak with tongues, and there may come in commoners or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad? 24 And if all may prophesy, and anyone may come in, an unbeliever or commoner, he is convicted by all, he is discerned by all, 25 and so the secrets of his heart become visible, and so having fallen on [his] face, he will worship God, declaring that God really is among you. 26 What then is it, brothers? Whenever you may come together, each of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all things be for building up; 27 if anyone speaks an [unknown] tongue, by two, or at the most, by three, and in turn, and let one interpret; 28 and if there may be no interpreter, let him be silent in an assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. 29 And prophets—let two or three speak, and let the others discern, 30 and if [anything] may be revealed to another [who is] sitting, let the first be silent; 31 for you are able, one by one, all to prophesy, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted, 32 and may abound; 13 for this reason he who is speaking the spiritual gift of prophets are subject to prophets, in an [unknown] tongue—let him pray that he may 33 for God is not [a God] of tumult, but of peace, as in the assemblies of the holy ones. 34 Your women, spirit prays, and my understanding is unfruitful. 15 let them be silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted to them to speak, but to be subject, as the Law also says; 35 and if they wish to learn anything, let them question their own husbands at home, for it is a shame to women to speak in an assembly. 36 Did the word of God come forth from the Law; 38 and if anyone is ignorant—let him be ignorant; 39 so that, brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid to speak with tongues; 40 let all things be done decently and in order.

15 And I make known to you, brothers, the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you also received, in which you also have stood, 2 through which you are also being saved, if you hold fast [to] the word—what I proclaimed as good news to you—unless you believed in vain. 3 For I delivered to you as most important what I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Writings, 4 and that He was buried, and that He has risen on the third day according to the Writings, 5 and that He appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve, 6 afterward He appeared to above five hundred brothers at once, of whom the greater part remain until now, and some also fell asleep; 7 afterward He appeared to James, then to all the apostles. 8 And last of all—as to the untimely birth—He also appeared to me, 9 for I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Assembly of God, 10 and by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace that [is] toward me did not come in vain, but I labored more abundantly than they all, yet not I, but the grace of God that [is] with me; 11 whether, then, I or they, so we preach, and so you

believed. 12 And if Christ is preached, that He has not quickened except it may die; 37 and that which risen out of the dead, how [do] certain among you say you sow, you do not sow the body that will be, but a that there is no resurrection of [the] dead? 13 And bare grain, it may be of wheat, or of someone of the if there is no resurrection of [the] dead, neither has others, 38 and God gives a body to it according as He Christ risen; 14 and if Christ has not risen, then our willed, and its proper body to each of the seeds. 39 preaching [is] void, and your faith [is] also void, 15 All flesh [is] not the same flesh, but there is one flesh and we are also found [to be] false witnesses of God, of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another because we testified of God that He raised up the of fishes, and another of birds; 40 and [there are] Christ, whom He did not raise if then dead persons heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; but one [is] the do not rise; 16 for if dead persons do not rise, neither glory of the heavenly, and another that of the earthly; has Christ risen, 17 and if Christ has not risen, your 41 one glory of sun, and another glory of moon, and faith is vain, you are yet in your sins; 18 then, also, another glory of stars, for star differs from star in those having fallen asleep in Christ perished; 19 if glory. 42 So also [is] the resurrection of the dead: it is we only have hope in Christ in this life, we are to be sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption; 43 it most pitied of all men. 20 And now, Christ has risen is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown out of the dead—He became the first-fruits of those in weakness, it is raised in power; 44 it is sown a sleeping, 21 for since through man [is] death, also natural body, it is raised a spiritual body; there is a through Man [is] a resurrection of the dead, 22 for natural body, and there is a spiritual body; 45 so also even as in Adam all die, so also in the Christ all will be it has been written: "The first man Adam became a made alive, 23 and each in his proper order: Christ, living creature," the last Adam [is] for a life-giving a first-fruit, afterward those who are the Christ's in spirit, 46 but that which is spiritual [is] not first, but that His coming, 24 then—the end, when He may deliver which [was] natural, afterward that which [is] spiritual. up the kingdom to God, even the Father, when He 47 The first man [is] out of the earth—earthly; the may have made all rule useless, and all authority and second Man [is] the LORD out of Heaven; 48 as [is] power. 25 For it is necessary for Him to reign until He the earthly, such [are] also the earthly; and as [is] may have put all the enemies under His feet. 26 The the heavenly, such [are] also the heavenly; 49 and last enemy is done away with—death. 27 For He put according as we bore the image of the earthly, we will all things under His feet, and when one may say that also bear the image of the heavenly. 50 And this I say, all things have been subjected, [it is] evident that He brothers, that flesh and blood are not able to inherit is excepted who subjected all things to Him, 28 and the Kingdom of God, nor does the corruption inherit when all things may be subjected to Him, then also the incorruption. 51 Behold, I tell you a secret: we the Son Himself will be subject to Him, who subjected indeed will not all sleep, but we will all be changed; to Him all things, that God may be the all in all. 29 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, in the last Seeing what will they do who are immersed for the trumpet, for it will sound, and the dead will be raised dead, if the dead do not rise at all? Why are they also incorruptible, and we will be changed; 53 for it is immersed for the dead? 30 Why do we also stand in necessary for this corruptible to put on incorruption, peril every hour? 31 I die every day, by the glorying of and this mortal to put on immortality; 54 and when you that I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If I fought this corruptible may have put on incorruption, and with wild beasts in Ephesus after the manner of a this mortal may have put on immortality, then will man, what [is] the advantage to me if the dead do not be brought to pass the word that has been written: rise? Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die! 33 "Death was swallowed up—to victory; 55 Where, O Do not be led astray; evil communications corrupt Death, your sting? Where, O Death [[or Hades]], good manners; 34 wake up, as is right, and do not your victory?" (Hades g86) 56 And the sting of death sin; for some have an ignorance of God; I say [it] to [is] sin, and the power of sin the Law; 57 and to you for shame. 35 But someone will say, "How do God—thanks, to Him who is giving us the victory the dead rise?" 36 Unwise! You—what you sow is through our Lord Jesus Christ; 58 so that, my beloved brothers, become steadfast, unmovable, abounding in the work of the LORD at all times, knowing that your labor in the LORD is not vain. Christ—let him be accursed! The LORD has come! 23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you; 24 my love [is] with you all in Christ Jesus! Amen.

16 And concerning the collection that [is] for the holy ones, as I directed to the assemblies of Galatia, so also you—do; 2 on every first [day] of the week, let each one of you lay by him, treasuring up whatever he may have prospered, that when I may come then collections may not be made; 3 and whenever I may come, whomsoever you may approve, through letters, these I will send to carry your favor to Jerusalem; 4 and if it be worthy for me also to go, with me they will go. 5 And I will come to you when I pass through Macedonia—for I pass through Macedonia— 6 and with you, it may be, I will abide, or even winter, that you may send me forward wherever I go, 7 for I do not wish to see you now in the passing, but I hope to remain a certain time with you, if the LORD may permit; 8 and I will remain in Ephesus until the Pentecost, 9 for a door has been opened to me—great and effectual—and withstanders [are] many. 10 And if Timotheus may come, see that he may become without fear with you, for he works the work of the LORD, even as I, 11 no one, then, may despise him; and send him forward in peace, that he may come to me, for I expect him with the brothers; 12 and concerning Apollos our brother, I begged him much that he may come to you with the brothers, and it was not at all [his] will that he may come now, and he will come when he may find convenient. 13 Watch, stand in the faith; be men, be strong; 14 let all your things be done in love. 15 And I beg you, brothers, you have known the household of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruit of Achaia, and they set themselves to the ministry to the holy ones— 16 that you also be subject to such, and to everyone who is working with [us] and laboring; 17 and I rejoice over the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, because these filled up the lack of you; 18 for they refreshed my spirit and yours; acknowledge, therefore, those who [are] such. 19 The assemblies of Asia greet you; Aquilas and Priscilla greet you much in the LORD, with the assembly in their house; 20 all the brothers greet you; greet one another in a holy kiss. 21 The salutation of [me], Paul, with my hand; 22 if anyone does not cherish the Lord Jesus

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, and Timotheus the brother, to the Assembly of God that is in Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in all Achaia: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 3 Blessed [is] God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort, 4 who is comforting us in all our tribulation, for our being able to comfort those in any tribulation through the comfort with which we are comforted ourselves by God; 5 because, as the sufferings of the Christ abound to us, so through the Christ our comfort also abounds; 6 and whether we be in tribulation, [it is] for your comfort and salvation, that is worked in the enduring of the same sufferings that we also suffer; whether we are comforted, [it is] for your comfort and salvation; 7 and our hope [is] steadfast for you, knowing that even as you are partakers of the sufferings—so also of the comfort. 8 For we do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, of our tribulation that happened to us in Asia, that we were exceedingly burdened above [our] power, so that we even despaired of life; 9 but we ourselves have had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we may not be trusting on ourselves, but on God, who is raising the dead, 10 who delivered us out of so great a death, and delivers, in whom we have hoped that even yet He will deliver; 11 you also working together for us by your supplication, that the gift through many persons to us, through many, may be thankfully acknowledged for us. 12 For our glorying is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom, but in the grace of God, we conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you; 13 for no other things do we write to you, but what you either read or also acknowledge, and I hope that you will also acknowledge to the end, 14 according as you also acknowledged us in part, that we are your glory, even as also you [are] ours, in the Day of the Lord Jesus; 15 and in this confidence I was intending to come to you before, that you might have a second favor, 16 and to pass to Macedonia through you, and to come to you again from Macedonia, and to be sent forward by you to Judea. 17 This, therefore, intending, did I then use the lightness; or the things that I counsel, [did] I counsel according to the flesh, that it may be with me Yes, yes, and No, no? 18 And God [is] faithful, that our word to you did not become Yes and No, 19 for the Son of God, Jesus Christ, having been preached through us among you—through me and Silvanus and Timotheus—did not become Yes and No, but in Him it has become Yes; 20 for as many as [are] promises of God, in Him [are] the Yes, and in Him the Amen, for glory to God through us; 21 and He who is confirming you with us into Christ, and anointed us, [is] God, 22 who also sealed us, and gave the deposit of the Spirit in our hearts. 23 And I call on God for a witness on my soul, that sparing you, I did not come to Corinth yet; 24 not that we are lords over your faith, but we are workers together with your joy, for by faith you stand.

2 And I decided this to myself, not to come again to you in sorrow, 2 for if I make you sorry, then who is he who is making me glad, except he who is made sorry by me? 3 And I wrote to you this same thing, that having come, I may not have sorrow from them of whom it was necessary [for] me to have joy, having confidence in you all, that my joy is of you all, 4 for out of much tribulation and pressure of heart I wrote to you through many tears, not that you might be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have more abundantly toward you. 5 And if anyone has caused sorrow, he has not caused sorrow to me, but in part, that I may not burden you all; 6 sufficient to such a one is this punishment, that [is] by the greater part, 7 so that, on the contrary, [it is] rather for you to forgive and to comfort, lest by over abundant sorrow such a one may be swallowed up; 8 for this reason, I call on you to confirm love to him, 9 for this also I wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in regard to all things. 10 And to whom you forgive anything—I also; for I also, if I have forgiven anything, to whom I have forgiven [it], because of you—in the person of Christ—[I forgive it.] 11 that we may not be over-reached by Satan, for we are not ignorant of his schemes. 12 And having come to Troas for the good news of the Christ, and a door having been opened to me in the LORD, 13 I have not had rest to my spirit, on my not finding my brother Titus, but having taken leave of them, I went forth to Macedonia; 14 and to God [is] thanks, who at all times is leading us in triumph in the Christ, and the fragrance of His knowledge He is revealing through us in every place; 15 we are a refreshing fragrance to God because of Christ, in those being saved, and in those being lost; 16 to one, indeed, a fragrance of death to death, and to the other, a fragrance of life to life; and who is sufficient for these things? 17 For we are not as the many, adulterating the word of God, but as of sincerity—but as of God; in the presence of God, in Christ we speak.

3 Do we begin again to recommend ourselves, except

we need, as some, letters of recommendation to you, or from you? 2 You are our letter, having been written in our hearts, known and read by all men, 3 revealed that you are a letter of Christ ministered by us, not written with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God, not in the tablets of stone, but in fleshy tablets of the heart, 4 and such trust we have through the Christ toward God, 5 not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything, as of ourselves, but our sufficiency [is] of God, 6 who also made us sufficient [to be] servants of the New Covenant, not of letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, and the Spirit makes alive. 7 And if the ministry of death, in letters, engraved in stones, came in glory, so that the sons of Israel were not able to look steadfastly into the face of Moses, because of the glory of his face—which was being made useless, 8 how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more in glory? 9 For if the ministry of the condemnation [is] glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness abound in glory; 10 for also even that which has been glorious, has not been glorious—in this respect, because of the superior glory; 11 for if that which is being made useless [is] through glory, much more that which is remaining [is] in glory. 12 Having, then, such hope, we use much freedom of speech, 13 and [are] not as Moses, who was putting a veil on his own face, for the sons of Israel not to look steadfastly into the end of that which is being made useless, 14 but their minds were hardened, for to this day the same veil at the reading of the Old Covenant remains withdrawn—which in Christ is being made useless— 15 but until today, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart, 16 and whenever they may turn to the LORD, the veil is taken away. 17 And the LORD is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the LORD [is], there [is] liberty; 18 and we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the LORD in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image, from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the LORD.

4 Because of this, having this ministry, according

as we received kindness, we do not faint, 2 but renounced for ourselves the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor deceitfully using the word of God, but by the manifestation of the truth recommending ourselves to every conscience of men, before God; 3 and if our good news is also veiled, it is veiled in those perishing, 4 in whom the god of this age blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that there does not shine forth to them the enlightening of the good news of the glory of the Christ, who is the image of God; (aiōn g165) 5 for we do not preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus—LORD, and [we are] ourselves your servants because of Jesus; 6 because [it is] God who said, “Light will shine out of darkness,” who shined in our hearts, for the enlightening of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. 7 And we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God, and not of us, 8 being in tribulation in every [way], but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; 9 persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; 10 at all times carrying around in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body, 11 for we who are living are condemned up to death because of Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our dying flesh, 12 so that, death indeed works in us, and life in you. 13 And having the same spirit of faith, according to that which has been written: “I believed, therefore I spoke”; we also believe, therefore we also speak; 14 knowing that He who raised up the Lord Jesus, will also raise us up through Jesus, and will present [us] with you, 15 for all things [are] because of you, that the grace having been multiplied, because of the thanksgiving of the more, may abound to the glory of God; 16 for this reason, we do not faint, but if our outward man also decays, yet the inward is renewed day by day; 17 for the momentary light matter of our tribulation works out for us more and more an exceedingly continuous weight of glory— (aiōnios g166)

18 we [are] not looking to the things seen, but to the things not seen; for the things seen [are] temporary, but the things not seen [are] continuous. (aiōnios g166)

5 For we have known that if the tent of our earthly house may be thrown down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands—perpetual—in the heavens, (aiōnios g166) 2 for also in this we groan, earnestly desiring to clothe ourselves with our dwelling that is from Heaven, 3 if so be that, having clothed ourselves, we will not be found naked, 4 for we also who are in the tent groan, being burdened, seeing we do not wish to unclothe ourselves, but to clothe ourselves, that the mortal may be swallowed up of life. 5 And He who worked us to this very thing [is] God, who also gave to us the deposit of the Spirit; 6 having courage, then, at all times, and knowing that being at home in the body, we are away from home from the LORD— 7 for we walk through faith, not through sight— 8 we have courage, and are well pleased, rather, to be away from the home of the body, and to be at home with the LORD. 9 We are also ambitious for this reason, whether at home or away from home, to be well pleasing to Him, 10 for it is necessary for all of us to have appeared before the judgment seat of the Christ, that each one may receive the things [done] through the body, in reference to the things that he did, whether good or evil; 11 having known, therefore, the fear of the LORD, we persuade men, and we are revealed to God, and I also hope to have been revealed in your consciences; 12 for we do not again recommend ourselves to you, but we are giving occasion to you of was] to God; whether we be of sound mind, [it is] to you, 14 for the love of the Christ constrains us, having judged thus: that if one died for all, then the whole longer live to themselves, but to Him who died for them, and was raised again. 16 So that we, from now even if we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him [thus] no longer; 17 so that if anyone [is] in Christ—[he is] a new creature; the old things passed away, behold, all things have become

new. 18 And all things [are] of God, who reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of the reconciliation, 19 how that God was in Christ—reconciling the world to Himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses; and having put in us the word of the reconciliation, 20 in behalf of Christ, then, we are ambassadors, as if God were calling through us, we implore, in behalf of Christ, “Be reconciled to God”; 21 He made Him having not known sin [to be] sin in our behalf, that we may become the righteousness of God in Him.

6 And also working together we call on [you] that you do not receive the grace of God in vain— 2 for He says, “In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you, behold, now [is] a well-accepted time; behold, now, a day of salvation.” 3 In nothing giving any cause of offense, that the ministry may not be blamed, 4 but in everything through faith, not through sight— 5 we have courage, recommending ourselves as God’s servants; in much patience, in tribulations, in necessities, in distresses, 6 in stripes, in imprisonments, in insurrections, in labors, in watchings, in fastings, 7 in knowledge, in long-suffering, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unhypocritical love, 8 in the word of truth, in the power of God, through the armor of righteousness, on the right and on the left, 8 through reference to the things that he did, whether good glory and dishonor, through evil report and good report, as leading astray, and true; 9 as unknown, and recognized; as dying, and behold, we live; as God, and I also hope to have been revealed in your disciplined, and not put to death; 10 as sorrowful, and always rejoicing; as poor, and making many rich; as ourselves to you, but we are giving occasion to you of having nothing, and possessing all things. 11 Our glorifying in our behalf, that you may have [something] mouth has been open to you, O Corinthians, our heart in reference to those glorifying in face and not in has been enlarged! 12 You are not restricted in us, heart; 13 for whether we were beside ourselves, [it and you are restricted in your [own] yearnings, 13 and was] to God; whether we be of sound mind, [it is] to [as] a repayment of the same kind (as to children I say you, 14 for the love of the Christ constrains us, having [it]), be enlarged—also you! 14 Do not become yoked with others—unbelievers, for what partaking [is there] died, 15 and He died for all, that those living may no longer live to themselves, but to Him who died for them, and was raised again. 16 So that we, from now to Christ with Belial? Or what part to a believer with on, have known no one according to the flesh, and an unbeliever? 16 And what agreement to the temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God, according as God said, “I will dwell in them, and will walk among [them], and I will be their God, and they will be My people, 17 for this reason, come forth out of the midst of them, and be separated, says truth, so also our boasting before Titus became truth, the LORD, and do not touch an unclean thing, and I 15 and his yearnings are more abundantly toward will receive you, 18 and I will be for a Father to you, you, remembering the obedience of you all, how you and you will be sons and daughters to Me, says the received him with fear and trembling; 16 I rejoice, LORD Almighty.” therefore, that in everything I have courage in you.

7 Having, then, these promises, beloved, may we 8 And we make known to you, brothers, the grace cleanse ourselves from every defilement of flesh of God, that has been given in the assemblies and spirit, perfecting sanctification in the fear of God; of Macedonia, 2 because in much trial of tribulation 2 receive us; no one did we wrong; no one did we the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, ruin; no one did we defraud; 3 I do not say [it] to abounded to the riches of their liberality; 3 because, condemn you, for I have said before that you are according to [their] power, I testify, and above [their] in our hearts to die together and to live together; power, they were willing of themselves, 4 with much 4 great [is] my freedom of speech to you, great plea calling on us to receive the favor and the my glory on your behalf; I have been filled with fellowship of the ministry to the holy ones, 5 and not the comfort, I hyper-abound with the joy on all our according as we expected, but they gave themselves tribulation, 5 for we also, having come to Macedonia, first to the LORD, and to us, through the will of God, our flesh has had no relaxation, but on every side we 6 so that we exhorted Titus, that, according as he are in tribulation: fightings outside, fears within; 6 began before, so also he may also finish this favor but He who is comforting the cast-down—God—He to you, 7 but even as in everything you abound, in comforted us in the coming of Titus; 7 and not only faith, and word, and knowledge, and all diligence, in his coming, but also in the comfort with which and in your love to us, that also in this grace you may he was comforted over you, declaring to us your abound; 8 I do not speak according to command, longing desire, your lamentation, your zeal for me, but because of the diligence of others, and proving so that I rejoiced the more, 8 because even if I the genuineness of your love, 9 for you know the made you sorry in the letter, I do not regret—if even I grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that because of you regretted—for I perceive that the letter, even if for an He became poor—being rich, that you may become hour, made you sorry. 9 I now rejoice, not that you rich by that poverty. 10 And I give an opinion in this: were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to for this [is] expedient to you, who not only to do, conversion, for you were made sorry toward God, but also to will, began before—a year ago, 11 and that you might receive damage from us in nothing; 10 now also finish doing [it], that even as [there is] the for sorrow toward God works conversion to salvation readiness of the will, so also the finishing, out of that without regret, and the sorrow of the world works which you have, 12 for if the willing mind is present, death, 11 for behold, this same thing—your being it is well-accepted according to that which anyone made sorry toward God—how much diligence it works may have, not according to that which he does not in you! But defense, but displeasure, but fear, but have; 13 for I do not speak that for others [to be] longing desire, but zeal, but revenge; in everything released, and you pressured, 14 but by equality, at you approved yourselves to be pure in the matter. 12 the present time your abundance—for their want, that If, then, I also wrote to you—not for his cause who also their abundance may be for your want, that there did wrong, nor for his cause who suffered wrong, may be equality, 15 according as it has been written: but for our diligence in your behalf being revealed to “He who [gathered] much, had nothing over; and he you before God— 13 because of this we have been who [gathered] little, had no lack.” 16 And thanks to comforted in your comfort, and more abundantly the God, who is putting the same diligence for you in the more we rejoiced in the joy of Titus, that his spirit has heart of Titus, 17 because he indeed accepted the been refreshed from you all; 14 because if I have exhortation, and being more diligent, he went forth to boasted anything to him in your behalf, I was not you of his own accord, 18 and we sent with him the put to shame; but as we spoke to you all things in brother, whose praise in the good news [is] through all the assemblies, 19 and not only so, but who was God, 12 because the ministry of this service not only also appointed by vote by the assemblies, our fellow-traveler, with this favor that is ministered by us, to is supplying the wants of the holy ones, but is also abounding through many thanksgivings to God, 13 the glory of the same Lord, and your willing mind; through the proof of this ministry glorifying God for 20 avoiding this, lest anyone may blame us in this the subjection of your confession to the good news of abundance that is ministered by us, 21 providing right the Christ, and [for] the liberality of the fellowship to things, not only before the LORD, but also before them and to all, 14 and by their supplication in your men; 22 and we sent our brother with them, whom behalf, longing after you because of the exceeding we proved being diligent many times in many things, grace of God on you; 15 thanks also to God for His and now much more diligent, by the great confidence unspeakable gift!

that is toward you, 23 whether—about Titus—my partner and fellow-worker toward you, whether—our brothers, apostles of assemblies—glory of Christ; 24 the showing therefore of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf, show to them, even in the face of the assemblies.

9 For indeed, concerning the ministry that [is] for the holy ones, it is superfluous for me to write to you, 2 for I have known your readiness of mind, which in your behalf I boast of to Macedonians, that Achaia has been prepared a year ago, and your zeal stirred up the greater part, 3 and I sent the brothers, that our boasting on your behalf may not be made vain in this respect; that, according as I said, you may be ready, 4 lest if Macedonians may come with me, and find you unprepared, we may be put to shame (that we do not say—you) in this same confidence of boasting. 5 Therefore I thought [it] necessary to exhort the brothers, that they may go before to you, and may make up before your formerly announced blessing, that this be ready, as a blessing, and not as covetousness. 6 And [remember] this: he who is sowing sparingly, will also reap sparingly; and he who is sowing in blessings, will also reap in blessings; 7 each one, according as he purposes in heart, not out of sorrow or out of necessity, for God loves a cheerful giver, 8 and God [is] able to cause all grace to abound to you, that in everything always having all sufficiency, you may abound to every good work, 9 according as it has been written: “He dispersed abroad, He gave to the poor, His righteousness remains throughout the age,” (aiōn g165) 10 and may He who is supplying seed to the sower, and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness, 11 being enriched to all liberality in everything, which works thanksgiving through us to

10 And I, Paul, myself, call on you—through the meekness and gentleness of the Christ—who in presence [am] indeed humble among you, and being absent, have courage toward you, 2 and I implore [you], that, being present, I may not have courage, with the confidence with which I reckon

to be bold against certain reckoning us as walking according to the flesh; 3 for walking in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh, 4 for the weapons of our warfare [are] not fleshly, but powerful to God for bringing down of strongholds, 5 bringing down reasonings, and every high thing lifted up against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of the Christ, 6 and being in readiness to avenge every disobedience whenever your obedience may be fulfilled. 7 You see the outward appearance. If anyone has trusted in himself to be Christ's, let him reckon this again from himself, that according as he is Christ's, so also we [are] Christ's; 8 for even if I will also boast anything more abundantly concerning our authority, that the LORD gave us for building up, and not for casting you down, I will not be ashamed, 9 that I may not seem as if I would terrify you through the letters, 10 “because the letters indeed,” says one, “[are] weighty and strong, and the bodily presence weak, and the speech despicable.” 11 This one—let him reckon thus: that such as we are in word, through letters, being absent, such also, being present, [we are] in deed. 12 For we do not make bold to rank or to compare ourselves with certain of those commanding themselves, but they, measuring themselves among themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are not wise, 13 and we will not boast ourselves in regard to the unmeasured things, but after the measure of the line that the God of measure appointed to us—to reach

even to you; 14 for we do not stretch ourselves too much, as not reaching to you, for even to you we came in the good news of the Christ, 15 not boasting of the things not measured, in other men's labors, and having hope—your faith increasing—in you to be enlarged, according to our line—into abundance, 16 since many boast according to the flesh, I also will to proclaim good news in the [places] beyond you, not in another's line in regard to the things made ready, to boast; 17 and he who is boasting—let him boast in the LORD; 18 for he who is commanding himself is not approved, but he whom the LORD commands.

11 O that you were bearing with me a little of the folly, but you also bear with me: 2 for I am zealous for you with zeal of God, for I betrothed you to one Husband, a pure virgin, to present to Christ, 3 and I fear, lest, as the serpent deceived Eve in his subtlety, so your minds may be corrupted from the simplicity that [is] in the Christ; 4 for if, indeed, he who is coming preaches another Jesus whom we did not preach, or you receive another spirit which you did not receive, or other good news which you did not accept—well were you bearing [it], 5 for I reckon that I have been nothing behind the very chiefest apostles, 6 and even if a commoner in speech—yet not in knowledge, but in everything we were made evident in all things to you. 7 Did I do sin—humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I freely proclaimed the good news of God to you? 8 I robbed other assemblies, having taken wages, for your ministry; 9 and being present with you, and having been in want, I was chargeable to no one, for the brothers supplied my lack—having come from Macedonia—and I kept myself burdenless to you in everything, and will keep. 10 The truth of Christ is in me, because this boasting will not be stopped in regard to me in the regions of Achaia; 11 for what reason? Because I do not love you? God has known! 12 And what I do, I also will do, that I may cut off the occasion of those wishing an occasion, that in that which they boast they may be found according as we also; 13 for those such [are] false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ, 14 and no wonder—for even Satan transforms himself into a messenger of light; 15 [it is] no great thing, then, if his servants also transform themselves as servants of righteousness—whose end will be according to their works. 16 Again I say, may no one think me to be a fool; and if otherwise, receive me even as a fool, that I also may boast a little. 17 That which I speak, I do not speak according to the LORD, but as in foolishness, in this the confidence of boasting; 18 in foolishness, in this the confidence of boasting; 19 for you gladly bear with the fools—being wise, 20 for you bear, if anyone is bringing you under bondage, if anyone devours, if anyone takes away, if anyone exalts himself, if anyone strikes you on the face; 21 I speak in reference to dishonor, how that we were weak, and in whatever anyone is bold—in foolishness I say [it]—I also am bold. 22 Are they Hebrews? I also! Are they Israelites? I also! Are they seed of Abraham? I also! 23 Are they servants of Christ? As [if] beside myself I speak—I [am] more; in labors more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths many times. 24 Five times I received from Jews forty [stripes] except one; 25 three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, I have passed a night and a day in the deep; 26 journeys many times, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from [my own] race, perils from nations, perils in city, perils in wilderness, perils in sea, perils among false brothers; 27 in laboriousness and painfulness, many times in watchings, in hunger and thirst, many times in fastings, in cold and nakedness; 28 apart from the things without—the crowding on me that is daily—the care of all the assemblies. 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I am not burned? 30 If it is necessary to boast, I will boast of the things of my weakness; 31 the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ—who is blessed for all ages—has known that I do not lie! (aiōn g165) 32 In Damascus the governor [under] Aretas the king was watching the city of the Damascenes, wishing to seize me, 33 and I was let down through a window in a rope basket, through the wall, and fled out of his hands.

12 To boast, really, is not profitable for me, for I will come to visions and revelations of the LORD. 2 I have known a man in Christ, fourteen years ago—whether in the body I have not known, whether out of the body I have not known, God has known—such a one being snatched up to the third heaven; 3 and I have known such a man—whether in the body, whether out of the body, I have not known, you such as I wish, and I may be found by you such God has known— 4 that he was snatched up to the as you do not wish, lest there be strifes, envyings, paradise, and heard unutterable sayings, that it is wraths, revelries, slanders, whisperings, puffings up, not possible for man to speak. 5 Of such a one I insurrections, 21 lest again having come, my God will boast, and of myself I will not boast, except in may humble me in regard to you, and I may mourn my weaknesses, 6 for if I may wish to boast, I will many of those having sinned before, and having not not be a fool, for I will say truth; but I refrain, lest changed their mind concerning the uncleanness, and in regard to me anyone may think anything above whoredom, and licentiousness, that they practiced. what he sees me, or hears anything of me; 7 and that by the exceeding greatness of the revelations I might not be exalted too much, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, that he might batter me, that I might not be exalted too much. 8 I called on the LORD three times concerning this thing, that it might depart from me, 9 and He said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness”; most gladly, therefore, will I rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of the Christ may rest on me: 10 for this reason I am well pleased in weaknesses, in damages, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses—for Christ; for whenever I may be weak, then I am powerful; 11 I have become a fool—boasting; you compelled me; for I ought to have been commended by you, for I was behind the very chiefest apostles in nothing—even if I am nothing. 12 The signs, indeed, of the apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds, 13 for what is there in which you were inferior to the rest of the assemblies, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this injustice! 14 Behold, a third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you, for I do not seek yours, but you, for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children, 15 and I will most gladly spend and be entirely spent for your souls, even if, loving you more abundantly, I am loved less. 16 And be it [so], I did not burden you, but being crafty, I took you with guile; 17 anyone of those whom I have sent to you—did I take advantage of you by him? 18 I begged Titus, and sent with [him] the brother; did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same Spirit? Did we not [walk] in the same steps? 19 Again, [do] you think that we are making defense to you? We speak before God in Christ; and all things, beloved, [are] for your up-building, 20 for I fear lest, having come, I may not find

13 I come to you this third time; on the mouth of two or three witnesses will every saying be established; 2 I have said before, and I say [it] before, as being present, the second time, and being absent, now, I write to those having sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again, I will not spare, 3 since you seek a proof of the Christ speaking in me, who is not weak to you, but is powerful in you, 4 for even if He was crucified from weakness, yet He lives from the power of God; for we also are weak in Him, but we will live with Him from the power of God toward you. 5 Try yourselves, if you are in the faith; prove yourselves; do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you, if you are not disapproved of in some respect? 6 And I hope that you will know that we are not disapproved of; 7 and I pray before God that you do no evil, not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is right, and we may be as disapproved; 8 for we are not able to do anything against the truth, but for the truth; 9 for we rejoice when we may be weak, but you may be powerful; and we also pray for this—your perfection! 10 Because of this, these things—being absent—I write, that being present, I may not treat [any] sharply, according to the authority that the LORD gave me for building up, and not for casting down. 11 From now on, brothers, rejoice; be made perfect, be comforted, be of the same mind, be at peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. 12 Greet one another in a holy kiss. 13 All the holy ones greet you. 14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, [is] with you all! Amen.

Galatians

1 Paul, an apostle—not from men, nor through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him out of the dead— 2 and all the brothers with me, to the assemblies of Galatia: 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, (aiōn g165) 5 to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen. (aiōn g165) 6 I wonder that you are so quickly removed from Him who called you in the grace of Christ to another good news— 7 not that there is another, except there are certain who are troubling you, and wishing to pervert the good news of the Christ; 8 but even if we or a messenger out of Heaven may proclaim good news to you different from what we proclaimed to you—let him be accursed! 9 As we have said before, and now say again: if anyone may proclaim to you good news different from what you received—let him be accursed! 10 For do I now persuade men, or God? Or do I seek to please men? For if I yet pleased men—I should not be Christ's servant. 11 And I make known to you, brothers, the good news that was proclaimed by me, that it is not according to man, 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught [it], but through a revelation of Jesus Christ, 13 for you heard of my behavior once in Judaism, that I was exceedingly persecuting the Assembly of God, and destroying it, 14 and I was advancing in Judaism above many equals in age in my own race, being more abundantly zealous of my fathers' deliverances, 15 and when God was well pleased—having separated me from the womb of my mother, and having called [me] through His grace— 16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might proclaim Him as good news among the nations, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away to Arabia, and again returned to Damascus; 18 then, after three years I went up to Jerusalem to inquire about Peter, and remained with him fifteen days, 19 and I did not see [any] other of the apostles, except James, the brother of the LORD. 20 And the things that I write to you, behold, before God—I do not lie; 21 then I came into the regions of Syria and of Cilicia, 22 and was unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea, that [are] in Christ, 23 and they were only hearing that “he who is persecuting us then, now proclaims good news—the faith that he was then destroying”; 24 and they were glorifying God in me.

2 Then after fourteen years again I went up to Jerusalem with Barnabas, having also taken Titus with me; 2 and I went up by revelation, and submitted the good news to them that I preach among the nations, and privately to those esteemed, lest I ran or might run in vain; 3 but not even Titus, who [is] with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised— 4 and [that] because of the false brothers brought in unaware, who came in secretly to spy out our liberty that we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us under bondage, 5 to whom not even for an hour we gave place by subjection, that the truth of the good news might remain to you. 6 And from those who were esteemed to be something—whatever they were then, it makes no difference to me. God does not accept the face of man, for to me those esteemed added nothing, 7 but on the contrary, having seen that I have been entrusted with the good news of the uncircumcision, as Peter with [that] of the circumcision, 8 for He who worked with Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, worked also in me in regard to the nations, 9 and having known the grace that was given to me, James, and Cephas, and John, who were esteemed to be pillars, they gave to me a right hand of fellowship, and to Barnabas, that we may go to the nations, and they to the circumcision, 10 only, that we should be mindful of the poor, which I also was diligent—this very thing—to do. 11 And when Peter came to Antioch, I stood up against him to the face, because he was blameworthy, 12 for before the coming of some from James, he was eating with the nations, and when they came, he was withdrawing and separating himself, fearing those of circumcision, 13 and the other Jews acted hypocritically with him, so that Barnabas was also carried away by their hypocrisy. 14 But when I saw that they are not walking uprightly to the truth of the good news, I said to Peter before all, “If you, being a Jew, live in the manner of the nations, and not in the manner of the Jews, from the curse of the Law, having become a curse how do you compel the nations to live like Jews? 15 for us, for it has been written: "Cursed is everyone We by nature Jews, and not sinners of the nations, who is hanging on a tree," 14 that the blessing of 16 having also known that a man is not declared Abraham may come to the nations in Christ Jesus, righteous by works of law, but through faith from that we may receive the promise of the Spirit through Jesus Christ, we also believed in Christ Jesus, that we 15 Brothers, I say [it] as a man, no one even might be declared righteous by faith from Christ, and makes void or adds to a confirmed covenant of man, not by works of law, because no flesh will be declared 16 and to Abraham were the promises spoken, and righteous by works of law." 17 And if, seeking to be to his Seed; He does not say, "And to seeds," as of declared righteous in Christ, we were also ourselves many, but as of one, "And to your Seed," which is found sinners, [is] Christ then a servant of sin? Let it Christ; 17 and this I say, a covenant confirmed before not be! 18 For if the things I threw down, these again by God to Christ, the Law, that came four hundred I build up, I set myself forth [as] a transgressor; 19 for and thirty years after, does not set aside, to make I died through law that I may live to God; 20 I have void the promise, 18 for if the inheritance [is] by law, been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but [it is] no longer by promise, but God granted [it] to Christ lives in me; and that which I now live in the Abraham through promise. 19 Why, then, the Law? It flesh—I live in the faith of the Son of God, who loved was added on account of the transgressions, until me and gave Himself for me; 21 I do not make the the Seed might come to which the promise has been grace of God void, for if righteousness [is] through made, having been set in order through messengers law—then Christ died in vain.

3 O thoughtless Galatians, who bewitched you, not to obey the truth—before whose eyes [it] was previously written [about] Jesus Christ having been crucified? 2 I only wish to learn this from you: did you receive the Spirit by works of the Law, or by the hearing of faith? 3 Are you so thoughtless? Having begun in the Spirit, do you now end in the flesh? 4 So many things you suffered in vain! If, indeed, even in vain. 5 He, therefore, who is supplying the Spirit to you and working mighty acts among you—[is it] by works of law or by the hearing of faith? 6 According as Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness; 7 know, then, that those of faith—these are sons of Abraham, 8 and the Writing, having foreseen that God declares righteous the nations by faith, foretold the good news to Abraham: 9 "All the nations will be blessed in you"; so that those of faith are blessed with the believing Abraham, 10 for as many as are of works of law are under a curse, for it has been written: "Cursed [is] everyone who is not remaining in all things that have been written in the Scroll of the Law—to do them," 11 and [it] is evident that in law no one is declared righteous with God, because "The righteous will live by faith"; 12 of the world, 4 and when the fullness of time came, and the Law is not by faith, rather, "The man who did them will live in them." 13 Christ redeemed us

he differs nothing from a servant, [though] being lord of all, 2 but is under tutors and stewards until the time appointed of the father, 3 so we also, when we were children, were in servitude under the elements of the world, 4 and when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, come of a woman, come under law, 5 that He may redeem those under law, that we may receive the adoption as sons; 6 and her having the husband.” 28 And we, brothers, as because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of Isaac, are children of promise, 29 but as he then who His Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!” 7 was born according to the flesh persecuted him [born] So that you are no longer a servant, but a son, and according to the Spirit, so also now; 30 but what does if a son, also an heir of God through Christ. 8 But the Writing say? “Cast forth the maidservant and her then, indeed, having not known God, you were in son, for the son of the maidservant may not be heir servitude to those [that are] not by nature gods, 9 and with the son of the free [woman]”; 31 then, brothers, now, having known God—and rather being known we are not a maidservant’s children, but the free by God—how [do] you turn again to the weak and [woman’s].

poor elements to which you desire anew to be in servitude? 10 You observe days, and months, and times, and years! 11 I am afraid for you, lest I labored in vain for you. 12 I implore you, brothers, become as I [am]—because I also [am] as you; you did not hurt me; 13 and you have known that through weakness of the flesh I proclaimed good news to you at the first, 14 and you did not despise nor reject my trial that [is] in my flesh, but you received me as a messenger of God—as Christ Jesus; 15 what then was your blessedness? For I testify to you, that if possible, having plucked out your eyes, you would have given [them] to me; 16 so have I become your enemy, being true to you? 17 They are zealous for you—[yet] not well, but they wish to shut us out, that you may be zealous for them; 18 and [it is] good to be zealously regarded, in what is good, at all times, and not only in my being present with you; 19 my little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ may be formed in you, 20 indeed I was wishing to be present with you now, and to change my voice, because I am in doubt about you. 21 Tell me, you who are willing to be under law, do you not hear the Law? 22 For it has been written that Abraham had two sons, one by the maidservant and one by the free [woman], 23 but he who [is] of the maidservant has been according to flesh, but he who [is] of the free [woman], through the promise, 24 which things are allegorized, for these are the two covenants: one, indeed, from Mount Sinai, bringing forth to servitude, which is Hagar; 25 for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the Jerusalem that now [is], and is in servitude with her children, 26 and the Jerusalem above is the free [woman], which is mother of us all, 27 for it has been written: “Rejoice, O barren, who is not bearing; break forth and cry, you who are not travailing, because many [are] the children of the desolate—more than of

5 In the freedom, then, with which Christ made you free—stand, and do not be held fast again by a yoke of servitude. 2 Behold! I, Paul, say to you, that if you are [to be] circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing; 3 and I testify again to every man circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law; 4 you were voided from the Christ, you who are declared righteous in law; you fell away from grace; 5 for we by the Spirit, by faith, wait for a hope of righteousness, 6 for in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. 7 You were running well; who hindered you [so as] not to obey the truth? 8 The persuasion [is] not of Him who is calling you! 9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump; 10 I have confidence in regard to you in the LORD that you will not be otherwise minded; and he who is troubling you will bear the judgment, whoever he may be. 11 And I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the Cross has been done away [with]; 12 O that even they would cut themselves off who are unsettling you! 13 For you were called to freedom, brothers, only the freedom [is] not for an occasion to the flesh, but serve one another through the love, 14 for all the Law is fulfilled in one word—in this: “You will love your neighbor as yourself”; 15 and if you bite and devour one another, see that you may not be consumed by one another. 16 And I say, walk in the Spirit, and you may not fulfill the desire of the flesh; 17 for the flesh desires contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit contrary to the flesh, and these are opposed to one another, that the things that you may will—these you may not do; 18 and if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under law. 19 And the works of the flesh are also evident, which are: adultery, whoredom, uncleanness, licentiousness, 20 idolatry, witchcraft, enmities, strife, jealousy, wraths, rivalries, dissensions, sects, 21 envyings, murders, rule—peace on them, and kindness, and on the Israel drunkenness, reveling, and such like, of which I tell you before, as I also said before, that those doing such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God. 22 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your And the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, long-suffering, kindness, goodness, faith, 23 meekness, [and] self-control. Against such there is no law; 24 and those who are of Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with the affections and the desires; 25 if we may live in the Spirit, we may also walk in the Spirit; 26 let us not become vainglorious—provoking one another, envying one another!

6 Brothers, even if a man may be overtaken in any trespass, you who [are] spiritual restore such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself—lest you also may be tempted. 2 Bear the burdens of one another, and so fill up the law of the Christ, 3 for if anyone thinks [himself] to be something—being nothing—he deceives himself; 4 and let each one prove his own work, and then he will have the glorying in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to the other, 5 for each one will bear his own burden. 6 And let him who is instructed in the word share with him who is instructing in all good things. 7 Do not be led astray: God is not mocked; for what a man may sow—that he will also reap, 8 because he who is sowing to his own flesh, of the flesh will reap corruption; and he who is sowing to the Spirit, of the Spirit will reap continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 9 and in doing good we should not be weary, for at the proper time we will reap—not desponding; 10 therefore, then, as we have opportunity, may we work the good to all, and especially to those of the household of faith. 11 You see in how large letters I have written to you with my own hand; 12 as many as are willing to make a good appearance in the flesh, these constrain you to be circumcised—only that they may not be persecuted for the Cross of the Christ, 13 for neither do those circumcised keep the Law themselves, but they wish you to be circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. 14 And for me, let it not be—to glory, except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world; 15 for in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation; 16 and as many as walk by this

Ephesians

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, to the holy ones who are in Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 3 Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who blessed us in every spiritual blessing in the heavenly [places] in Christ, 4 according as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, for our being holy and unblemished before Him, in love, 5 having foreordained us to the adoption of sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, in which He made us accepted in the beloved, 7 in whom we have the redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of the trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, 8 in which He abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 having made known to us the secret of His will, according to His good pleasure, that He purposed in Himself, 10 in regard to the dispensation of the fullness of the times, to bring into one the whole in the Christ, both the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth—in Him; 11 in whom also we obtained an inheritance, being foreordained according to the purpose of Him who is working all things according to the counsel of His will, 12 for our being to the praise of His glory, [even] those who first hoped in the Christ, 13 in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth—the good news of your salvation—in whom also having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of the promise, 14 which is a deposit of our inheritance, to the redemption of the acquired possession, to the praise of His glory. 15 Because of this I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and the love to all the holy ones, 16 do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of the glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the recognition of Him, 18 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, for your knowing what is the hope of His calling, and what the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the holy ones, 19 and what the exceeding greatness of His power to us who are believing, according to the working of the power of His might, 20 which He worked in the Christ, having raised Him out of the dead, and sat [Him] at His right hand in the heavenly [places], 21 far above all principality, and authority, and might, and lordship, and every name named, not only in this age, but also in the coming one; (aiōn g165) 22 and He put all things under His feet, and gave Him—head over all things to the Assembly, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who is filling all in all.

2 Also you—being dead in trespasses and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the age of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, (aiōn g165) 3 among whom we also all walked once in the desires of our flesh, doing the wishes of the flesh and of the thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath—as also the others, 4 but God, being rich in kindness, because of His great love with which He loved us, 5 even being dead in the trespasses, made us alive together with the Christ (by grace you are saved), 6 and raised [us] up together, and sat [us] together in the heavenly [places] in Christ Jesus, 7 that He might show, in the ages that are coming, the exceeding riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus, (aiōn g165) 8 for by grace you are saved, through faith, and this [is] not of yourselves—[it is] the gift of God, 9 not of works, that no one may boast; 10 for we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus on good works, which God prepared before, that we may walk in them. 11 For this reason, remember, that you [were] once the nations in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that called Circumcision in the flesh made by hands, 12 that you were at that time apart from Christ, having been alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of the promise, having no hope, and without God in the world; 13 but now, in Christ Jesus, you being once far off became near in the blood of the Christ, 14 for He is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of the partition of hostility, 15 the enmity in His flesh, having done away [with] the Law of the commands in ordinances, that He might create the two into one new man in Himself, making peace, 16 and might reconcile both in one body to God through the Cross, having slain the enmity by it, 17 and having come,

He proclaimed good news—peace to you—the far-off and the near, 18 because through Him we have the access—we both—in one Spirit to the Father. 19 in strength to comprehend, with all the holy ones, Then, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens of the holy ones, and of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being chief corner-[stone], 21 in whom all the building fitly framed together increases to a holy temple in the LORD, 22 in whom you also are built together, for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

may dwell through the faith in your hearts, having been rooted and founded in love, 18 that you may be exceeding the knowledge, that you may be filled—to all the fullness of God; 20 and to Him who is able to do exceedingly [and] abundantly above all things that we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us, 21 to Him [is] the glory in the Assembly in Christ Jesus, to all the generations of the age of the ages. Amen. (aiōn g165)

3 For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus

for you the nations, 2 if, indeed, you heard of the dispensation of the grace of God that was given to me in regard to you, 3 that by revelation He made known to me the secret, according as I wrote before in few [words]— 4 in regard to which you are able, reading [it], to understand my knowledge in the secret of the Christ, 5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it was now revealed to His holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit— 6 that the nations are fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of His promise in the Christ, through the good news, 7 of which I became a servant, according to the gift of the grace of God that was given to me, according to the working of His power; 8 to me—the less than the least of all the holy ones—was given this grace, among the nations to proclaim good news—the untraceable riches of the Christ, 9 and to cause all to see what [is] the fellowship of the secret that has been hid from the ages in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ, (aiōn g165) 10 that there might be made known now to the principalities and the authorities in the heavenly places, through the Assembly, the manifold wisdom of God, 11 according to a purpose of the ages, which He made in Christ Jesus our Lord, (aiōn g165) 12 in whom we have the freedom and the access in confidence through the faith of Him, 13 for this reason, I ask [you] not to faint in my tribulations for you, which is your glory. 14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 of whom the whole family in the heavens and on earth is named, 16 that He may give to you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened through His Spirit with might, in regard to the inner man, 17 that the Christ

I, the prisoner of the LORD, then call on you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, bearing with one another in love, 3 being diligent to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace; 4 one body and one Spirit, according as you were also called in one hope of your calling; 5 one Lord, one faith, one immersion, 6 one God and Father of all, who [is] over all, and through all, and in you all, 7 and to each one of you was given grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ, 8 for this reason it says, "Having gone up on high He led captive captivity, and gave gifts to men." 9 And that, He went up, what is it except that He also went down first into the lower parts of the earth? 10 He who went down is the same who also went up far above all the heavens, that He may fill all things— 11 and He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as proclaimers of good news, and some as shepherds and teachers, 12 to the perfecting of the holy ones, for a work of ministry, for a building up of the body of the Christ, 13 until we may all come to the unity of faith and of the recognition of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to a measure of stature of the fullness of the Christ, 14 that we may no longer be children, being tossed by waves and being carried around by every wind of the teaching, in the cunning of men, in craftiness, to the scheming of leading astray, 15 and [speaking] truth in love, we may increase to Him in all things, who is the head—the Christ; 16 from whom the whole body, being fitly joined together and united, through the supply of every joint, according to the working in the measure of each single part, the increase of the body makes for the building up of itself in love. 17 This, then, I say, and I testify in the the sons of the disobedience; 7 do not become, then, LORD: you are no longer to walk, as also the other partakers with them, 8 for you were once darkness, nations walk, in the vanity of their mind, 18 being and now light in the LORD; walk as children of light, darkened in the understanding, being alienated from 9 for the fruit of the light [is] in all goodness, and the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in righteousness, and truth, 10 proving what is well-them, because of the hardness of their heart, 19 who, pleasing to the LORD; 11 and have no fellowship with having ceased to feel, gave themselves up to the the unfruitful works of the darkness and rather even licentiousness, for the working of all uncleanness in convict, 12 for it is a shame even to speak of the greediness; 20 and you did not so learn the Christ, 21 things done by them in secret, 13 and all the things if [it] so be [that] you heard Him, and were taught in reproved by the light are revealed, for everything that Him, as truth is in Jesus; 22 concerning the former is revealed is light; 14 for this reason it says, "Arouse behavior you are to put off the old man, that is corrupt yourself, you who are sleeping, and arise out of the according to the desires of the deceit, 23 and to be dead, and the Christ will shine on you." 15 See, then, renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and to put on how exactly you walk, not as unwise, but as wise, 16 the new man, which, according to God, was created redeeming the time, because the days are evil; 17 do in righteousness and kindness of the truth. 25 For not become fools because of this, but—understanding this reason, putting away the lying, each speak truth what [is] the will of the LORD, 18 and do not be drunk with his neighbor, because we are members of one with wine, in which is wastefulness, but be filled in the another; 26 be angry and do not sin; do not let the Spirit, 19 speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns sun go down on your wrath, 27 neither give place to and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in the Devil; 28 whoever is stealing let him no longer your heart to the LORD, 20 always giving thanks for steal, but rather let him labor, working the thing that all things, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to is good with the hands, that he may have to impart the God and Father, 21 subjecting yourselves to one to him having need. 29 Let no corrupt word go forth another in the fear of Christ. 22 The wives: [subject out of your mouth, but what is good to the necessary yourselves] to your own husbands, as to the LORD, building up, that it may give grace to the hearers; 30 23 because the husband is head of the wife, as also and do not make the Holy Spirit of God sorrowful, in the Christ [is] head of the Assembly, and He is Savior which you were sealed to [the] day of redemption. 31 of the body, 24 but even as the Assembly is subject Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, to Christ, so also [are] the wives [subject] to their own and slander, be put away from you, with all malice, husbands in everything. 25 The husbands: love your 32 and become kind to one another, tender-hearted, own wives, as the Christ also loved the Assembly, forgiving one another, according as God also forgave and gave Himself for it, 26 that He might sanctify it, you in Christ.

5 Become, then, followers of God, as beloved children, 2 and walk in love, as the Christ also loved us, and gave Himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for an odor of a refreshing fragrance, 3 and whoredom, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, do not let it even be named among you, as is proper to holy ones; 4 also filthiness, and foolish talking, or jesting—the things not fit—but rather thanksgiving; 5 for you know this, that every whoremonger, or unclean, or covetous person, who is an idolater, has no inheritance in the kingdom of the Christ and God. 6 Let no one deceive you with vain words, for because of these things comes the anger of God on the sons of the disobedience; 7 do not become, then, the unfruitful works of the darkness and rather even licentiousness, for the working of all uncleanness in convict, 12 for it is a shame even to speak of the greediness; 20 and you did not so learn the Christ, 21 things done by them in secret, 13 and all the things if [it] so be [that] you heard Him, and were taught in reproved by the light are revealed, for everything that Him, as truth is in Jesus; 22 concerning the former is revealed is light; 14 for this reason it says, "Arouse behavior you are to put off the old man, that is corrupt yourself, you who are sleeping, and arise out of the according to the desires of the deceit, 23 and to be dead, and the Christ will shine on you." 15 See, then, renewed in the spirit of your mind, 24 and to put on how exactly you walk, not as unwise, but as wise, 16 the new man, which, according to God, was created redeeming the time, because the days are evil; 17 do in righteousness and kindness of the truth. 25 For not become fools because of this, but—understanding this reason, putting away the lying, each speak truth what [is] the will of the LORD, 18 and do not be drunk with his neighbor, because we are members of one with wine, in which is wastefulness, but be filled in the another; 26 be angry and do not sin; do not let the Spirit, 19 speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns sun go down on your wrath, 27 neither give place to and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in the Devil; 28 whoever is stealing let him no longer your heart to the LORD, 20 always giving thanks for steal, but rather let him labor, working the thing that all things, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to is good with the hands, that he may have to impart the God and Father, 21 subjecting yourselves to one to him having need. 29 Let no corrupt word go forth another in the fear of Christ. 22 The wives: [subject out of your mouth, but what is good to the necessary yourselves] to your own husbands, as to the LORD, building up, that it may give grace to the hearers; 30 23 because the husband is head of the wife, as also and do not make the Holy Spirit of God sorrowful, in the Christ [is] head of the Assembly, and He is Savior which you were sealed to [the] day of redemption. 31 of the body, 24 but even as the Assembly is subject Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, to Christ, so also [are] the wives [subject] to their own and slander, be put away from you, with all malice, husbands in everything. 25 The husbands: love your 32 and become kind to one another, tender-hearted, own wives, as the Christ also loved the Assembly, forgiving one another, according as God also forgave and gave Himself for it, 26 that He might sanctify it, having cleansed [it] with the bathing of the water in the saying, 27 that He might present the Assembly to Himself in glory, having no spot or wrinkle, or any of such things, but that it may be holy and unblemished; 28 so ought the husbands to love their own wives as their own bodies: he who is loving his own wife—he loves himself; 29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and nurtures it, as also the LORD—the Assembly, 30 because we are members of His body, [of His flesh, and of His bones.] 31 "For this cause will a man leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife, and the two will be into one flesh"; 32 this secret is great, and I speak in regard to Christ and to the Assembly; 33 but you also, everyone in particular—let each so love his own wife as himself, and the wife—that she may revere the husband.

6 The children: obey your parents in the LORD, for this is right; 2 honor your father and mother, 3 which is the first command with a promise, “That it may be well with you, and you may live a long time on the land.” 4 And the fathers: do not provoke your children, but nourish them in the instruction and admonition of the LORD. 5 The servants: obey the masters according to the flesh with fear and trembling, in the simplicity of your heart, as to the Christ; 6 not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as servants of the Christ, doing the will of God out of [your] soul, 7 serving with goodwill, as to the LORD, and not to men, 8 having known that whatever good thing each one may do, this he will receive from the LORD, whether servant or freeman. 9 And the masters! Do the same things to them, letting threatening alone, having also known that your Master is in the heavens, and favor by appearance is not with Him. 10 As to the rest, my brothers, be strong in the LORD, and in the power of His might; 11 put on the whole armor of God, so you are able to stand against the schemes of the Devil, 12 because our wrestling is not with flesh and blood, but with the principalities, with the authorities, with the world-rulers of the darkness of this age, with the spiritual [forces] of evil in the heavenly [places]; (aiōn g165) 13 because of this take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the day of the evil, and having done all things—to stand. 14 Stand, therefore, having your loins girded around in truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having the feet shod in the preparation of the good news of peace; 16 in all, having taken up the shield of faith, in which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one, 17 and receive the helmet of the salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, 18 through all prayer and supplication praying at all times in the Spirit, and in this, watching in all perseverance and supplication for all the holy ones—19 and in behalf of me, that to me may be given a word in the opening of my mouth, in freedom, to make known the secret of the good news, 20 for which I am an ambassador in a chain, that in it I may speak freely—as it is necessary for me to speak. 21 And that you may know—you also—the things concerning me—what I do, Tychicus will make all things known to you, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the LORD, 22 whom I sent to you for this very thing, that you might know the things concerning us, and that he might comfort your hearts. 23 Peace to the brothers, and love, with faith, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ! 24 The grace with all those loving our Lord Jesus Christ—undecaying! Amen.

Philippians

1 Paul and Timotheus, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the holy ones in Christ Jesus who are in Philippi, with overseers and servants: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 3 I give thanks to my God on all the remembrance of you, 4 always, in every supplication of mine for you all, with joy making the supplication, 5 for your contribution to the good news from the first day until now, 6 having been confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you, will complete [it] until [the] day of Jesus Christ, 7 according as it is righteous for me to think this in behalf of you all, because of my having you in the heart, both in my bonds, and [in] the defense and confirmation of the good news, all of you being fellow-partakers with me of grace. 8 For God is my witness, how I long for you all with [the] yearnings of Jesus Christ, 9 and this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in full knowledge, and all discernment, 10 for your proving the things that differ, that you may be pure and offenseless—to [the] Day of Christ, 11 being filled with the fruit of righteousness, that [is] through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. 12 And I intend you to know, brothers, that the things concerning me, rather have come to an advancement of the good news, 13 so that my bonds have become evident in Christ in the whole Praetorium, and to all the other places, 14 and the greater part of the brothers in the LORD, having confidence by my bonds, are more abundantly bold to fearlessly speak the word. 15 Certain, indeed, even through envy and contention, and certain also through goodwill, preach the Christ; 16 one, indeed, of rivalry proclaims the Christ, not purely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds, 17 and the other out of love, having known that I am set for defense of the good news: 18 what then? In every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed—and I rejoice in this, indeed, and will rejoice. 19 For I have known that this will turn out to me for salvation, through your supplication, and the supply of the Spirit of Christ Jesus, 20 according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will be ashamed in nothing, and in all freedom, as always, also Christ will now be magnified in my body, whether through life or through death, 21 for to me to live [is] Christ, and to die [is] gain. 22 And if to live in the flesh [is] to me a fruit of work, then what will I choose? I do not know; 23 for I am pressed by the two, having the desire to depart, and to be with Christ, for it is far better, 24 and to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account, 25 and being persuaded of this, I have known that I will remain and continue with you all, to your advancement and joy of the faith, 26 that your boasting may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my coming again to you. 27 Only conduct yourselves worthily of the good news of the Christ, that, whether having come and seen you, whether being absent I may hear of the things concerning you, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one soul, striving together for the faith of the good news, 28 and not be terrified in anything by those opposing, which is indeed a token of destruction to them, and to you of salvation, and that from God; 29 because to you it was granted, on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer on behalf of Him; 30 having the same conflict, such as you saw in me, and now hear of in me.

2 If, then, any exhortation [is] in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of [the] Spirit, if any yearnings and mercies, 2 fulfill my joy, that you may mind the same thing—having the same love—of one soul—minding the one thing, 3 nothing in rivalry or vainglory, but in humility of mind counting one another more excellent than yourselves— 4 do not each look to your own, but each also to the things of others. 5 For let this mind be in you that [is] also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, being in the form of God, thought [it] not something to be seized to be equal to God, 7 but emptied Himself, having taken the form of a servant, having been made in the likeness of men, 8 and having been found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself, having become obedient to death—even death of a cross, 9 for this reason, also, God highly exalted Him, and gave to Him a Name that [is] above every name, 10 that in the Name of Jesus every knee may bow—of heavenlies, and earthlies, and what are under the earth— 11 and every tongue may confess that Jesus Christ [is] LORD, to the glory of God the Father. 12 So that, my beloved, as you always obey, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, 13 for it is God who thinks to have trust in flesh, I more: 5 circumcision is working in you both to will and to work for His good on the eighth day! Of the race of Israel! Of the tribe pleasure. 14 Do all things without murmurings and of Benjamin! A Hebrew of Hebrews! According to deliberations, 15 that you may become blameless and law—a Pharisee! 6 According to zeal—persecuting pure children of God, unblemished in the midst of a the Assembly! According to righteousness that is in crooked and perverse generation, among whom you law—becoming blameless! 7 But what things were appear as luminaries in the world, 16 holding forth the gains to me, these I have counted loss, because of word of life, for rejoicing to me in regard to [the] Day the Christ; 8 yes, indeed, and I count all things to be of Christ, that I did not run in vain, nor did I labor in loss, because of the excellence of the knowledge of vain; 17 but if I also am poured forth on the sacrifice Christ Jesus my Lord, because of whom I suffered and service of your faith, I rejoice and am glad with loss of all things, and count them to be refuse, that I you all, 18 because of this you also rejoice and are may gain Christ, and be found in Him, 9 not having glad with me. 19 And I hope, in the Lord Jesus, to my righteousness, which [is] of law, but that which [is] send Timotheus to you quickly, that I also may be of through faith from Christ—the righteousness that is good spirit, having known the things concerning you, of God by faith, 10 to know Him, and the power of 20 for I have no one like-minded, who will sincerely His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, care for the things concerning you, 21 for the whole being conformed to His death, 11 if anyhow I may seek their own things, not the things of Christ Jesus, attain to the resurrection of the dead. 12 Not that I 22 and you know his proof, that as a child [serves] already obtained, or have already been perfected, but a father, he served with me in regard to the good I pursue, if I also may lay hold of that for which I was news; 23 I indeed hope to send him, when I may see also laid hold of by Christ Jesus; 13 brothers, I do through the things concerning me—immediately; 24 not reckon myself to have laid hold [of it], but one and I trust in the LORD that I will also come quickly thing [I do]—indeed forgetting the things behind, and myself. 25 And I thought [it] necessary to send to you stretching forth to the things before— 14 I pursue Epaphroditus—my brother and fellow-workman and to the mark for the prize of the high calling of God fellow-soldier, and your apostle and servant to my in Christ Jesus. 15 As many, therefore, as [are] need, 26 seeing he was longing after you all, and perfect—let us think this, and if [in] anything you think in heaviness, because you heard that he ailed, 27 otherwise, this also will God reveal to you, 16 but to for he also ailed near to death, but God dealt kindly what we have attained—walk by the same rule, think with him, and not with him only, but also with me, the same thing; 17 together become my followers, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. 28 The more brothers, and observe those thus walking, according eagerly, therefore, I sent him, that having seen him as you have us—a pattern; 18 for many walk of whom again you may rejoice, and I may be less sorrowful; I told you [about] many times—and now also weeping 29 receive him, therefore, in the LORD, with all joy, tell—[they are] the enemies of the Cross of the Christ, and hold such in honor, 30 because on account of 19 whose end [is] destruction, whose god [is] the belly, the work of the Christ he drew near to death, having and whose glory [is] in their shame, who are minding hazarded life that he might fill up your deficiency of the things on earth. 20 For our citizenship is in the service to me.

3 As to the rest, my brothers, rejoice in the LORD; indeed, [it] is not tiresome to me to write to you the same things, and for you [is] sure. 2 Look out for the dogs! Look out for the evil-workers! Look out for the mutilation! 3 For we are the circumcision, who are serving God by the Spirit, and glorying in Christ Jesus, and having no trust in flesh, 4 though I 2 I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to be also have [cause of] trust in flesh. If any other one of the same mind in the LORD; 3 and I also ask you, genuine yoke-fellow, be assisting those women 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you all! who strove along with me in the good news, with Amen.

Clement also, and the others, my fellow-workers, whose names [are] in [the] Scroll of Life. 4 Rejoice in the LORD always; again I will say, rejoice! 5 Let your reasonableness be known to all men; the LORD [is] near; 6 be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer, and by supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, that is surpassing all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus. 8 As to the rest, brothers, as many things as are true, as many as [are] revered, as many as [are] righteous, as many as [are] pure, as many as [are] lovely, as many as [are] of good report, if any worthiness, and if any praise, think on these things; 9 the things that you also learned, and receive, and hear, and saw in me, do those, and the God of peace will be with you. 10 And I rejoiced in the LORD greatly, that now at length you flourished again in caring for me, for which also you were caring, and lacked opportunity; 11 I do not say that in respect of want, for I learned in the things in which I am—to be content; 12 I have known both to be abased, and I have known to abound; in everything and in all things I have been initiated, both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in want. 13 I have strength for all things, in Christ's strengthening me; 14 but you did well, having shared in my tribulation; 15 and you have known, even you Philippians, that in the beginning of the good news when I went forth from Macedonia, no assembly communicated with me in regard to giving and receiving except you only; 16 because in Thessalonica also, both once and again you sent to my need; 17 not that I seek after the gift, but I seek after the fruit that is overflowing to your account; 18 and I have all things, and abound; I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things from you—an odor of a refreshing fragrance—a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God: 19 and my God will supply all your need, according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus; 20 and to God, even our Father, [is] the glory through the ages of the ages. Amen. (aion g165) 21 Every holy one in Christ Jesus greets you; the brothers with me greet you; 22 all the holy ones greet you, and especially those of Caesar's house.

Colossians

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Timotheus the brother, 2 to the holy ones in Colossae, and to the faithful brothers in Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 3 We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, always praying for you, 4 having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love that [is] to all the holy ones, 5 because of the hope that is laid up for you in the heavens, which you heard of beforehand by the word of the truth of the good news, 6 which has come to you, as also in all the world, and is bearing fruit, as also in you, from the day in which you heard, and knew the grace of God in truth, 7 as you also learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful servant of the Christ for you, 8 who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. 9 Because of this, we also, from the day in which we heard, do not cease praying for you, and asking that you may be filled with the full knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, 10 to walk worthily of the LORD, pleasing in all, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God, 11 in all might being made mighty according to the power of His glory, to all endurance and long-suffering with joy. 12 Giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us for the participation of the inheritance of the holy ones in the light, 13 who rescued us out of the authority of the darkness, and translated [us] into the kingdom of the Son of His love, 14 in whom we have the redemption [[through His blood]], the forgiveness of sins, 15 who is the image of the invisible God, firstborn of all creation, 16 because all things were created in Him, those in the heavens, and those on the earth, those visible, and those invisible, whether thrones, whether lordships, whether principalities, whether authorities; all things have been created through Him and for Him, 17 and He is before all, and all things have consisted in Him. 18 And He is the head of the body—the Assembly—who is a beginning, a firstborn out of the dead, that He might become first in all [things] Himself, 19 because all the fullness was pleased to dwell in Him, 20 and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself—having made peace through the blood of His Cross—through Him, whether the things on the earth, whether the things in the heavens. 21 And you—once being alienated, and enemies in the mind, in the evil works, yet now He reconciled, 22 in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and unblemished, and unblameable before Himself, 23 if you also remain in the faith, being founded and settled, and not moved away from the hope of the good news, which you heard, which was preached in all the creation that [is] under Heaven, of which I, Paul, became a servant. 24 I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up the things lacking of the tribulations of the Christ in my flesh for His body, which is the Assembly, 25 of which I became a servant according to the dispensation of God, that was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, 26 the secret that has been hid from the ages and from the generations, but now was revealed to His holy ones, (αἰών γε) 27 to whom God willed to make known what [is] the riches of the glory of this secret among the nations—which is Christ in you, the hope of the glory, 28 whom we proclaim, warning every man, and teaching every man, in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus, 29 for which I also labor, striving according to His working that is working in me in power.

2 For I wish you to know how great a conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2 that their hearts may be comforted, being united in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of the understanding, to the full knowledge of the secret of the God and Father, and of the Christ, 3 in whom are all the treasures of the wisdom and the knowledge hid, 4 and this I say, that no one may deceive you with enticing words, 5 for if even in the flesh I am absent—yet in the spirit I am with you, rejoicing and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in regard to Christ; 6 as, then, you received Christ Jesus the LORD, walk in Him, 7 being rooted and built up in Him, and confirmed in the faith, as you were taught—abounding in it in thanksgiving. 8 See that no one will be carrying you away as spoil through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the rudiments of the world, and not according to Christ, 9 because in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily, 10 and you are made full in Him, who is the head of all principality and authority, 11 in whom you also were circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of sins of the flesh by the circumcision of the Christ, 12 being buried with Him in the immersion, in which you also rose with [Him] through the faith of the working of God, who raised Him out of the dead. 13 And you—being dead in the trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh—He made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all the trespasses, 14 having blotted out the handwriting in the ordinances that is against us, that was contrary to us, and He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the Cross; 15 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, having stripped the principalities and the authorities, if anyone may have a quarrel with anyone, as the He made a show of them openly—having triumphed over them by it. 16 Let no one, then, judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a celebration, or of a new moon, or of Sabbaths, 17 which are a shadow of the coming things, but the body [is] of delighting in humble-mindedness and [in] worship of the messengers, intruding into the things he has not seen, being vainly puffed up by the mind of his flesh, 19 and not holding the Head, from which all the body—gathering supply through the joints and the increase of God. 20 If, then, you died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as living in the world, are you subject to ordinances— 21 you may not touch, nor taste, nor handle— 22 which are teachings of men, 23 which are, indeed, having a matter of wisdom in self-willed religion, and humble-mindedness, and neglecting of body—not of any value to satisfying the flesh.

the sons of the disobedience, 7 in which you also—you once walked, when you lived in them; 8 but now put off, even you, the whole—anger, wrath, malice, slander, filthy talking—out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices, 10 and having put on the new, which is and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, servant, freeman, but Christ [is] all and in all and in the image of God, renewed in regard to knowledge, after the image of the dead, 11 where there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, servant, freeman, but Christ [is] all and in all and in the image of God, renewed in regard to knowledge, after the image of the dead, 12 Put on, therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, yearnings of mercies, kindness, humble-mindedness, meekness, long-suffering, 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, having stripped the principalities and the authorities, if anyone may have a quarrel with anyone, as the He made a show of them openly—having triumphed over them by it. 16 Let no one, then, judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a celebration, or of a new moon, or of Sabbaths, 17 which are a shadow of the coming things, but the body [is] of delighting in humble-mindedness and [in] worship of the messengers, intruding into the things he has not seen, being vainly puffed up by the mind of his flesh, 19 and not holding the Head, from which all the body—gathering supply through the joints and the increase of God. 20 If, then, you died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as living in the world, are you subject to ordinances— 21 you may not touch, nor taste, nor handle— 22 which are teachings of men, 23 which are, indeed, having a matter of wisdom in self-willed religion, and humble-mindedness, and neglecting of body—not of any value to satisfying the flesh.

3 If, then, you were raised with the Christ, seek the things above, where the Christ is, seated on the right hand of God; 2 mind the things above, not the things on the earth, 3 for you died, and your life has been hid with the Christ in God; 4 when the Christ—our life—may have appeared, then we will also appear with Him in glory. 5 Put to death, then, your members that [are] on the earth—whoredom, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and the covetousness, which is idolatry— 6 because of which things comes the anger of God on the sons of the disobedience, 7 in which you also—you once walked, when you lived in them; 8 but now put off, even you, the whole—anger, wrath, malice, slander, filthy talking—out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices, 10 and having put on the new, which is and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, servant, freeman, but Christ [is] all and in all and in the image of God, renewed in regard to knowledge, after the image of the dead, 11 where there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, foreigner, Scythian, servant, freeman, but Christ [is] all and in all and in the image of God, renewed in regard to knowledge, after the image of the dead, 12 Put on, therefore, as chosen ones of God, holy and beloved, yearnings of mercies, kindness, humble-mindedness, meekness, long-suffering, 13 bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, having stripped the principalities and the authorities, if anyone may have a quarrel with anyone, as the He made a show of them openly—having triumphed over them by it. 16 Let no one, then, judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a celebration, or of a new moon, or of Sabbaths, 17 which are a shadow of the coming things, but the body [is] of delighting in humble-mindedness and [in] worship of the messengers, intruding into the things he has not seen, being vainly puffed up by the mind of his flesh, 19 and not holding the Head, from which all the body—gathering supply through the joints and the increase of God. 20 If, then, you died with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as living in the world, are you subject to ordinances— 21 you may not touch, nor taste, nor handle— 22 which are teachings of men, 23 which are, indeed, having a matter of wisdom in self-willed religion, and humble-mindedness, and neglecting of body—not of any value to satisfying the flesh.

4 The masters: give that which is righteous and equal to the servants, having known that you also have a Master in the heavens. 2 Continue in the prayer, watching in it in thanksgiving, 3 also praying for us at the same time, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the secret of the Christ, because of which I have also been bound, 4 that I may reveal it, as it is necessary for me to speak. 5 Walk in wisdom toward those outside, redeeming the time, 6 your word always being seasoned with salt in grace—to know how it is necessary for you to answer each one. 7 Tychicus will make known to you all the things concerning me—the beloved brother, and faithful servant, and fellow-servant in the LORD— 8 whom I sent to you for this very thing, that he might know the things concerning you, and might comfort your hearts, 9 with Onesimus the faithful and beloved brother, who is of you; they will make known to you all things that [are] here. 10 Aristarchus greets you, my fellow-captive, and Marcus, the nephew of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commands—if he may come to you, receive him), 11 and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of circumcision: these [are the] only fellow-workers for the Kingdom of God who become a comfort to me. 12 Epaphras greets you, who [is] of you, a servant of Christ, always striving for you in the prayers, that you may stand perfect and made full in all the will of God, 13 for I testify to him that he has much zeal for you, and those in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis. 14 Lucas greets you, the beloved physician, and Demas; 15 those in Laodicea greet you—brothers, and Nymphas, and the assembly in his house; 16 and when the letter may be read with you, cause that it may also be read in the assembly of the Laodiceans, and the [letter] from Laodicea that you also may read; 17 and say to Archippus, “See to the ministry that you received in the LORD, that you may fulfill it.” 18 The salutation [is] by my hand, Paul. Remember my bonds. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

1 Thessalonians

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, to the assembly of Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 2 We always give thanks to God for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, 3 unceasingly remembering your work of faith, and the labor of the love, and the endurance of the hope, of our Lord Jesus Christ, in the presence of our God and Father, 4 having known, beloved brothers, by God, your [divine] selection, 5 because our good news did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance, even as you have known of what sort we became among you for your sake, 6 and you became imitators of us and of the LORD, having received the word in much tribulation with joy of the Holy Spirit, 7 so that you became patterns to all those believing in Macedonia and Achaia, 8 for from you has sounded forth the word of the LORD, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God went forth, so that we have no need to say anything, 9 for they themselves declare concerning us what entrance we had to you, and how you turned to God from the idols, to serve a living and true God, 10 and to wait for His Son from the heavens, whom He raised out of the dead—Jesus, who is rescuing us from the anger that is coming.

2 For you have known, brothers, that our entrance to you has not been in vain, 2 but having both suffered before, and having been mistreated (as you have known) in Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the good news of God in much conflict, 3 for our exhortation [is] not out of deceit, nor out of uncleanness, nor in guile, 4 but as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the good news, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, who is proving our hearts, 5 for at no time did we come with speech of flattery (as you have known), nor in a pretext for covetousness (God [is] witness), 6 nor seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, being able to be burdensome, as Christ's apostles. 7 But we became gentle in your midst, as a nurse may nurture her own children, 8 so being desirous of you, we are well-pleased to impart to you

not only the good news of God, but also our own souls, because you have become beloved to us, 9 for you remember, brothers, our labor and travail, for working night and day not to be a burden on any of you, we preached the good news of God to you; 10 you [are] witnesses—God also—how piously and righteously and blamelessly we became to you who believe, 11 even as you have known how we are exhorting each one of you, as a father his own children, and comforting, and testifying, 12 for your walking worthily of God, who is calling you to His own kingdom and glory. 13 And because of this we also continually give thanks to God, that, having received the word of God [by] your hearing from us, you accepted, not the word of men, but as it truly is, the word of God, who also works in you who believe; 14 for you became imitators, brothers, of the assemblies of God that are in Judea in Christ Jesus, because you suffered such things, even you, from your own countrymen, as they also from the Jews, 15 who put to death both the Lord Jesus and their own prophets, and persecuted us, and they are not pleasing God, and [are] contrary to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the nations that they might be saved, so as to always fill up their sins, but [God's] anger came on them—to the end! 17 And we, brothers, having been taken from you for the space of an hour—in presence, not in heart—hurried more abundantly to see your face in much desire; 18 for this reason we wished to come to you (I, indeed, Paul), both once and again, and Satan hindered us; 19 for what [is] our hope, or joy, or garland of rejoicing? Are not even you before our Lord Jesus Christ at His coming? 20 For you are our glory and joy.

3 For this reason, enduring no longer, we thought good to be left in Athens alone, 2 and sent Timotheus—our brother, and a servant of God, and our fellow-workman in the good news of the Christ—to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith, 3 that no one be moved in these tribulations, for pretexts for covetousness (God [is] witness), 4 for even seeking glory from men, neither from you nor from others, being able to be burdensome, as Christ's apostles. 5 But we are about to suffer tribulation, as it also came to pass, and you have known [it]; 6 because of this that we are about to suffer tribulation, as it also came to pass, and you have known [it]; 5 because of this lest he who is tempting tempted you, and our labor might be in vain. 6 And Timotheus now having come asleep, that you may not sorrow, as also the rest who to us from you, and having declared good news to us have no hope, 14 for if we believe that Jesus died of your faith and love, and that you always have a and rose again, so also God will bring with Him those good remembrance of us, desiring much to see us, asleep through Jesus, 15 for we say this to you in as we also [to see] you, 7 because of this we were the word of the LORD, that we who are living—who comforted, brothers, over you, in all our tribulation and remain over to the coming of the LORD—may not necessity, through your faith, 8 because now we live, precede those asleep, 16 because the LORD Himself, if you may stand fast in the LORD. 9 For what thanks with a shout, with the voice of a chief-messenger, are we able to repay to God for you, for all the joy and with the trumpet of God, will come down from with which we delight because of you in the presence Heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first; 17 then of our God, 10 exceedingly imploring night and day, we who are living, who are remaining over, will be that we might see your face, and perfect the things snatched up together with them in [the] clouds to lacking in your faith? 11 And our God and Father meet the LORD in [the] air, and so we will always be Himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to with the LORD; 18 so, then, comfort one another with you, 12 and the LORD cause you to increase and to these words.

abound in the love to one another, and to all, even as we also to you, 13 in order to have established your hearts, blameless in sanctification before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all His holy ones.

5 And concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need of my writing to you, 2 for you have thoroughly known that the Day of the LORD so comes as a thief in the night, 3 for when they may say, "Peace and security," then sudden

4 As to the rest, then, brothers, we request, and call destruction comes [on] them, as the travail [on] her on you in the Lord Jesus, as you received from us who is with child, and they will not escape; 4 but you, how it is necessary for you to walk and to please God, brothers, are not in darkness, that the Day may catch that you may abound the more, 2 for you have known you as a thief; 5 you are all sons of light, and sons of what commands we gave you through the Lord Jesus; 6 day; we are not of night, nor of darkness, 6 so, then, 3 for this is the will of God—your sanctification: that we may not sleep as also the others, but watch and you abstain from the whoredom, 4 that each of you be sober, 7 for those sleeping, sleep by night, and know to possess his own vessel in sanctification and those making themselves drunk, are drunken by night, honor, 5 not in the affection of desire, as also the 8 and we, being of the day—let us be sober, putting nations that were not knowing God, 6 that no one on a breastplate of faith and love, and a helmet—a goes beyond and defrauds his brother in the matter, hope of salvation, 9 because God did not appoint us because the LORD [is] an avenger of all these, as we to anger, but to the acquiring of salvation through our also spoke to you before and testified, 7 for God did Lord Jesus Christ, 10 who died for us, that whether not call us to uncleanness, but in sanctification. 8 He, we wake—whether we sleep—we may live together therefore, who is despising, does not despise man, with Him; 11 for this reason, comfort one another, and but God, who also gave His Holy Spirit to us. 9 And build up one another, as also you do. 12 And we ask concerning the brotherly love, you have no need of you, brothers, to know those laboring among you and [my] writing to you, for you yourselves are God-taught leading you in the LORD and admonishing you, 13 to love one another, 10 for you do it also to all the and to esteem them very abundantly in love, because brothers who [are] in all Macedonia; and we call on of their work; be at peace among yourselves; 14 and you, brothers, to abound still more, 11 and to study to we exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be with your own hands, as we commanded you, 12 that patient to all; 15 see [that] no one may render evil for you may walk properly to those outside, and may evil to anyone, but always pursue that which is good, have lack of nothing. 13 And I do not wish you to be both to one another and to all; 16 always rejoice; 17 ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen continually pray; 18 give thanks in everything, for this [is] the will of God in Christ Jesus in regard to you. 19 Do not quench the Spirit; 20 do not despise prophesyings; 21 prove all things; hold fast [to] that which is good; 22 abstain from all appearance of evil; 23 and may the God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved, unblameably at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; 24 He who is calling you is steadfast, who also will do [it]. 25 Brothers, pray for us. 26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. 27 I charge you [by] the LORD, that the letter be read to all the holy brothers. 28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you! Amen.

2 Thessalonians

1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, to the assembly of Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 3 We always ought to give thanks to God for you, brothers, as it is fitting, because your faith increases greatly, and the love of each one of you all abounds to one another, 4 so that we ourselves glory in you in the assemblies of God, for your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you bear— 5 a token of the righteous judgment of God, for your being counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you also suffer, 6 since [it is] a righteous thing with God to give back to those troubling you—tribulation, 7 and to you who are troubled—rest with us in the revelation of the Lord Jesus from Heaven, with messengers of His power, 8 in flaming fire, giving vengeance to those not knowing God, and to those not obeying the good news of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 who will suffer justice—continuous destruction—from the face of the LORD, and from the glory of His strength, (aiōnios g166) 10 when He may come to be glorified in His holy ones, and to be wondered at by all those believing—because our testimony was believed among you—in that day; 11 for which we also always pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of the calling, and may fulfill all the good pleasure of goodness, and the work of faith in power, 12 that the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

2 And we ask you, brothers, in regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of our gathering together to Him, 2 that you are not quickly shaken in mind, nor be troubled, neither through spirit, neither through word, neither through letters as through us, as that the Day of the LORD has arrived; 3 do not let anyone deceive you in any way, because if the departure may not come first, the man of lawlessness may [not] be revealed—the son of destruction, 4 disorderly, and not after the tradition that you received who is opposing and is raising himself up above all called god or worshiped, so as for him to have sat down in the temple of God, proclaiming that he is God. 5 Do you not remember that, yet being with you, I said these things to you? 6 And now, you have known what is restraining, for his being revealed in his own time, 7 for the secret of lawlessness already works, only the [One] now restraining [will do so] until He may come out of [the] midst, 8 and then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the LORD will consume with the Spirit of His mouth, and will nullify at the appearance of His coming, 9 whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs, and lying wonders, 10 and in all deceitfulness of the unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth for their being saved, 11 and because of this God will send to them a working of delusion, for their believing the lie, 12 that they may be judged—all who did not believe the truth, but were well pleased in the unrighteousness. 13 And we ought to give thanks to God always for you, brothers, beloved by the LORD, that God chose you from the beginning to salvation, in sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth, 14 to which He called you through our good news, to the acquiring of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ; 15 so, then, brothers, stand fast, and hold the traditions that you were taught, whether through word, whether through our letter; 16 and may our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, and our God and Father, who loved us, and gave continuous comfort, and good hope in grace, (aiōnios g166) 17 comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

3 As to the rest, pray, brothers, concerning us, that the word of the LORD may run and may be glorified, as also with you, 2 and that we may be delivered from the unreasonable and evil men, for not all [are] of the faith; 3 but faithful is the LORD who will establish you, and will guard [you] from the evil [one]; 4 and we now have confidence in the LORD, that which we command you both do and will do; 5 and the LORD direct your hearts to the love of God, and to the endurance of the Christ. 6 And we command you, brothers, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to withdraw yourselves from every brother walking to withdraw yourselves from every brother walking from us, 7 for you have known how it is necessary to imitate us, because we did not act disorderly among you; 8 nor did we eat bread of anyone for nothing, but in labor and in travail, working night and day, not to be chargeable to any of you; 9 not because we have no authority, but that we might give ourselves to you [as] a pattern, to imitate us; 10 for even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if anyone is not willing to work, neither let him eat, 11 for we hear of some walking disorderly among you, working nothing, but being busybodies, 12 and such we command and exhort through our Lord Jesus Christ, that working with quietness, they may eat their own bread; 13 and you, brothers, may you not be weary doing well, 14 and if anyone does not obey our word through the letter, note this one, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed, 15 and do not count as an enemy, but admonish as a brother; 16 and may the LORD of peace Himself always give to you peace in every way; the LORD [is] with you all! 17 The salutation by the hand of me, Paul, which is a sign in every letter; thus I write. 18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with you all! Amen.

1 Timothy

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to a command of God our Savior, and of the Lord Jesus Christ our hope, 2 to Timotheus—genuine child in faith: Grace, kindness, peace, from God our Father and Christ Jesus our Lord! 3 According as I exhorted you to remain in Ephesus—I going on to Macedonia—that you might charge certain [ones] not to teach any other thing, 4 nor to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, that cause questions rather than [the] stewardship of God which [is] in faith. 5 And the end of the charge is love out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of unhypocritical faith, 6 from which certain [men], having swerved, turned aside to vain discourse, 7 willing to be teachers of law, not understanding either the things they say, nor concerning what they confidently assert, 8 and we have known that the Law [is] good, if anyone may use it lawfully; 9 having known this, that law is not set for a righteous man, but for lawless and insubordinate persons, ungodly and sinners, impious and profane, murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, manslayers, 10 whoremongers, homosexuals, enslavers, liars, perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is adverse to sound doctrine, 11 according to the good news of the glory of the blessed God, with which I was entrusted. 12 And I give thanks to Him who enabled me—Christ Jesus our Lord—that He reckoned me steadfast, having put [me] to the ministry, 13 who before was speaking slander, and persecuting, and insulting, but I found kindness, because, being ignorant, I did [it] in unbelief, 14 and the grace of our Lord exceedingly abounded, with faith and love that [is] in Christ Jesus. 15 The word [is] steadfast, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—of whom I am first; 16 but because of this I found kindness, that Jesus Christ might first show forth all long-suffering in me, for a pattern of those about to believe on Him to continuous life. (aiōnios g166) 17 And to the King of the ages, the incorruptible, invisible, only wise God, [is] honor and glory through the ages of the ages! Amen. (aiōn g165) 18 I commit to you this charge, child Timotheus, according to the prophecies that went before on you, that you may war in them the good warfare, 19 having faith and a good conscience, which some having thrust away, made shipwreck concerning the faith, 20 of whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be instructed not to speak evil.

2 I exhort, then, first of all, there be made supplications, prayers, intercessions, thanksgivings, for all men— 2 for kings, and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all piety and gravity, 3 for this [is] right and acceptable before God our Savior, 4 who wills all men to be saved, and to come to the full knowledge of the truth; 5 for [there is] one God, also one mediator of God and of men—the man Christ Jesus, 6 who gave Himself [as] a ransom for all—the testimony in its own times— 7 in regard to which I was set a preacher and apostle—truth I say in Christ, I do not lie—a teacher of nations, in faith and truth. 8 I intend, therefore, that men pray in every place, lifting up holy hands, apart from anger and deliberation; 9 also the women in like manner, in orderly apparel, to adorn themselves with modesty and sobriety, not in braided hair, or gold, or pearls, or clothing of great price, 10 but—which becomes women professing godly piety—through good works. 11 Let a woman learn in quietness in all subjection, 12 and I do not allow a woman to teach, nor to rule a husband, but to be in quietness, 13 for Adam was formed first, then Eve, 14 and Adam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, came into transgression, 15 and she will be saved through the childbearing, if they remain in faith, and love, and sanctification, with sobriety.

3 The word [is] steadfast: If anyone longs for overseership, he desires a right work; 2 it is required, therefore, the overseer to be blameless, a husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, respectable, a friend of strangers, apt to teach, 3 not given to wine, not a striker, but gentle, not contentious, not a lover of money, 4 leading his own house well, having children in subjection with all dignity, 5 (and if anyone has not known [how] to lead his own house, how will he take care of an assembly of God?) 6 not a new convert, lest having been puffed up he may fall to a judgment of the Devil; 7 and it is required of him in faith, in purity; 13 until I come, give heed to the also to have a good testimony from those outside, reading, to the exhortation, to the teaching; 14 do that he may not fall into reproach and a snare of not be careless of the gift in you, that was given you the Devil. 8 Servants, in like manner, dignified, not through prophecy, with laying on of the hands of the double-tongued, not given to much wine, not given eldership; 15 be careful of these things; be in these to shameful gain, 9 having the secret of the faith things, that your advancement may be evident in all in a pure conscience, 10 and let these also first be things; 16 take heed to yourself and to the teaching; proved, then let them minister, being unblameable. 11 remain in them, for doing this thing, you will save both Women, in like manner, dignified, not false accusers, yourself and those hearing you.

vigilant, faithful in all things. 12 Servants—let them be husbands of one wife, leading the children well, and their own houses, 13 for those who ministered well acquire a good step to themselves, and much boldness in faith that [is] in Christ Jesus. 14 I write to you these things, hoping to come to you soon, 15 and if I delay, that you may know how it is required to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is an assembly of the living God—a pillar and foundation of the truth, 16 and confessedly, great is the secret of piety: who was revealed in flesh, declared righteous in [the] Spirit, seen by messengers, preached among nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory!

4 And the Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and teachings of demons, 2 speaking lies in hypocrisy, being seared in their own conscience, 3 forbidding to marry—to abstain from meats that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those believing and acknowledging the truth, 4 because she washed holy ones' feet, if she relieved those in every creature of God [is] good, and nothing [is] to be rejected, with thanksgiving being received, 5 for it is sanctified through the word of God and intercession. 6 Placing these things before the brothers, you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, being nourished by the words of the faith, and of the good teaching, which you followed after, 7 but reject the profane and old women's fables, and exercise yourself to piety, 8 for bodily exercise is to little profit, but piety is profitable and of that which is coming; 9 the word [is] steadfast, already turned aside after Satan. 10 for this we both labor and worthy of all acceptance; 11 Charge these things, and teach; 12 let them, the well-leading elders, be counted worthy of no one despise your youth, but become a pattern of double honor, especially those laboring in word and those believing in word, in behavior, in love, in spirit, teaching, 18 for the Writing says, "You will not muzzle

5 You may not rebuke an elder, but exhort [him] as a father, younger persons as brothers, 2 aged women as mothers, younger ones as sisters—in all purity; 3 honor widows who are really widows; 4 and if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety to their own house, and to give back a repayment to the parents, for this is right and acceptable before God. 5 And she who is really a widow and desolate, has hoped on God, and remains in the supplications and in the prayers night and day, 6 but she given to luxury [while] living has died; 7 and charge these things, that they may be blameless; 8 and if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of the household, he has denied the faith, and he is worse than an unbeliever. 9 A widow—do not let her be enrolled under sixty years of age, having been a wife of one husband, 10 being testified to in good works: if she brought up children, if she entertained strangers, if she washed holy ones' feet, if she relieved those in tribulation, if she followed after every good work; 11 and be refusing younger widows, for when they may revel against the Christ, they wish to marry, 12 having judgment, because they cast away the first faith, 13 and also at the same time, they learn [to be] idle, going around the houses; and not only idle, but also tattlers and busybodies, speaking things they should bear children, to be mistress of the house, to give to all things, having promise of the life that now is, no occasion to the opposer of reviling; 15 for some man or believing woman has widows, let them relieve and are reproached, because we hope on the living them, and do not let the assembly be burdened, that God, who is Savior of all men—especially of those it may relieve those [who are] really widows. 17 Let believing. 18 for the Writing says, "You will not muzzle

an ox treading out," and, "Worthy [is] the workman of his reward." 19 Do not receive an accusation g166 13 I charge you, before God, who is making all against an elder, except on two or three witnesses. 20 things alive, and of Christ Jesus, who testified the Reprove those sinning before all, that the others may also have fear; 21 I fully testify, before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the chosen messengers, that you may keep these things, without prejudging, doing nothing by partiality. 22 Be quickly laying hands on no one, nor be having fellowship with [the] sins of others; be keeping yourself pure; 23 no longer be drinking water, but be using a little wine, because of your stomach and of your frequent sicknesses; 24 the sins of certain men are evident beforehand, leading before to judgment, but some also they follow after; 25 in like manner the right works are also evident beforehand, and those that are otherwise are not able to be hid.

6 As many as are servants under a yoke, let them reckon their own masters worthy of all honor, that evil may not be spoken of the Name of God and the teaching; 2 and those having believing masters, do not let them slight [them], because they are brothers, but rather let them serve, because they are steadfast and beloved, who are partaking of the benefit. Be teaching and exhorting these things; 3 if anyone be teaching otherwise, and does not consent to sound words—those of our Lord Jesus Christ—and to the teaching according to piety, 4 he is proud, knowing nothing, but unhealthy about questions and word-striving, out of which come envy, strife, slanders, evil-surmisings, 5 wranglings of men wholly corrupted in mind, and destitute of the truth, supposing the piety to be gain; depart from such; 6 but it is great gain—the piety with contentment; 7 for we brought nothing into the world—because neither are we able to carry out anything; 8 but having food and raiment—with these we will suffice ourselves; 9 and those intending to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many desires, foolish and hurtful, that sink men into ruin and destruction, 10 for the love of money is a root of all the evils, which certain [ones] longing for went astray from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows; 11 and you, O man of God, flee these things, and pursue righteousness, piety, faith, love, endurance, meekness. 12 Be striving the good strife of the faith; be laying hold on the continuous life to which you also were called, and did profess the right profession before many witnesses. (aiōnios the right profession before Pontius Pilate, 14 that you keep the command unspotted, unblameable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 which He will show in His own times—the blessed and only sovereign, the King of the kings and Lord of the lords, 16 having immortality alone, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no one of men saw, nor is able to see, to whom [is] honor and perpetual might! Amen. (aiōnios g166) 17 Charge those rich in the present age not to be high-minded, nor to hope in the uncertainty of riches, but in the living God, who is giving to us all things richly for enjoyment—(aiōn g165) 18 to do good, to be rich in good works, to be ready to impart, willing to communicate, 19 treasuring up to themselves a right foundation for the time to come, that they may lay hold on [that which is] truly life. 20 O Timotheus, guard the thing entrusted, avoiding the profane vain-words and opposition of the falsely-named knowledge, 21 which certain [ones] professing—swerved concerning the faith. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, through the will of God, according to a promise of life that [is] in Christ Jesus, 2 to Timotheus, beloved child: Grace, kindness, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord! 3 I am thankful to God, whom I serve from progenitors in a pure conscience, that I unceasingly have remembrance concerning you in my supplications night and day, 4 desiring to see you greatly, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy, 5 taking remembrance of the unhypocritical faith that is in you, that first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and I am persuaded that also in you. 6 For which cause I remind you to stir up the gift of God that is in you through the putting on of my hands, 7 for God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind; 8 therefore you may not be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me His prisoner, but you suffer evil along with the good news according to the power of God, 9 who saved us, and called with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace, that was given to us in Christ Jesus, before the times of the ages, (aiōnios g166) 10 and was made visible now through the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who indeed abolished death, and enlightened life and immortality through the good news, 11 to which I was placed a preacher and an apostle, and a teacher of nations, 12 for which cause these things I also suffer, but I am not ashamed, for I have known in whom I have believed, and have been persuaded that He is able to guard that which I have committed to Him—to that day. 13 Hold the pattern of sound words, which you heard from me, in faith and love that [is] in Christ Jesus; 14 guard the good thing committed through the Holy Spirit that is dwelling in us; 15 you have known this, that they turned from me—all those in Asia, of whom are Phygelius and Hermogenes; 16 may the LORD give kindness to the house of Onesiphorus, because he refreshed me many times, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17 but being in Rome, he sought me very diligently and found [me]; 18 may the LORD give to him to find kindness from the LORD in that day; and you very well know how much he ministered in Ephesus.

2 You, therefore, my child, be strong in the grace that [is] in Christ Jesus, 2 and the things that you heard from me through many witnesses, be committing these things to steadfast men, who will also be sufficient to teach others; 3 you, therefore, suffer evil as a good soldier of Jesus Christ; 4 no one serving as a soldier entangles himself with the affairs of life, that he may please him who enlisted him; 5 and if anyone also may strive, he is not crowned, except he may strive lawfully; 6 it is first necessary [for] the laboring farmer to partake of the fruits; 7 be considering what things I say, for the LORD gives to you understanding in all things. 8 Remember Jesus Christ, raised out of the dead, of the seed of David, according to my good news, 9 in which I suffer evil—to bonds, as an evildoer, but the word of God has not been bound; 10 because of this I endure all things, because of the chosen ones, that they also may obtain salvation that [is] in Christ Jesus, with perpetual glory. (aiōnios g166) 11 The word [is] steadfast: For if we died together—we will also live together; 12 if we endure together—we will also reign together; if we deny [Him], He will also deny us; 13 if we are not steadfast, He remains steadfast; He is not able to deny Himself. 14 Remind [them] of these things, testifying fully before the LORD—not to strive about words to nothing profitable, but to the subversion of those hearing; 15 be diligent to present yourself approved to God—a workman not ashamed, straightly cutting the word of truth; 16 and stand aloof from the profane vain talkings, for they will advance to more impiety, 17 and their word will have pasture as a gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus, 18 who swerved concerning the truth, saying the resurrection to have already been, and overthrows the faith of some; 19 sure, nevertheless, the foundation of God has stood, having this seal: "The LORD has known those who are His," and, "Let him depart from unrighteousness—everyone who is naming the Name of Christ." 20 And in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth, and some to honor, and some to dishonor: 21 if, then, anyone may cleanse himself from these, he will be a vessel to honor, sanctified and profitable to the master—having been prepared to every good work; 22 and flee the youthful lusts, and pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those calling on the LORD out of a pure heart; 23 and be avoiding the foolish and uninstructed questions, having known that they beget strife, 24 and a servant of the LORD must not quarrel, but to be gentle to all, apt to teach, patient under evil, 25 instructing those opposing in meekness—if perhaps God may give to them conversion to an acknowledging of the truth, 26 and they may awake out of the Devil's snare, having been caught by him at his will.

3 And know this, that in the last days there will come perilous times, 2 for men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, slanderous, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unkind, 3 without natural affection, implacable, false accusers, without control, barbaric, not lovers of those who are good, 4 traitors, reckless, lofty, lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, 5 having a form of piety, but having denied its power; and be turning away from these, 6 for of these there are those coming into the houses and leading captive the weak women, loaded with sins, led away with manifold desires, 7 always learning, and never able to come to a knowledge of truth, 8 and even as Jannes and Jambres stood against Moses, so these also stand against the truth, men corrupted in mind, disapproved concerning the faith; 9 but they will not advance any further, for their folly will be evident to all, as theirs also became. 10 And you have followed after my teaching, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, love, endurance, 11 the persecutions, the afflictions, that befell me in Antioch, in Iconium, in Lystra; what persecutions I endured! And the LORD delivered me out of all. 12 And all who will to live piously in Christ Jesus will also be persecuted, 13 and evil men and impostors will advance to the worse, leading astray and being led astray. 14 And you—remain in the things which you learned and were entrusted with, having known from whom you learned, 15 and because you have known the Holy Writings from infancy, which are able to make you wise—to salvation, through faith that [is] in Christ Jesus. 16 Every Writing [is] God-breathed, and profitable for teaching, for conviction, for correction, for instruction that [is] in righteousness, 17 that the man of God may be fitted—having been completed for every good work.

4 I fully testify, then, before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who is about to judge [the] living and dead at His appearing and His Kingdom— 2 preach the word; be earnest in season, out of season; convict, rebuke, exhort, in all long-suffering and teaching, 3 for there will be a season when they will not endure the sound teaching, but they will heap up teachers according to their own desires—having an itching ear, 4 and, indeed, they will turn away from hearing the truth, and they will be turned aside to the fables. 5 But you—watch in all things; suffer evil; do the work of one proclaiming good news; make full assurance of your ministry, 6 for I am already being poured out, and the time of my release has arrived; 7 I have striven the good strife, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; 8 from now on there is laid up for me the garland of righteousness that the LORD—the Righteous Judge—will give to me in that day, and not only to me, but also to all those loving His appearing. 9 Be diligent to come to me quickly, 10 for Demas forsook me, having loved the present age, and went on to Thessalonica, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia; (aiōn g165) 11 only Lucas is with me; having taken Mark, bring [him] with you, for he is profitable to me for ministry; 12 and I sent Tychicus to Ephesus; 13 coming, bring the cloak that I left in Troas with Carpus and the scrolls—especially the parchments. 14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil; may the LORD repay to him according to his works, 15 of whom you also beware, for he has greatly stood against our words; 16 no one stood with me in my first defense, but all forsook me (may it not be reckoned to them), 17 but the LORD stood by me, and strengthened me, that the preaching might be fully assured through me, and all the nations might hear, and I was freed out of the mouth of a lion, 18 and the LORD will free me from every evil work, and will save [me]—to His heavenly kingdom; to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages! Amen. (aiōn g165) 19 Greet Prisca and Aquilas, and Onesiphorus' household; 20 Erastus remained in Corinth, and I left Trophimus ailing in Miletus; 21 be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brothers. 22 The Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your spirit. The grace [is] with you! Amen.

Titus

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of the chosen ones of God, and an acknowledging of truth that [is] according to piety, 2 on hope of continuous life, which God, who does not lie, promised before times of ages (aiōnios g166) 3 (and He revealed His word in [His] own times), in preaching, which I was entrusted with, according to a charge of God our Savior, 4 to Titus—true child according to a common faith: Grace, [[kindness,]] peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior! 5 For this cause I left you in Crete, that you may arrange the things lacking, and may set elders down in every city, as I appointed to you, 6 if anyone is blameless, a husband of one wife, having believing children, not under accusation of riotous living or insubordinate— 7 for it is required of the overseer to be blameless, as God's steward, not self-pleased, nor prone to anger, not given to wine, not an abuser, not given to shameful gain, 8 but a lover of strangers, a lover of [the] good, sober-minded, righteous, holy, self-controlled, 9 holding—according to the teaching—to the steadfast word, that he may also be able to exhort in the sound teaching, and to convict the deniers; 10 for there are many both insubordinate, vain-talkers, and mind-deceivers—especially those of the circumcision— 11 whose mouths must be covered, who overturn whole households, teaching what things it should not, for [the] sake of shameful gain. 12 A certain one of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans! Always liars, evil beasts, lazy bellies!" 13 This testimony is true; for which cause convict them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, 14 not giving heed to Jewish fables and commands of men, turning themselves away from the truth. 15 All things, indeed, [are] pure to the pure, and nothing [is] pure to the defiled and unsteadfast, but even the mind and the conscience of them [is] defiled. 16 They profess to know God, but they deny [Him] by their works, being abominable, and disobedient, and disapproved to every good work.

2 But you—speak what is suitable [according] to the sound teaching. 2 Elders [are] to be temperate, dignified, sober, sound in faith, in the love, in the endurance. 3 Aged women, in like manner, in behavior as becomes sacred persons, not false accusers, not enslaved to much wine, teachers of good things, 4 that they may make the young women sober-minded, to be lovers of [their] husbands, lovers of [their] children, 5 sober, pure, keepers of [their own] houses, good, subject to their own husbands, that evil may not be spoken of the word of God. 6 The younger men, in like manner, exhort [them] to be sober-minded. 7 Concerning all things, present yourself [as] a pattern of good works—in the teaching [with] uncorruptedness, dignity, 8 sound discourse [that is] blameless, so that he who is of the contrary may be ashamed, having nothing evil to say concerning you. 9 Servants [are] to be subject to their own masters, to be well-pleasing in all things, not contradicting, 10 not stealing, but showing all good steadfastness, that the teaching of God our Savior they may adorn in all things. 11 For the saving grace of God has appeared to all men, 12 teaching us, that denying the impiety and the worldly desires, we may live soberly, and righteously, and piously in the present age, (aiōn g165) 13 waiting for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, 14 who gave Himself for us, that He might ransom us from all lawlessness, and might purify to Himself a special people, zealous of good works. 15 Speak these things, and exhort and convict with all authority; let no one despise you!

3 Remind them to be subject to principalities and authorities, to obey rule, to be ready to every good work, 2 to speak evil of no one, not to be quarrelsome—gentle, showing all meekness to all men, 3 for we, also, were once thoughtless, disobedient, led astray, serving manifold desires and pleasures, living in malice and envy, odious—hating one another; 4 and when the kindness and the love to men of God our Savior appeared 5 (not by works that [are] in righteousness that we did but according to His kindness), He saved us, through a bathing of regeneration, and a renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 which He poured on us richly, through Jesus Christ our Savior, 7 that having been declared righteous by His grace, we may become heirs according to the hope of continuous life. (aiōnios g166) 8 The word [is] steadfast; and concerning these things I intend you to affirm fully, that they may be thoughtful, to be leading in good works—who have believed God; these are the good and profitable things to men, ⁹ but stand away from foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about law—for they are unprofitable and vain. ¹⁰ Reject a heretical man, after a first and second admonition, ¹¹ having known that he has been subverted who [is] such, and sins, being self-condemned. ¹² When I will send Aremas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. ¹³ Diligently send forth Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, that nothing to them may be lacking, ¹⁴ and let them learn—ours also—to be leading in good works to the necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful. ¹⁵ All those with me greet you. Greet those cherishing us in faith. The grace [is] with you all!

Philemon

my fellow-workmen! 25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with your spirit! Amen.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timotheus the brother, to Philemon our beloved and fellow-worker, 2 and Apphia the beloved, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and the assembly in your house: 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ! 4 I give thanks to my God, always making mention of you in my prayers, 5 hearing of your love and faith that you have to the Lord Jesus and toward all the holy ones, 6 that the fellowship of your faith may become working in the full knowledge of every good thing that [is] in you toward Christ Jesus; 7 for we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the yearnings of the holy ones have been refreshed through you, brother. 8 For this reason, having in Christ much boldness to command you that which is fit— 9 because of the love I rather plead, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ; 10 I beg you concerning my child—whom I begot in my bonds—Onesimus, 11 who once was to you unprofitable, and now is profitable to me and to you, 12 whom I sent again to you—he who is my own heart, 13 whom I intended to retain to myself, that in your behalf he might minister to me in the bonds of the good news, 14 but apart from your mind I willed to do nothing, so that your good deed may not be as of necessity, but of willingness, 15 for perhaps because of this he departed for an hour, that you may have him continuously, (aiōnios g166) 16 no longer as a servant, but above a servant—a beloved brother, especially to me, and how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the LORD! 17 If, then, you have fellowship with me, receive him as me, 18 and if he did hurt to you, or owes anything, charge this to me; 19 I, Paul, wrote with my hand, I will repay; besides, that I may not say that you also owe to me yourself. 20 Yes, brother, may I have profit of you in the LORD; refresh my yearnings in the LORD; 21 I wrote to you having been confident in your obedience, having known that you will also do above what I may say; 22 and at the same time also prepare for me a lodging, for I hope that through your prayers I will be granted to you. 23 Epaphras greets you (my fellow-captive in Christ Jesus), 24 Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas,

Hebrews

1 In many parts and many ways, God, having spoken long ago to the fathers by the prophets, 2 in these last days speaks to us in [His] Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom He also made the ages; (aiōn g165) 3 who being the brightness of the glory, and the impress of His subsistence, bearing up also all things by the saying of His might—having made a cleansing of our sins through Himself, sat down at the right hand of the Greatness in the highest, 4 having become so much better than the messengers, as He inherited a more excellent name than them. 5 For to which of the messengers did He ever say, “You are My Son—today I have begotten You?” And again, “I will be to Him for a Father, and He will be to Me for a Son?” 6 And when again He may bring the firstborn into the world, He says, “And let them worship Him—all messengers of God”; 7 and to the messengers, indeed, He says, “The [One] who is making His messengers spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire”; 8 but to the Son: “Your throne, O God, [is] throughout the age of the age; The scepter of righteousness [is the] scepter of Your kingdom; (aiōn g165) 9 You loved righteousness, and hated lawlessness; Because of this He anointed You—God, Your God—with oil of gladness above Your partners”; 10 and, “You, LORD, founded the earth at the beginning, And the heavens are a work of Your hands. 11 These will perish, but You remain, And all will become old as a garment, 12 And You will roll them together as a mantle, and they will be changed, But You are the same, and Your years will not fail.” 13 And to which of the messengers did He ever say, “Sit at My right hand, Until I may make Your enemies Your footstool?” 14 Are they not all spirits of service—being sent forth for ministry because of those about to inherit salvation?

2 Because of this it is more abundantly necessary to take heed to the things heard, lest we may drift away, 2 for if the word being spoken through messengers became steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just repayment, 3 how will we escape, having neglected such great salvation? Which having received [that] spoken through the LORD [from] the beginning, was confirmed to us by those having heard, 4 God also bearing joint-witness both with signs and wonders, and manifold powers, and distributions of the Holy Spirit, according to His will. 5 For He did not subject the coming world to messengers, concerning which we speak, 6 and one in a certain place testified fully, saying, “What is man, that You are mindful of him, Or a son of man, that You look after him? 7 You made him [a] little less than messengers, You crowned him with glory and honor, And set him over the works of Your hands, 8 You put all things in subjection under his feet,” for in the subjecting to Him all things, He left nothing to Him unsubjected, but now we do not yet see all things subjected to Him, 9 and we see Him who was made [a] little less than messengers—Jesus—because of the suffering of death, having been crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God He might taste of death for everyone. 10 For it was fitting to Him, because of whom [are] all things, and through whom [are] all things, bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings, 11 for both He who is sanctifying and those sanctified [are] all of one, for which cause He is not ashamed to call them brothers, 12 saying, “I will declare Your Name to My brothers, In the midst of an assembly I will sing praise to You”; and again, “I will be trusting on Him”; 13 and again, “Behold, I and the children that God gave to Me.” 14 Seeing, then, the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself also took part of the same in like manner, that through death He might destroy him having the power of death—that is, the Devil— 15 and might deliver those, whoever, with fear of death, throughout all their life, were subjects of bondage, 16 for doubtless, He does not lay hold of messengers, but He lays hold of [the] seed of Abraham, 17 for this reason it seemed necessary to Him to be made like the brothers in all things, that He might become a kind and faithful Chief Priest in the things related to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people, 18 for in that He suffered, Himself being tempted, He is able to help those who are tempted.

3 For this reason, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and Chief Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus, 2 being faithful to Him who appointed Him, as also Moses [was] in all His house. 3 For this One has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as He who builds it has more honor than the house. 4 For every house is built by someone, and He who built all things [is] God, 5 and Moses [was] indeed steadfast because of unbelief— 7 again He limits a certain day, in all His house, as an attendant, for a testimony of “Today,” in David saying, after so long a time, as it has those things that were to be spoken— 6 but Christ, been said, “Today, if you may hear His voice, you may as a Son over His house, whose house we are, if not harden your hearts,” 8 for if Joshua had given us hold fast the boldness and the rejoicing of the them rest, He would not have spoken after these hope to the end. 7 For this reason, as the Holy Spirit things concerning another day; 9 there remains, then, says, “Today, if you may hear His voice— 8 you may a Sabbath rest to the people of God, 10 for he who not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the entered into His rest, he also rested from his works, day of the temptation in the wilderness, 9 in which as God from His own. 11 May we be diligent, then, to your fathers tempted Me; they proved Me, and saw enter into that rest, that no one may fall in the same My works [for] forty years; 10 for this reason I was example of the unbelief, 12 for the Word of God is grieved with that generation and said, They always go astray in [their] heart, and these have not known My edged sword—and piercing as far as [the] division ways; 11 so I swore in My anger, They will [not] enter of soul and spirit, of joints and also marrows, and a into My rest.” 12 Watch out, brothers, lest there will be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in the falling discerner of thoughts and intents of the heart; 13 and away from the living God, 13 but exhort one another things [are] naked and open to His eyes—with whom every day, while [it] is called “Today,” that none of you is our reckoning. 14 Having, then, a great Chief Priest may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin, 14 for having passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son we have become partakers of the Christ, if we may of God—may we hold fast the profession, 15 for we hold fast the confidence [we had] at the beginning do not have a Chief Priest unable to sympathize with to the end, 15 as it is said, “Today, if you may hear our weaknesses, but [One] tempted in all things in like His voice, you may not harden your hearts, as in manner, [yet] without sin; 16 we may come near, then, the provocation.” 16 For who [were those], having with freedom, to the throne of grace, that we may heard, [that] provoked, but not all those having come receive kindness, and find grace—for seasonable out of Egypt through Moses? 17 But with whom was help.

He grieved forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness? 18 And to whom did He swear that they will not enter into His rest, except to those who did not believe? 19 And we see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

4 We may fear, then, lest a promise being left of entering into His rest, anyone of you may seem to have come short, 2 for we also are having good news proclaimed, even as they, but the word heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard, 3 for we enter into the rest—we who believed, as He said, “So I swore in My anger, They will [not] enter into My rest”; and yet the works were done from the foundation of the world, 4 for He spoke in a certain place concerning the seventh [day] thus: “And

God rested in the seventh day from all His works”; 5 and in this [place] again, “They will [not] enter into My rest”; 6 since then, it remains for some to enter into it, and those who first heard good news did not enter in g165 7 again He limits a certain day, in David saying, after so long a time, as it has those things that were to be spoken— 6 but Christ, been said, “Today, if you may hear His voice, you may as a Son over His house, whose house we are, if not harden your hearts,” 8 for if Joshua had given us hold fast the boldness and the rejoicing of the them rest, He would not have spoken after these hope to the end. 7 For this reason, as the Holy Spirit things concerning another day; 9 there remains, then, says, “Today, if you may hear His voice— 8 you may a Sabbath rest to the people of God, 10 for he who not harden your hearts, as in the provocation, in the entered into His rest, he also rested from his works, day of the temptation in the wilderness, 9 in which as God from His own. 11 May we be diligent, then, to your fathers tempted Me; they proved Me, and saw enter into that rest, that no one may fall in the same My works [for] forty years; 10 for this reason I was example of the unbelief, 12 for the Word of God is grieved with that generation and said, They always go astray in [their] heart, and these have not known My edged sword—and piercing as far as [the] division ways; 11 so I swore in My anger, They will [not] enter of soul and spirit, of joints and also marrows, and a into My rest.” 12 Watch out, brothers, lest there will be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in the falling discerner of thoughts and intents of the heart; 13 and away from the living God, 13 but exhort one another things [are] naked and open to His eyes—with whom every day, while [it] is called “Today,” that none of you is our reckoning. 14 Having, then, a great Chief Priest may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin, 14 for having passed through the heavens—Jesus the Son we have become partakers of the Christ, if we may of God—may we hold fast the profession, 15 for we hold fast the confidence [we had] at the beginning do not have a Chief Priest unable to sympathize with to the end, 15 as it is said, “Today, if you may hear our weaknesses, but [One] tempted in all things in like His voice, you may not harden your hearts, as in manner, [yet] without sin; 16 we may come near, then, the provocation.” 16 For who [were those], having with freedom, to the throne of grace, that we may heard, [that] provoked, but not all those having come receive kindness, and find grace—for seasonable out of Egypt through Moses? 17 But with whom was help.

5 For every chief priest taken out of men is set in things [pertaining] to God in behalf of men, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins, 2 being able to be gentle to those being ignorant and going astray, since he is also surrounded with weakness; 3 and because of this [weakness] he ought, just as for the people, so also for himself, to bring forward [sacrifices] for sins; 4 and no one takes the honor to himself, but he who is called by God, as also Aaron. 5 So also the Christ did not glorify Himself to become Chief Priest, but He who spoke to Him: “You are My Son, today I have begotten You”; 6 just as He also says in another [place], “You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”, (aiōn and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and having been heard in respect to that which He feared, 8 though being a Son, [He] learned obedience by the things which He suffered, 9 and having been made perfect, He became the cause of continuous salvation to all those obeying Him, (aiōnios g166) 10 having been called by God a Chief Priest according to the order of Melchizedek, 11 concerning the Word, of whom we have much [to speak], and of hard explanation to say, since you have become dull of hearing, 12 for even owing to be teachers, because of the time, again you have need that one teach you what [are] the elements of the beginning of the oracles of God, and you have become having need of milk, and not of strong food, 13 for everyone who is partaking of milk [is] unskilled in the word of righteousness—for he is an infant, 14 and the strong food is of perfect men, who because of the use are having the senses exercised, to both the discernment of good and of evil.

6 For this reason, having left the word of the beginning of the Christ, we may advance to perfection, not laying again a foundation of conversion from dead works, and of faith on God, 2 of the teaching of immersions, also of laying on of hands, also of [the] resurrection of the dead, and of continuous judgment, (aiōnios g166) 3 and this we will do, if God may permit, 4 for [it is] impossible for those once enlightened, having also tasted of the heavenly gift, and having become partakers of the Holy Spirit, 5 and tasted the good saying of God, also the powers of the coming age, (aiōn g165) 6 and having fallen away, to renew [them] again to conversion, having crucified to themselves the Son of God again, and exposed to public shame. 7 For the earth, having drunk in the rain coming on it many times, and is bringing forth herbs fit for those because of whom it is also dressed, partakes of blessing from God, 8 but that which is bearing thorns and briers [is] disapproved of, and near to cursing, whose end [is] for burning; 9 but we are persuaded, concerning you, beloved, the things that are better, and accompanying salvation, though even thus we speak, 10 for God is not unrighteous to forget your work, and the labor of love that you showed to His Name, having ministered to the holy ones and ministering; 11 and we desire each one of you to show the same diligence, to the full assurance of the hope to the end, 12 that you may not become slothful, but followers of those who through faith and patient endurance are inheriting the promises. 13 For God, having made promise to Abraham, seeing He was not able to swear by [any] greater, swore by Himself, 14 saying, “Blessing I will indeed bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you”; 15 and so, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise; 16 for men swear by the greater, and the oath [is] for dull of hearing, confirmation of the end of all their controversy, 17 in which God, more abundantly willing to show to the heirs of the promise the immutability of His counsel, interposed by an oath, 18 that through two immutable things, in which [it is] impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong comfort, having fled for refuge, to lay hold on the hope being set before [us], 19 which we have, as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and entering into that within the veil, 20 to where a forerunner entered for us—Jesus, having become Chief Priest throughout the age after the order of Melchizedek. (aiōn g165)

7 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham turning back from the striking of the kings, and blessed him, 2 to whom also Abraham divided a tenth of all (first, indeed, being interpreted, “King of righteousness,” and then also, “King of Salem,” which is, King of Peace), 3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, and having been like the Son of God, remains a priest continually. 4 And see how great this one [is], to whom Abraham the patriarch also gave a tenth out of the best of the spoils, 5 and those, indeed, out of the sons of Levi receiving the priesthood, have a command to take tithes from the people according to the Law, that is, their brothers, even though they came forth out of the loins of Abraham; 6 and he who was not reckoned by genealogy of them, received tithes from Abraham, and he has blessed him having the promises, 7 and apart from all controversy, the less is blessed by the better— 8 and here, indeed, men who die receive tithes, and there [he] who is testified to that he was living, 9 and so to speak, through Abraham even Levi who is receiving tithes, has paid tithes, 10 for he was yet in the loins of the father when Melchizedek met him. 11 If indeed, then, perfection were through the Levitical priesthood—for the people under it had received law—what further need, according to the order of Melchizedek, for another priest to arise, and not to be called according to the order of Aaron? 12 For the priesthood being changed, of necessity also, a change comes of the Law, 13 for He of whom these things are said in another tribe has had part, of whom no one gave attendance at the altar, 14 for [it is] evident that out of Judah has arisen our Lord, in regard to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. 15 And to an example and shadow serve of the heavenly it is yet more abundantly most evident, if according to the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest—who did not come according to the law of a fleshly command, but according to the power of an endless life, 17 for He testifies, “You [are] a priest—throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”; (aiōn g165) 18 for an annulling indeed comes of the command going before because of its as [it is] not apart from oath from oath have become priests, and He [became priest] with an oath through Him who is saying to Him, “The LORD swore, and will not regret, You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”, (aiōn g165) 20 And inasmuch as [it is] not apart from oath 21 (for those indeed apart from oath have become priests, and He [became priest] with an oath through Him who is saying to Him, “The LORD swore, and will not regret, You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”), (aiōn g165) 22 by so much also has He, because of His remaining throughout the age, has the inviolable priesthood, (aiōn g165) 23 and was fitting for us—holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens, 27 who has no daily necessity, as the chief priests, to first offer up sacrifice for His own sins, then for those of the people; for this He did once, having offered up Himself; 28 for the Law appoints men [as] chief priests, having weakness, but the word of the oath that [is] after the Law [appoints] the Son having been perfected throughout the age. (aiōn g165)

8 And the sum concerning the things spoken of [is]: we have such a Chief Priest, who sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Greatness in the heavens, 2 a servant of the holy places, and of the true dwelling place, which the LORD set up, to offer both gifts and sacrifices, from where [it is] He may offer; 4 for if, indeed, He were on earth, He would not be a priest (there being the priests who are offering the gifts according to the Law, 5 who about to construct the Dwelling Place, for, “See,” He says, “[that] you will make all things according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain”), 6 but now He has obtained a more excellent service, how much He is also mediator of a better covenant, which has been sanctioned on better promises, 7 for if that first were faultless, a place would not have weakness, and unprofitableness 19 (for nothing did come of the command going before because of its as [it is] not apart from oath 21 (for those indeed apart from oath have become priests, and He [became priest] with an oath through Him who is saying to Him, “The LORD swore, and will not regret, You [are] a priest throughout the age, according to the order of Melchizedek”), (aiōn g165) 22 by so much also has He, because of His remaining throughout the age, has the inviolable priesthood, (aiōn g165) 23 and was fitting for us—holy, innocent, undefiled, separate from the sinners, and having become higher than the heavens, 27 who has no daily necessity, as the chief priests, to first offer up sacrifice for His own sins, then for those of the people; for this He did once, having offered up Himself; 28 for the Law appoints men [as] chief priests, having weakness, but the word of the oath that [is] after the Law [appoints] the Son having been perfected throughout the age. (aiōn g165)

It is evident that out of the Levitical priesthood there arises another priest who is not of the Levitical order, but who is like Melchizedek. This priest is Jesus Christ. He is the High Priest of the New Covenant. He is the mediator of the New Covenant. He is the Great High Priest who sits at the right hand of the Father. He is the Servant of the Most High God. He is the High Priest of the true dwelling place, which is the Church. He is the High Priest of the true Tabernacle, which is the Church. He is the High Priest of the true Altar, which is the Cross. He is the High Priest of the true Sacrifice, which is the Body of Christ. He is the High Priest of the true Gifts and Sacrifices, which are the fruits of the Spirit. He is the High Priest of the true Priesthood, which is the Body of Christ.

9 It had, indeed, then (even the first dwelling place) ordinances of service, also a worldly sanctuary, 2 for a dwelling place was prepared, the first, in which was both the lampstand, and the table, and the Bread of the Presentation—which is called “Holy”; 3 and after the second veil a dwelling place that is called "Holy of Holies," 4 having a golden censer, and the Ark of the Covenant overlaid all over with gold, in which Aaron that budded, and the tablets of the covenant, 5 and over it cherubim of the glory, overshadowing the propitiatory covering, concerning which we are not to particularly speak now. 6 And these things having been thus prepared, into the first dwelling place, indeed, the priests go in at all times, performing services, 7 and into the second, once in the year, only with the chief priest, not apart from blood, which he offers the Holy Spirit was making evident that the way of the holy [places] has not yet been revealed, the first dwelling place yet having a standing, 9 which [is] an allegory in regard to the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, which are not able, in regard to conscience, to make perfect him who is serving, 10 only on the basis of food, and drinks, and different immersions, and fleshly ordinances—until the time of reformation imposed on [them]. 11 But Christ having come, Chief Priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect dwelling place not made with hands—that is, not of this creation—12 neither through blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, entered in once into the holy places, having obtained continuous redemption; (aiōnios g166) 13 for if the blood of bulls, and goats, and ashes of a heifer, sprinkling those defiled, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh, 14 how much more will the blood of the Christ (who through the perpetual Spirit offered Himself unblemished to God) purify your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? (aiōnios g166) 15 And because of this, He is mediator of a new covenant, that [His] death having come for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, those called may receive the promise of the continuous inheritance, (aiōnios g166) 16 for where a covenant [is], [it is] necessary to establish the death of the [one] having made [it], 17 for a covenant is affirmed at death, since it is not in force at all when the [one] having made [it] lives, 18 for which reason, not even the first has been initiated apart from blood, 19 for every command having been spoken, according to law, by Moses, to all the people, having taken the blood of the calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, he sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people, 20 saying, "This [is] the blood of the covenant that God enjoined to you," 21 and he sprinkled both the Dwelling Place and all the vessels of the service with blood in like manner, 22 and with blood almost all things are purified according to the Law, and forgiveness does not come apart from blood indeed of the things in the heavens to be purified with these, and the heavenly things themselves better sacrifices than these; 24 for the Christ did not for himself and the errors of the people. 8 By this enter into holy places made with hands—figures of the true—but into Heaven itself, now to be manifested in the presence of God for us; 25 nor that He may offer Himself many times, even as the chief priest enters into the holy places every year with blood of others, 26 otherwise it was necessary for Him to suffer many times from the foundation of the world, but now He has been revealed once, at the full end of the ages, for [the] annulling of sin through His sacrifice; (aiōn g165) 27 and as it is reserved for men to die once, and after this—judgment, 28 so also the Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, apart from a sin-offering, for salvation to those waiting for Him!

10 For the Law having a shadow of the good things coming—not the very image of the matters, every year, by the same sacrifices that they offer continually, is never able to make perfect those coming near, 2 since, would they not have ceased to be offered, because of those serving having no more conscience of sins, having been purified once? 3 But in those [sacrifices] is a remembrance of sins every year, 4 for it is impossible for blood of bulls and goats to take away sins. 5 For this reason, coming into the world, He says, "Sacrifice and offering You did not will, and a body You prepared for Me; 6 in burnt-offerings, and concerning sin-offerings, You did not delight. 7 Then I said, Behold, I come (in a volume of the scroll it has been written concerning Me), to do, O God, Your will"; 8 saying above, "Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt-offerings, and concerning sin-offering You did not will, nor delight in" (which are offered according to the Law), 9 then He said, "Behold, I come to do, O God, Your will"; He takes away the first that He may establish the second; 10 32 But call to your remembrance the former days, in which, having been enlightened, you endured much offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all, 11 conflict of sufferings; 33 this indeed, being made and every priest, indeed, has daily stood serving, spectacles with both insults and afflictions, now this, and offering the same sacrifices many times, that having become partners of those so living, 34 for you are never able to take away sins. 12 But He, having also sympathized with my bonds, and the robbery of offered one sacrifice for sin—to the end, sat down at your goods you received with joy, knowing that you the right hand of God— 13 as to the rest, expecting have in yourselves a better substance in the heavens, until He may place His enemies [as] His footstool, and an enduring one. 35 You may not cast away, 14 for by one offering He has perfected to the end then, your boldness, which has great repayment of those being sanctified; 15 and the Holy Spirit also reward, 36 for you have need of patience, that having testifies to us, for after that He has said before, 16 done the will of God, you may receive the promise. “This [is] the covenant that I will make with them 37 “For yet [in] a very, very little [while], He who is after those days, says the LORD, giving My laws on coming will come, and will not linger,” 38 but, “The their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,” 17 righteous will live by faith; and if he may draw back, and, “I will remember their sins and their lawlessness My soul has no pleasure in him.” 39 But we are not no more”; 18 and where [there is] forgiveness of those drawing back to destruction, but of those these, there is no longer offering for sin. 19 Having, believing to a preserving of soul.

therefore, brothers, boldness for the entrance into the holy places, by the blood of Jesus, 20 which [is] the way He initiated for us—new and living, through the veil, that is, His flesh— 21 and a Great Priest over the house of God, 22 may we draw near with a true heart, in full assurance of faith, having the hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having the body bathed with pure water; 23 may we hold fast the unwavering profession of the hope (for He who promised [is] faithful), 24 and may we consider to provoke one another to love and to good works, 25 not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as [is] a custom of some, but exhorting, and so much the more as you see the Day coming near. 26 For [if] we are sinning willingly after receiving the full knowledge of the truth—there remains no more sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain fearful looking for of judgment, and fiery zeal, about to devour the opposers; 28 anyone having set aside a law of Moses dies without mercies on the basis of two or three witnesses. 29 Of how much worse punishment will he be counted worthy who trampled on the Son of God, and counted the blood of the covenant a common thing, by which he was sanctified, and having insulted the Spirit of grace? 30 For we have known Him who is saying, “Vengeance [is] Mine, I will repay, says the LORD”; and again, “The LORD will judge His people.” 31 [It is] fearful to fall into [the] hands of [the] living God.

11 Now faith is [the] substance of things hoped for, [the] proof of matters not being seen, 2 for by this, the elders were well-attested. 3 By faith we understand the ages to have been prepared by a saying of God, in regard to the things seen having not come out of things appearing. (aiōn g165) 4 By faith Abel offered a better sacrifice to God than Cain, through which he was testified to be righteous, God testifying of his gifts, and through it, he being dead, yet speaks. 5 By faith Enoch was translated—not to see death, and was not found, because God translated him; for before his translation he had been testified to—that he had pleased God well, 6 and apart from faith it is impossible to please [Him], for it is required of him who is coming to God to believe that He exists and [that] He becomes a rewarder to those seeking Him. 7 By faith Noah, having been divinely warned concerning the things not yet seen, having feared, prepared an ark to the salvation of his house, through which he condemned the world, and he became heir of the righteousness according to faith. 8 By faith Abraham, being called, obeyed, to go forth into the place that he was about to receive for an inheritance, and he went forth, not knowing to where he goes. 9 By faith he sojourned in the land of the promise as a strange country, having dwelt in dwelling places with Isaac and Jacob, fellow-heirs of the same promise, 10 for he was looking for the city having the foundations, whose craftsman and constructor [is] God. 11 And by faith Sarah, herself barren, received power to conceive seed even after the time of life, seeing she judged Him who promised faithful; 12 for this reason, also, from one—and that of one who had become dead—were begotten as the stars of the sky in multitude, and innumerable as the sand that [is] by the seashore. 13 All these died in faith, having not received the promises, but having seen them from afar, and having been persuaded, and having greeted [them], and having confessed that they are strangers and sojourners on the earth, 14 for those saying such things make apparent that they seek a country; 15 and if, indeed, they had been mindful of that from which they came forth, 16 but others might have had an opportunity to return, 17 By faith Abraham has offered up Isaac, being tried, even the [one] having received the promises offered up to him. 18 Of whom it was said, "In Isaac will your Seed be called," 19 reckoning that God is even able to raise up out of the dead, from where also in a figurative sense he received [him]. 20 By faith, concerning coming things, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau. 21 By faith Jacob, dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph and worshiped on the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, dying, made mention concerning the outgoing of the sons of Israel, and gave command concerning his bones. 23 By faith Moses, having been born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw the child beautiful, and were not afraid of the decree of the king. 24 By faith Moses, having become great, refused to be called a son of the daughter of Pharaoh, 25 having chosen rather to be afflicted with the people of God, than to have sin's pleasure for a season, 26 having reckoned the reproach of the Christ greater wealth than the treasures in Egypt, for he looked to the repayment of reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt behind, having not been afraid of the wrath of the king, for as seeing the Invisible One—he endured. 28 By faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, so that He who is destroying the firstborn might not touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land, which having made an attempt [to cross], the Egyptians were swallowed up. 30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell, having been surrounded for seven days. 31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who disbelieved, having received the spies with peace. 32 And what yet will I say? For the time will fail me recounting about Gideon, also Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah, also David, and Samuel, and the prophets, 33 who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the mouth of the sword, were made powerful out of weakness, became strong in battle, caused armies of the foreigners to give way; 35 women received their dead by a resurrection, and others received trial of mockings and scourgings, died in the killing of the sword; they went around in caves, and the holes of the earth; 39 and all these, having been testified to through faith, did not receive the promise, 40 God, having provided something better for us, that apart from us they might not be made perfect.

12 Therefore, we also having so great a cloud of witnesses set around us, having put off every weight, and the closely besetting sin, may we run the contest that is set before us through endurance, 2 looking to the Author and Perfecter of the faith—Jesus, who, for the joy set before Him, endured a cross, having despised shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God; 3 for again consider Him who endured such contradiction from the sinners to Himself, that you may not be wearied in your souls—being faint. 4 You did not yet resist to blood—striving with sin; 5 and you have forgotten the exhortation that speaks fully to you as to sons, "My son, do not despise [the] discipline of [the] LORD, nor be faint, being reproved by Him, 6 for whom the LORD loves He disciplines, and He scourges every son whom He receives"; 7 if you

endure discipline, God bears Himself to you as to sons, for who is a son whom a father does not discipline? 8 And if you are apart from discipline, shook the earth then, and now He has promised, of which all have become partakers, then you are saying, "Yet once [more]—I shake not only the earth, bastards, and not sons. 9 Then, indeed, we have had fathers of our flesh, correctors, and we respected Father of the spirits, and live? 10 For they, indeed, for disciplining, but He for profit, to be partakers of His separation; 11 and all discipline for the present, with reverence and fear, 29 for our God [is] indeed, does not seem to be of joy, but of sorrow, yet speaking on earth—much less we who turn away from Him who [speaks] from Heaven, 26 whose voice makes evident the removal of the things shaken, [them]; will we not much rather be subject to the as of things having been made, that the things not shaken may remain; 28 for this reason, receiving a few days, according to what seemed good to them, kingdom that cannot be shaken, may we have grace, were disciplining, but He for profit, to be partakers of through which we may serve God well-pleasingly, His separation; 11 and all discipline for the present, with reverence and fear, 29 for our God [is] also a indeed, does not seem to be of joy, but of sorrow, yet consuming fire.

afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those exercised through it. 12 For this reason, lift up the hanging-down hands and the loosened knees; 13 and make straight paths for your feet, so that which is lame may not be turned aside, but rather be healed; 14 pursue peace with all, and the separation, apart from which no one will see the LORD, 15 observing lest anyone be failing of the grace of God, lest any root of bitterness springing up may give trouble, and through this many may be defiled; 16 lest anyone be a fornicator, or a profane person, as Esau, who in exchange for one morsel of food sold his birthright, 17 for you know that also afterward, wishing to inherit the blessing, he was disapproved of, for he did not find a place of conversion, though having sought it with tears. 18 For you did not come near to the mountain touched and scorched with fire, and to blackness, and darkness, and storm, 19 and a sound of a trumpet, and a voice of sayings, which those having heard begged that a word might not be added to them, 20 for they were not bearing that which is commanded, "And if a beast may touch the mountain, it will be stoned, or shot through with an arrow," 21 and (so terrible was the sight), Moses said, "I am exceedingly fearful, and trembling." 22 But you came to Mount Zion, and to [the] city of the living God, to the heavenly Jerusalem, and to myriads of messengers, 23 to the assembly-place and Assembly of the Firstborn registered in Heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to spirits of righteous men made perfect, 24 and to a mediator of a new covenant—Jesus, and to blood of sprinkling, speaking better things than that of Abel! 25 Watch out lest you refuse Him who is speaking, for if those did not escape who refused him who was divinely

13 Let brotherly love remain. 2 Do not be forgetful of hospitality, for through this some entertained messengers unaware. 3 Be mindful of those in bonds, as having been bound with them, of those maltreated, as yourselves also being in the body. 4 The marriage [is to be] honored by all, and the bed undefiled, for God will judge whoremongers and adulterers. 5 [Be] without covetous behavior, being content with the things present, for He has said, "No, I will not leave, no, nor forsake you," 6 so that we boldly say, "The LORD [is] to me a helper, and I will not fear what man will do to me." 7 Be mindful of those leading you, who spoke to you the word of God, who, considering the outcome of [their] behavior, imitate [their] faith: 8 Jesus Christ—the same yesterday and today and for all ages. (aiōn g165) 9 Do not be carried away with strange and manifold teachings, for [it is] good that by grace the heart is confirmed, not with meats, in which they who were occupied were not profited; 10 we have an altar from which they who are serving the Dwelling Place have no authority to eat, 11 for of those beasts whose blood is brought for sin into the holy places through the chief priest—of these the bodies are burned outside the camp. 12 For this reason, also Jesus—that He might sanctify the people through [His] own blood—suffered outside the gate; 13 now then, may we go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach; 14 for we have no abiding city here, but we seek the coming one. 15 Through Him, then, we may always offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips, giving thanks to His Name. 16 And do not be forgetful of doing good and of fellowship, for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices. 17 Be obedient to those leading you, and be subject, for these watch for your souls, as about to give account, that they may do this with joy, and not sighing, for this [is] unprofitable to you. 18 Pray for us, for we trust that we have a good conscience, willing to behave well in all things, 19 and I call on [you] to do this more abundantly, that I may be restored to you more quickly. 20 And the God of peace, who brought up the Great Shepherd of the sheep out of the dead—by the blood of a perpetual covenant—our Lord Jesus, (aiōnios g166) 21 make you perfect in every good work to do His will, doing in you that which is well-pleasing before Him, through Jesus Christ, to whom [is] the glory through the ages of the ages! Amen. (aiōn g165) 22 And I beg you, brothers, endure the word of the exhortation, for I have also written to you through few words. 23 Know that the brother Timotheus is released, with whom I will see you, if he may come more shortly. 24 Greet all those leading you, and all the holy ones. Those from Italy greet you. 25 The grace [is] with you all! Amen.

James

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus

Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion:

Greetings! 2 Count [it] all joy, my brothers, when you may fall into manifold temptations, 3 knowing that the proof of your faith works endurance, 4 and let the endurance have a perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing. 5 And if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask from God, who is giving to all generously, and not reproaching, and it will be given to him; 6 but let him ask in faith, doubting nothing, for he who is doubting has been like a wave

not a doer, this one has been like to a man viewing his natural face in a mirror, 24 for he viewed himself, and has gone away, and immediately he forgot what kind of [man] he was; 25 but he who looked into [the] perfect law—that of liberty, and continued there, not becoming a forgetful hearer, but a doer of work—this one will be blessed in his doing. 26 If anyone thinks to be religious among you, not bridling his tongue, but deceiving his heart, the religion of this one [is] vain; 27 religion pure and undefiled with the God and Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their tribulation—to keep himself unspotted from the world.

of the sea, driven by wind and tossed; 7 for do not let that man suppose that he will receive anything from the LORD— 8 a soul-split man [is] unstable in all his ways. 9 And let the brother who is low rejoice in his exaltation, 10 but the rich in his becoming low, because he will pass away as a flower of grass; 11 for the sun rose with the burning heat, and withered the grass, and the flower of it fell, and the beauty of its appearance perished, so also the rich in his way will fade away! 12 Blessed [is] the man who endures temptation, because, becoming approved, he will receive the garland of life, which the LORD promised to those loving Him. 13 Let no one who is being tempted say, "I am tempted from God," for God is not tempted by evils, and Himself tempts no one, 14 but each one is tempted, being led away and enticed by his own desires; 15 afterward the desire having conceived, gives birth to sin, and sin having been perfected, brings forth death. 16 Do not be led astray, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good giving, and every perfect gift, is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variation, or shadow of turning; 18 having willed [it], He begot us with a word of truth, for our being a certain first-fruit of His creatures. 19 So then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger, 20 for the wrath of a man does not work the righteousness of God; 21 for this reason, having put aside all filthiness and superabundance of evil, receive the implanted word in meekness, that is able to save your souls; 22 and become doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves, 23 because, if anyone is a hearer of the word and

2 My brothers, do not hold the faith of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ in favor by appearance, 2 for if there may come into your synagogue a man with gold ring, in radiant clothing, and there may also come in a poor man in vile clothing, 3 and you may look on him bearing the radiant clothing, and may say to him, "You—sit here well," and may say to the poor man, "You—stand there," or, "Sit here under my footstool," 4 you did not judge fully in yourselves, and became ill-reasoning judges. 5 Listen, my beloved brothers, did God not choose the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom that He promised to those loving Him? 6 But you dishonored the poor one. Do the rich not oppress you and themselves draw you to judgment-seats? 7 Do they not themselves speak evil of the good Name having been called on you? 8 If, indeed, you fulfill royal law, according to the Writing: "You will love your neighbor as yourself," you do well; 9 but if you favor by appearance, you work sin, being convicted by the Law as transgressors; 10 for whoever will keep the whole Law, but will stumble in one [point], he has become guilty of all; 11 for He who is saying, "You may not commit adultery," also said, "You may not murder"; but if you will not commit adultery, but will commit murder, you have become a transgressor of law; 12 thus, speak and so act as [one] about to be judged by a law of liberty, 13 for the judgment without mercy [is] to him having not done mercy, and mercy exults over judgment. 14 What [is] the profit, my brothers, if anyone may speak of having faith, but he may not have works? Is that faith able to save him? 15 And if a brother or sister may be naked, and may be destitute of daily food, 16 and anyone of you may say to them, "Depart God and Father, and with it we curse the men made in peace, be warmed, and be filled," but may not according to [the] likeness of God; 10 out of the same give to them the things necessary for the body, what mouth comes forth blessing and cursing; it does not [is] the profit? 17 So also faith, if it may not have need, my brothers, these things to so happen; 11 works, is dead by itself. 18 But someone may say, does the fountain out of the same opening pour forth "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your the sweet and the bitter? 12 Is a fig tree able, my faith without works, and I will show you my faith out brothers, to make olives? Or a vine figs? Neither is of works. 19 You believe that God is one; you do salty [water able] to have made sweet water. 13 Who well! The demons also believe—and shudder! 20 And [is] wise and intelligent among you? Let him show his do you wish to know, O vain man, that faith apart works out of good behavior in meekness of wisdom, from works is dead? 21 Was not our father Abraham 14 yet, if you have bitter zeal, and rivalry in your considered righteous out of works, having brought up heart, do not glory, nor lie against the truth; 15 this his son Isaac on the altar? 22 Do you see that faith wisdom is not descending from above, but earthly, was working with his works, and faith was perfected physical, demon-like, 16 for where zeal and rivalry out of the works? 23 And the Writing was fulfilled [are], there is insurrection and every evil matter; 17 that is saying, "And Abraham believed God, and it but the wisdom from above, first, indeed, is pure, then was reckoned to him for righteousness"; and, "Friend peaceable, gentle, well-convinced, full of kindness of God" he was called. 24 You see, then, that man and good fruits, uncontentious, and unhypocritical—is considered righteous out of works, and not out 18 and the fruit of righteousness in peace is sown to of faith only; 25 and in like manner also Rahab the those making peace.

prostitute—was she not considered righteous out of works, having received the messengers, and having sent [them] forth by another way? 26 For as the body apart from [the] spirit is dead, so also the faith apart from works is dead.

4 From where [are] wars and fightings among you? [Is it] not from here, out of your passions warring in your members? 2 You desire, and do not have, [so] you murder; and you are zealous, and are not able to attain, [so] you fight and war; and you do not

3 Do not let many be teachers, my brothers, having known that we will receive greater judgment, 2 you do not receive, because you ask badly, that you for we all make many stumbles; if anyone does not stumble in word, this one [is] a perfect man, able to also bridle the whole body; 3 behold, the bits we put into the mouths of the horses for their obeying us, and we direct their whole body; 4 behold, also the ships, being so great, and being driven by fierce winds, are directed by a very small rudder, wherever the impulse of the [one] steering wills, 5 so also the tongue is a little member, and boasts greatly; behold, how much forest a little fire kindles! 6 And the tongue [is] a fire, the world of the unrighteousness, so the tongue is set in our members, which is spotting our whole body, and is setting on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna. (Geenna g1067) 7 For every nature, both of beasts and of birds, both of creeping things and things of the sea, is subdued, and has been subdued, by the human nature, 8 but no one of men is able to subdue the tongue—[it is] an unruly evil, full of deadly poison; 9 with it we bless the

have, because of your not asking; 3 you ask, and may spend [it] in your pleasures. 4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Have you not known that friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whoever, then, intend to be a friend of the world, he is designated [as] an enemy of God. 5 Or, do you think that the Writing says emptily, "The Spirit that has dwelt in us yearns with envy," 6 but [God] gives greater grace, for this reason it says, "God sets Himself up against proud ones, and He gives grace to lowly ones." 7 Be subject, then, to God; stand up against the Devil, and he will flee from you; 8 draw near to God, and He will draw near to you; cleanse hands, you sinners! And purify hearts, you split-souled! 9 Be exceedingly afflicted, and mourn, and weep, let your laughter be turned to mourning, and the joy to heaviness; 10 be made low before the LORD, and He will exalt you. 11 Do not speak against one another, brothers; he who is speaking against a brother, and is judging his brother, speaks against law, and judges law, and if you judge law, you are not a doer of law but a judge. Let him sing psalms; 14 is anyone sick among you? 12 One is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to let destroy; you—who are you that judges the other? 13 Go, now, you who are saying, “Today and tomorrow we will go on to such a city, and will pass there one year, and traffic, and make gain,” 14 who does not know the thing of tomorrow; for what is your life? For it is a vapor that is appearing for a little [while], and then is vanishing; 15 instead, you [ought] to say, “If the LORD may will, we will live, and do this or that”; 16 but now you glory in your pride; all such glorying is evil; 17 to him, then, knowing to do good, and not doing [it], it is sin to him.

5 Go, now, you rich! Weep, howling over your miseries that are coming on [you]; 2 your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten; 3 your gold and silver have rotted, and the rust of them will be to you for a testimony, and will eat your flesh as fire. You have stored up treasure in the last days! 4 Behold, the reward of the workmen cries out, of those who in-gathered your fields, which has been fraudulently kept back by you, and the exclamations of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the LORD of Hosts; 5 you lived in luxury on the earth, and were wanton; you nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter; 6 you condemned—you murdered the righteous; he does not resist you. 7 Be patient, then, brothers, until the coming of the LORD; behold, the farmer expects the precious fruit of the earth, being patient for it, until he may receive rain—early and latter; 8 you also be patient; establish your hearts, because the coming of the LORD has drawn near; 9 do not murmur against one another, brothers, that you may not be condemned; behold, the Judge has stood before the door. 10 Brothers, [as] an example of the suffering of evil and of patience, take the prophets who spoke in the Name of the LORD; 11 behold, we call those who are enduring blessed; you heard of the endurance of Job, and you have seen the end from the LORD, that the LORD is very compassionate, and pitying. 12 And before all things, my brothers, do not swear, neither by Heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath, but let your “Yes” be yes, and the “No,” no, that you may not fall under judgment. 13 Does anyone suffer evil among you? Let him pray; is anyone of good cheer?

Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil, in save the distressed one, and the LORD will raise him up, and if he may have committed sins, they will be forgiven to him. 16 Be confessing to one another trespasses, and be praying for one another, that you of a righteous man; 17 Elijah was a similar-feeling man as us, and with prayer he prayed—not to rain, and it did not rain on the land three years and six months; 18 and again he prayed, and the sky gave rain, and the land brought forth her fruit. 19 Brothers, if anyone among you may go astray from the truth, and anyone may turn him back, 20 let him know that he who turned back a sinner from the straying of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

1 Peter

1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen sojourners of the dispersion of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, 2 according to [the] foreknowledge of God the Father, by [the] sanctification of the Spirit, to [the] obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied to you! 3 Blessed [is] the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who, according to the abundance of His kindness begot us again to a living hope, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ out of the dead, 4 to an incorruptible inheritance, and undefiled, and unfading, reserved for you in the heavens, 5 who, in the power of God are being guarded, through faith, to salvation, ready to be revealed in the last time, 6 in which you are glad, a little now, if it be necessary, being made to sorrow in various trials, 7 so that the proof of your faith—much more precious than gold that is perishing, and being approved through fire—may be found to [result in] praise, and honor, and glory, at the revelation of Jesus Christ, 8 whom, having not seen, you love, in whom, now believing [although] not seeing, you are glad with unspeakable joy and have been filled with glory, 9 receiving the outcome of the faith—salvation of your souls; 10 concerning which salvation [the] prophets sought out and searched out, who prophesied concerning the grace toward you, 11 searching in regard to what or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ that was in them was signifying, testifying beforehand of the sufferings of Christ and the glory after these, 12 to whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they were ministering these, which now were told to you (through those who proclaimed good news to you), by the Holy Spirit sent from Heaven, to which things messengers desire to look into intently. 13 For this reason, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, hope perfectly on the grace that is being brought to you in the revelation of Jesus Christ, 14 as obedient children, not fashioning yourselves to the former desires in your ignorance, 15 but according as He who called you [is] holy, you also, become holy in all behavior, 16 because it has been written: “Become holy, because I am holy”; 17 and if you call on the Father, who is judging without favoritism according to the work of each, pass the time of your sojourn in fear, 18 having known that, not with corruptible things—silver or gold—were you redeemed from your foolish behavior inherited from our forefathers, 19 but with precious blood, as of a lamb unblemished and unspotted—Christ’s— 20 foreknown, indeed, before the foundation of the world, and revealed in the last times because of you, 21 who through Him believe in God who raised [Him] out of the dead, and gave glory to Him, so that your faith and hope may be in God. 22 Having purified your souls in the obedience of the truth through the Spirit to unhypocritical brotherly love, love one another earnestly out of a pure heart, 23 being begotten again, not out of corruptible seed, but incorruptible, through a word of God—living and remaining—throughout the age; (aiōn g165) 24 because all flesh [is] as grass, and all glory of man as flower of grass; the grass withered, and the flower of it fell away, 25 but the saying of the LORD remains—throughout the age; and this is the saying of good news that was proclaimed to you. (aiōn g165)

2 Having put aside, then, all evil, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envyings, and all evil speakings, 2 as newborn babies, desire the reasonable, unspoiled milk, so that you may grow up to salvation, 3 if [it] so be [that] you tasted that the LORD [is] good, 4 to whom coming—a living stone—having indeed been disapproved of by men, but with God—choice [and] precious, 5 and you yourselves are built up as living stones [into] a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 6 For this reason, also, it is contained in the Writing: “Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, choice, precious, and he who is believing on Him may not be put to shame”; 7 to you, then, who are believing—the preciousness; but to the unbelieving, [the] stone that the builders disapproved of—this One has become the head of [the] corner, 8 and a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense—who are stumbling at the word, being unbelieving—to which they were also set. 9 But you [are] a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people acquired, that you may show forth the excellencies of Him who called you out of darkness into His wonderful light, 10 who [were] once not a people, but [are] now the people of God; who had not found mercy, but now have themselves, being subject to their own husbands, 6 found mercy. 11 Beloved, I call on [you], as strangers as Sarah was obedient to Abraham, calling him "lord," and sojourners, to keep from the fleshly desires that of whom you became daughters, doing good, and war against the soul, 12 having your behavior right not fearing any terror. 7 Husbands, in like manner, among the nations, so that whenever they speak dwelling with [them], according to knowledge, as to against you as evildoers, seeing [your] good works, a weaker vessel—to the wife—imparting honor, as they may glorify God in [the] day of inspection. 13 also being heirs together of the grace of life, that Be subject, then, to every human creation, because your prayers are not hindered. 8 And finally, be all of of the LORD, whether to a king, as the highest, 14 one mind, having fellow-feeling, loving as brothers, whether to governors, as to those sent through him, compassionate, courteous, 9 not giving back evil for punishment, indeed, of evildoers, and a praise of for evil, or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, those doing good; 15 because, so is the will of God, blessing, having known that you were called to this, doing good, to put to silence the ignorance of the that you may inherit a blessing; 10 for "he who is foolish men— 16 as free, and not having freedom willing to love life, and to see good days, let him as the cloak of evil, but as servants of God; 17 give guard his tongue from evil, and his lips—not to speak honor to all; love the brotherhood; fear God; honor guile; 11 let him turn aside from evil, and do good, the king. 18 Servants, be subject in all fear to the let him seek peace and pursue it; 12 because the masters, not only to the good and gentle, but also to eyes of the LORD [are] on the righteous, and His the crooked; 19 for this [is] grace: if anyone endures ears—to their supplication, but the face of the LORD sorrows because of conscience toward God, suffering [is] against those doing evil"; 13 and who [is] he who unrighteously; 20 for what renown [is it], if sinning and will be doing you evil, if you may become imitators of being battered, you endure [it]? But if, doing good Him who is good? 14 But if you also should suffer and suffering [for it], you endure, this [is] grace with because of righteousness, [you are] blessed! And God, 21 for to this you were called, because Christ do not be afraid of their fear, nor be troubled, 15 but also suffered for you, leaving to you an example, that sanctify the LORD God in your hearts. And always you may follow His steps, 22 who did not commit [be] ready for defense to everyone who is asking sin, nor was guile found in His mouth, 23 who being of you an account concerning the hope that [is] in reviled—was not reviling again, suffering—was not you, with meekness and fear, 16 having a good threatening, and was committing Himself to Him who conscience, so that whenever they speak against is judging righteously, 24 who Himself bore our sins you as evildoers, they may be ashamed—[those] in His body on the tree that having died to sins, we who are maligning your good behavior in Christ; 17 may live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were for if the will of God wills it, [it is] better to suffer healed; 25 for you were as sheep going astray, but doing good, than doing evil; 18 also because Christ now you turned back to the Shepherd and Overseer suffered once for sin—righteous for unrighteous—that of your souls.

3 Wives, be subject to your own husbands in like manner, that even if some are disobedient to the word, they may be won through the behavior of the wives without the word, 2 having beheld your pure behavior in fear, 3 whose adorning—let it not be that which is outward, of braiding of hair, and of putting around of things of gold, or of putting on of garments, 4 but—the hidden man of the heart, by the incorruptible [thing] of the meek and quiet spirit, which is of great value before God, 5 for thus once also the holy women who hoped on God were adorning

He might lead us to God, indeed having been put to death in the flesh, but having been made alive in the Spirit, 19 by which, having gone, He also preached to the spirits in prison, 20 who sometime [ago] disobeyed when once the long-suffering of God waited, in [the] days of Noah—an ark being prepared—in which few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water, 21 also an antitype to immersion which now saves you—not a putting away of the filth of flesh, but the question of a good conscience in regard to God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, 22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone on to Heaven—messengers, and authorities, and powers, having been subjected to Him.

news of God? 18 And if the righteous man is scarcely

saved, where will the ungodly and sinner appear? 19

4 Christ, then, having suffered for us in the flesh, you also arm yourselves with the same mind, because he who suffered in the flesh has finished [with] sin, 2 no longer in the desires of men, but in the will of God, to live the rest of the time in the flesh; 3 for the time has sufficiently passed to have carried out the will of the nations, having walked in licentiousness, lusts, excesses of wines, revelings, drinking-bouts, and unlawful idolatries, 4 in which they think it strange—your not running with them to the same excess of wastefulness, slandering [you]— 5 who will give an account to Him who is ready to judge [the] living and [the] dead, 6 for this also was good news proclaimed to dead men, that they may be judged, indeed, according to men in the flesh, but may live according to God in the Spirit. 7 Now the end of all things has come near; be sober-minded, then, and be sober in [your] prayers. 8 Before all things, having earnest love among yourselves, because love covers a multitude of sins; 9 [be] hospitable to one another, without murmuring; 10 each [one], according as he received a gift, ministering it to one another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God; 11 if anyone speaks, [speak] as oracles of God; if anyone ministers, [minister] as of the strength which God supplies, so that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom is the glory and the power through the ages of the ages. Amen. (aiōn g165) 12 Beloved, do not think it strange at the fiery suffering among you that is coming to try you, as if a strange thing were happening to you, 13 but according as you have fellowship with the sufferings of the Christ, rejoice, that you may also rejoice in the revelation of His glory—exulting; 14 if you are reproached in the Name of Christ—[you are] blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you; in regard, indeed, to them, is evil spoken of Him, and in regard to you, He is glorified; 15 for let none of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evildoer, or as a meddler into other men's matters; 16 and if as a Christian, do not let him be ashamed, but let him glorify God in this respect; 17 because it is the time of the judgment to have begun from the house of God, and if first from us, what [is] the end of those disobedient to the good

So that those also suffering according to the will of God, as to a steadfast Creator, let them commit their own souls in doing good.

5 Elders who [are] among you, I exhort [you], [as] a fellow-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of the Christ, and a partaker of the glory about to be revealed, 2 feed the flock of God that [is] among you, overseeing not by compulsion, but willingly, neither for shameful gain, but eagerly, 3 neither as exercising lordship over the heritages, but becoming patterns for the flock, 4 and the Chief Shepherd having appeared, you will receive the unfading garland of glory. 5 In like manner, you young [ones], be subject to elders, and all subjecting yourselves to one another; clothe yourselves with humble-mindedness, because God resists the proud, but He gives grace to the humble; 6 be humbled, then, under the powerful hand of God, that He may exalt you in good time, 7 having cast all your care on Him, because He cares for you. 8 Be sober, vigilant, because your opponent the Devil walks around as a roaring lion, seeking whom he may swallow up, 9 whom you must resist, steadfast in the faith, having known the same sufferings of your brotherhood to be accomplished in the world. 10 And the God of all grace, who called you to His perpetual glory in Christ Jesus, having suffered a little, Himself make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle [you]; (aiōnios g166) 11 to Him [is] the glory and the power through the ages and the ages! Amen. (aiōn g165) 12 Through Silvanus, the faithful brother as I reckon, I wrote through few [words] to you, exhorting and testifying this to be the true grace of God in which you have stood. 13 She in Babylon chosen with you greets you, and my son Marcus. 14 Greet one another in a kiss of love. Peace to you all who [are] in Christ Jesus! Amen.

2 Peter

1 Simeon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus

Christ, to those who obtained an equally precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ: 2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you in the acknowledgment of God and of Jesus our Lord! 3 As His divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and piety, through the acknowledgment of Him who called us through glory and virtue, 4 through which the most great and precious promises have been given to us, that through these you may become partakers of a divine nature, having escaped from the corruption [and] lust in the world. 5 And [for] this same [reason] also, having brought in all diligence, supplement your faith with virtue, and with virtue—knowledge, 6 and with knowledge—self-control, and with self-control—endurance, and with endurance—piety, 7 and with piety—brotherly kindness, and with brotherly kindness—love; 8 for these things being in you and abounding, make [you] neither inert nor unfruitful in regard to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ, 9 for he with whom these things are not present is blind, dim-sighted, having become forgetful of the cleansing of his old sins; 10 therefore, rather, brothers, be diligent to make steadfast your calling and [divine] selection, for doing these things you may never stumble; 11 in this way the entrance into the continuous kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be richly supplemented to you. (aiōnios g166)

12 Therefore, I will always be ready to remind you about these things, although you have known [them] and have been established in the present truth, 13 and I think right, so long as I am in this tent, to stir you up in reminding [you], 14 having known that the laying aside of my tent is soon, even as our Lord Jesus Christ also showed to me. 15 And I will also be diligent [to ensure] that you always have a remembrance to make of these things after my departure. 16 For having not followed out skillfully devised fables, we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but having become eyewitnesses of His majesty— 17 for having received honor and glory from God the Father, such a voice being borne to Him by the Excellent Glory: “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I delighted”; 18 and we heard this voice borne out of Heaven, being with Him at the holy mountain. 19 And we have a more firm prophetic word, to which we do well giving heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day may dawn, and [the] morning star may arise in your hearts; 20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Writing comes of private exposition, 21 for prophecy never came by [the] will of man, but men spoke from God, being brought by the Holy Spirit.

2 But there also came false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among you, who will stealthily bring in destructive sects, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing quick destruction to themselves, 2 and many will follow out their destructive ways, because of whom the way of the truth will be spoken of [as] evil, 3 and in covetousness, with forged words, they will make merchandise of you, whose judgment of old is not idle, and their destruction does not slumber. 4 For if God did not spare messengers having sinned, but having cast [them] down to Tartarus with chains of deepest gloom, delivered [them], having been reserved to judgment, (Tartaroō g5020) 5 and did not spare the old world, but kept the eighth person, Noah, a preacher of righteousness, having brought a flood on the world of the impious, 6 and having turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes, condemned with an overthrow, having set [them as] an example to those about to be impious, 7 and He rescued righteous Lot, worn down by the conduct of the lawless in licentiousness, 8 for the righteous [man] dwelling among them was tormented in [his] righteous soul, day by day, in seeing and hearing unlawful works—9 the LORD has known to rescue [the] pious out of temptation, and to keep [the] unrighteous being punished to [the] day of judgment, 10 and chiefly those following after the flesh in lust [and] defilement, and despising lordship. Bold, self-pleased, they are not afraid to speak evil of glorious ones, 11 whereas messengers, being greater in strength and power, do not bear a slanderous judgment against them before the LORD; 12 and these, as irrational natural beasts, made to be caught and destroyed—in what things they are ignorant of, slandering—in their destruction will be destroyed; 13 doing unjustly, [they will receive] a reward of unrighteousness, esteeming pleasure in heavens and earth, having been stored up for fire, the day, [and] luxury—[they are] spots and blemishes, are being preserved until [the] day of judgment and reveling in their deceipts, feasting with you, 14 having destruction of impious men. 8 And do not let this one eyes full of adultery, and unable to cease from sin, thing be concealed from you, beloved, that one day enticing unstable souls, having a heart exercised with the LORD [is] as one thousand years and one in covetousnesses, children of a curse, 15 having thousand years as one day; 9 the LORD is not slow in forsaken a right way, they went astray, having followed regard to the promise, as some count slowness, but in the way of Balaam the [son] of Bosor, who loved is long-suffering to us, not intending any to be lost, a reward of unrighteousness, 16 and had a rebuke but all to come to conversion, 10 and it will come—the of his own iniquity—a mute donkey, having spoken Day of the LORD—as a thief in the night, in which the in man's voice, forbid the madness of the prophet. heavens will pass away with a rushing noise, and 17 These are wells without water, and clouds driven by the elements will be dissolved with burning heat, and by a storm, to whom the deepest gloom of darkness [the] earth and the works in it will not be found. 11 All has been kept throughout the age; (questioned) 18 these, then, being dissolved, what kind of persons for speaking swollen words of vanity, they entice in ought you to be in holy behaviors and pious acts, 12 desires of the flesh—licentiousness, those who had waiting for and hurrying the coming of the Day of God, truly escaped from those conducting themselves in by which the heavens, being on fire, will be dissolved, error, 19 promising liberty to them, themselves being and the elements will melt with burning heat? 13 servants of corruption, for by whom anyone has been And we wait for new heavens and a new earth overcome, he has been brought to servitude to this according to His promise, in which righteousness one also; 20 for if having escaped from the defilements dwells; 14 for this reason, beloved, waiting for these of the world, in the acknowledging of the LORD and things, be diligent, spotless and unblameable, to Savior Jesus Christ, and again being entangled by be found by Him in peace, 15 and count the long-these things, they have been overcome, the last suffering of our Lord [as] salvation, according as also things have become worse to them than the first, 21 our beloved brother Paul—according to the wisdom for it were better to them not to have acknowledged given to him—wrote to you, 16 as also in all the the way of righteousness, than having acknowledged letters, speaking in them concerning these things, [it], to turn back from the holy command delivered to among which are some things [that are] hard to be them, 22 and that of the true proverb has happened understood, which the untaught and unstable twist, to them: "A dog turned back on his own vomit," and, as also the other Writings, to their own destruction. "A sow having bathed herself—to rolling in mire."

3 This [is] now, beloved, a second letter I write to you, in both which I stir up your pure mind in reminding [you] 2 to be mindful of the sayings said before by the holy prophets, and of the command of us the apostles of the LORD and Savior, 3 knowing this first, that there will come scoffers in the last days, going on according to their own desires, 4 and saying, "Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things so remain from the beginning of the creation"; 5 for this they willingly conceal, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth having been established by the word of God out of water and through water, 6 through which the world then, having been flooded by water, was destroyed; 7 and by the same word, the present

1 That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we beheld, and our hands handled, concerning the Word of Life— 2 and the Life appeared, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the continuous Life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us— (aiōnios g166) 3 we declare to you that which we have seen and heard, that you also may have fellowship with us, and our fellowship [is] with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ; 4 and these things we write to you, that your joy may be full. 5 And this is the message that we have heard from Him, and announce to you, that God is light, and darkness is not in Him at all; 6 if we may say, “We have fellowship with Him,” and may walk in the darkness—we lie, and do not [speak] the truth; 7 and if we may walk in the light, as He is in the light—we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of His Son Jesus Christ cleanses us from every sin; 8 if we may say, “We have no sin,” we lead ourselves astray, and the truth is not in us; 9 if we may confess our sins, He is steadfast and righteous that He may forgive us the sins, and may cleanse us from every unrighteousness; 10 if we may say, “We have not sinned,” we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things I write to you that you may not sin: and if anyone may sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, [the] Righteous One, 2 and He is [the] propitiation for our sins, and not only for ours, but also for the whole world, 3 and in this we know that we have known Him, if we may keep His commands; 4 he who is saying, “I have known Him,” and is not keeping His commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in him; 5 and whoever may keep His word, truly the love of God has been perfected in him; in this we know that we are in Him. 6 He who is saying he remains in Him, himself ought to also walk according as He walked. 7 Beloved, I do not write a new command to you, but an old command, that you had from the beginning—the old command is the word that you heard from the beginning; 8 again, a new command I write to you, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light now shines; 9 he who is saying he is in the light, and is hating his brother, he is in the darkness until now; 10 he who is loving his brother, he remains in the light, and there is not a stumbling-block in him; 11 but he who is hating his brother, he is in the darkness, and he walks in the darkness, and he has not known where he goes, because the darkness blinded his eyes. 12 I write to you, little children, because sins have been forgiven you through His Name; 13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him who [is] from the beginning; I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil [one]; I write to you, little youths, because you have known the Father; 14 I wrote to you, fathers, because you have known Him who [is] from the beginning; I wrote to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil [one]. 15 Do not love the world, nor the things in the world; if anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him, 16 because all that [is] in the world—the desire of the flesh, and the desire of the eyes, and the ostentation of [one's] life—is not of the Father, but of the world, 17 and the world is passing away, and the desire of it, but he who is doing the will of God, he remains—throughout the age. (aiōn g165)

18 Little youths, it is the last hour; and even as you heard that the antichrist comes, even now antichrists have become many—whereby we know that it is [the] last hour; 19 they went forth out of us, but they were not of us, for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but [they went out] so that they might be revealed that they are not all of us. 20 And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and have known all things; 21 I did not write to you because you have not known the truth, but because you have known it, and because no lie is of the truth. 22 Who is the liar, except he who is denying that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the antichrist who is denying the Father and the Son; 23 everyone who is denying the Son, neither has the Father; he who is confessing the Son has the Father also. 24 You, then, that which you heard from the beginning, let it remain in you; if that which you heard from the beginning may remain in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father, 25 and this is the promise that He promised us—the continuous life. (aiōnios g166) 26 These things I wrote to you concerning those leading you astray; 27 and you, the anointing that you received from Him, it remains in you, and you have no need that anyone may teach you, but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all, and is true, and is not a lie, and even as was taught you, you will remain in Him. 28 And now, little children, remain in Him, so that when He may have appeared, we may have boldness, and may not be ashamed before Him, at His coming; 29 if you know that He is righteous, know that everyone doing righteousness, has been begotten of Him.

3 See what love the Father has given to us, that we may be called children of God; because of this the world does not know us, because it did not know Him. 2 Beloved, now, we are children of God, and it was not yet revealed what we will be. We have known that if He may have appeared, we will be like Him, because we will see Him as He is; 3 and everyone who is having this hope on Him, purifies himself, even as He is pure. 4 Everyone who is doing sin, he also does lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness, 5 and you have known that He appeared that He may take away our sins, and sin is not in Him; 6 everyone who is remaining in Him does not sin; everyone who is sinning, has not seen Him, nor known Him. 7 Little children, let no one lead you astray; he who is doing righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous, 8 he who is doing sin, he is of the Devil, because the Devil sins from the beginning; for this [reason] the Son of God appeared, that He may undo the works of the Devil; 9 everyone who has been begotten of God, he does not sin, because His seed remains in him, and he is not able to sin, because he has been begotten of God. 10 In this are revealed the children is not doing righteousness, is not of God, and he who is not loving his brother, 11 because this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we may love one another, 12 not as Cain—he was of the evil one, and he slew his brother. And for [what] reason did he slay him? Because his works were evil, and those of his brother [were] righteous. 13 Do we have known that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers; he who is not loving [his] brother remains in death. 15 Everyone who is hating his brother is a manslayer, and you have known that no manslayer has continuous life remaining in him; (aiōnios g166) 16 in this we have known love, because He laid down His life for us, and we ought to lay down [our] lives for the brothers; 17 and whoever may have the goods of the world, and may view his brother having need, and may shut up his yearnings from him—how does the love of God remain in him? 18 My little children, may we not love in word nor in tongue, but in work and in truth! 19 And in this we know that we are of the truth, and before Him we will assure our hearts, 20 because if our heart may condemn—because greater is God than our heart, and He knows all things. 21 Beloved, if our heart may not condemn us, we have boldness toward God, 22 and whatever we may ask, we receive from Him, because we keep His commands, and we do the things pleasing before Him, 23 and this is His command, that we may believe in the Name of His Son Jesus Christ, and may love one another, even as He gave command to us, 24 and he who is keeping His commands, remains in Him, and He in him; and in this we know that He remains in us, from the Spirit that He gave us.

4 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but prove the spirits, if they are of God, because many false prophets have gone forth into the world. 2 In this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses Jesus Christ having come in the flesh, it is of God, 3 and every spirit that does not confess Jesus Christ having come in the flesh, it is not of God; and this is that of the antichrist, which you heard that it comes, and now it is already in the world. 4 You are of God, little children, and you have overcome them; because greater is He who [is] in you, than he who is in the world. 5 They are of the world, because they speak of this from the world, and the world hears them; 6 we are of God; he who is knowing God hears us; we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. 7 Beloved, may we love one another, because love is of God, and everyone loving has been begotten of God, not wonder, my brothers, if the world hates you; 14 and knows God; 8 he who is not loving did not know God, because God is love. 9 In this was revealed the love of God in us, because God has sent His only begotten Son into the world, that we may live through Him; 10 in this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son [as] the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another; 12 no one has ever seen and His love is having been perfected in us; 13 in this we know that we remain in Him, and He in us, because of His Spirit He has given us. 14 And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son [as] Savior of the world; 15 whoever may confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God; 16 and we have known and believed the love that God has in us; God is love, and he who is remaining in love, remains in God, and God in him. 17 In this, love has been perfected with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because even as He is, we also are in this world. 18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment, and he who is fearing has not been made perfect in love; 19 we love Him, because He first loved us; 20 if anyone may say, "I love God," and may hate his brother, he is a liar; for he who is not loving his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love God whom he has not seen? 21 And this [is] the command we have from Him, that he who is loving God, may also love his brother.

5 Everyone who is believing that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten of God, and everyone who is loving Him who begot, also loves him who is begotten of Him. 2 In this we know that we love the children of God, when we may love God and may keep His commands; 3 for this is the love of God, that we may keep His commands, and His commands are not burdensome; 4 because everyone who is begotten of God overcomes the world, and this is the victory that overcame the world—our faith. 5 Who is he who is overcoming the world, if not he who is believing that Jesus is the Son of God? 6 This One is He who came through water and blood—Jesus the Christ, not in water only, but in the water and the blood; and the Spirit is the [One] testifying, because the Spirit is the truth, 7 because [there] are three who are testifying [in Heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one; 8 and [there] are three who are testifying in the earth]: the Spirit, and the water,

2 John

1 The elder to the chosen lady, and to her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those having known the truth, 2 because of the truth that is remaining in us, and will be with us throughout the age, (aiōn g165) 3 there will be with you grace, mercy, [and] peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. 4 I rejoiced exceedingly that I have found of your children walking in truth, even as we received a command from the Father; 5 and now I implore you, lady, not as writing to you a new command, but which we had from the beginning, that we may love one another, 6 and this is love, that we may walk according to His commands; this is the command, even as you heard from the beginning, that you may walk in it, 7 because many deceivers entered into the world, who are not confessing Jesus Christ coming in flesh; this one is he who is leading astray, and the antichrist. 8 See to yourselves that you may not lose the things that we worked for, but may receive a full reward; 9 everyone who is transgressing, and is not remaining in the teaching of the Christ, does not have God; he who is remaining in the teaching of the Christ, this one has both the Father and the Son; 10 if anyone comes to you, and does not bear this teaching, do not receive him into the house, and do not say to him, "Greetings!" 11 For he who is saying to him, "Greetings," has fellowship with his evil works. 12 Having many things to write to you, I did not intend [it] with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and speak mouth to mouth, that our joy may be full. 13 The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

3 John

1 The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth! 2 Beloved, I desire you to prosper concerning all things, and to be in health, even as your soul prospers, 3 for I rejoiced exceedingly, brothers coming and testifying of the truth in you, even as you walk in truth; 4 I have no joy greater than these things, that I may hear of my children walking in truth. 5 Beloved, you act faithfully in whatever you may do toward the brothers and the one [among] strangers, 6 who testified of your love before an assembly, whom you will do well, having sent forward worthily of God, 7 because they went forth for [His] Name, receiving nothing from the nations; 8 we, then, ought to receive such, that we may become fellow-workers to the truth. 9 I wrote to the assembly, but he who is loving to be first among them—Diotrephes—does not receive us; 10 because of this, if I may come, I will cause him to remember his works that he does, talking nonsense against us with evil words; and not content with these, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and he forbids those intending [to receive them], and he casts [them] out of the assembly. 11 Beloved, do not be following that which is evil, but that which is good; he who is doing good, he is of God, [but] he who is doing evil has not seen God; 12 testimony has been given to Demetrius by all, and by the truth itself, and we also—we testify, and you have known that our testimony is true. 13 Many things I had to write, but I do not wish to write to you through ink and pen, 14 and I hope to see you soon, and we will speak mouth to mouth. Peace to you! The friends greet you. Be greeting the friends by name.

Jude

1 Judas, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those called, having been loved in God [the] Father, and having been kept in Jesus Christ, 2 mercy and peace and love be multiplied to you! 3 Beloved, using all diligence to write to you concerning our common salvation, I had necessity to write to you, exhorting [you] to fight for the faith once delivered to the holy ones, 4 for there came in certain men stealthily, having been written beforehand to this judgment long ago, impious, perverting the grace of our God to licentiousness, and denying our only Master and Lord—Jesus Christ. 5 Now I intend to remind you, you once having known all this, that Jesus, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, He secondly destroyed those not having believed; 6 messengers also, those who did not keep their own principality, but left their proper dwelling, He has kept in eternal bonds under darkness until [the] judgment of [the] great day, (aiōnios g126) 7 as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, in like manner to these [messengers], having given themselves to whoredom, and having gone after other flesh, have been set before [as] an example, undergoing the justice of continuous fire. (aiōnios g166) 8 In like manner, nevertheless, those dreaming indeed defile the flesh, and they disregard lordship, and they speak evil of glorious [ones], 9 yet Michael, the chief messenger, when disputing with the Devil, reasoning about the body of Moses, did not dare to bring against [him] a judgment of slander, but said, "The LORD rebuke you!" 10 But these, indeed, whatever [things] they have not known, they speak evil of; and whatever [they know], like the irrational beasts, they understand naturally—in these they are corrupted; 11 woe to them! Because they went on in the way of Cain, and they rushed to the deceit of Balaam for reward, and in the controversy of Korah they perished. 12 These are stains at your love-feasts, feasting together with you without fear, shepherding themselves; waterless clouds, being carried away by winds; autumnal trees without fruit, having died twice, having been uprooted; 13 wild waves of a sea, foaming up their own shameful [deeds]; stars going astray, for whom the gloom of the darkness throughout the age has been kept.

(aiōn g165) 14 And Enoch, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied to these, saying, "Behold, the LORD has come with myriads of His holy ones, 15 to do judgment against all, and to convict all their impious ones, concerning all their works of impiety that they did impiously, and concerning all the harsh [words] that impious sinners spoke against Him." 16 These are discontented grumblers, walking according to their own lusts; and their mouth speaks swollen words, giving admiration to persons for the sake of profit; 17 but you, beloved, remember the sayings spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 that they said to you, that in the last time there will be scoffers, following after their own lusts of impieties, 19 these are those causing divisions, natural men, not having the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ [resulting] in continuous life; (aiōnios g166) 22 and, indeed, show mercy to those who are doubting, 23 and rescue others by snatching [them] out of fire; but show mercy to others in fear, hating even the coat having been stained from the flesh. 24 And to Him who is able to guard you without stumbling, and to set [you] in the presence of His glory unblemished, in gladness, 25 to the only wise God our Savior, [is] glory and greatness, power and authority, both now and forever! Amen. (aiōn g165)

Revelation

1 A revelation of Jesus Christ that God gave to Him to show to His servants what things must quickly come to pass; and He signified [it], having sent through His messenger to His servant John, 2 who testified [to] the word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ, as many things as he also saw. 3 Blessed is he who is reading, and those hearing the words of the prophecy, and keeping the things written in it, for the time is near! 4 John, to the seven assemblies that [are] in Asia: Grace to you, and peace, from Him who is, and who was, and who is coming, and from the Seven Spirits that are before His throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn out of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth; to Him loving us and having released us from our sins in His blood, 6 [He] has also made us kings and priests to His God and Father, to Him—the glory and the power through the ages of the ages! Amen. (aiōn g165) 7 Behold, He comes with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the land will wail because of Him. Yes! Amen! 8 “I am the Alpha and the Omega, beginning and end, says the LORD, who is, and who was, and who is coming—the Almighty.” 9 I, John, who [am] also your brother, and fellow-partner in the tribulation, and in the kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ, was in the island that is called Patmos, because of the word of God, and because of the testimony of Jesus Christ; 10 I was in the Spirit on the LORD’s Day, and I heard a great voice behind me, as of a trumpet, saying, 11 “I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last,” and, “Write what you see in a scroll, and send [it] to the seven assemblies that [are] in Asia: to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.” 12 And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me, and having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and in the midst of the seven lampstands, [One] like a Son of Man, clothed to the foot, and having been girded around at the breasts with a golden girdle, 14 and His head and hairs [were] white, as if white wool—as snow, and His eyes as a flame of fire; 15 and His feet like to frankincense-colored brass, as having been fired in a furnace, and His voice as a sound of many waters;

16 and having seven stars in His right hand, and out of His mouth a sharp two-edged sword is proceeding, and His countenance—as the sun shining in its might.

17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead, and He placed His right hand on me, saying to me, “Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last, 18 and He who is living, and I became dead, and behold, I am living through the ages of the ages. Amen! And I have the keys of Hades and of death. (aiōn g165, Hades 986) 19 Write the things that you have seen, and the things that are, and the things that are about to come after these things; 20 the secret of the seven stars that you have seen on My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: the seven stars are messengers of the seven assemblies, and the seven lampstands that you have seen are seven assemblies.”

2 “To the messenger of the Ephesian assembly write: These things says He who is holding the seven stars in His right hand, who is walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands: 2 I have known your works, and your labor, and your endurance, and that you are not able to bear evil ones, and that you have tried those saying themselves to be apostles and are not, and have found them liars, 3 and you bore, and have endurance, and have toiled because of My Name, and have not been weary. 4 But I have against you that you left your first love! 5 Remember, then, from where you have fallen, and convert, and do the first works; and if not, I come to you quickly, and will remove your lampstand from its place—if you may not convert; 6 but this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, that I also hate. 7 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: To him who is overcoming—I will give to him to eat of the Tree of Life that is in the midst of the paradise of God. 8 And to the messenger of the assembly of the Smyrneans write: These things says the First and the Last, who became dead and lived: 9 I have known your works, and tribulation, and poverty—yet you are rich—and the slander of those saying themselves to be Jews, and are not, but [are] a synagogue of Satan. 10 Do not be afraid of the things that you are about to suffer; behold, the Devil is about to cast [some] of you into prison, that you may be tried, and you will have tribulation ten days; become faithful to death, and I will give to you the garland of life. 11 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: He who is overcoming may not be injured of the second death. 12 And to the messenger of the assembly in Pergamos write: These things says He who is having the sharp two-edged sword: 13 I have known your works, and where you dwell—where the throne of Satan [is]—and you hold fast My Name, and you did not deny My faith, even in the days in which Antipas [was] My faithful witness, who was put to death beside you, where Satan dwells. 14 But I have a few things against you: that you have there those holding the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the sons of Israel, to eat idol-sacrifices, and to commit whoredom; 15 so have you, even you, those holding the teaching of the Nicolaitans—which thing I hate. 16 Convert! And if not, I come to you quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of My mouth. 17 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies: To him who is overcoming, I will give to him to eat from the hidden manna, and will give to him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, that no one knew except him who is receiving [it]. 18 And to the messenger of the assembly of Thyatira write: These things says the Son of God, who is having His eyes as a flame of fire, and His feet like to frankincense-colored brass: 19 I have known your works, and love, and ministry, and faith, and your endurance, and your works—and the last [are] more than the first. 20 But I have a few things against you: that you allow the woman Jezebel, who is calling herself a prophetess, to teach, and to lead astray, My servants to commit whoredom, and to eat idol-sacrifices; 21 and I gave to her a time that she might convert from her whoredom, and she did not convert; 22 behold, I will cast her into a bed, and those committing adultery with her into great tribulation—if they may not convert from her works, 23 and I will kill her children in death, and all the assemblies will know that I am He who is searching affections and hearts; and I will give to you—to each—according to your works. 24 And to you I say, and to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as do not have this teaching, and who did not know the depths of Satan, as they say—I will not put on you another burden, 25 but hold that which you have, until I may come; 26 and he who is overcoming and who is keeping My works to the end, I will give to him authority over the nations, 27 and he will rule them with a rod of iron—they will be broken as the vessels of the potter—as I have also received from My Father; 28 and I will give to him the morning star. 29 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

3 “And to the messenger of the assembly in Sardis write: These things says He who is having the Seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars: I have known your works, and that you have the name that you live, and you are dead; 2 be watching, and strengthen the rest of the things that are about to die, for I have not found your works fulfilled before God. 3 Remember, then, what you have received and heard, and keep [it] and convert: if, then, you may not watch, I will come on you as a thief, and you may not know what hour I will come on you. 4 You have a few names even in Sardis who did not defile their garments, and they will walk with Me in white, because they are worthy. 5 The [one] thus overcoming will be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Scroll of Life, and I will confess his name before My Father, and before His messengers. 6 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. 7 And to the messenger of the assembly in Philadelphia write: These things says the Holy [One], the True [One], having the key of David, the [One] opening and no one will shut, and shutting and no one opens: 8 I have known your works; behold, I have set before you a door having been opened, which no one is able to shut it, because you have little power, and yet have kept My word, and have not denied My Name; 9 behold, I give from the synagogue of Satan—those saying themselves to be Jews, and are not, but lie—behold, I will make them that they may come and prostrate before your feet, and may know that I loved you. 10 Because you kept the word of My endurance, I also will keep you from the hour of the trial that is about to come on all the world, to try those dwelling on the earth. 11 Behold, I come quickly, be holding fast that which you have, that no one may receive your garland. 12 He who is overcoming—I will make him a pillar in the temple of My God, and he may not go outside anymore, and I will write on him the Name of My God, and the name of the city of My God, the New Jerusalem, that comes down out of Heaven from My God—also My new Name. 13 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. 14 And to the messenger of the assembly of the Laodiceans write: These things say the Amen, the Witness—the Faithful and True—the Chief of the creation of God: 15 I have known your works, that you are neither cold nor hot; I wish you were cold or hot. 16 So—because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to vomit you out of My mouth; 17 because you say—I am rich, and have grown rich, and have need of nothing, and have not known that you are the wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked; 18 I counsel you to buy from Me gold fired by fire, that you may be rich, and white garments that you may be clothed, and the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed, and with eye-salve anoint your eyes, that you may see. 19 As many as I cherish, I convict and discipline; be zealous, then, and convert; 20 behold, I have stood at the door, and I knock; if anyone may hear My voice, and may open the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me. 21 He who is overcoming—I will give to him to sit with Me in My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father in His throne. 22 He who is having an ear—let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

4 After these things I saw, and behold, a door opened in the sky, and the first voice that I heard—as of a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here, and I will show you what must come to pass after these things”; 2 and immediately I was in [the] Spirit, and behold, a throne was set in Heaven, and on the throne is [One] sitting, 3 and He who is sitting was in appearance like a stone, jasper and sardine: and a rainbow was around the throne in appearance like an emerald. 4 And around the throne [are] twenty-four thrones, and sitting on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders, having been clothed in white garments, and on their heads golden garlands; 5 and out of the throne proceed lightnings, and thunders, and voices; and seven lamps of fire are burning before the throne, which are the Seven Spirits of God, 6 and before the throne—a sea of glass like to crystal, and in the midst of the throne, and around the throne—four living creatures, full of eyes before and behind; 7 and the first living creature—like a lion; and the second living creature—like a calf; and the third living creature has the face as a man; and the fourth living creature—like an eagle flying. 8 And the four living creatures, one by one of them had six wings respectively, around and within [are] full of eyes, and they have no rest day and night, saying, “HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, the LORD God, the Almighty, who was, and who is, and who is coming”; 9 and when the living creatures give glory, and honor, and thanksgiving, to the [One] sitting on the throne, the [One] living through the ages of the ages, (aiōn g165) 10 the twenty-four elders will fall down before the [One] sitting on the throne, and worship the [One] living through the ages of the ages, and they will cast their garlands before the throne, saying, (aiōn g165) 11 “Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive the glory, and the honor, and the power, because You created all things, and because of Your will they existed and were created.”

5 And I saw a scroll on the right hand of Him who is sitting on the throne, written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals; 2 and I saw a strong messenger crying with a great voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loose its seals?” 3 And no one was able in Heaven, nor on the earth, nor under the earth, to open the scroll, nor to behold it. 4 And I was weeping much, because no one was found worthy to open and to read the scroll, nor to behold it, 5 and one of the elders says to me, “Do not weep; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, has overcome to open the scroll, and to loose its seven seals”; 6 and I saw, and behold, in the midst of the throne, and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the Seven Spirits of God, which are sent to all the earth, 7 and He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him who is sitting on the throne. 8 And when He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb, each one having harps and golden bowls full of incenses, which are the prayers of the holy ones, 9 and they sing a new song, saying, “Worthy are You to take the scroll, and to open its seals, because You were slain, and You purchased us to God in Your blood, out of every tribe, and tongue, and people, and nation, 10 and made them [to be] to our God kings and priests, and they will reign on the earth.” 11 And I saw, and I heard the voice of many messengers around the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders—and the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands— 12 saying with a great voice, “Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing!” 13 And every creature that is in Heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and the things that are on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying, “To Him who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb—the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the might—through the ages of the ages!” (aiōn g165) 14 And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and they worship Him who is living through the ages of the ages.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as it were a voice of thunder, “Come and behold!” 2 And I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he who is sitting on it is having a bow, and there was given to him a garland, and he went forth overcoming, and that he may overcome. 3 And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come and behold!” 4 And there went forth another horse—fire-colored, and to him who is sitting on it, there was given to him to take peace from the earth, and that they may slay one another, and there was given to him a great sword. 5 And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come and behold!” And I saw, and behold, a black horse, and he who is sitting on it is having a balance in his hand, 6 and I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A measure of wheat for a denarius, and three measures of barley for a denarius, and you may not injure the oil and the wine.” 7 And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and behold!” 8 And I saw, and behold, a pale horse, and he who is sitting on him—his name is Death, and Hades follows with him, and there was given to them authority to kill over the fourth part of the earth with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and by the beasts of the earth. (Hades g86) 9 And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those slain because of the word of God, and because of the testimony that they held, 10 and they were crying with a great voice, saying, “Until when, O Master, the Holy and the True, do You not judge and take vengeance of our blood from those dwelling on the earth?” 11 And there was given to each one a white robe, and it was said to them that they may rest themselves yet a short time, until may also be fulfilled their fellow-servants and their brothers, who are about to be killed—even as they. 12 And I saw when He opened the sixth seal, and behold, a great earthquake came, and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood, 13 and the stars of Heaven fell to the earth—as a fig tree casts her unripe figs, being shaken by a great wind— 14 and the sky departed as a scroll rolled up, and every mountain and island were moved out of their places; 15 and the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich, and the chiefs of thousands, and the mighty, and every servant, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains, 16 and they say to the mountains and to the rocks, “Fall on us, and hide us from the face of Him who is sitting on the throne, and from the anger of the Lamb,” 17 because the great day of His anger has come, and who is able to stand?

7 And after these things I saw four messengers, standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind may not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree; 2 and I saw another messenger going up from the rising of the sun, having a seal of the living God, and he cried with a great voice to the four messengers, to whom it was given to injure the land and the sea, saying, 3 “Do not injure the land, nor the sea, nor the trees, until we may seal the servants of our God on their foreheads.” 4 And I heard the number of those sealed—one hundred forty-four thousand, having been sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel: 5 of the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed; 6 of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand were sealed; 7 of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed; 8 of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed; of the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed. 9 After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no one was able to number, out of all nations, and tribes, and peoples, and tongues, standing before the throne, and before the Lamb, having been clothed [in] white robes, and palms in their hands, 10 and crying with a great voice, saying, "Salvation to our God, the [One] sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb!" 11 And all the messengers stood around the throne, and the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces and worshiped God, 12 saying, "Amen! The blessing, and the glory, and the wisdom, and the thanksgiving, and the honor, and the power, and the strength, [are] to our God through the ages of the ages! Amen!" (aiōn g165) 13 And one of the elders answered, saying to me, "These having been clothed with the white robes, who are they, and from where have they come?" 14 And I have said to him, "Lord, you have known"; and he said to me, "These are those who are coming out of the Great Tribulation, and they made their robes white in the blood of the Lamb; 15 because of this they are before the throne of God, and they do service to Him day and night in His temple, and He who is sitting on the throne will dwell over them; 16 they will not hunger anymore, nor may the sun fall on them, nor any heat, 17 because the Lamb that [is] in the midst of the throne will feed them, and will lead them to living fountains of waters, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

the throne, 4 and the smoke of the incenses, with the prayers of the holy ones, went up before God out of the hand of the messenger; 5 and the messenger took the censer, and filled it out of the fire of the altar, and cast [it] to the earth, and there came voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake. 6 And the seven messengers who are having the seven trumpets prepared themselves that they may sound the trumpets; 7 and the first messenger sounded the trumpet, and there came hail and fire, mingled with blood, and it was cast to the earth, and the third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was standing before the throne, and before the Lamb, burned up. 8 And the second messenger sounded the trumpet, and [something] like a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea, and the third of the sea became blood, 9 and the third of the creatures in the sea died, those having life, and the third of the ships were destroyed. 10 And the third messenger sounded the trumpet, and there fell out of the sky a great star, burning as a lamp, and it fell on the third of the rivers, and on the fountains of waters, 11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood, and the third of the waters become wormwood, and many of the men died [because] of the waters, because they were made bitter. 12 And the fourth messenger sounded the trumpet, and the third of the sun was struck, and the third of the moon, and the third of the stars, that the third of them may be darkened, and that the day may not shine—the third of it, and the night in like manner. 13 And I saw, and I heard one messenger, flying in midair, saying with a great voice, "Woe, woe, woe, to those dwelling on the earth because of the rest of the voices of the trumpet of the three messengers being about to sound trumpets."

8 And when He opens the seventh seal, there came silence in Heaven about half an hour, 2 and I saw the seven messengers who have stood before God, and there were given to them seven trumpets, 3 and another messenger came, and he stood at the altar, having a golden censer, and there was given to him much incense, that he may give [it] to the prayers of all the holy ones on the golden altar that [is] before

9 And the fifth messenger sounded the trumpet, and I saw a star having fallen to the earth out of Heaven, and there was given to him the key of the pit of the abyss, (Abyssos g12) 2 and [he] opened the pit of the abyss, and there came up a smoke out of the pit as smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened from the smoke of the pit. (Abyssos g12) 3 And out of the smoke came forth locusts to the earth, and there was given to them authority, as scorpions of the earth have authority, 4 and it was said to them that they may not injure the grass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads, 5 and it was given to them that they may not kill them, but that they may be tormented five months, and their torment—as the torment of a scorpion—when it may strike a man; 6 and in those days men will seek death and they will not find it, and they will desire to die, and death will flee from them. 7 And the likenesses of the locusts—like to horses made ready to battle, and on their heads [something] as garlands like gold, and their faces as faces of men, 8 and they had hair as hair of women, and their teeth were as [those] of lions, 9 and they had breastplates as breastplates of iron, and the noise of their wings—as the noise of chariots of many horses running to battle; 10 and they have tails like to scorpions, and stings were in their tails; and their authority [is] to injure men five months; 11 and they have over them a king—the messenger of the abyss—a name [is] to him in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek he has a name, Apollyon. (Abyssos g12) 12 The first woe went forth, behold, there yet come two woes after these things. 13 And the sixth messenger sounded the trumpet, and I heard a voice out of the four horns of the altar of gold that is before God, 14 saying to the sixth messenger who had the trumpet, “Loose the four messengers who are bound at the great river Euphrates”; 15 and the four messengers were loosed, who have been made ready for the hour, and day, and month, and year, that they may kill the third of mankind; 16 and the number of the forces of the horsemen—twice ten thousand ten thousands, and I heard the number of them. 17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those sitting on them, having breastplates of fire, and jacinth, and brimstone; and the heads of the horses [are] as heads of lions, and out of their mouths proceed fire, and smoke, and brimstone; 18 by these three plagues the third of mankind was killed, from the fire, and from the smoke, and from the brimstone, that is proceeding out of their mouths, 19 for the power of the horses are in their mouth, and in their tails, for their tails [are] like serpents, having heads, and they injure with them. 20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed in these plagues, neither converted from the works of their hands, that they may not worship the demons, and idols, those of gold, and those of silver, and those of brass, and those of stone, and those of wood, that are neither able to see, nor to hear, nor to walk, 21 and they did not convert from their murders, nor from their sorceries, nor from their whoredoms, nor from their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong messenger coming down out of Heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a rainbow on the head, and his face as the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire, 2 and he had in his hand a little scroll opened, and he placed his right foot on the sea, and the left on the land, 3 and he cried with a great voice, as a lion roars, and when he cried, the seven thunders spoke out their voices; 4 and when the seven thunders spoke their voices, I was about to write, and I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, “Seal the things that the seven thunders spoke,” and, “You may not write these things.” 5 And the messenger whom I saw standing on the sea, and on the land, lifted up his hand to the sky, 6 and swore by Him who lives through the ages of the ages, who created the sky and the things in it, and the land and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it—that time will not be yet, (aiōn g165) 7 but in the days of the voice of the seventh messenger, when he may be about to sound the trumpet, and the secret of God may be accomplished, as He declared to His own servants, to the prophets. 8 And the voice that I heard out of Heaven is again speaking with me, and saying, “Go, take the little scroll that is open in the hand of the messenger who has been standing on the sea, and on the land”: 9 and I went away to the messenger, saying to him, “Give me the little scroll”; and he says to me, “Take, and eat it up, and it will make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.” 10 And I took the little scroll out of the hand of the messenger, and ate it up, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey, and when I ate it my belly was made bitter; 11 and he says to me, “You must again prophesy about many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.”

11 And there was given to me a reed like to a rod, [[and the messenger stood,]] saying, “Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and those worshiping in it; 2 and leave out the court that is outside the temple, and you may not measure it, because it was given to the nations, and they will tread down the holy city forty-two months; 3 who is coming, because You have taken Your great and I will give to My two witnesses, and they will power and reigned; 18 and the nations were angry, prophesy one thousand, two hundred, sixty days, and Your anger came, and the time of the dead to clothed with sackcloth"; 4 these are the two olive be judged, and to give the reward to Your servants, [trees], and the two lampstands that stand before the to the prophets, and to the holy ones, and to those God of the earth; 5 and if anyone may will to injure fearing Your Name, to the small and to the great, and them, fire proceeds out of their mouth, and devours to destroy those who are destroying the earth." 19 their enemies, and if anyone may will to injure them, And the temple of God was opened in Heaven, and thus it is required of him to be killed. 6 These have the Ark of His Covenant was seen in His temple, and authority to shut the sky, that rain may not rain in there came lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and the days of their prophecy, and they have authority an earthquake, and great hail.

over the waters to turn them to blood, and to strike the land with every plague, as often as they may will. 7 And when they may finish their testimony, the beast that is coming up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them, (Abyssos g12) 8 and their body [is] on the street of the great city that is called spiritually Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified, 9 and they gaze—[those] of the peoples, and tribes, and tongues, and nations—on their dead bodies three and a half days, and they will not allow their dead bodies to be put into tombs, 10 and those dwelling on the earth will rejoice over them, and will make merry, and they will send gifts to one another, because these—the two prophets—tormented those dwelling on the earth. 11 And after the three and a half days, [the] Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell on those beholding them, 12 and they heard a great voice out of Heaven saying to them, "Come up here"; and they went up to Heaven in the cloud, and their enemies beheld them; 13 and in that hour a great earthquake came, and the tenth of the city fell, and seven thousand names of men were killed in the earthquake, and the rest became frightened, and they gave glory to the God of Heaven. 14 The second woe went forth, behold, the third woe comes quickly. 15 And the seventh messenger sounded the trumpet, and there came great voices in Heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of the world became [those] of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign through the ages of the ages!" (aiōn g165) 16 And the twenty-four elders, who are sitting on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17 saying, "We give thanks to You, O LORD God, the Almighty, who is, and who was, and

12 And a great sign was seen in the sky: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a garland of twelve stars, 2 and having [a child] in [her] womb she cries out, travailing and being in pain to bring forth. 3 And there was seen another sign in the sky, and behold, a great fire-colored dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads, 4 and his tail draws the third of the stars of the sky, and he cast them to the earth; and the dragon stood before the woman who is about to bring forth, that when she may bring forth, he may devour her child; 5 and she brought forth a male son, who is about to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, and her child was snatched up to God and to His throne, 6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place made ready from God, that there they may nourish her—one thousand, two hundred, sixty days. 7 And there came war in Heaven: Michael and his messengers warred against the dragon, and the dragon and his messengers warred, 8 and they did not prevail, nor was their place found anymore in Heaven; 9 and the great dragon was cast forth—the old serpent, who is called "Devil," and "Satan," who is leading the whole world astray—he was cast forth to the earth, and his messengers were cast forth with him. 10 And I heard a great voice saying in Heaven, "Now came the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom, of our God, and the authority of His Christ, because the accuser of our brothers was cast down, who is accusing them before our God day and night; 11 and they overcame him because of the blood of the Lamb, and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life—to death; 12 because of this be glad, you heavens, and those who dwell in them; woe to those inhabiting the earth and the sea, the faith of the holy ones. 11 And I saw another beast because the Devil went down to you, having great coming up out of the earth, and it had two horns like wrath, having known that he has [a] short time." 12 a lamb, and it was speaking as a dragon, 13 and all And when the dragon saw that he was cast forth to the authority of the first beast does it do before it, and the earth, he pursued the woman who brought forth it makes the earth and those dwelling in it that they the male, 14 and there were given to the woman two will worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was wings of the great eagle, that she may fly into the healed, 13 and it does great signs, that fire also it wilderness, to her place, where she is nourished a may make to come down from the sky to the earth time, and times, and half a time, from the face of before men, 14 and it leads astray those dwelling the serpent; 15 and the serpent cast forth out of his on the earth, because of the signs that were given it mouth water as a river after the woman, that he may to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on cause her to be carried away by the river, 16 and the the earth to make an image to the beast that has the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its wound of the sword and lived, 15 and there was given mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon cast to it to give a spirit to the image of the beast, that also forth out of his mouth; 17 and the dragon was angry the image of the beast may speak, and it may cause against the woman, and went away to make war with as many as will not worship the image of the beast, the rest of her seed, those keeping the commands of that they may be killed. 18 And it makes all, the small, God, and having the testimony of Jesus.

13 And I stood on the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and ten crowns on its horns, and on its heads names of slander, 2 and the beast that I saw was like to a leopard, and its feet as of a bear, and its mouth as the mouth of a lion, and the dragon gave to it his power, and his throne, and great authority. 3 And I saw one of its heads as slain to death, and its deadly wound was healed, and all the earth wondered after the beast, 4 and they worshiped the dragon who gave authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who [is] like to the beast? Who is able to war with it?" 5 And there was given to it a mouth speaking great things, and slanders, and there was given to it authority to make war forty-two months, 6 and it opened its mouth for slander toward God, to slander His Name, and of His dwelling place, and of those who dwell in Heaven, 7 and there was given to it to make war with the holy Lamb wherever He may go; these were bought from him, whose names have not been written in the Scroll of Life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world; 9 if anyone has an ear—let him hear: 10 if anyone [goes] into captivity, into captivity he goes; if anyone is to be killed with sword, it is necessary of him by sword to be killed; here is the endurance and

and the great, and the rich, and the poor, and the freemen, and the servants, that it may give to them a mark on their right hand or on their foreheads, 17 and that no one may be able to buy, or to sell, except he who is having the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. 18 Here is the wisdom! He who is having the understanding, let him count the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and its number: six hundred sixty-six.

14 And I saw, and behold, a Lamb was standing on Mount Zion, and with Him one hundred forty-four thousand, having the Name of His Father written on their foreheads; 2 and I heard a voice out of Heaven, as a voice of many waters, and as a voice of great thunder, and I heard a voice of harpists harping with their harps, 3 and they sing, as it were, a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders, and no one was able to learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand who have been bought from the earth; 4 these are they who were not defiled with women, for they are virgin; these are they who are following the Lamb wherever He may go; these were bought from among men—a first-fruit to God and to the Lamb— 5 and in their mouth there was not found guile, for they are unblemished before the throne of God. 6 And I saw another messenger flying in midair, having continuous good news to proclaim to those dwelling on the earth, and to every nation, and tribe, and

tongue, and people, (aiōnios g166) 7 saying in a great voice, "Fear God, and give to Him glory, because the hour of His judgment came, and worship Him who made the sky, and the land, and sea, and fountains of waters." 8 And another messenger followed, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, because of the wine of the wrath of her whoredom she has given to all nations to drink." 9 And a third messenger followed them, saying in a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10 he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God that has been mingled unmixed in the cup of His anger, and he will be tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy messengers, and before the Lamb, 11 and the smoke of their torment goes up through ages of ages; and they have no rest day and night, who are worshiping the beast and his image, also if any receive the mark of his name. (aiōn g165) 12 Here is endurance of the holy ones; here [are] those keeping the commands of God, and the faith of Jesus." 13 And I heard a voice out of Heaven saying to me, "Write: Blessed are the dead who are dying in the LORD from this time!" "Yes," says the Spirit, "That they may rest from their labors—and their works follow them!" 14 And I saw, and behold, a white cloud, and on the cloud [One] sitting like [a] Son of Man, having on His head a golden garland, and in His hand a sharp sickle; 15 and another messenger came forth out of the temple crying in a great voice to Him who is sitting on the cloud, "Send forth Your sickle and reap, because the hour of reaping has come to You, because the harvest of the earth has been ripe"; 16 and He who is sitting on the cloud put forth His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped. 17 And another messenger came forth out of the temple that [is] in Heaven, having—he also—a sharp sickle, 18 and another messenger came forth out from the altar, having authority over the fire, and he called with a great cry to him having the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because her grapes have come to perfection"; 19 and the messenger put forth his sickle to the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast [it] into the great winepress of the outside of the city, and blood came forth out of the winepress—to the bridles of the horses, one thousand six hundred stadia.

15 And I saw another sign in the sky, great and wonderful: seven messengers having the seven last plagues, because in these the wrath of God was completed, 2 and I saw as a sea of glass mingled with fire, and those who gain the victory over the beast, and his image, and his mark, [and] the number of his name, standing by the sea of the glass, having harps of God, 3 and they sing the song of Moses, servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and wonderful [are] Your works, O LORD God, the Almighty, righteous and true [are] Your ways, O King of holy ones! 4 Who may not fear You, O LORD, and glorify Your Name? Because You alone [are] holy, because all the nations will come and worship before You, because Your righteous acts were revealed." 5 And after these things I saw, and behold, the temple of the Dwelling Place of the Testimony was opened in Heaven; 6 and the seven messengers having the seven plagues came forth out of the temple, clothed in linen, pure and radiant, and girded around the breasts with golden girdles: 7 and one of the four living creatures gave to the seven messengers seven golden bowls, full of the wrath of God, who is living through the ages of the ages; (aiōn g165) 8 and the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from His power, and no one was able to enter into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven messengers may be completed.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven messengers, "Go away, and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God into the earth"; 2 and the first went away, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and there came a sore—bad and grievous—to men, those having the mark of the beast, and those worshiping his image. 3 And the second messenger poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of [one] dead, and every living soul in the sea died. 4 And the third messenger poured out his bowl into the rivers, and into the fountains of the waters, and there came blood, 5 and I heard the messenger of the waters, saying, "Righteous, O wrath of God; 20 and the winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came forth out of the winepress—to the bridles of the horses, one thousand six hundred stadia.

will be.]] the Holy [One], because You judged these things, 6 because they poured out [the] blood of holy ones and prophets, and You gave to them blood to drink, for they are worthy"; 7 and I heard another out of the altar, saying, "Yes, LORD God, the Almighty, true and righteous [are] Your judgments." 8 And the fourth messenger poured out his bowl on the sun, and there was given to him to scorch men with fire, 9 and men were scorched with great heat, and they slandered the Name of God, who has authority over these plagues, and they did not convert—to give to Him glory. 10 And the fifth messenger poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom became darkened, and they were gnawing their tongues from the pain, 11 and they slandered the God of Heaven, from their pains, and from their sores, and they did not convert from their works. 12 And the sixth messenger poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates, and its water was dried up, that the way of the kings who are from the rising of the sun may be made ready; 13 and I saw [come] out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs— 14 for they are spirits of demons, doing signs—which go forth to the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to bring them together to the battle of that great day of God the Almighty. 15 ("Behold, I come as a thief; blessed [is] he who is watching, and keeping his garments, that he may not walk naked, and they may see his unseemliness.") 16 And they brought them together to the place that is called in Hebrew Armageddon. 17 And the seventh messenger poured out his bowl on the air, and there came forth a great voice from the temple of Heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18 And there came voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and a great earthquake came, such as has not come since men came on the earth, so mighty an earthquake—so great! 19 And it came—the great city—into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and Babylon the great was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the wrath of His anger, 20 and every island fled away, and mountains were not found, 21 and great hail (as of talent weight) comes down out of the sky on men, and men slandered God because of the plague of the hail, because its plague is very great.

17 And there came one of the seven messengers, who were having the seven bowls, and he spoke with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show to you the judgment of the great whore, who is sitting on the many waters, 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed whoredom; and those inhabiting the earth were made drunk from the wine of her whoredom"; 3 and he carried me away to a wilderness in the Spirit, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of slander, having seven heads and ten horns, 4 and the woman was clothed with purple and scarlet-color, and gilded with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and uncleanness of her whoredom, 5 and on her forehead was a name written: "SECRET, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE WHORES, AND THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH." 6 And I saw the woman drunken from the blood of the holy ones, and from the blood of the witnesses of Jesus, and I wondered—having seen her—with great wonder; 7 and the messenger said to me, "For this reason did you wonder? I will tell you the secret of the woman and of the beast that [is] carrying her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. 8 The beast that you saw: it was, and it is not, and it is about to come up out of the abyss, and to go away to destruction, and those dwelling on the earth will wonder, whose names have not been written on the Scroll of Life from the foundation of the world, beholding the beast that was, and is not, although it is. (Abyssos g12) 9 Here [is] the mind that is having wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits, 10 and there are seven kings, the five fell, and the one is, the other did not yet come, and when he may come, it is necessary for him to remain a short time; 11 and the beast that was, and is not, he also is eighth, and he is out of the seven, and he goes away to destruction. 12 And the ten horns that you saw are ten kings who did not yet receive a kingdom, but receive authority as kings one hour with the beast; 13 these have one mind, and they will give over their own power and authority to the beast; 14 these will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords, and King of kings, and those with Him are called, no one buys their cargo anymore; 12 cargo of gold, and chosen, and steadfast." 15 And he says to me, "The waters that you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues; 16 and the ten horns that you saw, and the beast, these will hate the whore, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her in fire, 17 for God gave into their hearts to do His purpose, and to make one purpose, and to give their kingdom to the beast until the sayings of God may be fulfilled, 18 and the woman that you saw is the great city that is having reign over the kings of the earth."

18 And after these things I saw another messenger coming down out of Heaven, having great authority, and the earth was lightened from his glory, 2 and he cried in might [with] a great voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! And she became a habitation of demons, and a hold of every unclean spirit, and a hold of every unclean and hateful bird, 3 because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her whoredom, and the kings of the earth committed whoredom with her, and merchants of the earth were made rich from the power of her indulgence." 4 And I heard another voice out of Heaven, saying, "Come forth out of her, My people, that you may not partake with her sins, and that you may not receive of her plagues, 5 because her sins have reached up to Heaven, and God remembered her unrighteousness. 6 Render to her as she also rendered to you, and double to her twofold according to her works; in the cup that she mingled mingle to her double. 7 As much as she glorified herself and indulged, so much torment and sorrow give to her, because in her heart she says, I sit [as] queen, and I am not a widow, and I will not see sorrow; 8 because of this, in one day, will come her plagues: death, and sorrow, and famine; and she will be utterly burned in fire, because strong [is] the LORD God who is judging her; 9 and the kings of the earth will weep over her and strike themselves for her, who committed whoredom and indulged with her, when they may see the smoke of her burning, 10 having stood from afar because of the fear of her torment, saying, Woe, woe, the great city! Babylon, the strong city! Because in one hour your judgment came. 11 And the merchants of the earth will weep and mourn over her, because linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all fragrant wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel of fine flour, and wheat, and cattle, and sheep, and of horses, and of chariots, and of bodies and souls of men. 14 And the fruits of the desire of your soul went away from you, and all things—the sumptuous and the radiant—went away from you, and no more at all may you find them. 15 The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far off because of the fear of her torment, weeping, and mourning, 16 and saying, Woe, woe, the great city, that was clothed with fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and gilded in gold, and precious stone, and pearls— 17 because in one hour so much riches were made desolate! And every shipmaster, and all the company on the ships, and sailors, and as many as work the sea, stood far off, 18 and were crying, seeing the smoke of her burning, saying, What [city is] like to the great city? 19 And they cast dust on their heads, and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, Woe, woe, the great city! In which were made rich all having ships in the sea, out of her costliness—for in one hour was she made desolate. 20 Be glad over her, O Heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets, because God judged your judgment of her!" 21 And one strong messenger took up a stone as a great millstone, and cast [it] into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon be cast, the great city, and may not be found anymore at all; 22 and voice of harpists, and musicians, and pipers, and trumpeters, may not be heard at all in you anymore; and any craftsman of any craft may not be found at all in you anymore; and noise of a millstone may not be heard at all in you anymore; 23 and light of a lamp may not shine at all in you anymore; and voice of bridegroom and of bride may not be heard at all in you anymore; because your merchants were the great ones of the earth, because all the nations were led astray in your sorcery, 24 and in her blood of prophets and of holy ones was found, and of all those who have been slain on the earth."

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of a great multitude in Heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! The salvation, and the glory, and the power [belong] to the LORD our God; 2 because true and righteous [are] His judgments, because He judged the great whore who corrupted the earth in her whoredom, and He avenged the blood of His servants at her hand"; 3 and a second time they said, "Hallelujah"; and her smoke comes up through the ages of the ages! (g165) 4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and they worshiped God who is sitting on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!" 5 And a voice out of the throne came forth, saying, "Praise our God, all you His servants, and those fearing Him, both the small and the great"; 6 and I heard as the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, "Hallelujah! Because our Lord, the God, the Almighty, has reigned! 7 May we rejoice and exult, and give the glory to Him, because the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife has made herself ready; 8 and there was given to her that she may be clothed with fine linen, pure and radiant, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the holy ones." 9 And he says to me, "Write: Blessed [are] they who have been called to the banquet of the marriage of the Lamb"; and he says to me, "These [are] the true words of God"; 10 and I fell before his feet to worship him, and he says to me, "Behold—No! I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers, those having the testimony of Jesus; worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of the prophecy." 11 And I saw Heaven having been opened, and behold, a white horse, and He who is sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war, 12 and His eyes [are] as a flame of fire, and on His head [are] many crowns—having a Name written that no one has known, except Himself, 13 and He is clothed with a garment covered with blood, and His Name is called, The Word of God. 14 And the armies in Heaven were following Him on white horses, clothed in fine linen—white and pure; 15 and out of His mouth proceeds a sharp sword, that with it He may strike the nations, and He will rule them with a rod of iron, and He treads the press of the wine of the wrath and the anger of God the Almighty,

16 and He has on the garment and on His thigh the name written: "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS." 17 And I saw one messenger standing in the sun, and he cried [with] a great voice, saying to all the birds that are flying in midair, "Come and be gathered together to the banquet of the great God [for the great banquet of God]], 18 that you may eat flesh of kings, and flesh of chiefs of thousands, and flesh of strong men, and flesh of horses, and of those sitting on them, and the flesh of all—freemen and servants—both small and great." 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, having been gathered together to make war with Him who is sitting on the horse, and with His army; 20 and the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who did the signs before him, in which he led astray those who received the mark of the beast, and those who worshiped his image; the two were cast living into the lake of fire that is burning with brimstone; (Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 21 and the rest were killed with the sword of Him who is sitting on the horse, which is proceeding out of His mouth, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw a messenger coming down out of Heaven, having the key of the abyss, and a great chain over his hand, (Abyssos g12) 2 and he laid hold on the dragon, the ancient serpent, who is [the] Devil and Satan, and bound him one thousand years, 3 and he cast him into the abyss, and shut him up, and put a seal on him, that he may no longer lead the nations astray, until the one thousand years may be completed; and after these it is necessary for him to be loosed a short time. (Abyssos g12) 4 And I saw thrones, and they [that] sat on them, and judgment was given to them, and the souls of those who have been beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus, and because of the word of God, and who did not worship the beast, nor his image, and did not receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand, and they lived and reigned with the Christ one thousand years; 5 and the rest of the dead did not live again until the one thousand years may be completed; this [is] the first resurrection. 6 Blessed and holy—he who is having part in the first resurrection; the second death has no authority over these, but they will be priests of God and of the Christ, and will reign with Him

one thousand years. 7 And when the one thousand years may be completed, Satan will be loosed out of his prison, 8 and he will go forth to lead the nations astray, that are in the four corners of the earth—Gog and Magog—to gather them together to war, of whom the number—as the sand of the sea; 9 and they went up over the breadth of the land, and surrounded the camp of the holy ones, and the beloved city, and there came down fire from God out of Heaven, and devoured them; 10 and the Devil, who is leading them astray, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the beast and the false prophet [are], and they will be tormented day and night through the ages of the ages. (aiōn g165, Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 11 And I saw a great white throne, and Him who is sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the sky fled away, and no place was found for them; 12 and I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and scrolls were opened, and another scroll was opened, which is that of the life, and the dead were judged out of the things written in the scrolls—according to their works; 13 and the sea gave up those dead in it, and death and Hades gave up the dead in them, and they were judged, each one according to their works; (Hadēs g86) 14 and death and Hades were cast into the lake of the fire—this [is] the second death; (Hadēs g86, Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 15 and if anyone was not found written in the Scroll of Life, he was cast into the lake of the fire. (Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442)

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth passed away, and the sea is no more; 2 and I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband; 3 and I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, “Behold, the dwelling place of God [is] with men, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His peoples, and God Himself will be with them [as] their God, 4 and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying, nor will there be anymore pain, because the first things passed away.” 5 And He who is sitting on the throne said, “Behold, I make all things new”; and He says to me, “Write, because these words are true and steadfast”; 6 and He said to me, “It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsting, I will give of the fountain of the water of life freely. 7 The [one] who is overcoming will inherit all things, and I will be his God, and he will be My son. 8 But to fearful, and unsteadfast, and abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all the liars, their part [is] in the lake that is burning with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.” (Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442) 9 And one of the seven messengers, having the seven bowls that are full of the seven last plagues, came and spoke with me, saying, “Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb,” 10 and he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the great city, the holy Jerusalem, coming down out of Heaven from God, 11 having the glory of God, and her light—like a most precious stone, as a jasper stone clear as crystal, 12 also having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve messengers, and names written thereon, which are [those] of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel— 13 at the east three gates, at the north three gates, at the south three gates, at the west three gates; 14 and the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. 15 And he who is speaking with me had a golden reed, that he may measure the city, and its gates, and its wall; 16 and the city lies square, and the length of it is as great as the breadth; and he measured the city with the reed—twelve thousand stadia; the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equal. 17 And he measured its wall—one hundred forty-four cubits, the measure of a man, that is, of the messenger; 18 and the building of its wall was jasper, and the city [is] pure gold—like to pure glass. 19 And the foundations of the wall of the city have been adorned with every precious stone: the first foundation jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates [are] twelve pearls, each one of the gates respectively was of one pearl; and the street of the city [is] pure gold—as transparent glass. 22 And I did not see a temple in it, for the LORD God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple. 23 And the city has no need of the sun, nor of the moon, that they may shine in it; for the glory of God lightens it, and the lamp of it—the Lamb; 24 and the nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it, 25 and its gates will never be shut by day, for night will not be there; 26 and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it; 27 and there may never enter into it anything defiling and doing abomination, and a lie, if not those written in the Lamb's Scroll of Life.

of life, radiant as crystal, going forth out of the throne of God and of the Lamb 2 in the midst of its street, and of the river on this side and on that—[the] Tree of Life, producing twelve fruits, yielding its fruit according to each month, and the leaves of the tree [are] for the healing of the nations; 3 and there will no longer be any curse, and the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and His servants will serve Him, 4 and they will see His face, and His Name [is] on their foreheads, 5 and there will be no night there, and they have no need of [the] light of a lamp and of [the] light of [the] sun, because the LORD God gives them light, and they will reign through the ages of the ages.

(aion g165) 6 And he said to me, "These words [are] steadfast and true, and the LORD God of the holy prophets sent His messenger to show to His servants the things that must come quickly. 7 Behold, I come quickly; blessed [is] he who is keeping the words of the prophecy of this scroll." 8 And I, John, am he who is seeing these things and hearing, and when I heard and beheld, I fell down to worship before the feet of the messenger who is showing me these things; 9 and he says to me, "Behold—No! For I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those keeping the words of this scroll; worship God." 10 And He says to me, "You may not seal the words of the prophecy of this scroll, because the time is near. 11 The [one] being unrighteous—let him be unrighteous still; and the filthy—let him be filthy still; and the righteous—let him do righteousness still; and the holy—let him be holy still. 12 Behold, I come quickly, and My reward [is] with Me, to render to each as his work will be; 13 I am the Alpha and the Omega—the Beginning and End—the First and the Last. 14 Blessed are those washing their robes that the authority will be theirs to the Tree of Life, and they may enter into the city by the gates; 15 and outside [are] the dogs, and the sorcerers, and the whoremongers, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and everyone cherishing and doing falsehood. 16 I, Jesus, sent My messenger to testify to you these things concerning the assemblies; I am the root and the offspring of David, the radiant morning star! 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come! And he who is hearing—let him say, Come! And he who is thirsting—let him come; and he who is willing—let him take the water of life freely. 18 For I testify to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this scroll, if anyone may add to these, God will add to him the plagues that have been written in this scroll, 19 and if anyone may take away from the words of the scroll of this prophecy, God will take away his part from the Scroll of Life, and out of the holy city, and the things that have been written in this scroll." 20 The [One] testifying [to] these things says, "Yes, I come quickly!" Amen. Come, Lord Jesus! 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ [is] with all [[the holy ones. Amen.]]

The New Jerusalem

And I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of Heaven, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband; and I heard a great voice out of Heaven, saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God [is] with men, and He will dwell with them, and they will be His peoples, and God Himself will be with them [as] their God,

Reader's Guide

AionianBible.org/Readers-Guide

The Aionian Bible republishes public domain and Creative Common Bible texts that are 100% free to copy and print. The original translation is unaltered and notes are added to help your study. The notes show the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies.

Who has the authority to interpret the Bible and examine the underlying Hebrew and Greek words? That is a good question! We read in 1 John 2:27, "As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you do not need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you remain in him." Every Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible! Now that does not mean we will all agree. Each of us is still growing in our understanding of the truth. However, it does mean that there is no infallible human or tradition to answer all our questions. Instead the Holy Spirit helps each of us to know the truth and grow closer to God and each other.

The Bible is a library with 66 books in the Protestant Canon. The best way to learn God's word is to read entire books. Read the book of Genesis. Read the book of John. Read the entire Bible library. Topical studies and cross-referencing can be good. However, the safest way to understand context and meaning is to read whole Bible books. Chapter and verse numbers were added for convenience in the 16th century, but unfortunately they can cause the Bible to seem like an encyclopedia. The Aionian Bible is formatted with simple verse numbering, minimal notes, and no cross-referencing in order to encourage the reading of Bible books.

Bible reading must also begin with prayer. Any Christian is qualified to interpret the Bible with God's help. However, this freedom is also a responsibility because without the Holy Spirit we cannot interpret accurately. We read in 1 Corinthians 2:13-14, "And we speak of these things, not with words taught by human wisdom, but with those taught by the Spirit, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. Now the natural person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are spiritually discerned." So we cannot understand in our natural self, but we can with God's help through prayer.

The Holy Spirit is the best writer and he uses literary devices such as introductions, conclusions, paragraphs, and metaphors. He also writes various genres including historical narrative, prose, and poetry. So Bible study must spiritually discern and understand literature. Pray, read, observe, interpret, and apply. Finally, "Do your best to present yourself approved by God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, properly handling the word of truth." 2 Timothy 2:15. "God has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ," 2 Peter 1:4-8.

Glossary

AionianBible.org/Glossary

The Aionian Bible un-translates and instead transliterates eleven special words to help us better understand the extent of God's love for individuals and all mankind, and the nature of afterlife destinies. The original translation is unaltered and a note is added to 64 Old Testament and 200 New Testament verses. Compare the meanings below to the Strong's Concordance and Glossary definitions.

Abyssos g12

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 9 times in 3 books, 6 chapters, and 9 verses

Meaning:

Temporary prison for special fallen angels such as Apollyon, the Beast, and Satan.

aīdios g126

Greek: adjective

Usage: 2 times in Romans 1:20 and Jude 6

Meaning:

Lasting, enduring forever, eternal.

aiōn g165

Greek: noun

Usage: 127 times in 22 books, 75 chapters, and 102 verses

Meaning:

A lifetime or time period with a beginning and end, an era, an age, the completion of which is beyond human perception, but known only to God the creator of the aiōns, Hebrews 1:2. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

aiōnios g166

Greek: adjective

Usage: 71 times in 19 books, 44 chapters, and 69 verses

Meaning:

From start to finish, pertaining to the age, lifetime, entirety, complete, or even consummate. Never meaning simple endless or infinite chronological time in Koine Greek usage. Read Dr. Heleen Keizer and Ramelli and Konstan for proofs.

eleēsē g1653

Greek: verb, aorist tense, active voice, subjunctive mood, 3rd person singular

Usage: 1 time in this conjugation, Romans 11:32

Meaning:

To have pity on, to show mercy. Typically, the subjunctive mood indicates possibility, not certainty. However, a subjunctive in a purpose clause is a resulting action as certain as the causal action. The subjunctive in a purpose clause functions as an indicative, not an optative. Thus, the grand conclusion of grace theology in Romans 11:32 must be clarified. God's mercy on all is not a possibility, but a certainty. See ntgreek.org.

Geenna g1067

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 12 times in 4 books, 7 chapters, and 12 verses

Meaning:

Valley of Hinnom, Jerusalem's trash dump, a place of ruin, destruction, and judgment in this life, or the next, though not eternal to Jesus' audience.

Hades g86

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 11 times in 5 books, 9 chapters, and 11 verses

Meaning:

Synonomous with Sheol, though in New Testament usage Hades is the temporal place of punishment for deceased unbelieving mankind, distinct from Paradise for deceased believers.

Limnē Pyr g3041 g4442

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: Phrase 5 times in the New Testament

Meaning:

Lake of Fire, final punishment for those not named in the Book of Life, prepared for the Devil and his angels, Matthew 25:41.

Sheol h7585

Hebrew: proper noun, place

Usage: 66 times in 17 books, 50 chapters, and 64 verses

Meaning:

The grave or temporal afterlife world of both the righteous and unrighteous, believing and unbelieving, until the general resurrection.

Tartaroō g5020

Greek: proper noun, place

Usage: 1 time in 2 Peter 2:4

Meaning:

Temporary prison for particular fallen angels awaiting final judgment.

Abraham's Journey

By faith Abraham, being called, obeyed, to go forth into the place that he was about to receive for an inheritance, and he went forth, not knowing to where he goes. - Hebrews 11:8

And it comes to pass in Pharaoh's sending the people away, that God has not led them the way of the land of the Philistines, for it [is] near; for God said, "Lest the people sigh in their seeing war, and have turned back toward Egypt"; - Exodus 13:17

For even the Son of Man did not come to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give His life [as] a ransom for many. - Mark 10:45

Destiny

AionianBible.org/Destiny

The Aionian Bible shows the location of eleven special Greek and Hebrew Aionian Glossary words to help us better understand God's love for individuals and for all mankind, and the nature of after-life destinies. The underlying Hebrew and Greek words typically translated as Hell show us that there are not just two after-life destinies, Heaven or Hell. Instead, there are a number of different locations, each with different purposes, different durations, and different inhabitants. Locations include 1) Old Testament Sheol and New Testament Hadēs, 2) Geenna, 3) Tartaroō, 4) Abyssos, 5) Limnē Pyr, 6) Paradise, 7) The New Heaven, and 8) The New Earth. So there is reason to review our conclusions about the destinies of redeemed mankind and fallen angels.

The key observation is that fallen angels will be present at the final judgment, 2 Peter 2:4 and Jude 6. Traditionally, we understand the separation of the Sheep and the Goats at the final judgment to divide believing from unbelieving mankind, Matthew 25:31-46 and Revelation 20:11-15. However, the presence of fallen angels alternatively suggests that Jesus is separating redeemed mankind from the fallen angels. We do know that Jesus is the helper of mankind and not the helper of the Devil, Hebrews 2. We also know that Jesus has atoned for the sins of all mankind, both believer and unbeliever alike, 1 John 2:1-2. Deceased believers are rewarded in Paradise, Luke 23:43, while unbelievers are punished in Hades as the story of Lazarus makes plain, Luke 16:19-31. Yet less commonly known, the punishment of this selfish man and all unbelievers is before the final judgment, is temporal, and is punctuated when Hades is evacuated, Revelation 20:13. So is there hope beyond Hades for unbelieving mankind? Jesus promised, "the gates of Hades will not prevail," Matthew 16:18. Paul asks, "Hades where is your victory?" 1 Corinthians 15:55. John wrote, "Hades gives up," Revelation 20:13.

Jesus comforts us saying, "Do not be afraid," because he holds the keys to unlock death and Hades, Revelation 1:18. Yet too often our Good News sounds like a warning to "be afraid" because Jesus holds the keys to lock Hades! Wow, we have it backwards! Hades will be evacuated! And to guarantee hope, once emptied, Hades is thrown into the Lake of Fire, never needed again, Revelation 20:14.

Finally, we read that anyone whose name is not written in the Book of Life is thrown into the Lake of Fire, the second death, with no exit ever mentioned or promised, Revelation 21:1-8. So are those evacuated from Hades then, "out of the frying pan, into the fire?" Certainly, the Lake of Fire is the destiny of the Goats. But, do not be afraid. Instead, read the Bible's explicit mention of the purpose of the Lake of Fire and the identity of the Goats, "Then he will say also to those on the left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the consummate fire which is prepared for... the devil and his angels,'" Matthew 25:41. Bad news for the Devil. Good news for all mankind!

Faith is not a pen to write your own name in the Book of Life. Instead, faith is the glasses to see that the love of Christ for all mankind has already written our names in Heaven. "If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump," Romans 11:16. Though unbelievers will suffer regrettable punishment in Hades, redeemed mankind will never enter the Lake of Fire, prepared for the devil and his angels. And as God promised, all mankind will worship Christ together forever, Philippians 2:9-11.

Having gone, then, disciple all the nations, immersing them into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, - Matthew 28:19
